Registration Statement No. 333-184193

Dated October 23, 2014

The PowerShares DBCrude Oil Long Exchange Traded Note (Symbol: OLO), PowerShares DBCrude Oil Short Exchange Traded Note (Symbol: SZO) and PowerShares DBCrude Oil Double Short Exchange Traded Note (Symbol: DTO) (collectively, the "PowerShares DBCrude Oil ETNs") provide investors a way to take along, short or leveraged view on the performance of an oil-based commodity index. All of the PowerShares DBCrude Oil ETNs are based on a total return version of the Deutsche Bank Liquid Commodity Index-- Oil, which is intended to track the long or short performance of the underlying futures contracts of a basket of oil future contracts. The Long ETN is based on the Optimum Yield[] version of the Index, and the Short and Double Short ETNs are based on the standard version of the Index. Investors can buy and sell PowerShares DBCrude Oil ETNs at market price on the NYSE Arca exchange or receive a cash payment at the scheduled maturity or early repurchase based on the month-over-month performance of the index less investor fees. Investors may offer PowerShares DBCrude Oil ETNs in blocks of no less than 200,000 securities and integral multiples of 50,000 securities thereafter for purchase, subject to the procedures described in the pricing supplement which include a fee of up to $0.03 per security.

an investment with a term greater than the time remaining until the next reset date and should be used only by knowledgeable investors who understand the potential adverse consequences of seeking longer term investment results by means of securities that reset. Investing in the ETNs is not equivalent to a direct investment in the index components because the current principal amount invested is reset each month, resulting in the compounding of returns. The principal amount is also subject to the index's fluctuations, which may adversely affect returns. The amount you receive at maturity (or upon an earlier repurchase) will be contingent upon the index value at the time of the securities' maturity. There is no guarantee of the amount you receive at maturity, or upon an earlier repurchase, or any return on that investment. Significant adverse changes in the value of your securities may not be offset by any beneficial movements in the value of the securities. The PowerShares DBCrude Oil ETNs are senior unsecured
