Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Effective March 29, 2005, Valor Telecommunications of Texas L.P. d/b/a Valor Telecom, a wholly owned subsidiary of Valor Communications Group, Inc. (the Company), and AT&T Corp. (AT&T) entered into the Amended and Restated AT&T Master Carrier Agreement (the Agreement). The Agreement replaced the Master Carrier Agreement between the Company and AT&T previously executed in July, 2002. This Agreement extends the term of the original agreement to March 30, 2006. The Company may extend the term of 12 months on prior notice to AT&T. There is a 12 month ramp down period following the end of the term, during which Valor may not submit new service orders under the Agreement, but the rates and charges under the Agreement remain fixed with respect to services ordered by Valor during the term. Under the Agreement, AT&T will provide the Company with private line services, local channel services, international data satellite services and frame relay services. The rates charged by AT&T to the Company for these services vary depending on the type and volume of services used, subject to a minimum amount per month the Company is required to purchase. The Company's aggregate minimum purchase obligation under the Agreement is not material to the Company.
