PART II
RULE 12B-25 (B) AND (C)

If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate.)

- (a) The reasons described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense;
- (b) The subject annual report, semi-annual report, transition report on Form 10-K, 20-F, 11-K or Form N-SAR, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date; or the subject [X] quarterly report or transition report on Form 10-Q, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date; and
- (c) The accountant's statement or other exhibit required by Rule 12b-25(c) has been attached if applicable.

PART III
NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Form 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period. (Attach extra sheets if needed.)

Due to net losses in the Company's fiscal 2001 fourth quarter, the Company violated several of the financial covenants included in its debt agreements. The Company had previously obtained waivers of the covenant violations through the end of June 2001 and is finalizing negotiations with its lenders to amend these debt agreements and reset the financial covenants. Because of the on-going negotiations, the Company was unable to finalize the description of its debt and complete other portions of its financial statements and its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended March 31, 2001 prior to the due date for the Form 10-K. The Company anticipates finalizing negotiations and completing the amendments to the debt agreements within fifteen calendar days after June 29, 2001 and filing the Form 10-K within that timeframe.

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

[X] Yes [ ] No

If so: attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Company previously issued a press release, dated May 17, 2001, reporting its results of operations for the fourth quarter and fiscal year ended March 31, 2001. Revenues for the fourth quarter ended March 31, 2001 totaled $38.5 million, an increase of $1.3 million, or 3.5%, over the fourth quarter of the previous fiscal year. For the quarter, including one-time unusual items, the Company incurred a net loss of $6.1 million, or $0.78 per share, compared to a net loss from continuing operations of $3.3 million, or $0.43 per share in the prior-year period, which also included unusual items. During the fourth quarter of fiscal 2001, the Company recorded charges of $3.2 million for unusual items related to cessation of certain Mexican foundry operations, the disposition of a small non-core business unit, the consolidation of local offices, severance and other costs associated with the Company's cost reduction programs and expenses accrued in connection with previously disclosed state regulatory proceedings and antitrust litigation involving the Company. Excluding the impact of one-time charges, the loss for the fourth quarter would have totaled $0.53 per share, compared to a loss before unusual items from continuing operations of $0.28 per share in the final three months of fiscal 2000.

Revenues for the year ended March 31, 2001 totaled $165.4 million, down 1.8% from the previous year. For the year ended March 31, 2001, the Company incurred a net loss of $4.7 million, or $0.61 per share on a diluted basis, compared to income from continuing operations of $1.9 million, or $0.25 per share, in the prior year. Excluding the impact of $3.2 million of charges for one-time unusual items, the net loss for the year would have totaled $0.36 per share compared to income before unusual items from continuing operations of $0.40 per share in fiscal 2000. EBITDA (earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization) before the $3.2 million of unusual charges totaled $10.6 million in fiscal 2001.

For more information regarding the Company's results of operations for the fourth quarter and fiscal year ended March 31, 2001, see the press release, dated May 17, 2001, attached to this filing as Exhibit 99.1.

The Company does not anticipate any changes to the results of operations described above.
