PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

In connection with a Form S-3 filed by the Registrant on June 18, 2004, the SEC is conducting a routine review of the Registrant's Form 10-K for fiscal year ended December 31, 2003 as well as the Registrant's quarterly reports for the first and second quarter of 2004. The Registrant anticipates that the results of the SEC's review will be examined by both its present independent outside accounting firm, Deloitte and Touche, as well as the Registrant's prior independent outside accounting firm, PriceWaterhouseCoopers. As a result, the Registrant is unable to file its Form 10-Q for the third quarter ended September 30, 2004 within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort or expense. The Registrant is presently reviewing accounting issues involving its treatment of:

certain warrants received in conjunction with a joint marketing agreement entered into with PlanVista Corporation in 2003;

the valuation of stock received by the Registrant in the stock-for-stock acquisition of PlanVista Corporation in early 2004;

disposal of certain assets related to the Registrant's laboratory services segment on June 30, 2004; and the use of EBITDA as a non-GAAP measure of performance.

The Registrant also anticipates expansion of disclosure in certain other areas of its recent Form 10-K and Form 10-Q filings.

At this time, it is premature to conclude as to the impact, if any, from the resolution of the comments, on the Registrant's previously filed financial statements and disclosures, or necessary updates to the Form 10-Q for the first and second quarter of 2004, and for the Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003. Because of the close proximity of the SEC's review and the deadline for filing the Registrant's Form 10-Q for the third quarter ended September 30, 2004, the Registrant has filed this Form 12B-25 with the SEC.
