FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Independent Advisory Firms Recommend a Vote FOR Allegheny Energy's Proposed Merger with FirstEnergy Corp.

GREENSBURG, Pa., September 2, 2010 Allegheny Energy, Inc. (NYSE: AYE) announced today that four independent proxy advisory firms have recommended that Allegheny Energy stockholders vote FOR the company's proposed merger with FirstEnergy Corp. (NYSE: FE).

ISS Proxy Advisory Services, Glass, Lewis & Co., PROXY Governance, Inc. and Egan-Jones Proxy Services have all issued reports outlining the benefits of the merger for Allegheny Energy stockholders.

We're pleased that these firms concur that the merger will create considerable value for our stockholders. Allegheny holders will receive a meaningful premium and a significant increase in the dividend based on FirstEnergy's current practice," said Paul J. Evanson, Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of Allegheny Energy. The combined company will have substantial upside potential with increased scale and a more diverse generation fleet.

In February, Allegheny Energy announced plans to combine with FirstEnergy in a stock-for-stock transaction to create a leading regional energy provider. The merger is expected to close in the first half of 2011, subject to customary closing conditions, including shareholder and regulatory approvals, as outlined in the joint proxy statement/prospectus mailed to shareholders.

Allegheny Energy will hold a special meeting of its stockholders on September 14 to consider and vote on the proposed merger.
