CVRD Receives the Environmental License to Operate Sossego

Rio de Janeiro, December 23, 2003 Companhia Vale do Rio Doce (CVRD) informs that the Secretary for Science, Technology and Environment of the state of Pará, Brazil, provided license for operation of the Sossego copper project, in Carajás, state of Pará.

Sossego is the only greenfield copper project in the world to start operations in 2004. It will be commissioned in the first quarter of 2004 and is scheduled to begin full commercial production in mid-2004, at an estimated level of 470,000 tons of copper concentrate per year, equivalent to 140,000 tons of copper metal.

This press release may contain statements that express management's expectations about future events or results rather than historical facts. These forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected in forward-looking statements, and CVRD cannot give assurance that such statements will prove correct. These risks and uncertainties include factors: relating to the Brazilian economy and securities markets, which exhibit volatility and can be adversely affected by developments in other countries; relating to the iron ore business and its dependence on the global steel industry, which is cyclical in nature; and relating to the highly competitive industries in which CVRD operates. For additional information on factors that could cause CVRD's actual results to differ from expectations reflected in forward-looking statements, please see CVRD's reports filed with the Brazilian Comissão de Valores Mobiliários and the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.
