Officers, directors and greater than ten-percent shareholders are required by SEC regulation to furnish us with copies of all Section 16 forms they file.

Based solely on a review of the copies of the Forms 3, 4 and 5 and amendments to those forms furnished to us with respect to our most recent fiscal year, or written representations that no Forms 5 were required, we believe that, during the year ended December 31, 2007, all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to our officers, directors and greater than ten-percent beneficial owners were complied with.

(c) Code of Ethics

We have adopted a code of business conduct and ethics that applies to all of our employees, directors and officers. Each member of the audit committee is an independent director as determined by our board of directors, based on the rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market and the criteria of director independence adopted by the board. Each member of the audit committee also satisfies the SEC's independence requirements for members of audit committees.

Item 11. Executive Compensation.

(a) Compensation Discussion and Analysis

Services Agreement with Liberty

Our Chief Executive Officer is John C. Malone, our President is Robert R. Bennett, our principal financial officer is David J.A. Flowers and our three other most highly compensated executive officers for 2007 are Albert R. Rosenthaler, Christopher W. Shean and Charles Y. Tanabe. These persons are collectively referred to as the Named Executive Officers. All of the Named Executive Officers are also executive officers or employees of Liberty.

We were formerly a wholly owned subsidiary of Liberty. In July 2005, Liberty distributed to its stockholders all of our shares in a tax-free spin-off (the spin-off). Prior to the spin-off, the Named Executive Officers were the persons primarily responsible for managing and making policy decisions for our business. In connection with the spin-off, we entered into a services agreement with Liberty pursuant to which Liberty agreed to make available to us the services of certain personnel, including the Named Executive Officers. Each of the Named Executive Officers is compensated by Liberty as an executive officer or employee of that company, and is not directly compensated by us. Rather, pursuant to the services agreement, we pay to Liberty an allocated portion of the salary and fringe benefits paid by Liberty to the Named Executive Officers.

When we entered into the services agreement with Liberty, we agreed to a scheduled estimate of the annual allocation of employee costs and expenses for the Named Executive Officers (and others) for calendar year 2005, which was based on the percentage of their respective work hours it was anticipated they would spend on our business. Pursuant to the services agreement, we and Liberty reevaluate the appropriateness of the allocation schedule on a semi-annual basis to make appropriate adjustments. The allocation for each of the Named Executive Officers for a particular period is evaluated based on discussions with that Named Executive Officer and after an analysis of the business demands expected to be made on him by our company for that period. We then discuss the proposed allocation with our compensation committee.

The annual allocations for each of the Named Executive Officers in 2007 were as follows: Mr. Malone: 15%; Mr. Bennett: 100%; Mr. Flowers: 5%; Mr. Rosenthaler: 10%, Mr. Shean: 20% and Mr. Tanabe: 20%. These allocations resulted in payments to Liberty for the services of the Named Executive Officers in the amounts set forth in the Salary column of the Summary Compensation Table below.

The services agreement is renewed automatically each year for successive one-year periods, unless earlier terminated (1) by us at any time on at least 30 days prior written notice, (2) by Liberty at the end of any renewal term, upon at least 180 days prior notice, (3) by Liberty upon written notice to us, following certain changes in control of our company or our company being the subject of certain bankruptcy or insolvency-related events or (4) by us upon written notice to Liberty, following certain changes in control of Liberty or Liberty being the subject of certain bankruptcy or insolvency-related events.

The compensation committee has determined that utilizing the services agreement with Liberty to obtain and pay for the services of the Named Executive Officers enables our company to obtain the services of highly-qualified individuals who are knowledgeable about our business for less than the amount we would be required to pay full-time executive officers with similar capabilities and responsibilities.

Equity Incentive Compensation

In connection with the spin-off, our board of directors adopted the Discovery Holding Company 2005 Incentive Plan, which we refer to as the incentive plan, and the Discovery Holding Company Transitional Stock Adjustment Plan, which we refer to as the transitional plan. The incentive plan provides for the grant of a variety of incentive awards, including stock options, restricted shares, stock appreciation rights and performance awards. The transitional plan provided for the grant of awards with respect to our common stock that resulted from adjustments made, in connection with the spin-off, to the then-outstanding Liberty incentive awards in accordance with the anti-dilution provisions of the Liberty incentive plans. The incentive plan and the transitional plan are administered by the compensation committee of our board of directors.

The awards granted under the transitional plan were made pursuant to the terms of a reorganization agreement we entered into with Liberty at the time of the spin-off. In accordance with the reorganization agreement, each outstanding Liberty stock option and stock appreciation right held by the Named Executive Officers was divided into an option to purchase a number of shares of the same series of our common stock as the series of Liberty common stock for which the outstanding Liberty award was exercisable equal to 0.10 times the number of shares for which the Liberty award was exercisable (a DHC spin-off option) and an adjusted option or stock appreciation right, as applicable, with respect to shares of Liberty common stock equal to the same series and number of shares of Liberty common stock for which the Liberty award was exercisable (an adjusted Liberty award). The exercise price or base price of each Liberty award was allocated between the DHC spin-off option and the adjusted Liberty award. We believe that the DHC spin-off options help to align the interests of the Named Executive Officers with those of our stockholders and help motivate them to increase the value of our company for our shareholders.

On May 16, 2007, the compensation committee determined to award Mr. Bennett options to purchase 10,000 shares of our Series A common stock under the incentive plan, in recognition of Mr. Bennett's service to our company. The options received by Mr. Bennett had an exercise price equal to $22.90, which was the closing price of our Series A common stock on the grant date, and a grant date fair value of $77,382. For more information, please see the Grants of Plan-Based Awards table below.

Our compensation committee expects to grant future awards under the incentive plan in those circumstances in which either (i) the award will help better align the interests of a recipient with those of our stockholders and help motivate the recipient to increase the value of our company for our shareholders or (ii) the award will assist our company in attracting key employees. Although the compensation committee has not adopted a formal policy in this regard, the compensation committee does not intend to award equity or equity-linked awards under the incentive plan at a time when our board of directors is in possession of undisclosed, material information that can reasonably be expected to cause increased trading in our stock. No further awards may be granted under the transitional plan.

Employment Contracts, Termination of Employment and Change in Control Arrangements

We have no employment contracts, termination of employment agreements or change of control agreements with any of the Named Executive Officers. However, under the terms of the services agreement, if Liberty terminates any of the Named Executive Officers who devoted 50% or more of his time to providing services to our company over the one-year period preceding such termination (the look-back period), a portion of any severance payments payable to that officer by Liberty will be allocated to us. The amount allocated to our company will be based upon the percentage determined by dividing the total number of months in which such executive devoted 50% or more of his time providing services to our company under the services agreement by the total number of months that he was employed by Liberty or its predecessors, to the extent taken into account for purposes of determining the severance payment payable to that executive (or using such other basis upon which the amount of the severance payment is determined to be payable to that executive), multiplied by the percentage of the executive's time devoted to providing services to our company during the look-back period.

In addition, under the incentive plan, following a change of control of our company all awards granted thereunder will fully vest, unless the compensation committee determines otherwise and effective provision is made to substitute new, equivalent awards of any successor company.

(f) Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change-in-Control

The following table sets forth the potential payments to the Named Executive Officers if their employment with Liberty had terminated or a change in control in our company had occurred, in each case, as of December 31, 2007. The actual amounts may be different at the time of termination due to various factors. In addition, we may enter into new arrangements or modify these arrangements from time to time.

The amounts provided in the tables are based on the closing market prices on December 31, 2007 for each series of our common stock: DISCA $25.14 and DISCB $25.60. The value of options shown in the tables is based on the spread between the exercise or base price of the award and the applicable closing market price.

Each of the Named Executive Officers has awards outstanding under the transitional plan, and Mr. Bennett has an award outstanding under the incentive plan. None of the Named Executive Officers is party to any employment agreement with Liberty or our company pursuant to which he would be entitled to receive severance payments, other than Mr. Bennett. As discussed under Item 11. Executive Compensation, (a) Compensation Discussion and Analysis, any severance payments made to Mr. Bennett under his employment agreement with Liberty, as of December 31, 2007, would be allocated to our company pursuant to our services agreement with Liberty. Pursuant to Mr. Bennett's employment agreement with Liberty, he would be entitled to severance upon termination of employment following his death or disability.

Set forth below is a description of the circumstances giving rise to these potential payments and a brief summary of the provisions governing their payout:

Voluntary Termination. Under the incentive plan and the transitional plan, each Named Executive Officer would only have a right to the equity grants which vested prior to his termination date.

Termination for Cause. All equity grants (whether vested or unvested) under the incentive plan and the transitional plan would be forfeited by any Named Executive Officer who is terminated by Liberty for cause. The incentive plan and the transitional plan define cause as insubordination, dishonesty, incompetence, moral turpitude, other misconduct of any kind and the refusal to perform his duties and responsibilities for any reason other than illness or incapacity; provided that, if such termination is within 12 months after a change in control (as described below), cause means a felony conviction for fraud, misappropriation or embezzlement.

Termination Without Cause. Pursuant to the incentive plan and the transitional plan (and the related award agreements), if a Named Executive Officer were terminated without cause, in addition to his vested equity awards, he would be entitled to vesting in full with respect to any outstanding options that would have vested during the calendar year in which the termination occurs and the lapse of restrictions with respect to any restricted share awards that would have vested during such calendar year.

Death. In the event of death, the incentive plan and the transitional plan provide for vesting in full of any outstanding options and the lapse of restrictions on any restricted share awards.

If Mr. Bennett is terminated by Liberty by reason of death prior to August 31, 2014, Mr. Bennett would be entitled to receive from Liberty, in a lump sum, his salary through August 31, 2014 (calculated on the basis of $3,000 per annum), and Liberty would allocate to us such aggregate amount.

Disability. In the event of a disability, which is generally the inability to perform gainful activity for at least 12 months, the incentive plan and the transitional plan provide for vesting in full of any outstanding options and the lapse of restrictions on any restricted share awards.

If Mr. Bennett is terminated by Liberty by reason of disability prior to August 31, 2014, Mr. Bennett would be entitled to receive from Liberty, in a lump sum, his salary through August 31, 2014 (calculated on the basis of $3,000 per annum), and Liberty would allocate to us such aggregate amount.

Table of Contents

Termination After a Change in Control. In case of a change in control of our company, the incentive plan and the transitional plan provide for vesting in full of any outstanding options and the lapse of restrictions on any restricted share awards. A change in control is generally defined as:

The acquisition of beneficial ownership of at least 20% of the combined voting power of the then outstanding shares of our company ordinarily having the right to vote in the election of directors.

Any non-exempt person purchases our common stock pursuant to a tender offer or exchange offer, without the prior consent of our board.

The individuals constituting the board of directors over any two consecutive years cease to constitute at least a majority of the board, subject to certain exceptions that permit the board to approve new members by approval of at least two-thirds of the remaining directors.

Any merger, consolidation or binding share exchange that causes the persons who were common stockholders of the company immediately prior thereto to lose their proportionate interest in the common stock or voting power of the successor or to have less than a majority of the combined voting power of the then outstanding shares ordinarily having the right to vote in the election of directors, the sale of substantially all of the assets of the company or the dissolution of the company.

In the case of a change in control described in the last bullet point, our compensation committee may determine to not accelerate the existing equity awards if equivalent awards will be substituted for the existing awards. For purposes of the tabular presentation below, we have assumed no such determination was made. The Advance/Newhouse Transaction will not result in a change in control under the incentive plan and the transitional plan.

Security Ownership of Management

The following table sets forth information with respect to the ownership by each of our directors and each of our Named Executive Officers, and by all of our directors and executive officers as a group, of shares of our Series A and Series B common stock.

The security ownership information is given as of March 31, 2008, and, in the case of percentage ownership information, is based upon 269,180,104 shares of our Series A common stock and 11,869,696 shares of our Series B common stock outstanding on such date.

Shares of common stock issuable upon exercise or conversion of options, warrants and convertible securities that were exercisable or convertible on or within 60 days after March 31, 2008, are deemed to be outstanding and to be beneficially owned by the person holding the options, warrants or convertible securities for the purpose of computing the percentage ownership of the person, but are not treated as outstanding for the purpose of computing the percentage ownership of any other person. For purposes of the following presentation, beneficial ownership of shares of our Series B common stock, though convertible on a one-for-one basis into shares of our Series A common stock, is reported as beneficial ownership of our Series B common stock only, and not as beneficial ownership of our Series A common stock, but the voting power of the Series A common stock and Series B common stock have been aggregated. So far as is known to us, the persons indicated below have sole voting power with respect to the shares indicated as owned by them, except as otherwise stated in the notes to the table.

Change of Control

Other than as contemplated by the non-binding letter of intent entered into with Advance/Newhouse Programming Partnership in December 2007 pursuant to which (among other things) which the parties would combine their interests in Discovery Communications LLC under a new public holding company (the Advance/Newhouse Transaction), we know of no arrangements, including any pledge by any person of our securities, the operation of which may at a subsequent date result in a change in control of our company.

Item 13. Certain Relationships and Related Transactions, and Director Independence.

(a) Director Independence

It is our policy that a majority of the members of our board of directors be independent of our management. For a director to be deemed independent, our board of directors must affirmatively determine that the director has no direct or indirect material relationship with our company. To assist our board of directors in determining which of our directors qualify as independent for purposes of the NASDAQ Stock Market listing standards as well as applicable rules and regulations adopted by the SEC, we developed categorical standards of director independence, which we refer to as our criteria for director independence. Under these criteria, a director will be deemed independent if such director:

is not an employee or member of our management or the management of any of our subsidiaries;

has no material relationship with us (either directly or as a partner, stockholder or officer of an organization that has a relationship with us); for this purpose material relationships can, for example, include commercial, industrial, banking, consulting, legal, accounting, charitable and familial relationships;

has no other relationship with us or our subsidiaries that would interfere with the exercise of independent judgment as a director; and does not accept any consulting, advisory or other compensatory fee from us, except fees received for services as a director (including fees for serving on a committee of our board of directors).

In addition, under these criteria, a director will not be deemed independent if such director:

is, or, during the three years preceding the determination date (which period of three years is referred to as the determination period), was employed by us or any of our subsidiaries, or has a family member who is or was during the determination period an executive officer of our company or any of our subsidiaries;

is, or has an immediate family member who is, an executive officer, partner or controlling shareholder of an organization that made payments to or received payments from us for property or services in the current or any of the past three fiscal years, in an amount which exceeded the greater of $200,000 or 5% of the recipient's consolidated gross revenue for that year, other than payments solely from investments in our securities or payments under non-discretionary charitable contribution matching programs;

received, or has an immediate family member who received, any payment in excess of $60,000 from us or any of our subsidiaries during any period of twelve consecutive months within the determination period, other than (a) director and committee fees, (b) payments arising solely from investments in our securities, (c) compensation to an immediate family member who is a non-executive employee of our company or any of our subsidiaries, (d) benefits under a tax-qualified retirement plan, (e) non-discretionary compensation, or (f) certain permitted loans;

is, or has an immediate family member who is, a current partner of the external auditor of our company or any of our subsidiaries or was a partner or employee with the external auditor of our company or any of our subsidiaries who worked on the audit of our company or any of our subsidiaries at any time during the determination period; or is, or during the determination period was, or has a family member who is, or during the determination period was, employed as an executive officer by a company as to which an executive officer of our company serves, or during the determination period served, as a director and member of the compensation committee of such other company.

Our criteria for director independence can be found, in its entirety, on our website at www.discoveryholdingcompany.com. In accordance with these criteria, our board of directors has determined that each of Paul A. Gould, M. LaVoy Robison and J. David Wargo qualifies as an independent director of our company.

(b) Policy on Audit Committee Pre-Approval of Audit and Permissible Non-Audit Services of Independent Auditor

Our audit committee has adopted a policy regarding the pre-approval of all audit and permissible non-audit services provided by our independent auditor. Pursuant to this policy, our audit committee has approved the engagement of our independent auditor to provide the following services (all of which are collectively referred to as pre-approved services):

audit services as specified in the policy, including (i) financial audits of our company and our subsidiaries, (ii) services associated with our periodic reports, registration statements and other documents filed or issued in connection with a securities offering (including comfort letters and consents), (iii) attestations of our management's reports on internal controls and (iv) consultations with management as to accounting or reporting of transactions;

tax services as specified in the policy, including federal, state, local and international tax planning, compliance and review services, and tax due diligence and advice regarding mergers and acquisitions.

Notwithstanding the foregoing general pre-approval, any individual project involving the provision of pre-approved services that is expected to result in fees in excess of $40,000 requires the specific pre-approval of our audit committee. In addition, any engagement of our independent auditors for services other than the pre-approved services requires the specific approval of our audit committee. Our audit committee has delegated the authority for the foregoing approvals to the chairman of the audit committee, subject to his subsequent disclosure to the entire audit committee of the granting of any such approval. M. LaVoy Robison currently serves as the chairman of our audit committee.

Our pre-approval policy prohibits the engagement of our independent auditor to provide any services that are subject to the prohibition imposed by Section 201 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act.

All services provided by our independent auditor during 2007 were approved in accordance with the terms of the policy.
