As previously announced, Affiliated Computer Services, Inc. (the Company or ACS ) is conducting an internal investigation into its historical stock option practices during the period 1994 to date and the Company's related disclosure in its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, filed May 15, 2006 in response to a pending informal investigation by the Securities and Exchange Commission and a grand jury subpoena issued by the United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York. In a press release issued on November 1, 2006, the Company announced: (i) that the internal investigation, which is being conducted by an ad hoc committee of the Company's Board of Directors consisting of all the independent directors, who are proceeding with the assistance of specially-engaged independent outside legal counsel, is expected to be completed during the quarter ending December 31, 2006; (ii) that as a result of the ongoing investigation, the Company is unable to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2006 by the required filing date; and (iii) preliminary quarterly financial information for the quarter ended September 30, 2006, subject to the financial effects of the completion of the internal investigation and Audit Committee review and approval.

As a result of the ongoing investigation, the Company will not be in a position to file the Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2006, on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date in accordance with Rule 12b-25.
