Exhibit	Description
99.1	First quarter 2002 unaudited interim consolidated financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (US GAAP). These financial statements are presented for informational purposes and should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements of Vivendi Universal, included in its Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2001 (the 2001 Form 20-F). Those consolidated financial statements were prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in France, however, they incorporated supplemental disclosures required under US GAAP and SEC regulations

and certain modifications designed to conform them more closely to US GAAP style financial statements. As discussed in the 2001 Form 20-F, Vivendi Universal's decision to communicate financial information on a US GAAP basis, beginning in 2002, was implemented in order to enhance comparability and interpretation of financial information across its diverse and global shareholder base.
