INFORMATION TO BE INCLUDED IN THE REPORT

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On April 11, 2007, Sterling Financial Corporation (Sterling) and North Valley Bancorp (North Valley), the parent company of North Valley Bank, announced that they had entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger dated April 10, 2007 (the Merger Agreement), pursuant to which North Valley will merge with and into Sterling, with Sterling being the surviving corporation. One of the conditions to closing of the Merger is approval of the North Valley shareholders.

At a special meeting of shareholders held on July 31, 2007, the shareholders of North Valley approved the principal terms of the Merger Agreement, including the proposed merger of North Valley with and into Sterling. Approval required a majority vote of all shares of North Valley common stock outstanding and entitled to vote on the record date for the special meeting. Consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement remains subject to the satisfaction of certain additional closing conditions, including the receipt of all necessary regulatory approvals. Applications for such approvals have been submitted and are currently pending. At present, Sterling and North Valley expect the closing to occur during the third quarter, ending September 30, 2007. On the effective date of the Merger, each share of North Valley common stock will be converted into 0.7364 shares of Sterling common stock and $2.80 in cash, subject to certain conditions described in the Merger Agreement. In addition, each outstanding option to purchase shares of North Valley common stock will be assumed and converted into an option to purchase 0.8261 shares of Sterling common stock. The parties have agreed to pay termination fees in the event the Merger Agreement is terminated under certain conditions.

Additional Information and Where to Find It

Sterling filed a registration statement on Form S-4 with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) which became effective on June 22, 2007, and on June 29, 2007, North Valley mailed a proxy statement/prospectus to its shareholders containing information about the proposed merger of North Valley with and into Sterling. Investors and security holders of Sterling and North Valley are urged to read the proxy statement/prospectus and other relevant materials filed with the SEC because they contain important information about Sterling, North Valley and the proposed merger. In addition to the registration statement filed by Sterling and the proxy statement/prospectus mailed to the North Valley shareholders, Sterling and North Valley file annual, quarterly and current reports, proxy statements and other information with the SEC. Investors and security holders may obtain a free copy of the documents filed with the SEC (when they become available) at its website at www.sec.gov. These documents may also be obtained free of charge from Sterling by requesting them in writing at Sterling Financial Corporation, 111 North Wall Street, Spokane, WA 99201, or by telephone at (509) 227-5389. In addition, investors and security holders may access copies of the documents filed with the SEC by Sterling on its website at www.sterlingfinancialcorporation-spokane.com. The documents filed by North Valley may also be obtained by requesting them in writing at North Valley Bancorp, 300 Park Marina Circle, Redding, California 96001, or by telephone at (530) 226-2900. In addition, investors and security holders may access copies of the documents filed with the SEC by North Valley on its website at www.novb.com.

A copy of the joint press release issued by Sterling and North Valley on August 1, 2007 announcing the approval of the principal terms of the Merger Agreement by the North Valley shareholders is included as Exhibit 99.1 to this report.
