ASSOCIATE QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
JULY 31, 2001 - UPDATE

1. Excerpted from Mike Kilpatrick's Update: "We have started Phase 2 of the integration, where the new, fact-based, Phase 1 information will be applied in building our new company. In this phase, integration projects will be established, Day-One activities readied, and planning for Phase 3 implementation completed." Question: Is Phase 2 where the decisions about who will be laid off occur?

Phase 2 activities will focus on preparing the companies to integrate into AmeriSourceBergen. The timing of decisions regarding the future of specific positions will depend on the function or location involved. Some areas will be integrated faster than others. At this point it premature to guess on the timetable of decisions. An associate whose position is eliminated will receive a minimum of two months notice.

2. In the past 6 months we have been on the same curve as Bergen. With Bergen increasing value of more than 40% in stock price while AmeriSource has only increased more than 20%. Right now it seems that we are generating more value to Bergen stock compared to when we first heard about the merger. What do we expect or foresee the company merger doing to the value of AmeriSource stock and Bergen Stock?

It is the Company's position that it is inappropriate for management to speculate on the stock price. You are encouraged to speak to a financial advisor regarding investment advice.

3. Will salaried employees who are eligible to receive a 'potential' performance bonus for FY 2001 receive that bonus if they are released/severed prior to September 30, 2001? Or, what if they complete FY 2001, but are released/severed prior to the bonus being actually paid? (Last year it was paid in December) Would that be added to their severance pay?

Any compensation that has been earned but unpaid, including bonus, will be payable to an associate who is terminated without cause due to the merger. At this time, no layoffs associated with the merger are expected to occur before the end of this fiscal year. The timing of bonus payments has not yet been decided.

4. Will the merchandiser program still be in effect with the new merger? I understand that Bergen doesn't use merchandisers.

Edgar Filing: AMERISOURCE BERGEN CORP - Form 425

No decisions have been made regarding the position of merchandiser in the new company. Bergen has a few associates that are categorized as merchandisers but they have moved many of those functions to the Retail Account Specialist position.

5. With Phase I of the integration process completed, will there be a release of the findings to the associates? When will Phase II begin?

A summary of Phase I activities has been forwarded to the leadership groups of AmeriSource and Bergen Brunswig from Terry Haas, Sr. Vice President Strategic Integration. AmeriSource management is in the process of sharing the information with all associates. As you may know, Phase I activities focused on gathering data about each company's business processes and as a result, there is a clearer understanding of each company, an outline of Day-One activities, and a better understanding of potential synergy opportunities. Phase II has begun and is focused on taking the information gathered in Phase I and using the information to build the new Company. In addition, integration projects and migration plans will be established. Additional information on the activities in Phase II will be provided in future updates from Terry Haas as well as the integration updates from Dave Yost.

6. In the AmeriSource quarterly earnings call it was stated that holding a shareowners meeting does not have to wait for FTC approval to occur. What is the timeline for the shareowners meeting? Will the shareowners meeting for both companies be held in August?

The shareowners meetings have not yet been scheduled; however, it is anticipated that they will take place before the end of August. The notice of the shareowners meetings will be provided to all shareowners prior to the meeting.
