Shareholders who themselves wish to effectively nominate a person for election to the Board of Directors, as contrasted with recommending a potential nominee to the Nominating Committee for its consideration, are required to comply with the advance notice and other requirements set forth in Mercantile's Articles of Incorporation.

During 2002, there were a total of six meetings of the Board of Directors of Mercantile. In addition, there were four meetings of the Audit Committee, two meetings of the Compensation Committee and one meeting of the Nominating Committee during 2002. Each director attended at least 75% of the total number of meetings of the Board of Directors and committees of the Board of which he or she was a member, held during 2002, except Mr. Williams, who attended 57% of the meetings, and Mr. Wynalda, who attended 42% of the meetings.

For 2002, non-employee directors of the Bank were paid an annual retainer of $7,200 and a $300 fee for each meeting of the Board of Directors or the Loan Committee of the Board of Directors of the Bank that they attended. For 2003, non-employee directors of the Bank were paid an annual retainer of $7,500, and will be paid $400 for each meeting of the Bank's Board of Directors, Loan Committee, Audit Committee and Compensation Committee that they attend. In addition, non-employee directors of Mercantile are paid $400 for each meeting of Mercantile's Audit Committee or Compensation Committee that they attend, if those meetings are held on a day when there is not also a meeting of the same committee of the Bank's Board of Directors. The Board of Directors and Loan Committee of the Bank each generally meet once a month. Mercantile anticipates that during 2003, there will be in aggregate between six and ten meetings of the Audit and Compensation Committees for which directors will receive meeting fees. Under the Bank's deferred compensation plan for non-employee directors, directors may elect to defer the receipt of the annual retainer and meeting fees until they are no longer serving on the Board.

On October 18, 2001, the Board of Directors adopted an Independent Director Stock Option Plan that was approved by the shareholders at the April 18, 2002 annual meeting. In October of 2001, options for 551 shares, and in October of 2002, options for 525 shares (as adjusted for the 5% stock dividends), were granted under the plan to each of Ms. Burton, Ms. Jones, and Messrs. Cassard, Clark, Cordes, Gill, Hayes, Hecht, Larsen, Murdock, Visser, Williams, and Wynalda. The options are first exercisable five years after their date of grant, subject to accelerated vesting as provided in the plan. The exercise price under the options is $18.91 per share for the 2001 options and $24.52 per share for the 2002 options. In each case, the exercise price is 125 percent of the fair market value per share on the day the options were granted.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The following Audit Committee Report does not constitute soliciting material and should not be deemed filed or incorporated by reference into any other Mercantile filing under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, except to the extent Mercantile specifically incorporates this report by reference.

The members of the Audit Committee consist of Betty S. Burton, David M. Cassard, Edward J. Clark, C. John Gill, David M. Hecht and Robert M. Wynalda. Each of the members of the Audit Committee is an independent director as that term is defined in Rule 4200(a) of The Nasdaq Stock Market Rules. The Audit Committee's responsibilities include selecting the independent auditors, reviewing the scope of proposed audits and the procedures to be used, and the results of the audits, reviewing the adequacy and effectiveness of accounting and financial controls, and reviewing the internal auditing function and the financial statements of Mercantile. The Audit Committee amended its charter during 2002, and the amended charter has been approved by the Board of Directors.

Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process, including Mercantile's systems of internal controls. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Audit Committee reviewed the audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2002 with management, including a discussion of the quality and the acceptability of Mercantile's financial reporting and controls.

The Audit Committee reviewed with the independent auditors, Crowe Chizek & Company LLP, who are responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of those audited financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles, their judgments as to the quality and the acceptability of Mercantile's financial reporting and such other matters as are required to be discussed with the Audit Committee under generally accepted auditing standards, including the matters required to be discussed pursuant to Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communications with Audit Committees). In addition, the Audit Committee has discussed with Crowe Chizek & Company LLP the auditors' independence from management and Mercantile, including the matters in the auditors' written disclosures required by the Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees). The Audit Committee has considered the compatibility of the provision of non-audit services with maintaining the auditor's independence.

The Audit Committee also discussed with Mercantile's internal and independent auditors the overall scope and plans for their respective audits. The Audit Committee meets periodically with the internal and independent auditors, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations, their evaluations of Mercantile's internal controls, and the overall quality of Mercantile's financial reporting.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Audit Committee also evaluated and reappointed Mercantile's independent auditors for fiscal 2003.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT

The following Compensation Committee Report and the shareholder return performance graph included elsewhere in this proxy statement do not constitute soliciting material and should not be deemed filed or incorporated by reference into any other Mercantile filing under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, except to the extent Mercantile specifically incorporates this report or the performance graph by reference.

The compensation of the executive officers of Mercantile is determined by the Board of Directors based on recommendations of the Compensation Committee. Mercantile seeks to establish compensation at a level that will attract, motivate and retain experienced executive officers who can increase shareholder value, deliver competitive products and services to customers, and provide leadership for employees. Salaries are intended to be competitive, and reflect factors such as individual performance, level of responsibility, and prior experience. Incentive compensation and stock option awards are intended to align the interests of executive officers with that of the shareholders and reward performance that increases shareholder value.

Executive compensation is comprised of the following:

1. Salary.
2. Incentive compensation payable in the form of a cash bonus based on the attainment by Mercantile of certain annual performance criteria established by the Board of Directors.
3. Discretionary awards of stock options.
4. Participation in other benefit plans offered to all employees including 401(k), health insurance, disability insurance and life insurance.

Annual salaries for Mercantile's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and

President and Chief Operating Officer increased in 2002. During the five-year time period in which Mercantile has been operating, growth in earnings per share and asset levels has been significant, and the salary increase granted these two executive officers during the year recognizes the contribution these individuals have made to the success of the organization. Executive salaries and incentive compensation are also based in part on information derived from industry compensation studies performed by Mercantile's auditors and by surveys conducted by the Michigan Bankers Association and the Bank Administration Institute. Compensation information is also taken from proxy materials filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission by other comparable financial institutions. This information is analyzed by Mercantile's Director of Human Resources and presented to the Compensation Committee for the formulation of a salary recommendation to be approved by the Board of Directors.

Executive bonuses are also determined by the Board of Directors as the result of a recommendation by the Compensation Committee and are based on the same criteria as is the incentive compensation for all non-lender employees.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS

GERALD R. JOHNSON, JR. AND MICHAEL H. PRICE. Effective December 1, 1998, the Bank and Mercantile entered into Employment Agreements with Mr. Johnson and Mr. Price providing for their employment from December 1, 1998 through December 31, 2001, and certain severance, confidentiality and non-compete arrangements that would continue after the employment period. Effective December 31, 1999, the Employment Agreements were amended and restated. The amendments extended the employment period an additional year to December 31, 2002, and provide for the employment period to extend an additional year, each December 31, starting December 31, 2000, so that as of each December 31, there will be three years remaining in the employment period. The annual extension of the employment period can be avoided by the Bank, Mercantile, or the officer giving notice to the others that the employment period is not to be extended. Effective October 12, 2000, and October 18, 2001, the Employment Agreements were further amended and restated, primarily to establish the base salaries for 2001 and 2002 for Mr. Johnson and Mr. Price.

The Employment Agreement with Mr. Johnson provided him with an annual base salary of $302,500 for 2002, and in October of 2002, the Board of Directors of the Bank increased his annual base salary to $335,000 for 2003. The Employment Agreement with Mr. Price provided him with an annual base salary of $266,200 for 2002, and in October of 2002, the Board of Directors of the Bank increased his annual base salary to $295,000 for 2003. For future years their annual base salaries will be an amount set by the Board of Directors of the Bank that is not less than their annual base salary for the immediately preceding year.

In addition to the annual base salary, the Employment Agreements provide that Mr. Johnson and Mr. Price are entitled to participate in any employee benefit and incentive compensation plans of Mercantile and the Bank, including health insurance, life and disability insurance, stock option, profit sharing and retirement plans. Under a profit sharing plan in effect for 2002, Messrs. Johnson and Price each received a bonus for 2002 of 45% of their annual base salary for that year. Under a profit sharing plan expected to be in effect for 2003, Messrs. Johnson and Price may each receive a bonus of up to 50% of their annual base salary for 2003. It is anticipated that the bonuses for 2003, for Mr. Johnson, Mr. Price and the other non-lending officers of the Bank, will be payable only to the extent that after taking into account the payment, the after tax net operating income of Mercantile for 2003 would exceed 120% of the prior year's after tax net income.

Edgar Filing: MERCANTILE BANK CORP - Form DEF 14A

In the event that either of the officers becomes disabled or dies during the employment period he is entitled to benefits under his Employment Agreement. In the event of disability, the officer continues to receive his then current annual base salary through the end of the employment period, and any disability benefits payable under disability plans provided by the Bank or Mercantile. The officer also continues to participate in life, disability, and health insurance plans of the Bank or Mercantile, through age 65, to the extent permitted under such plans. If the officer dies during the employment period, the Bank is obligated to pay the officer's legal representative a death benefit of $250,000, and if the Bank or Mercantile owns any life insurance insuring the life of the officer, the proceeds of the policies are payable to the named beneficiaries.

The Employment Agreements provide severance benefits in the event that the officer's employment is terminated by Mercantile and the Bank without "Cause" or the officer elects to terminate his employment for "Good Reason" during the employment period. In such event, the officer is entitled to receive the greater of (i) his annual base salary through the end of the employment period or (ii) $500,000; in either case payable over 18 months in equal monthly installments. In addition, in the case of such a termination of employment, the officer is entitled to continue his participation in life, disability and health insurance plans provided by the Bank or Mercantile for 18 months, to the extent permitted under such plans, to an assignment of any assignable term life insurance policies owned by the Bank or Mercantile insuring his life, and $10,000 for out-placement, interim office and related expenses. The Employment Agreements also provide severance benefits in the event that after the employment period and prior to the officer reaching the age of 65, the officer's employment is terminated by the Bank and Mercantile without "Cause" or the officer's annual base salary is reduced without "Cause". In such event, the officer receives the same benefits as are described above for a termination during the employment period, except that when determining the cash severance payable to him over the 18 months following his termination, the alternative of receiving his annual base salary through the end of the employment period does not apply, and instead he receives the stated dollar amount of $500,000. In the event that an officer's employment is terminated for "Cause" during the employment period, the officer is not entitled to any accrued rights that he may then have under any stock option plan of Mercantile.

Under the Employment Agreements, Mr. Johnson and Mr. Price agree not to disclose, except as required by law, any confidential information relating to the business or customers of the Bank or Mercantile, or use any confidential information in any manner adverse to the Bank or Mercantile. In addition, each has agreed that for 18 months following his employment with the Bank and Mercantile, he will not be employed by, or act as a director or officer of, any business engaged in banking within a 50 mile radius of Grand Rapids, Michigan that solicits customers of the Bank.

ROBERT B. KAMINSKI. The Bank and Mercantile have entered into an Employment Agreement with Mr. Kaminski for his services as Senior Vice President and Secretary of Mercantile and Senior Vice President, Chief Operating Officer and Chief Loan Review Officer of the Bank, beginning January 1, 2001, on substantially the same terms as the Employment Agreements described for Mr. Johnson and Mr. Price above, except that the compensation and severance amounts are different. Effective October 18, 2001, the Employment Agreement was amended and restated primarily to establish the base salary for Mr. Kaminski for 2002. Mr. Kaminski's Employment Agreement established his base salary for 2002 at $133,000, and in October of 2002, the Board of Directors of the Bank increased his base salary to $150,290 for 2003. Under a profit sharing plan in effect for 2002, Mr. Kaminski received a bonus for 2002 of 35% of his annual base salary for that year. Under a profit sharing plan expected to be in effect for 2003, Mr. Kaminski may receive a bonus of up to 40% of his annual base salary for 2003. The Employment Agreement also establishes a death benefit of $100,000, a minimum severance benefit of $250,000 during his employment period, and $125,000 after the employment period.

CHARLES E. CHRISTMAS. The Bank and Mercantile have entered into an Employment Agreement with Mr. Christmas for his services as Senior Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer of Mercantile, and Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Bank, beginning January 1, 2001, on substantially the same terms as the Employment Agreements described for Mr. Johnson and Mr. Price above, except that the compensation and severance amounts are different. Effective October 18, 2001, the Employment Agreement was amended and restated primarily to establish the base salary for Mr. Christmas for 2002. Mr. Christmas's Employment Agreement established his base salary for 2002 at $118,000, and in October of 2002, the Board of Directors of the Bank increased his base salary to $135,700 for 2003. Under a profit sharing plan in effect for 2002, Mr. Christmas received a bonus for 2002 of 35% of his annual base salary for that year. Under a profit sharing plan expected to be in effect for 2003, Mr. Christmas may receive a bonus of up to 40% of his annual base salary for 2003. The Employment Agreement also establishes a death benefit of $100,000, a minimum severance benefit of $250,000 during his employment period, and $125,000 after the employment period.
