Our Company

All references in this prospectus supplement to we, our and us refer collectively to Celanese Corporation and its consolidated subsidiaries.

We are an integrated global producer of value-added industrial chemicals and have the first or second market positions worldwide in products comprising the majority of our sales. We are the world's largest producer of acetyl products, including acetic acid and vinyl acetate monomer (VAM), polyacetal products (POM), as well as a leading global producer of high-performance engineered polymers used in consumer and industrial products and designed to meet highly technical customer requirements. Our operations are located in North America, Europe and Asia. In addition, we have substantial ventures primarily in Asia. We believe we are one of the lowest-cost producers of key building block chemicals in the acetyls chain, such as acetic acid and VAM, due to our economies of scale, operating efficiencies and proprietary production technologies.

We have a large and diverse global customer base consisting principally of major companies in a broad array of industries. For the year ended December 31, 2005, approximately 36% of our net sales were to customers located in North America, approximately 40% to customers in Europe and Africa and approximately 24% to customers in Asia, Australia and the rest of the world.

Segment Overview

We operate through four business segments: Chemical Products, Technical Polymers Ticona, Acetate Products and Performance Products. The table below illustrates each segment's net sales to external customers for the year ended December 31, 2005, as well as each segment's major products and end use markets.

	Chemical Products	Technical Polymers Ticona	Acetate Products⁽²⁾	Performance Products

Major End-Use Markets	Paints Coatings Adhesives Lubricants Detergents	Fuel system components Conveyor belts Electronics Seat belt mechanisms	Filter products	Beverages Confections Baked goods Dairy products

Edgar Filing: Celanese CORP - Form 424B3

- (1) Consolidated net sales of $6,070 million for the year ended December 31, 2005 also include $144 million in net sales from Other Activities, primarily attributable to our captive insurance companies and our AT Plastics business. Net sales in 2005 of Chemical Products excludes inter-segment sales of $136 million for the year ended December 31, 2005.
- (2) In 2005, we exited the acetate filament business and commenced consolidating our flake and tow production to three sites, instead of five.

Table of ContentsChemical Products

Our Chemical Products segment produces and supplies acetyl products, including acetic acid, acetate esters, VAM, polyvinyl alcohol and emulsions. We are a leading global producer of acetic acid, the world's largest producer of VAM and the largest North American producer of methanol, the major raw material used for the production of acetic acid. We are also the largest polyvinyl alcohol producer in North America. These products are generally used as building blocks for value-added products or in intermediate chemicals used in the paints, coatings, inks, adhesives, films, textiles and building products industries. Other chemicals produced in this segment are organic solvents and intermediates for pharmaceutical, agricultural and chemical products. For the year ended December 31, 2005, net sales to external customers of acetyls were $1,966 million, acetyl derivatives and polyols were $1,003 million and all other business lines combined were $1,231 million.

Technical Polymers Ticona

Our Technical Polymers Ticona segment (Ticona) develops, produces and supplies a broad portfolio of high performance technical polymers for use in automotive and electronics products and in other consumer and industrial applications, often replacing metal or glass. Together with our 45%-owned venture Polyplastics Co. Ltd (Polyplastics), our 50%-owned venture Korea Engineering Plastics Company Ltd., or KEPCO, and Fortron Industries, our 50-50 venture with Kureha Chemicals Industry of Japan, we are a leading participant in the global technical polymers business. The primary products of Ticona are polyacetal products, or POM, and GUR, an ultra-high molecular weight polyethylene. POM is used in a broad range of products including automotive components, electronics and appliances. GUR is used in battery separators, conveyor belts, filtration equipment, coatings and medical devices. For the year ended December 31, 2005, sales to external customers in this segment were $887 million.

Acetate Products

Our Acetate Products segment primarily produces and supplies acetate tow, which is used in the production of filter products. We are one of the world's leading producers of acetate tow including production by our ventures in China. In October 2004, we announced plans to consolidate our acetate flake and tow manufacturing by early 2007 and to exit the acetate filament business, which ceased production in April 2005. This restructuring has been implemented to increase efficiency, reduce over-capacities in certain manufacturing areas and to focus on products and markets that provide long-term value. For the year ended December 31, 2005, sales to external customers in this segment were $659 million.

Performance Products

The Performance Products segment operates under the trade name of Nutrinova and produces and sells a high intensity sweetener and food protection ingredients, such as sorbates, for the food, beverage and pharmaceuticals industries. For the year ended December 31, 2005, sales to external customers in this segment were $180 million.

Competitive Strengths

We have benefited from a number of competitive strengths, including the following:

Leading Market Positions. We have the first or second market positions globally in products that make up a majority of our sales according to SRI Handbook and Tecnon Orbichem Survey. Our leadership positions are based on our large share of global production capacity, operating efficiencies, proprietary technology and competitive cost structures in our major products.

Proprietary Production Technology and Operating Expertise. Our production of acetyl products employs industry leading proprietary and licensed technologies, including our proprietary AO Plus acid-optimization technology for the production of acetic acid and VAntage vinyl acetate monomer technology.

Table of Contents

Low Cost Producer. Our competitive cost structures are based on economies of scale, vertical integration, technical know-how and the use of advanced technologies.

Global Reach. We operate thirty-one production facilities throughout the world. The ventures in which we participate operate ten additional facilities. We have a strong and growing presence in Asia (particularly in China). Our infrastructure of manufacturing plants, terminals, and sales offices provides us with a competitive advantage in anticipating and meeting the needs of our global and local customers in well-established and growing markets, while our geographic diversity reduces the potential impact of volatility in any individual country or region.

International Strategic Investments. Our strategic investments, including our ventures, have enabled us to gain access, minimize costs and accelerate growth in new markets, while also generating significant cash flow and earnings.

Diversified Products and End-Use Markets. We offer our customers a broad range of products in a wide variety of end-use markets. This product diversity and exposure help us reduce the potential impact of volatility in any individual market segment.

Business Strategies

We are focused on increasing operating cash flows, profitability, return on investment and shareholder value, which we believe can be achieved through the following business strategies:

Maintain Cost Advantage and Productivity Leadership. We continually seek to reduce our production and raw material costs. Our advanced process control (APC) projects generate savings in energy and raw materials while increasing yields in production units. Most significantly, Six Sigma is a pervasive and important tool in both operations and administration for achieving greater productivity and growth. We continue to focus on opportunities and process technology improvements focused on energy reduction. We will continue using best practices to reduce costs and increase equipment reliability in maintenance and project engineering.

Focused Business Investment. We intend to continue investing strategically in growth areas, including new production capacity, to extend our global market leadership position. Historically, our strong market position has enabled us to initiate capacity growth to take advantage of projected demand growth. Our plans include adding the right capacity at the right time, in the right location, at the right cost.

Deliver Value-Added Solutions. We continually develop new products and industry leading production technologies that solve our customers' problems. We believe that our customers value our expertise, and we will continue to work with them to enhance the quality of their products.

Enhance Value of Portfolio. We will continue to further optimize our business portfolio through divestitures, acquisitions and strategic investments that enable us to focus on businesses in which we can achieve market, cost and technology leadership over the long term. In addition, we intend to continue to expand our product mix into higher value-added products.

The results presented in this section have not been audited and should not be taken as an indication of the results of operations to be reported for any subsequent period or for the full fiscal year.

	Three Months Ended March 31,
	2005	2006
	(in millions, except per share data)
Net sales	$ 1,478	$ 1,652
Operating profit	156	197
Net earnings (loss)	(10)	117
Basic earnings per share	$ (0.08)	$ 0.72
Diluted earnings per share	$ (0.08)	$ 0.68

Net sales increased 12% to $1,652 million for the quarter compared to the same period last year on higher pricing with strong demand, mainly in the Chemical Products segment, as well as additional sales resulting from the acquisition of Acetex. Net sales were partially offset by negative currency impacts of 3%. Operating profit rose to $197 million compared to $156 million in the same period last year, as higher net sales, continued cost improvements and lower special charges helped to offset increased raw material costs and $5 million in option expense associated with the adoption of FAS 123(R). Net earnings increased significantly to $117 million compared to a loss of $10 million, primarily due to $102 million in lower interest expense related to debt refinancing in 2005. Lower minority interest expense related to our increased ownership of outstanding Celanese AG shares also contributed to the increase in net earnings.

Diluted earnings per share were a record $0.68 compared to diluted loss per share of $0.08 in the same period last year. The improvement was driven by the reduction in minority interests and supported by continued strong business performance.

Recent Business Highlights

We broke ground on our state of the art emulsions facility in our Nanjing, China chemical complex.

We announced plans to invest in a new Celstran® long fiber reinforced thermoplastics (LFT) compounding plant in China.

We launched VAntage Plus™, the company's next generation vinyl acetate monomer technology, at the Cangrejera, Mexico facility.

We continued to make progress on completing the squeeze-out of remaining Celanese AG shareholders by setting the cash compensation for the minority shares at $62.22 per share and signing a legal settlement with certain minority shareholders. There are currently less than 1 million minority shares outstanding.

Segment Overview

Chemical Products. Chemical Products demonstrated the strength of its global franchise as the impact of recent capacity additions in acetyls were less than expected. Net sales increased from $1,044 million to $1,169 million as pricing improvements were driven by high utilization across the industry and increased energy and raw material costs. Chemical Products also benefited from the inclusion of sales resulting from the Acetex acquisition, which more than offset negative currency effects. In comparison to exceptional results in the first quarter of 2005, operating profit decreased from $177 million to $162 million. Downstream products experienced margin recovery. Price increases in basic products did not offset increases in energy and raw material costs.

Technical Polymers Ticona. Ticona performed well as it continued to increase its penetration in key applications. Net sales decreased from $239 million to $231 million primarily due to negative currency effects. Higher pricing and increased volume more than offset the loss of sales related to the COC business which was divested in the fourth quarter of 2005. Volumes improved, particularly in the GUR, LCP and European polyacetal (POM) businesses, primarily driven by a stronger business environment in Europe. Operating profit increased from $39 million to $41 million compared to the same period last year on margin recovery. Pricing and cost savings initiatives more than offset increases in energy and raw material costs.

Acetate Products. Acetate Products significantly improved performance reflects the benefits of its ongoing revitalization efforts. Net sales increased by $2 million to $167 million compared to the same period last year as higher pricing and increased flake volumes more than offset lower volumes for tow. The lower tow volumes resulted from the shutdown of our Canadian tow plant while flake sales increased to our recently expanded China tow ventures. Operating profit increased by $13 million to $23 million compared to the same period last year. Higher pricing and savings from the revitalization efforts more than offset lower overall sales volumes and higher raw material and energy costs.

Performance Products. Performance Products continued to demonstrate the strength of its core sweetener and food protection businesses. Net sales increased $2 million to $49 million compared to the same period last year. Volumes for Sunett® sweetener increased, reflecting continued growth in the global beverage and confectionary industry. Pricing for Sunett declined as expected while both volume and pricing for Sorbates increased in the quarter. Operating profit increased $4 million to $17 million driven by robust volume increases and cost savings initiatives.

Equity and Cost Investments. Dividends received from equity and cost investments totaled $24 million in the quarter compared to $50 million in the same period last year due to timing of dividend receipts in 2005. The income statement impact, consisting of earnings of equity investments and dividends from cost investments, was $28 million compared to $29 million.

Cash Flow. The increase in net debt is primarily due to a seasonal increase in working capital, the balance sheet impact of foreign exchange, and capital project spending. Cash and cash equivalents at the end of the period were $312 million, a decrease of $78 million from year end 2005.

Taxes. Due to updated earnings projections for each tax jurisdiction and the accounting treatment of the reversal of valuation allowances under purchase accounting, our effective tax rate for the quarter was 28%, higher than the forecasted range of between 18% and 22%. The increase in the effective rate is not expected to affect projected cash taxes due to utilization of net operating losses and the non-cash nature of the valuation allowance accounting treatment.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in our Series A common stock involves risks. You should carefully consider the risks relating to our Series A common stock below, together with the other Risk Factors and other information included in the accompanying prospectus and our incorporated documents, before investing in our Series A common stock.

Risks Related to Our Company

Upon completion of this offering, we will no longer be a controlled company within the meaning of the New York Stock Exchange rules; however, we will be permitted to phase in certain corporate governance requirements over the course of 12 months.

Upon completion of this offering, affiliates of the Sponsor will control less than a majority of the voting power of our outstanding common stock. As a result, we no longer will be a controlled company within the meaning of the New York Stock Exchange rules and, thus, will be required to have a board of directors comprised of a majority of independent directors and nominating and compensation committees composed entirely of independent directors. However, we will be permitted to phase in these corporate governance requirements over the course of 12 months.

Under the New York Stock Exchange rules, the Compensation Committee and Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee each will be required to (1) have one independent director upon the completion of this offering, (2) have a majority of independent directors within 90 days of the completion of this offering and (3) be comprised entirely of independent directors within one year of the completion of this offering. In addition, our Board of Directors will be required to be comprised of a majority of independent directors within one year of the completion of this offering.

Accordingly, during the course of this phase-in period, you will not have the same protections afforded to shareholders of companies that are subject to all of the New York Stock Exchange corporate governance requirements.

Because our Sponsor will continue to be able to significantly influence us after this offering, the influence of our public shareholders over significant corporate actions may be limited, and conflicts of interest between our Sponsor and us or you could arise in the future.

Assuming the selling stockholders sell 35,000,000 shares of our Series A common stock in the Transactions, our Sponsor would beneficially own (or have a right to acquire) approximately 31.7% of our outstanding Series A common stock (approximately 28.6% of our outstanding Series A common stock if the selling stockholders sell 40,250,000 shares). Under the terms of the stockholders' agreement between us and certain of the Original Shareholders that are affiliates of the Sponsor, such Original Shareholders are also entitled to designate all nominees for election to our board of directors for so long as they hold at least 25% of the total voting power of our Series A common stock. Thereafter, although our Sponsor will not have an explicit contractual right to do so, it may still nominate directors in its capacity as a stockholder. See Certain Relationships and Related Party Transactions Shareholders Agreement in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, which is incorporated by reference herein. As a result, our Sponsor, through its control over the composition of our board of directors and its control of a significant percentage of the voting power of our Series A common stock, will continue to have significant influence or effective control over our decisions to enter into any corporate transaction and will have the ability to prevent any transaction that requires the approval of equityholders, regardless of whether or not other equityholders believe that any such transaction is in their own best interests. For example, our Sponsor effectively could cause us to make acquisitions that increase our indebtedness or to sell revenue-generating assets. Additionally, our Sponsor is in the business of making investments in companies and may from time to time acquire and hold interests in businesses that compete directly or indirectly with us. Our Sponsor may also pursue acquisition opportunities that may be complementary to our business, and as a result, those acquisition opportunities may not be available to us. So long as our Sponsor continues to own a significant amount of our equity, it will continue to be able to significantly influence or effectively control our decisions.

Table of Contents

Our second amended and restated certificate of incorporation renounces any interest or expectancy that we have in, or right to be offered an opportunity to participate in, specified business opportunities. The second amended and restated certificate of incorporation further provides that none of the Original Shareholders (including the Sponsor) or their affiliates or any director who is not employed by Celanese (including any non-employee director who serves as one of our officers in both his director and officer capacities) or his or her affiliates has any duty to refrain from (i) engaging in a corporate opportunity in the same or similar lines of business in which we or our affiliates now engage or propose to engage or (ii) otherwise competing with us. In addition, in the event that any of the Original Shareholders (including the Sponsor) or any non-employee director acquires knowledge of a potential transaction or other business opportunity which may be a corporate opportunity for itself or himself or its or his affiliates and for Celanese or its affiliates, such Original Shareholder or non-employee director has no duty to communicate or offer such transaction or business opportunity to Celanese Corporation or us and may take any such opportunity for themselves or offer it to another person or entity.

The disposition by the Original Blackstone Shareholders of at least 90% of their equity interest will satisfy a vesting condition under our deferred compensation plan.

In December 2004, we approved, among other incentive and retention programs, a deferred compensation plan for executive officers and key employees. The programs were intended to align management performance with the creation of shareholder value. The deferred compensation plan has an aggregate maximum amount payable of $192 million over five years ending in 2009. The initial component of the deferred compensation plan vested in 2004 and was paid in the first quarter of 2005. The remaining aggregate maximum amount payable of $163 million is subject to downward adjustment if the price of our Series A common stock falls below the January 2005 initial public offering price of $16.00 and vests as follows: (i) a portion (ranging from 26% to 37%, depending on the participant) will vest annually over the next four years based on continued employment with us and the occurrence of a sale or other disposition by the Original Blackstone Shareholders of at least 90% of its equity interest in us, in which the Original Blackstone Shareholders receive at least a 25% cash internal rate of return on their equity interest (a Qualifying Sale) and (ii) the balance of the remaining amount payable will vest annually based on the achievement of specified performance criteria, including meeting annual earnings and cash flow targets, and the occurrence of a Qualifying Sale. After this offering the Original Blackstone Shareholders will have an equity interest of approximately 31.7%. At this point, it is likely that a disposition by the Original Blackstone Shareholders of at least 90% of their equity interest will be a Qualifying Sale. Upon the occurrence of a Qualifying Sale, the amount vested and payable under the plan for 2005 would be approximately $50 million.

Risks Related to our Series A Common Stock

Future sales of our shares could depress the market price of our common stock.

The market price of our Series A common stock could decline as a result of sales of a large number of shares of Series A common stock in the market after the offering or the perception that such sales could occur. These sales, or the possibility that these sales may occur, also might make it more difficult for us to sell equity securities in the future at a time and at a price that we deem appropriate. See Shares Eligible For Future Sale .

In connection with these offerings, we, our executive officers and directors and the Original Shareholders have agreed with the underwriter not to sell, dispose of or hedge any shares of our Series A common stock or securities convertible into or exchangeable for shares of our Series A common stock, other than the securities offered this offering and subject to specified exceptions, during the 60-day period beginning from the latter of the date of this prospectus supplement, except with the prior written consent of the underwriter.

Subject to any anti-dilution adjustments, an additional 12,000,000 shares of our Series A common stock will be issuable upon conversion of the shares of our existing 4.25% convertible perpetual preferred stock. We have reserved for issuance the maximum number of shares of our Series A common stock issuable upon conversion of our existing 4.25% convertible perpetual preferred stock. See Description of Existing Convertible Perpetual Preferred Stock .

Table of ContentsThe terms of our outstanding indebtedness and Delaware law may restrict us from paying cash dividends on our Series A common stock.

The terms of our senior credit facilities and the indentures governing our senior subordinated notes and senior discount notes limit our ability to pay cash dividends on any shares of our capital stock, including our Series A common stock. In addition, the certificate of designations relating to our existing 4.25% convertible perpetual preferred stock limits our ability to pay cash dividends on shares of our capital stock that rank junior to or on parity with our classes of preferred stock in certain circumstances. See Description of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock Voting Rights. In the future, we may agree to further restrictions on our ability to pay dividends. To maintain our credit ratings, we may be limited in our ability to pay dividends so that we can maintain an appropriate level of debt. In addition, Delaware law provides that we may pay dividends on our Series A common stock only out of our surplus, or, if there is no surplus, the amount of our net profits for the fiscal year in which the dividend occurs and/or the preceding fiscal year. Our future dividend policy depends on earnings, financial condition, liquidity, capital requirements and other factors. There is no guarantee that we will pay dividends on shares of our Series A common stock.

Our ability to issue additional series of shares of our preferred stock in the future could adversely affect the rights of holders of our Series A common stock.

Our board of directors is authorized to issue additional classes or series of shares of our preferred stock without any action on the part of our stockholders. Our board of directors also has the power, without stockholder approval, to set the terms of any such classes or series of shares of our preferred stock that may be issued, including voting rights, conversion rights, dividend rights, preferences over our Series A common stock with respect to dividends or if we liquidate, dissolve or wind up our business and other terms. If we issue shares of our preferred stock in the future that have preference over our Series A common stock with respect to the payment of dividends or upon our liquidation, dissolution or winding up, or if we issue shares of our preferred stock with voting rights that dilute the voting power of our Series A common stock, the market price of our Series A common stock could decrease.

The market price of our Series A common stock may be volatile, which could cause the value of our investment to decline.

Securities markets worldwide experience significant price and volume fluctuations. This market volatility, as well as general economic, market or potential conditions, could reduce the market price of the Series A common stock in spite of our operating performance. In addition, our operating results could be below the expectations of public market analysts and investors, and in response, the market price of our Series A common stock could decrease significantly.

Provisions in our second amended and restated certificate of incorporation and by-laws, as well as any shareholders rights plans, may discourage a takeover attempt.

Provisions contained in our second amended and restated certificate of incorporation and by-laws could make it more difficult for a third party to acquire us, even if doing so might be beneficial to our shareholders. Provisions of our second amended and restated certificate of incorporation and by-laws impose various procedural and other requirements, which could make it more difficult for shareholders to effect certain corporate actions. For example, our second amended and restated certificate of incorporation authorizes our board of directors to determine the rights, preferences, privileges and restrictions of unissued series of preferred stock, without any vote or action by our shareholders. Thus, our board of directors can authorize and issue shares of preferred stock with voting or conversion rights that could adversely affect the voting or other rights of holders of our Series A common stock. These rights may have the effect of delaying or deterring a change of control of our company. In addition, a change of control of our company may be delayed or deterred as a result of our having three classes of directors (each class elected for a three-year term) or as a result of any shareholders rights plan that our board of directors may adopt. In addition, we would be required to issue additional shares of our Series A common stock to holders of the preferred stock who convert following a fundamental change. See Description of Existing Convertible Perpetual Preferred Stock in the accompanying prospectus. These provisions could limit the price that certain investors might be willing to pay in the future for shares of our Series A common stock. See Description of Capital Stock in the accompanying prospectus.

changes in the price and availability of raw materials, particularly changes in the demand for, supply of, and market prices of fuel oil, natural gas, coal, electricity and petrochemicals such as ethylene, propylene and butane, including changes in production quotas in OPEC countries and the deregulation of the natural gas transmission industry in Europe;

the ability to pass increases in raw material prices on to customers or otherwise improve margins through price increases; the ability to maintain plant utilization rates and to implement planned capacity additions and expansions;

the ability to reduce production costs and improve productivity by implementing technological improvements to existing plants;

the existence of temporary industry surplus production capacity resulting from the integration and start-up of new world-scale plants; increased price competition and the introduction of competing products by other companies;

the ability to develop, introduce and market innovative products, product grades and applications, particularly in the Ticona and Performance Products segments of our business;

changes in the degree of patent and other legal protection afforded to our products;

compliance costs and potential disruption or interruption of production due to accidents or other unforeseen events or delays in construction of facilities;

potential liability for remedial actions under existing or future environmental regulations; potential liability resulting from pending or future litigation, or from changes in the laws, regulations or policies of governments or other governmental activities in the countries in which we operate;

changes in currency exchange rates and interest rates;

inability to successfully integrate current and future acquisitions;

pending or future challenges to the Domination Agreement; and various other factors, both referenced and not referenced in this prospectus supplement.

Many of these factors are macroeconomic in nature and are, therefore, beyond our control. Should one or more of these risks or uncertainties materialize, or should underlying assumptions prove incorrect, our actual results, performance or achievements may vary materially from those described in this prospectus supplement, the accompanying prospectus and the documents incorporated herein by reference as anticipated, believed, estimated, expected, intended, planned or projected. We neither intend nor assume any obligation to update these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of their dates.

The closing sale price of our Series A common stock, as reported by the New York Stock Exchange, on May 9, 2006 was $22.42. As of May 9, 2006, there were 51 holders of record of our Series A common stock.

DIVIDEND POLICY

In July 2005, our board of directors adopted a policy of declaring, subject to legally available funds, a quarterly cash dividend on each share of our common stock at an annual rate initially equal to approximately 1% of the $16 price per share in the initial public offering of our Series A common stock (or $0.16 per share) unless our board of directors, in its sole discretion, determines otherwise, commencing the second quarter of 2005. Pursuant to this policy, the Company paid quarterly dividends of $0.04 per share on August 11, 2005, November 1, 2005, February 1, 2006 and May 1, 2006. Based on the number of outstanding shares of our Series A common stock, the anticipated annual cash dividend is approximately $25 million. However, there is no assurance that sufficient cash will be available in the future to pay such dividend. Further, such dividends payable to holders of our Series A common stock dividend cannot be declared or paid nor can any funds be set aside for the payment thereof, unless we have paid or set aside funds for the payment of all accumulated and unpaid dividends with respect to the shares of our preferred stock, as described below.

Our board of directors may, at any time, modify or revoke our dividend policy on our Series A common stock.

We are required under the terms of our preferred stock to pay scheduled quarterly dividends, subject to legally available funds. For so long as the preferred stock remains outstanding, (1) we will not declare, pay or set apart funds for the payment of any dividend or other distribution with respect to any junior stock or parity stock and (2) neither we, nor any of our subsidiaries, will, subject to certain exceptions, redeem, purchase or otherwise acquire for consideration junior stock or parity stock through a sinking fund or otherwise, in each case unless we have paid or set apart funds for the payment of all accumulated and unpaid dividends with respect to the shares of preferred stock and any parity stock for all preceding dividend periods. Pursuant to this policy, the Company paid the quarterly dividends of $0.265625 on its existing 4.25% convertible perpetual preferred stock on August 1, 2005, November 1, 2005 and February 1, 2006. The anticipated annual cash dividend is approximately $10 million.

The amounts available to us to pay cash dividends is restricted by our subsidiaries' debt agreements. The indentures governing the senior subordinated notes and the senior discount notes also limit, but do not prohibit, the ability of BCP Crystal US Holdings Corp. (BCP Crystal), Crystal US Holdings 3 L.L.C. and their respective subsidiaries to pay dividends. Any decision to declare and pay dividends in the future will be made at the discretion of our board of directors and will depend on, among other things, our results of operations, cash requirements, financial condition, contractual restrictions and other factors that our board of directors may deem relevant.

Under the Domination Agreement, any minority shareholder of Celanese AG who elects not to sell its shares to the Purchaser will be entitled to remain a shareholder of Celanese AG and to receive a gross guaranteed fixed annual payment on their shares (Ausgleich) of $3.27 per Celanese Share less certain corporate taxes to be paid by Celanese AG in lieu of any future dividend.

Under Delaware law, our board of directors may declare dividends only to the extent of our surplus (which is defined as total assets at fair market value minus total liabilities, minus statutory capital), or if there is no surplus, out of our net profits for the then current and/or immediately preceding fiscal years. The value of a corporation's assets can be measured in a number of ways and may not necessarily equal their book value. The value of our capital may be adjusted from time to time by our board of directors but in no event will be less than the aggregate par value of our issued stock. Our board of directors may base this determination on our financial statements, a fair valuation of our assets or another reasonable method. Our board of directors will seek to assure itself that the statutory requirements will be met before actually declaring dividends. In future periods, our board of directors may seek opinions from outside valuation firms to the effect that our solvency or assets are sufficient to allow payment of dividends, and such opinions may not be forthcoming. If we sought and were not able to obtain such an opinion, we likely would not be able to pay dividends. In addition, pursuant to the terms of our preferred stock, we are prohibited from paying a dividend on our Series A common stock unless all payments due and payable under the preferred stock have been made.

- (1) All information in this table assumes no exercise by the underwriter of its over-allotment option, if any. Following the payment of a special dividend to holders of Celanese Corporation's Series B common stock in April 2005, all outstanding shares of Series B common stock automatically converted into shares of Celanese Corporation's Series A common stock pursuant to our second amended and restated certificate of incorporation. As a result, Celanese Corporation currently has no Series B common stock outstanding. In addition, Celanese Corporation has 9,600,000 shares of issued and outstanding 4.25% convertible perpetual preferred stock which are convertible into shares of Series A common stock at any time at a conversion rate of 1.25 shares of Series A common stock for each share of preferred stock, subject to adjustments. The rights to acquire shares of common stock relate to the rights to acquire within 60 days of October 26, 2005, the identified number of shares of common stock underlying the vested stock options held by directors, executive officers and Blackstone Management Partners IV, LLC.

DESCRIPTION OF INDEBTEDNESS

Amended and Restated Senior Credit Facilities

On January 26, 2005, BCP Crystal entered into amended and restated senior credit facilities with a syndicate of banks and other financial institutions led by Deutsche Bank AG, New York Branch, as administrative agent, Deutsche Bank Securities Inc. and Morgan Stanley Senior Funding, Inc., as joint lead arrangers, Deutsche Bank Securities Inc., Morgan Stanley Senior Funding, Inc. and Banc of America Securities LLC, as joint book runners, Morgan Stanley Senior Funding, Inc., as syndication agent, and Bank of America, N.A., as documentation agent.

The amended and restated senior credit facilities provide financing of approximately $2.5 billion. The amended and restated senior credit facilities consist of:

a term loan facility in the aggregate amount of approximately $1.4 billion and 272 million with a maturity on April 6, 2011;

an approximate $228 million credit-linked revolving facility with a maturity on April 6, 2009; and a $600 million revolving credit facility with a maturity on April 6, 2009.

BCP Crystal is the borrower under the term loan facility, and BCP Crystal and CAC are the initial borrowers under the credit-linked revolving facility and the revolving credit facility. Certain of BCP Crystal's subsidiaries may be designated as additional borrowers under the revolving credit facility. A portion of the revolving credit facility may be made available to BCP Crystal's non-U.S. subsidiary borrowers in euros. The revolving credit facility includes borrowing capacity available for letters of credit and for borrowings on same-day notice, referred to as the swingline loans.

Interest Rate and Fees

The borrowings under the amended and restated senior credit facilities bear interest at a rate equal to an applicable margin plus, at BCP Crystal's option, either (a) a base rate determined by reference to the higher of (1) the prime rate of Deutsche Bank AG, New York Branch and (2) the federal funds rate plus 1/2 of 1% or (b) a LIBOR rate determined by reference to the costs of funds for deposits in the currency of such borrowing for the interest period relevant to such borrowing adjusted for certain additional costs. The applicable margin for borrowings under the credit-linked revolving facility and the revolving credit facility is 1.50% with respect to base rate borrowings and 2.50% with respect to LIBOR borrowings (in each case subject to a step-down based on a performance test). The applicable margin for borrowings under the euro denominated portion of the term loan facility is 2.50% (subject to a step-down based on a performance test).

In November 2005, BCP Crystal amended its amended and restated senior credit facilities to lower the applicable margin for borrowings under the U.S. dollar denominated portion of the term loan facility from 2.25% to 2.00% (with respect to LIBOR borrowings) and from 1.25% to 1.00% (with respect to base rate borrowings). In addition, a further reduction of such applicable margin to 1.75% (with respect to LIBOR borrowings) and 0.75% (with respect to base rate borrowings) is allowed if certain conditions are met.

In addition to paying interest on outstanding principal under the amended and restated senior credit facilities, BCP Crystal is required to pay a commitment fee to the lenders under the revolving credit facility in respect of the unutilized commitments thereunder at a rate equal to 0.75%. BCP Crystal is also required to pay a facility fee to the lenders under the credit-linked revolving facility in respect of the total credit-linked deposits thereunder at a rate equal to 2.50% (subject to a reduction based on a performance test) (plus an amount equal to the administrative costs for investing the credit-linked deposits). BCP Crystal also pays customary letter of credit fees.

The amended and restated senior credit facilities require BCP Crystal to prepay outstanding term loans, subject to certain exceptions, with:

75% (which percentage will be reduced to 50% if BCP Crystal's leverage ratio is less than 3.00 to 1.00 for any fiscal year ending on or after December 31, 2005) of its excess cash flow;

100% of the net cash proceeds of all non-ordinary course asset sales and casualty and condemnation events, if BCP Crystal does not reinvest or contract to reinvest those proceeds in assets to be used in BCP Crystal's business or to make certain other permitted investments within 12 months, subject to certain limitations;

100% of the net cash proceeds of any incurrence of debt other than debt permitted under the amended and restated senior credit facilities, subject to certain exceptions; and

50% of the net cash proceeds of issuances of equity of Celanese Holdings LLC (Celanese Holdings), subject to certain exceptions.

BCP Crystal may voluntarily repay outstanding loans under the amended and restated senior credit facilities at any time without premium or penalty, other than customary breakage costs with respect to LIBOR loans.

Amortization

The term loan facility amortizes each year in an amount equal to 1% per annum in equal quarterly installments, with the remaining amount payable on April 6, 2011.

Principal amounts outstanding under the credit-linked revolving facility and the revolving credit facility are due and payable in full on April 6, 2009.

Guarantee and Security

All obligations under the amended and restated senior credit facilities are unconditionally guaranteed by Celanese Holdings and, subject to certain exceptions, each of BCP Crystal's existing and future domestic subsidiaries (other than BCP Crystal's receivables subsidiaries), referred to collectively as the U.S. Guarantors. The portion of the amended and restated senior credit facilities borrowed by CAC, and any subsidiaries designated as additional borrowers under the revolving credit facility, is guaranteed by BCP Crystal.

All obligations under the amended and restated senior credit facilities, and the guarantees of those obligations (as well as cash management obligations and any interest hedging or other swap agreements), are secured by a first priority lien on substantially all the assets of Celanese Holdings, BCP Crystal and each U.S. Guarantor, including, but not limited to, the following, and subject to certain exceptions:

a pledge of the capital stock of BCP Crystal, to the extent owned by Celanese Holdings, 100% of the capital stock of all U.S. Guarantors, and 65% of the capital stock of each of BCP Crystal's non-U.S. subsidiaries that is directly owned by BCP Crystal or one of the U.S. Guarantors; and a security interest in substantially all other tangible and intangible assets of Celanese Holdings, BCP Crystal and each U.S. Guarantor (but excluding receivables sold to a receivables subsidiary under a receivables facility).

All obligations of each non-U.S. subsidiary designated as an additional borrower under the revolving credit facility will be secured by a pledge of the capital stock of such non-U.S. subsidiary.

Certain Covenants and Events of Default

repay other indebtedness;

pay dividends and distributions or repurchase their capital stock;

create liens on assets;

make investments, loans, guarantees or advances;

make certain acquisitions;

In addition, the amended and restated senior credit facilities require BCP Crystal to maintain the following financial covenants:

a maximum total leverage ratio;

a minimum interest coverage ratio; and a maximum capital expenditures limitation.

The amended and restated senior credit facilities also contain certain customary affirmative covenants and events of default. See Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations Liquidity and Capital Resources Cash Flows Liquidity Covenants in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, which is incorporated by reference herein, for a description of the ratios BCP Crystal is required to maintain under the amended and restated senior credit facilities.

SHARES ELIGIBLE FOR FUTURE SALE

We cannot predict what effect, if any, market sales of shares of common stock or the availability of shares of Series A common stock for sale will have on the market price of our Series A common stock. Nevertheless, sales of substantial amounts of Series A common stock in the public market, or the perception that such sales could occur, could materially and adversely affect the market price of our common stock and could impair our future ability to raise capital through the sale of our equity or equity-related securities at a time and price that we deem appropriate.

As of May 8, 2006, we had a total of 158,562,161 shares of Series A common stock outstanding. Of the outstanding shares, the shares sold in our January 2005 initial public offering and in our November 2005 and December 2005 offering by the selling stockholders are, and the shares sold in this offering will be, freely tradable without restriction or further registration under the Securities Act, except that any shares held by our affiliates, as that term is defined under Rule 144 of the Securities Act, may be sold only in compliance with the limitations described below. The remaining outstanding shares of Series A common stock will be deemed restricted securities as that term is defined under Rule 144. Restricted securities may be sold in the public market only if registered or if they qualify for an exemption from registration under Rule 144 or 144(k) under the Securities Act, which are summarized below.

Subject to the lock-up agreements described below and the provisions of Rule 144, approximately 40,367,139 million additional shares of our common stock will be available for sale in the public market after the expiration of any such lock-up period (subject to volume limitations and other conditions under Rule 144).

In general, under Rule 144 as currently in effect, a person (or persons whose shares are required to be aggregated), including an affiliate, who has beneficially owned shares of our common stock for at least one year is entitled to sell in any three month period a number of shares that does not exceed the greater of:

1% of the then-outstanding shares of common stock or approximately 1.6 million shares; and the average weekly reported volume of trading in the common stock on the New York Stock Exchange during the four calendar weeks preceding the date on which notice of sale is filed, subject to restrictions.

Sales under Rule 144 are also subject to manner of sale provisions and notice requirements and to the availability of current public information about us.

Lock-Up Agreements

We and the selling stockholders have agreed that, without the prior written consent of the underwriter, we and they will not, during the period ending 60 days after the date of this prospectus supplement:

offer, pledge, sell, contract to sell, sell any option or contract to purchase, purchase any option or contract to sell, grant any option, right or warrant to purchase, lend or otherwise transfer or dispose of, directly or indirectly, any of our shares of Series A common stock or any securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for our Series A common stock;

file or cause to be filed any registration statement with the SEC relating to the offering of any shares of Series A common stock or any securities convertible or exercisable or exchangeable for our Series A common stock; or enter into any swap or other arrangement that transfers to another, in whole or in part, any of the economic consequences of ownership of our Series A common stock;

whether any such transaction described above is to be settled by delivery of our Series A common stock or other securities, in cash or otherwise. The restrictions described in this paragraph do not apply to:

the sale of shares of our Series A common stock to the underwriter in this offering;

the issuance by us of shares of Series A common stock upon conversion, redemption, exchange or otherwise pursuant to the terms of our convertible perpetual preferred stock, or upon the exercise of an option, or a warrant or a similar security or the conversion of a security outstanding on the date hereof and reflected in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus;

the grants by us of options or stock, or the issuance by us of stock, under our benefit plans (or the filing of one or more registration statements covering such issuances or grants) described in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus;

permitted sales and transfers by us of Series A common stock under the Celanese Americas Retirement Savings Plan;

distributions of shares of Series A common stock or any security convertible into Series A common stock to limited partners or stockholders of the selling stockholders, provided that the recipients of such Series A common stock agree to be bound by the restrictions described in this paragraph for the remainder of such 60-day period;

the issuance of Series A common stock in connection with the acquisition of, a joint venture with or a merger with, another company, and the filing of a registration statement with respect thereto, provided that, subject to certain exceptions, the recipients of such Series A common stock agree to be bound by the restrictions described in this paragraph for the remainder of such 60-day period;

CERTAIN UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME AND ESTATE TAX CONSEQUENCES TO NON-U.S. HOLDERS

The following is a summary of certain United States federal income and estate tax consequences of the purchase, ownership and disposition of our Series A common stock as of the date hereof. Except where noted, this summary deals only with Series A common stock that is held as a capital asset by a non-U.S. holder.

A non-U.S. holder means a person (other than a partnership) that is not for United States federal income tax purposes any of the following:

an individual citizen or resident of the United States;

a corporation (or any other entity treated as a corporation for United States federal income tax purposes) created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, any state thereof or the District of Columbia;

an estate the income of which is subject to United States federal income taxation regardless of its source; or a trust if it (1) is subject to the primary supervision of a court within the United States and one or more United States persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (2) has a valid election in effect under applicable United States Treasury regulations to be treated as a United States person.

This summary is based upon provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), and regulations, rulings and judicial decisions as of the date hereof. Those authorities may be changed, perhaps retroactively, so as to result in United States federal income and estate tax consequences different from those summarized below. This summary does not address all aspects of United States federal income and estate taxes and does not deal with foreign, state, local or other tax considerations that may be relevant to non-U.S. holders in light of their personal circumstances. In addition, it does not represent a detailed description of the United States federal income and estate tax consequences applicable to you if you are subject to special treatment under the United States federal income tax laws (including if you are a United States expatriate, controlled foreign corporation, passive foreign investment company, or an investor in a pass-through entity). We cannot assure you that a change in law will not alter significantly the tax considerations that we describe in this summary.

If a partnership holds our Series A common stock, the tax treatment of a partner will generally depend upon the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. If you are a partner of a partnership holding our Series A common stock, you should consult your tax advisors.

If you are considering the purchase of our Series A common stock, you should consult your own tax advisors concerning the particular United States federal income and estate tax consequences to you of the ownership of the Series A common stock, as well as the consequences to you arising under the laws of any other taxing jurisdiction.

Dividends

Distributions paid to a non-U.S. holder of our Series A common stock that qualify as dividends generally will be subject to withholding of United States federal income tax at a 30% rate or such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable income tax treaty. However, dividends that are effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business by the non-U.S. holder within the United States (and, where a tax treaty applies, are attributable to a United States permanent establishment of the non-U.S. holder) are not subject to the withholding tax, provided certain certification and disclosure requirements are satisfied. Instead, such dividends are subject to United States federal income tax on a net income basis in the same manner as if the non-U.S. holder were a United States person as defined under the Code. Any such effectively connected dividends received by a foreign corporation may be subject to an additional branch profits tax at a 30% rate or such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable income tax treaty.

Table of Contents

A non-U.S. holder of our Series A common stock who wishes to claim the benefit of an applicable treaty and avoid backup withholding, as discussed below, on dividends will be required to (a) complete Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN (or other applicable form) and certify under penalty of perjury that such holder is not a United States person as defined under the Code or (b) if our Series A common stock is held through certain foreign intermediaries, satisfy the relevant certification requirements of applicable United States Treasury regulations. Special certification and other requirements apply to certain non-U.S. holders that are entities rather than individuals.

A non-U.S. holder of our Series A common stock eligible for a reduced rate of United States withholding tax pursuant to an income tax treaty may obtain a refund of any excess amounts withheld by filing an appropriate claim for refund with the Internal Revenue Service.

If we determine, at a time reasonably close to the date of payment of a distribution on our Series A common stock, that the distribution will not qualify as a dividend because we will have insufficient current and accumulated earnings and profits, we may elect not to withhold any United States federal income tax on the distribution as permitted by Treasury regulations. If we or another withholding agent withholds tax on any such distribution that is made during a taxable year for which we have insufficient current and accumulated earnings and profits, you may be entitled to a refund of the tax withheld, which you may claim by filing a United States tax return. Though no assurance can be given, we believe that we will have current earnings and profits as determined for United States federal income tax purposes for the current year, although we do not presently believe we will have any accumulated earnings and profits. Because our earnings and profits in future years will depend in significant part on our future profits or losses, which we cannot accurately predict, we do not know whether we will have current earnings and profits in the future.

Gain on Disposition of Series A Common Stock

Any gain realized on the disposition of our Series A common stock generally will not be subject to United States federal income tax unless:

the gain is effectively connected with a trade or business of the non-U.S. holder in the United States, and, if required by an applicable income tax treaty, is attributable to a United States permanent establishment of the non-U.S. holder;

the non-U.S. holder is an individual who is present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of that disposition, and certain other conditions are met; or we are or have been a United States real property holding corporation for United States federal income tax purposes.

An individual non-U.S. holder described in the first bullet point immediately above will be subject to tax on the net gain derived from the sale under regular graduated United States federal income tax rates. An individual non-U.S. holder described in the second bullet point immediately above will be subject to a flat 30% tax on the gain derived from the sale, which may be offset by United States source capital losses, even though the individual is not considered a resident of the United States. If a non-U.S. holder that is a foreign corporation falls under the first bullet point immediately above, it will be subject to tax on its net gain in the same manner as if it were a United States person as defined under the Code and, in addition, may be subject to the branch profits tax equal to 30% of its effectively connected earnings and profits or at such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable income tax treaty.

We believe we are not and do not anticipate becoming a United States real property holding corporation for United States federal income tax purposes.

Federal Estate Tax

Series A common stock held by an individual non-U.S. holder at the time of death will be included in such holder's gross estate for United States federal estate tax purposes, unless an applicable estate tax treaty provides otherwise.

Table of Contents

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

We must report annually to the Internal Revenue Service and to each non-U.S. holder the amount of distributions qualifying as dividends paid to such holder and the tax withheld with respect to such dividends, regardless of whether withholding was required. Copies of the information returns reporting such dividends and withholding may also be made available to the tax authorities in the country in which the non-U.S. holder resides under the provisions of an applicable income tax treaty.

A non-U.S. holder will be subject to backup withholding on dividends paid to such holder unless such holder certifies under penalty of perjury that it is a non-U.S. holder, and the payor does not have actual knowledge or reason to know that such holder is a United States person as defined under the Code, or such holder otherwise establishes an exemption.

Information reporting and, depending on the circumstances, backup withholding will apply to the proceeds of a sale of our Series A common stock within the United States or conducted through certain United States-related financial intermediaries, unless the beneficial owner certifies under penalty of perjury that it is a non-U.S. holder (and the payor does not have actual knowledge or reason to know that the beneficial owner is a United States person as defined under the Code) or such owner otherwise establishes an exemption.

Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules may be allowed as a refund or a credit against a non-U.S. holder's United States federal income tax liability provided the required information is furnished to the Internal Revenue Service.

UNDERWRITER

Under the terms and subject to the conditions contained in the underwriting agreement dated the date of this prospectus supplement, among Celanese Corporation, the selling stockholders and Goldman, Sachs & Co., which we refer to as the underwriter, the underwriter has agreed to purchase, and the selling stockholders have agreed to sell to the underwriter, severally, 35,000,000 shares of Series A common stock.

The underwriter is offering the shares of Series A common stock subject to its acceptance of the shares from us and subject to prior sale. The underwriting agreement provides that the obligations of the underwriter to pay for and accept delivery of the Series A common stock offered by this prospectus supplement are subject to the approval of certain legal matters by its counsel and to certain other conditions. The underwriter is obligated to take and pay for all of the shares of Series A common stock offered by this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus if any such shares are taken. However, the underwriter is not required to take or pay for the shares covered by the underwriter's over-allotment option described below.

The underwriter proposes to offer the shares of Series A common stock from time to time for sale in one or more transactions in the over-the-counter market, through negotiated transactions or otherwise at market prices prevailing at the time of the sale, at prices related to prevailing market prices or at negotiated prices, subject to receipt and acceptance by it and subject to its right to reject any order in whole or in part. In connection with the sale of the shares of Series A common stock offered hereby, the underwriter may be deemed to have received compensation in the form of underwriting discounts. The underwriter may effect such transactions by selling shares of the Series A common stock offered hereby to or through dealers, and such dealers may receive compensation in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the underwriter and/or purchasers of shares of Series A common stock for whom they may act as agents or to whom they may sell as principal.

The selling stockholders have granted to the underwriter an option, exercisable for 30 days from the date of this prospectus supplement, to purchase up to an aggregate of 5,250,000 additional shares of Series A common stock at the same price per share to be paid by the underwriter for the other shares offered hereby. The underwriter may exercise this option solely for the purpose of covering over-allotments, if any, made in connection with the offering of the shares of Series A common stock offered by this prospectus supplement. If the underwriter's over-allotment option is exercised in full, the total proceeds to the selling stockholders would be $847,262,500.

We and the selling stockholders have agreed that, without the prior written consent of the underwriter, we and they will not, during the period ending 60 days after the date of this prospectus supplement:

offer, pledge, sell, contract to sell, sell any option or contract to purchase, purchase any option or contract to sell, grant any option, right or warrant to purchase, lend or otherwise transfer or dispose of, directly or indirectly, any of our shares of Series A common stock or any securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for our Series A common stock;

file or cause to be filed any registration statement with the SEC relating to the offering of any shares of Series A common stock or any securities convertible or exercisable or exchangeable for our Series A common stock; or

enter into any swap or other arrangement that transfers to another, in whole or in part, any of the economic consequences of ownership of our Series A common stock;

whether any such transaction described above is to be settled by delivery of our Series A common stock or other securities, in cash or otherwise. The restrictions described in this paragraph do not apply to:

the sale of shares of our Series A common stock to the underwriter in this offering;

the issuance by us of shares of Series A common stock upon conversion, redemption, exchange or otherwise pursuant to the terms of our convertible perpetual preferred stock or upon the exercise of an option, or a warrant or a similar security or the conversion of a security outstanding on the date hereof and reflected in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus;

the grants by us of options or stock, or the issuance by us of stock, under our benefit plans (or the filing of one or more registration statements covering such issuances or grants) described in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus;

distributions of shares of Series A common stock or any security convertible into Series A common stock to limited partners or stockholders of the selling stockholders, provided that the recipients of such Series A common stock agree to be bound by the restrictions described in this paragraph for the remainder of such 60-day period;

the issuance of Series A common stock in connection with the acquisition of, a joint venture with or a merger with, another company, and the filing of a registration statement with respect thereto, provided that, subject to certain exceptions, the recipients of such Series A common stock agree to be bound by the restrictions described in this paragraph for the remainder of such 60-day period;

transactions by any person other than us relating to shares of Series A common stock acquired in open market transactions after the completion of this offering; and the filing of a registration statement pursuant to the registration rights of any of the selling stockholders.

The estimated offering expenses payable by us are approximately $750,000, which includes legal, accounting and printing costs and various other fees associated with registering the Series A common stock.

In order to facilitate the offering of the Series A common stock, the underwriter may engage in transactions that stabilize, maintain or otherwise affect the price of the Series A common stock. Specifically, the underwriter may sell more stock than it is obligated to purchase under the underwriting agreement, creating a short position. A short sale is covered if the short position is no greater than the number of shares of stock available for purchase by the underwriter under the over-allotment option. The underwriter can close out a covered short sale by exercising the over-allotment option or purchasing stock in the open market. In determining the source of stock to close out a covered short sale, the underwriter will consider, among other things, the open market price of stock compared to the price available under the over-allotment option. The underwriter may also sell stock in excess of the over-allotment option, creating a naked short position. The underwriter must close out any naked short position by purchasing stock in the open market. A naked short position is more likely to be created if the underwriter is concerned that there may be downward pressure on the price of the Series A common stock in the open market after pricing that could adversely affect investors who purchase in this offering. In addition, to stabilize the price of the Series A common stock, the underwriter may bid for, and purchase, Series A common stock in the open market. Any of these activities may stabilize or maintain the market price of the Series A common stock above independent market levels. The underwriter is not required to engage in these activities, and may end any of these activities at any time.

From time to time, the underwriter and its affiliates have provided, and continue to provide, investment banking and other services to us for which they receive customary fees and commissions.

The Series A common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol CE.

We, the selling stockholders and the underwriter have agreed to indemnify each other against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act.

In relation to each Member State of the European Economic Area which has implemented the Prospectus Directive, the underwriter has represented and agreed that with effect from and including the date on which the Prospectus Directive is implemented in that Member State it has not made and will not make an offer of shares to the public in that Member State, except that it may, with effect from and including such date, make an offer of shares to the public in that Member State:

(a) at any time to legal entities which are authorised or regulated to operate in the financial markets or, if not so authorised or regulated, whose corporate purpose is solely to invest in securities;

(c) at any time in any other circumstances which do not require the publication by us of a prospectus pursuant to Article 3 of the Prospectus Directive.

For the purposes of the above, the expression an offer of shares to the public in relation to any shares in any Member State means the communication in any form and by any means of sufficient information on the terms of the offer and the shares to be offered so as to enable an investor to decide to purchase or subscribe the shares, as the same may be varied in that Member State by any measure implementing the Prospectus Directive in that Member State and the expression Prospectus Directive means Directive 2003/71/ EC and includes any relevant implementing measure in that Member State.

The underwriter has represented and agreed that it has only communicated or caused to be communicated and will only communicate or cause to be communicated an invitation or inducement to engage in investment activity (within the meaning of Section 21 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000) in connection with the issue or sale of the shares in circumstances in which Section 21(1) of such Act does not apply to us and it has complied and will comply with all applicable provisions of such Act with respect to anything done by it in relation to any shares in, from or otherwise involving the United Kingdom.

The shares have not been and will not be registered under the Securities and Exchange Law of Japan and may not be offered or sold directly or indirectly in Japan except under circumstances which result in compliance with all applicable laws, regulations and guidelines promulgated by the relevant Japanese governmental and regulatory authorities.

The shares may not be offered or sold by means of any document other than to persons whose ordinary business is to buy or sell shares or debentures, whether as principal or agent, or in circumstances which do not constitute an offer to the public within the meaning of the Companies Ordinance (Cap. 32) of Hong Kong, and no advertisement, invitation or document relating to the shares may be issued, whether in Hong Kong or elsewhere, which is directed at, or the contents of which are likely to be accessed or read by, the public in Hong Kong (except if permitted to do so under the securities laws of Hong Kong) other than with respect to shares which are or are intended to be disposed of only to persons outside Hong Kong or only to professional investors within the meaning of the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Cap. 571) of Hong Kong and any rules made thereunder.
