ENFORCEABILITY OF CERTAIN CIVIL LIABILITIES

We are a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Guarantor and are a limited liability company with a sole shareholder (sociedad anónima unipersonal) organized under the laws of the Kingdom of Spain. Telefónica, the Guarantor, is a limited liability company (sociedad anónima) organized under the laws of the Kingdom of Spain. All of our directors and the executive officers and directors of Telefónica, and certain of the experts named in this Prospectus, are not residents of the United States. All or a substantial portion of our assets and those of Telefónica and such persons are located outside the United States. As a result, it may be difficult for you to file a lawsuit against either us or the Guarantor or such persons in the United States with respect to matters arising under the federal securities laws of the United States. It may also be difficult for you to enforce judgments obtained in U.S. courts against either us or the Guarantor or such persons based on the civil liability provisions of such laws. Provided that United States case law does not prevent the enforcement in the U.S. of Spanish judgments (as in such case, judgments obtained in the U.S. shall not be enforced in Spain), if a U.S. court grants a final judgment in an action based on the civil liability provisions of the federal securities laws of the United States, enforceability of such judgment in Spain will be subject to satisfaction of certain factors. Such factors include the absence of a conflicting judgment by a Spanish court or of an action pending in Spain among the same parties and arising from the same facts and circumstances, the Spanish courts' determination that the U.S. courts had jurisdiction, that process was appropriately served on the defendant, the regularity of the proceeding followed before the U.S. courts, the authenticity of the judgment and that enforcement would not violate Spanish public policy. In general, the enforceability in Spain of final judgments of U.S. courts does not require retrial in Spain. If an action is commenced before Spanish courts with respect to liabilities based on the U.S. federal securities laws, there is a doubt as to whether Spanish courts would have jurisdiction. Spanish courts may enter and enforce judgments in foreign currencies.

We and Telefónica have expressly submitted to the exclusive jurisdiction of any state or federal court in the Borough of Manhattan, the City of New York and any appellate court from any such court thereof for the purpose of any suit, action or proceeding arising out of the Debt Securities or the Guarantees and have appointed CT Corporation System, as our agent to accept service of process in any such action.

RISK FACTORS

You should carefully consider the risk factors contained in the prospectus supplements and the documents incorporated by reference into this Prospectus, including, but not limited to, those risk factors in Item 3.D in the Form 20-F, in deciding whether to invest in the Debt Securities being offered pursuant to this Prospectus.

RATIO OF EARNINGS TO FIXED CHARGES

The following table sets forth the Guarantor's ratio of earnings to fixed charges, using financial information compiled in accordance with (i) International Financial Reporting Standards ( IFRS ) for the year ended December 31, 2005 and 2004, and (ii) the accounting principles generally accepted in the Kingdom of Spain ( Spanish GAAP ) for the years ended December 31, 2003, 2002 and 2001:

	Year ended December 31,
IFRS Ratio of Earnings to Fixed Charges	3.86	2.88
Spanish GAAP Ratio of Earnings to Fixed Charges			2.85	(1)	2.22

(1) Earnings were inadequate to cover fixed charges by 14,013.19 million for the year ended December 31, 2002.

For the purpose of calculating ratios of earnings to fixed charges, earnings consist of net profit for the year from continuing operations, plus income tax, minority interests, share of profit or loss from equity investees, amortization of capitalized interest and fixed charges. Fixed charges consist of interest expenses, including borrowing costs, amortized premiums, discounts and other expenses related to indebtedness and capitalized interest, all calculated in euros.

Prior to January 1, 2005, the Guarantor's consolidated annual and interim financial statements were prepared in accordance with Spanish GAAP. Since January 1, 2005, the Guarantor's consolidated annual and interim financial statements, including its consolidated financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2005, are and were prepared in accordance with IFRS. The Guarantor's consolidated financial information as of and for the year ended December 31, 2004, included in its annual consolidated financial statements was restated in accordance with IFRS for comparative purposes. For quantitative information regarding the adjustments required to reconcile the Guarantor's Spanish GAAP financial information to IFRS, see Note 2 to the Guarantor's consolidated financial statements prepared under IFRS, which are included in the Form 20-F.

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED COMBINED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The unaudited pro forma financial data have been prepared by applying adjustments relating to the transactions described below to the Guarantor's historical consolidated financial statements reconciled to the accounting principles generally accepted in the United States ( U.S. GAAP ). The historical consolidated financial statements have been prepared under IFRS, and Note 23 to Telefónica's 2005 consolidated financial statements filed on Form 20-F includes an explanation of the differences between IFRS and U.S. GAAP as well as a reconciliation of net income and equity from IFRS to U.S. GAAP.

The pro forma financial data are provided for illustrative purposes only, are preliminary and do not purport to represent what the Guarantor's actual financial position or results of operations would have been had the transactions described below occurred on the respective dates assumed. The pro forma financial data are not indicative of the Guarantor's future financial position or results of operations. You are cautioned not to place undue reliance upon the pro forma financial data.

The pro forma financial data should be read in conjunction with Telefónica's consolidated financial statements and the accompanying notes included in the Form 20-F and O2's consolidated financial statements and the accompanying notes included in the Form 6-K filed by the Guarantor with the SEC on April 12, 2006.

The pro forma financial data have been prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP.

The pro forma financial data give effect to:

1. The Guarantor's agreement to acquire the minority interest in Telefónica Móviles, S.A., through an exchange of shares and subsequent merger of Telefónica Móviles with and into Telefónica. The Guarantor has assumed that the value of the total purchase consideration to be issued by the Guarantor to complete this acquisition would amount to approximately $3,194 million. For the purposes of the pro forma financial data, we have assumed that the Guarantor will be required to issue four Telefónica shares for each five Telefónica Móviles shares. Assuming this exchange ratio, the Guarantor would be required to issue approximately 245 million Telefónica shares. The number of ordinary shares of Telefónica to be delivered to Telefónica Móviles shareholders in the merger has been calculated by excluding (i) the number of Telefónica Móviles shares owned directly or indirectly by Telefónica, (ii) the number of Telefónica Móviles treasury shares and (iii) the number of shares that will be acquired by Telefónica Móviles through the execution of a call option with respect to the economic hedge of its stock option plan, and not used for the liquidation of such stock option plan, none of which shares will be a part of the merger exchange. It has been assumed that the number of shares that will not be used for the liquidation of the stock option plan (and hence will not be exchanged pursuant to the merger) will be 18,657,784 shares. In the event that the definitive number of shares not used by Telefónica Móviles in the liquidation of the stock option plan differs from this estimated number, the number of Telefónica shares to be delivered in the merger will vary accordingly. (See Note (c) below). The maximum amount of the capital increase to be carried out by Telefónica pursuant to the established exchange ratio may be reduced through the delivery of Telefónica's treasury shares.
2. The Guarantor's acquisition of O2, a European mobile telecommunication services provider, in early 2006 as a result of a public tender offer announced in October 2005 for all of the outstanding shares of O2 for £2 per share, for a total cash consideration of approximately £17.8 billion (approximately $26 billion). On January 23, 2006, the Guarantor's tender offer for O2 was declared unconditional in accordance with the rules of the U.K. City Code on Takeovers and Mergers. In February 2006 the Guarantors initiated the process of compulsory acquisition of the remaining O2 shares in respect of which the offer had not been accepted. This process was closed on April 6, 2006, resulting in the acquisition by the Guarantor of the remaining interest in O2. Additionally, effective on March 7, 2006 the O2 shares were de-listed from the Official List and their admission to trading on the London Stock Exchange's market for listed securities was cancelled.

The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated income statements for the twelve months ended December 31, 2005 reflect the transactions described above as if they had occurred on January 1, 2005. The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2005, reflects the transactions described above as if they had occurred on December 31, 2005. The Guarantor's fiscal year ends on December 31. As O2's fiscal year ended on March 31, 2005, we have made certain adjustments to the O2 historical financial data for purposes of preparing the pro forma financial data. These adjustments are discussed in note (a) below.

The unaudited pro forma financial data do not reflect:

1. acquisitions other than those described above made during year 2005 and up to April 12, 2006 that would not have a material effect on the Guarantor's pro forma financial position or results of operations; and
2. probable acquisitions other than those described above, that would not have a material effect on the Guarantor's pro forma financial position or results of operations.

(a) O2's fiscal year ended on March 31, 2005, which differs from the Guarantor's fiscal year end. Consequently, for the purpose of presenting the pro forma condensed consolidated income statement, we have prepared the financial data presented for O2 to reflect its results of operations for the twelve-month period ended December 31, 2005.

The calculation of the results of operations of O2 for the twelve-month period from January 1, 2005 to December 31, 2005 shows the aggregate of its results of operations for the following periods:

Three-month period from January 1, 2005 to March 31, 2005 (Interims not published and prepared in accordance with IFRS);

Six-month period from March 31, 2005 to September 30, 2005 (Published interims prepared in accordance with IFRS); and

Three-month period from October 1, 2005 to December 31, 2005 (Interims not published prepared in accordance with IFRS).

The necessary conversion adjustments have been considered in order to present the required pro forma financial information in accordance with U.S. GAAP.

For the purposes of presenting the pro forma condensed consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2005, we have used the O2 consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2005 and restated the amounts from pounds into euros using the exchange rate in effect at December 31, 2005 (0.6853 pounds per euro). For the purposes of presenting the pro forma condensed consolidated income statement for the year ended December 31, 2005, we have used the O2 consolidated results of operations for the twelve-month period ended December 31, 2005 and restated the amounts from pounds into euros using the average exchange rate for such period (0.6839 pounds per euro).

We have excluded from the O2 consolidated income statement two non-recurring items which occurred in the twelve-month period ended December 31, 2005 that fall outside the ordinary activities of the company and do not have a continuing impact on Telefónica in the future, as follows:

In March 2005, a charge totaling £20 million (approximately, 29 million) relating to the costs of the capital reorganization to introduce O2 as the new listed holding company of the mmO2 plc group. The purpose of the reorganization was to create distributable reserves and allow the implementation of the O2 Group's distribution policy. Subsequently O2 also de-listed from the NYSE and deregistered from the SEC. For additional information, please refer to Note 19 to the O2 Financial Statements as of March 31, 2005 incorporated into this Prospectus by reference from the Form 6-K filed by the Guarantor with the SEC on April 12, 2006. The costs represent advisors and other professional fees in relation to the reorganization.

In March, 2005, an unusual charge of £45 million (approximately 66 million) relating to the restructuring of the O2 UK business, which comprised costs of redundancies and property exit costs.

For the purposes of presenting the pro forma condensed consolidated income statement for the year ended December 31, 2005, we have also excluded non-recurring reversals of certain deferred tax assets, and have estimated the Corporate income tax charge for the period based on the statutory corporation taxation rate in the United Kingdom, being the tax jurisdiction in which the O2 Group is expected to pay the majority of its corporation tax in the foreseeable future.

(b) These amounts represent adjustments related to our acquisition of O2 and the elimination of O2's equity accounts and other eliminations.

As of December 31, 2005, Telefónica held a 4.97% interest in O2's share capital which had a carrying amount of 1,266 million.

For the purposes of these pro forma financial data, we have assumed that the value of the total purchase consideration paid for the remaining 95.03% interest in O2 would be approximately 24,761 million, fully funded by a mix of fixed and floating long-term debt.

For the purposes of these pro forma financial data, the financial cost incurred related to the debt assumed in connection with the acquisition of O2, amounting to 1,046 million, is based on the average market interest rate during 2005 for the floating portion, and the prevailing interest rates as of January 2005 for the fixed part of the debt. We have also assumed a related tax effect amounting to 366 million, using the current tax rate.

Variances in interest rate considered in a range of 1/8 percent would not have a significant effect on the financial cost incurred that should be disclosed.

For the purposes of these pro forma financial data we have preliminarily estimated the fair value of the net assets acquired from O2 based on the historical financial statements of O2 as of December 31, 2005. The excess of the purchase price over a preliminary estimate of the fair value of the net assets of O2 acquired has been allocated to goodwill.

The above allocation of purchase price as it relates to the acquisition of O2 has been prepared on a preliminary basis and is subject to revision based upon a formal study to be performed. Based on this study the allocation of the purchase price may differ from the assumptions shown above. The effects of this revised allocation may have a material effect on the pro forma results of operations. The most significant impact on operations would result from a different allocation to goodwill, property, plant and equipment and intangible assets. Goodwill is subject to an annual impairment test, while property, plant and equipment and intangible assets are subject to amortization and depreciation. The useful lives for property, plant and equipment are the following:

Freehold buildings	40 years
Network assets	5 to 15 years
Computers, software and office equipment	2 to 6 years
Motor vehicles	5 years

Intangible assets comprise principally UMTS licences. The useful economic life of the UMTS licences is considered to be the period from the market launch of service to the end of the licence period.

	Number of shares	Price per share (£)	Total price (£ million)
Market acquisitions, prior to the tender offer	747,606,107	1.99	1,486.90
Acquisitions under the tender offer	8,133,206,057	2.00	16,266.41
Stamp duty			83.16
TOTAL PURCHASE PRICE	8,880,812,164		£17,836.47
Exchange rate (0.6853)			26,027.24

Table of Contents

Preliminary allocation ( million):

Intangible assets	13,559.74
Property, plant and equipment	6,829.49
Current assets	3,784.56
Other non-current assets	28.93
Non-current liabilities	(3,116.01)
Current liabilities	(2,960.57)
Total	18,126.14
Excess (allocated to goodwill)	7,901.10

(c) These amounts represent the adjustments related to our acquisition of the minority share in Telefónica Móviles and the elimination of the minority interest accounts.

For the purposes of these pro forma financial statements, we have assumed that Telefónica will issue four shares for each five Telefónica Móviles shares. Assuming this exchange ratio the Guarantor would be required to issue approximately 245 million Telefónica shares.

The final amount of shares to be issued by Telefónica will be affected by the delivery of Telefónica Móviles treasury shares that could be necessary to liquidate the stock option plan. Considering a minimum and maximum range of treasury shares estimated by management, the expected effect from this variance on the purchase price is not significant.

We have assumed that the fair value of the shares to be issued will be 13.05 per share, which is based on their average market price a few days before and after the approval of the transaction.

For the purposes of this pro forma financial data we have assumed the payment to the minority shareholders of a 0.435 gross dividend per share of Telefónica Móviles, which was proposed by the Board of Directors of Telefónica Móviles for approval by its General Shareholders Meeting within the framework of negotiation between Telefónica and Telefónica Móviles, which dividend payment is subject to final approval of the projected merger by the General Shareholders Meetings of both companies.

For the purposes of this pro forma financial data, we have preliminarily estimated the fair value of the net assets acquired through this share exchange based on the historical financial statements of Telefónica Móviles as of December 31, 2005. The excess of the purchase price over a preliminarily estimate of the fair value of the net assets acquired has been allocated to goodwill.

The above allocation of purchase price as it relates to the acquisition of the minority interests in Telefónica Móviles has been prepared on a preliminary basis and is subject to revision based upon a formal study to be performed. Based on this study, the allocation of the purchase price may differ from the assumptions shown above. The effects of this revised allocation may have a material effect on the pro forma results of operations.

(B) Each prospectus required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424(b)(2), (b)(5) or (b)(7) as part of a registration statement in reliance on Rule 430B relating to an offering made pursuant to Rule 415(a)(1)(i), (vii) or (x) for the purpose of providing the information required by Section 10(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the earlier of the date such form of prospectus is first used after effectiveness or the date of the first contract of sale of securities in the offering described in the prospectus. - (i) Any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of an undersigned registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;
