I. INFORMATION ABOUT VOTING

Edgar Filing: NEXTGEN COMMUNICATIONS CORP - Form DEF 14A

Solicitation of Proxies. The Board of Directors (the "Board") of Nextgen Communications Corporation, a Delaware corporation ("Nextgen" or the "Company"), is soliciting proxies for use at the 2002 Annual Meeting of Stockholders of Nextgen and any adjournments of that meeting. Nextgen first sent this proxy statement, the accompanying form of proxy, and the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-KSB to its stockholders on April 23, 2002.

Agenda Items. The agenda for the Annual Meeting is to:

1. Elect one director to serve for a term of one year, or until his successor, if any, is duly elected and qualified;
2. Ratify the appointment of Merdinger, Fruchter, Rosen & Corso, P.C. as our independent public accountants for 2002; and
3. Conduct such other business as may properly come before the meeting or any adjournment thereof.

Who Can Vote. The record date (the "Record Date") is the close of business on April 22, 2002. If you are a holder on the Record Date of Nextgen's common stock, par value of $0.001 per share ("Common Stock"), you can vote at the Annual Meeting on the election of the director and on the other proposal contained in this Proxy Statement. Holders of Common Stock will have one vote for each share of Common Stock. As of the close of business on the Record Date, there were 9,271,882 shares of Common Stock outstanding, all of which are entitled to vote.

How to Vote. You may vote in two ways:

1. You can come to the Annual Meeting and cast your vote there.
2. You can vote by signing and returning the enclosed proxy card. If you do, the individuals named on the card will vote your shares in the manner you indicate.

Use of Proxies. Unless you tell us on the proxy card to vote differently, we plan to vote all shares represented by the signed and returned proxies FOR the Board nominee named herein and FOR Proposal 2. We do not now know of any other matters to come before the Annual Meeting. If they do, proxy holders will vote the shares represented by the proxies in their best judgment.

Revoking a Proxy. You may revoke your proxy at any time before it is exercised. You can revoke a proxy by:

1. Sending a written notice of revocation to the Corporate Secretary of Nextgen;
2. Delivering a properly executed, later-dated proxy; or
3. Attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person.

The Quorum Requirement. We need a quorum of stockholders to hold a valid Annual Meeting. A quorum will exist to hold a valid Annual Meeting if the holders of at least a majority in voting power of the outstanding shares of Common Stock entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting either attend the Annual Meeting in person or are represented by proxy. Abstentions and broker non-votes are counted as present for the purpose of establishing a quorum. A broker non-vote occurs when a broker votes on some matters on the proxy card but not on others because the broker has not received voting instructions from its customer or does not have the authority to do so.

Vote Required for Action. The director is elected (Proposal 1) by a plurality vote of the holders of shares of Common Stock present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting. The ratification of Merdinger, Fruchter, Rosen & Corso, P.C. as Nextgen's independent public accountants for 2002 (Proposal 2) requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the voting power represented by the shares of Common Stock present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote on such matters. Abstentions have the effect of a "no" vote on all matters other than the director election, with respect to which abstentions will have no effect. Broker non-votes have the effect of a "no" vote with respect to Proposal 2.

Generally, any other action coming before the Annual Meeting would require the affirmative vote of a majority of the voting power represented by shares of Common Stock present in person or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting.

II. PROPOSALS

1. ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The term for Nextgen's directors is one year, until the next Annual Meeting of Stockholders, or until his or her successor, if any, is duly elected and qualified. The nominee for director this year is Frank J. Fradella, who is currently the only director of the Company.

Mr. Fradella has confirmed that he will be able and willing to continue serving as director. If Mr. Fradella is not available, the shares represented by the proxies may be voted for another person nominated by the then-current Board to fill the vacancy. Information about the Board and Mr. Fradella is contained in Sections III and IV of this proxy statement, respectively.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE ELECTION OF FRANK J. FRADELLA AS DIRECTOR.

2. RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

The Board has recommended that Merdinger, Fruchter, Rosen & Corso, P.C. ("MFRC") continue to serve as Nextgen's independent public accountants for 2002. MFRC has served as Nextgen's independent public accountants since 2000.

MFRC Fees. The approximate aggregate fees, including out-of-pocket expenses, billed for professional services rendered by MFRC during 2001 were as follows:

Financial Information
Audit Fees	System Design and Implementation Fees	All Other Fees
-----	-----	-----
$35,000 (1)	$0	$0

(1) For the audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2001, the three-month period ended December 31, 2000, and the year ended September 30, 2000, and for the reviews the Company's unaudited condensed consolidated interim financial statements as of March 31, 2001, June 30, 2001, and September 30, 2001.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF MERDINGER, FRUCHTER, ROSEN & CORSO, P.C. AS THE COMPANY'S INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS FOR THE YEAR 2002.

III. INFORMATION ABOUT THE COMPANY'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Directors are elected at each annual meeting of stockholders, although vacancies resulting from resignation, removal, death, or an increase in the size of the Board between annual meetings may be filled by the remaining members of the Board. Directors hold office until the next annual meeting of stockholders and until their successors are elected and qualified.

The background of Frank J. Fradella, who is currently the sole director of the Company, and the nominee for director at the Annual Meeting, is presented under Section IV below. Richard W. Lancaster also served on the Company's Board of Directors during 2001, until he resigned on December 31, 2001. Two representatives of Deere Park Capital, L.L.C., the former majority stockholder of the Company, also served on the Company's Board of Directors during 2001, until their resignation in March 2001.

Meetings. During 2001, the Board held no regular or special meetings. The Board approved of several actions by unanimous written consents in lieu of meetings during 2001.

Committees. Because of the small size of the Company's Board, the Board did not function through committees during 2001.

Compensation. The Company does not pay directors' fees to its Board members, but does provide transportation, lodging and reimbursement of all reasonable expenses for attending Board meetings. Also, directors are eligible for certain awards under the Company's 2001 Stock Plan, which are granted to directors from time-to-time at the discretion of the Board.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS AND TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT/CHANGE-IN-CONTROL ARRANGEMENTS

The Company and Frank J. Fradella entered into an employment agreement as of April 2, 2001. The employment agreement has a term of three years, and provides for an annual base salary of $200,000. In the event that Mr. Fradella is terminated without "cause" or if he terminates his employment following a "change of control" (as such terms are defined in Mr. Fradella's employment agreement), Mr. Fradella would be entitled to receive a severance payment calculated as three times the amount of his current annual salary and bonus as of the date of termination. In connection with the execution of his employment agreement, Mr. Fradella received restricted stock purchase rights under the Company's 2001 Stock Plan to purchase 500,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock, at $1.25 per share, subject to certain repurchase rights of the Company in the event Mr. Fradella's employment is terminated for any reason, but such repurchase rights will immediately lapse in the event that (i) a "change of control" occurs, as such term is defined in the 2001 Stock Plan, and (ii) Mr. Fradella's employment is terminated or his duties are adversely changed within six months thereof. The Company also granted Mr. Fradella registration rights for certain shares of Common Stock he held as of April 2, 2001.

The Company and Kathleen L. Harris entered into a consulting agreement as of January 1, 2002, following Ms. Harris' resignation as the Company's Chief Financial Officer. The consulting agreement has a term of seven months, and provides for consulting fees to be paid to Ms. Harris in the amount of $10,000 per month. In connection with the execution of the consulting agreement, certain restricted stock purchase rights to purchase 75,000 shares of Common Stock at $1.25 per share, which were granted to Ms. Harris under the 2001 Stock Plan on April 2, 2001, were amended to fully vest as of January 1, 2002, and to allow for the exercise of such rights until April 2, 2006.

The Company and R. Andrew White entered into an employment agreement effective as of February 1, 2002. The employment agreement has a term of one year, and provides for an annual salary of $120,000. In the event that Mr. White is terminated without "cause" (as such term is defined in Mr. White's employment agreement), Mr. White would be entitled to receive a lump-sum severance payment equal to six months' salary on the date of termination, and installments of such salary and benefits for a period of six months following the date of termination. In the event that Mr. White dies or becomes "disabled" (as such term is defined in Mr.

White's employment agreement), Mr. White, or his beneficiary, as the case may be, would be entitled to receive installments of his then-present salary and benefits for a period of 180 days following the date of death or disability. The Company also provided Mr. White with a loan to acquire 50,000 shares of Common Stock at $1.25 per share, and granted Mr. White stock options under the 2001 Stock Plan to purchase up to 150,000 shares of Common Stock at $1.25 per share, subject to certain vesting requirements. These options will immediately vest upon a "change of control", as such term is defined in the 2001 Stock Plan, or if Mr. White is terminated without "cause" or if he terminates his employment with "good reason", as such terms are defined in his employment agreement.

1998 Stock Option Plan. Recipients of stock options under the Company's 1998 Stock Option Plan must exercise all vested options within three months from the date of termination of the optionee's employment or cessation of service to the Company (or one year for options granted to outside directors), or such options are forfeited. All stock options previously granted under the 1998 Stock Option Plan have either been exercised or were forfeited due to the expiration of the applicable periods of time following the termination of employment or cessation of service by the optionees, other than 250,000 stock options held by Mr. Fradella. Outstanding stock options under the 1998 Stock Option Plan automatically vest in the event of a "change of control" (as defined in the 1998 Stock Option Plan), which includes any person or group acquiring 20% of the outstanding Common Stock. Certain transactions between American Eco Corporation and Deere Park Capital, LLC in 2000, and between Deere Park Capital, LLC and Frank Fradella in 2001, which are discussed further in Section VII, constituted "changes of control" under the 1998 Stock Option Plan, therefore all stock options currently outstanding under this plan (Mr. Fradella's 250,000 stock options) are fully vested.

2001 Stock Plan. Under the Company's 2001 Stock Plan, Optionees have at least 30 days to exercise vested stock options following the cessation of service to the Company, and in the absence of a specified time in the individual option agreement, the period of time for exercising vested stock options will be three months following the optionee's cessation of services to the Company. The Board may use its discretion in determining whether any outstanding stock options or stock purchase rights will vest on an accelerated basis following a "change of control" (as defined in the 2001 Stock Plan). If an optionee's employment is terminated or his or her job duties are adversely changed within six months of such a change of control, however, all stock options held by such optionee would immediately vest on the date of termination.

VII. OTHER MATTERS

CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS

The section immediately set forth above describes certain employment and other agreements the Company has entered into with Frank J. Fradella, Kathleen L. Harris, and R. Andrew White.

Prior to joining Nextgen, Mr. White was a partner at Weiss & White Capital, a boutique financial advisory firm. During 2001, the Company paid Weiss & White Capital approximately $58,000 for reimbursed expenses and fees for advisory services provided to the Company. In addition, Weiss & White Capital has received fees and reimbursed expenses of approximately $27,000 during 2002 for advisory services to the Company.

On April 2, 2001, the Company granted Richard W. Lancaster, a director of the Company at the time, stock options under the 2001 Stock Plan to purchase 50,000 Shares of Common Stock at an exercise price of $1.25 per share. Mr. Lancaster resigned from the Board on December 31, 2001. In recognition of Mr. Lancaster's contributions to the Company, on March 31, 2002, the Board immediately vested Mr. Lancaster's stock options and advanced Mr. Lancaster $62,500 to exercise his stock options, in return for Mr. Lancaster's promissory note secured by the shares of Common Stock purchased in connection therewith.

After resigning from Nextgen's Board, Mr. Lancaster became the President of Point to Point of Louisiana, Inc., a Louisiana corporation (the "Buyer"). On February 22, 2002, the Company completed the sale of Point To Point Network Services, a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company ("Point To Point"), to the Buyer. The purchase price for Point To Point was $1,000,000, which the Buyer paid by issuing a secured promissory note to the Company, which bears interest at 6.5% per annum, and requires a payment of accrued interest on February 22, 2003, a payment of accrued interest and $100,000 of principal on February 22, 2004, and all remaining principal and interest accrued thereon on February 22, 2005. The Note is secured by the shares of Point To Point that were purchased by the Buyer.

The Company was a majority-owned subsidiary of American Eco Corporation ("AEC") through July 21, 2000, at which time Deere Park Capital, LLC ("Deere Park") acquired AEC's stake in the Company, which consisted of approximately 81.9% of the outstanding Common Stock. As a result of two Stock Purchase Agreements between Deere Park and Mr. Fradella, dated December 21, 2000, and March 23, 2001, respectively, Mr. Fradella purchased, on behalf of himself and as a third-party nominee for other individuals, approximately 6,926,000 shares of the Common Stock held by Deere Park. The purchase price for such shares was paid by Mr. Fradella in cash and a promissory note secured by 500,000 shares of Common Stock, pursuant to a hypothecation agreement. On November 30, 2001, Fradella transferred the 500,000 shares to Deere Park in full satisfaction of the promissory note. The Company was a party to the hypothecation agreement and settlement agreement between Mr. Fradella and Deere Park, but its obligations were limited to consenting to the pledge of shares by Mr. Fradella and agreeing to facilitate the subsequent transfer of shares back to Deere Park and ultimate resale of such shares by Deere Park.

Pursuant to a Management Services Agreement effective June 1, 1999, between AEC and the Company, AEC had agreed to provide certain services to the Company in exchange for a monthly management fee. The services were to include providing the Company with management guidance, in addition to guaranteeing certain of the Company's obligations with its creditors. The agreement provided for a monthly payment to AEC of $40,000. For the year ended September 30, 2000, total management fees recorded were $280,000. The Company believes that AEC did not perform its responsibilities under the management agreement and, although the Company has recorded the management fees in the financial statements, the parties are currently in litigation regarding the validity of the agreement. At December 31, 2001, the Company's balance sheet reflected liabilities to AEC in the amount of $1,370,000, including the disputed management fees.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, requires Nextgen's directors and executive officers, and persons who own more than 10% of a registered class of Nextgen's equity securities, to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") reports of ownership and changes in ownership of Common Stock and other equity securities of Nextgen. Such reporting persons are required to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

Based on the Company's review of copies of such reports furnished to us, we believe that, during the 2001 fiscal year, all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to Nextgen's executive officers, directors and greater than 10% beneficial owners were complied with except for (i) Frank J.
