Item 8.01 Other Events.

On February 19, 2009, the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Central District of California, Santa Ana Division (the Bankruptcy Court ) extended the exclusive period in which only Fremont General Corporation (the Company ) may file a plan of reorganization through March 13, 2009. Pursuant to the United States Bankruptcy Code, a debtor-in-possession, such as the Company, has 120 days from the date of the filing of its Chapter 11 petition with the Bankruptcy Court in which to file a plan of reorganization, subject to Bankruptcy Court s discretion to grant extensions of this exclusive period. During this exclusive period no other person or entity is permitted to file a plan of reorganization. The Company has been granted prior extensions of the exclusive period, and a hearing is presently scheduled for March 12, 2009 to address the Company s further request for an extension of its exclusive period to file a plan through April 30, 2009.

As previously announced on January 21, 2009, the Bankruptcy Court approved the engagement of KPMG Corporate Finance LLC ( KPMGCF ), a subsidiary of KPMG LLP (UK), as the Company s financial advisor to locate potential acquirors of the Company, which could include certain of the Company s remaining assets and/or liabilities, and to act as a sponsor in a potential plan of reorganization. In connection with this engagement, KPMGCF distributed marketing materials informing potential investors of the opportunity to act as the sponsor of the Company s plan of reorganization. As a result of KPMGCF s marketing efforts, 26 parties entered into non-disclosure agreements and were provided access to information about the Company and its management. Ultimately, the Company received six non-binding letters of intent from interested third parties, each of whom is believed to be financially qualified to serve as a prospective plan proponent.

The Company is evaluating each of these proposals to determine whether the implementation of any of such proposals through a plan of reorganization is in the best interest of the Company, its creditors and its various other constituencies. The Bankruptcy Court s extension of the exclusivity period allows the Company, its advisors and the various constituents to continue to pursue negotiations with the prospective plan proponents in an attempt to maximize the value to be received from a plan of reorganization. The Company cannot provide assurance that any of these proposals will be acceptable to the Company or certain of its constituents or that any plan of reorganization will be confirmed by the Bankruptcy Court.

Documents filed with the Bankruptcy Court in connection with the Company s bankruptcy case (other than documents filed under seal or otherwise subject to confidentiality protections) will be accessible at the Bankruptcy Court s Internet site, www.cacd.uscourts.gov, through an account obtained from Pacer Service Center at 1-800-676-6856.
