FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FRANKLIN CAPITAL CORPORATION WILL SEEK STOCKHOLDER APPROVAL TO WITHDRAW ELECTION TO BE REGULATED AS A BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT COMPANY

SANTA MONICA, CALIFORNIA, December 31, 2004 Franklin Capital Corporation (AMEX: FKL) announced today that its Board of Directors has unanimously determined to seek stockholder approval at its 2004 annual meeting of stockholders to withdraw its election to be regulated as a business development company under the Investment Company Act of 1940.

This is yet another significant step towards the realization of the strategic restructuring plan that we previously announced in June 2004 for Franklin Capital, said Milton Todd Ault, III, the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Franklin Capital. The restructuring plan contemplated that Franklin Capital would change its business operations to concentrate on buying controlling equity stakes in medical products/health care solutions and financial services companies. Because Franklin Capital now believes such business operations are incompatible with being regulated as a business development company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, Franklin Capital's board of directors concluded that it is in the best interest of Franklin Capital and its stockholders to withdraw its election to be regulated as a business development company.
