as described in the Proxy Statement.

SPARTON CORPORATION
2400 EAST GANSON STREET
JACKSON, MICHIGAN 49202

PROXY STATEMENT

FOR THE SPECIAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS TO BE HELD ON SEPTEMBER 24, 2004

SOLICITATION

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of SPARTON CORPORATION, an Ohio corporation (the "Company"), of proxies for use at the Special Meeting of Shareholders of the Company (the "Special Meeting") to be held at the offices of the Company, 2400 East Ganson Street, Jackson, Michigan 49202, on September 24, 2004 at 2:00 p.m., Eastern Daylight Savings Time, and at any and all adjournments thereof. The cost of solicitation will be paid by the Company. The Company has retained Morrow & Company, Inc. to assist in the solicitation of proxies at an estimated cost of $17,500, plus expenses, which will be paid by the Company. In addition, officers and employees of the Company and its subsidiaries may solicit proxies personally, by telephone, facsimile, email or other means, without additional compensation. This Proxy Statement and the form of Proxy are being mailed to shareholders on or about August 16, 2004.

At the meeting, the Company's shareholders will be asked to (i) consider a proposal to amend the Company's Amended Articles of Incorporation to eliminate cumulative voting in the election of directors, (ii) consider a proposal to amend the Company's Code of Regulations to require timely written notice of shareholder nominations for the election of directors, and (iii) transact such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

OUTSTANDING STOCK AND VOTING RIGHTS

In accordance with the Code of Regulations of the Company, the Board of Directors has fixed the close of business on August 9, 2004, as the record date for determination of shareholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Special Meeting. Only shareholders of record on that date will be entitled to vote. As of August 9, 2004, the record date for the Special Meeting, the Company had outstanding 8,351,538 shares of Common Stock, each entitled to one vote at the Special Meeting. Votes will be counted by Illinois Stock Transfer Company, the inspectors of election appointed by the Company.

VOTING BY PROXY:

If a stockholder is a corporation or partnership, the accompanying proxy card must be signed in the full corporate or partnership name by a duly authorized person. If the proxy card is signed pursuant to a power of attorney or by an executor, administrator, trustee or guardian, the signer's full title must be given and a certificate or other evidence of appointment must be furnished. If shares are owned jointly, each joint owner must sign the proxy card.

You can vote in one of four ways. You can vote by mail, you can authorize the voting of your shares over the Internet, you can authorize the voting of your shares by telephone or you can vote in person at the Special Meeting.

If you choose to vote by mail, you may vote by completing and signing the proxy card that accompanies this Proxy Statement and promptly mailing it in the enclosed postage-prepaid envelope. You do not need to put a stamp on the enclosed envelope if you mail it in the United States. The shares you own will be voted according to the instructions on the proxy card you mail. If you return the proxy card, but do not give any instructions on a particular matter described in this Proxy Statement, the shares you own will be voted in accordance with the recommendations of the Company's Board of Directors. If you choose to vote by mail, your duly signed proxy card must be received by 2:00 p.m. Eastern Daylight Savings Time on September 23, 2004.

If you choose to vote by telephone or the Internet, instructions for a stockholder of record to vote by telephone or the Internet are set forth on the enclosed proxy card. The telephone and Internet voting procedures are designed to authenticate votes cast by use of a personal identification number that appears on the proxy card. These procedures, which comply with Ohio law, allow stockholders to appoint a proxy to vote their shares and to confirm that their instructions have been properly recorded. If you vote by telephone or the Internet, you do not have to mail in your proxy card, but your vote must be received by 11:59 p.m. Central Daylight Savings Time on September 23, 2004.

If you participate in the Company's 401(k) Plan and hold shares in your plan account, you may give voting instructions as to the number of shares credited to your account as of the record date. Only the trustee of the 401(k) Plan may vote your plan shares. You may provide voting instructions to the plan trustee through any of the voting methods described above, except that you may not vote your plan shares in person at the Special Meeting. Your voting instructions must be received before 11:59 p.m. Central Daylight Savings Time on September 23, 2004.

If you are not the record holder of the shares you own because they are held in "street name" by a bank or brokerage firm, your bank or brokerage firm is required to vote your shares according to your instructions. In order to vote your shares, you will need to follow the directions your bank or brokerage firm provides you. Many banks and brokerage firms also offer the option of voting over the Internet or by telephone, instructions for which would be provided by your bank or brokerage firm on your vote instruction form. Under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange, if you do not give instructions to your bank or brokerage firm, it will still be able to vote your shares with respect to certain "discretionary" items, but it will not be allowed to vote your shares with respect to certain "non-discretionary" items. In the case of non-discretionary items, for which no instructions are received, the shares will be treated as "broker non-votes" and will have the effect of a vote against the first two proposals described in this Proxy Statement.

Any proxy duly given pursuant to this solicitation may be revoked by the stockholder, at any time prior to voting, by written notice to the Secretary of the Company, by a later-dated proxy either signed and returned by mail or transmitted using the telephone or Internet voting procedures before the Special Meeting, or by attending the Special Meeting and voting in person. Attendance at the Special Meeting will not in and of itself constitute a revocation of a proxy. Participants in the Company's 401(k) Plan who hold shares in their plan account and desire to revoke their voting instructions must do so before 11:59 p.m. Central Daylight Savings Time on September 23, 2004.

directors exercisable within 60 days, 10,227 shares which are held in the Company's 401(k) Plan, and 1,019,921 shares held by the John J. Smith Trust of which Bradley O. Smith is co-trustee. Mr. Smith shares voting and investment power over the shares held by the trust.

I. APPROVAL OF THE PROPOSAL TO ELIMINATE CUMULATIVE VOTING

A. GENERAL

The Board of Directors has been engaged in a comprehensive review of the Company's governance structure, pursuant to which it has updated and strengthened its Corporate Governance Guidelines, applicable primarily to the Board, and its Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, applicable primarily to and communicated to all employees. In addition, the Company has adopted formal charters for its Board committees, and provided that all of the members of the Audit, Compensation and Nominating/Corporate Governance Committees will be independent directors. The Company has also separated the positions of Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer and established a formal communications process for shareholders to use in communicating with the Board or management. The proposal to eliminate cumulative voting in the election of directors is believed to be another step that will improve the Company's corporate governance structure.

Section 1701.55 of the Ohio General Corporation Law provides that, unless otherwise eliminated in a corporation's articles of incorporation, shareholders have the right to cumulate their votes in the election of directors. The current Amended Articles of Incorporation of the Company do not eliminate the right of shareholders to cumulate their votes in this manner. The Board of Directors, believes, however that cumulative voting is not a desired method of electing directors. See "Reasons for the Elimination of Cumulative Voting." Accordingly, the Board is submitting for shareholder approval, and is also recommending, an amendment to the Company's Amended Articles of Incorporation to eliminate cumulative voting.

B. EXPLANATION OF CUMULATIVE VOTING

Cumulative voting in the election of directors may currently be invoked by any shareholder of the Company by complying with certain statutory requirements in the Ohio General Corporation Law. Under cumulative voting in an election of directors, holders of the Company's Common Stock are entitled to a number of votes per share equal to the number of directors to be elected. Holders of shares may cast all of their votes for a single director candidate or distribute them among two or more director candidates. All directors are voted upon simultaneously.

As a consequence of cumulative voting, shareholders representing a relatively small number of the voting shares have the power to nominate and elect one or more directors. For example, if three directors were to be elected at an annual meeting, shareholders holding slightly more than 25% of the shares voted could nominate and elect one director by cumulating and casting their three votes per share for a single candidate. The election of this candidate would be achieved even if shareholders holding almost 75% of the shares voted were opposed to the election of that candidate and cast their votes to elect three other candidates. If only 80% of the shares are voted, shareholders holding slightly more than 20% of the shares voted could elect their candidate.

Edgar Filing: SPARTON CORP - Form PRE 14A

Without cumulative voting, directors are elected by a plurality of votes and shareholders are entitled to only one vote per share in the election of each director. Consequently, the only director candidates who can be elected are those who receive support from shareholders holding the greatest number of voting shares. Accordingly, cumulative voting has no effect unless more candidates are nominated than the number of directors to be elected.

C. REASONS FOR THE ELIMINATION OF CUMULATIVE VOTING

The Board of Directors believes that approval of the proposal to eliminate cumulative voting is in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders, and is more consistent with the principle of "one share-one vote."

The Board believes that every director of a publicly-held corporation should represent the interests of all of its shareholders. It believes that directors elected by a minority shareholder or group of shareholders through cumulative voting are likely to be partisans of the particular interest group which elected them, rather than representatives of all shareholders. Such partisanship could disrupt the management of the Company and prevent it from operating in the most effective manner for the benefit of all shareholders. Further, the election of directors who view themselves as representing only a particular minority constituency could introduce an element of discord on the Board of Directors, impair the ability of the directors to work effectively and discourage qualified independent individuals from serving as directors.

If adopted the proposed amendment will apply to the 2004 Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

D. FUTURE PROXIES IF CUMULATIVE VOTING IS NOT ELIMINATED

The section of the Ohio General Corporation Law referred to in A. above, provides that each shareholder has the right to vote cumulatively in the election of directors, if any shareholder gives notice in compliance with statutory requirements that he or she desires that voting be cumulative. Cumulative voting has not been used in any recent election of directors of the Company. In the past, no provision has been included in the Board's proxy for such elections to authorize the named proxy voters to vote the shares of each shareholder cumulatively.

If the proposed resolution eliminating cumulative voting is not approved, it is the intention of the Board to submit proxies to be used in future elections of directors which add discretionary authority to the named proxy voters to vote the shares of each shareholder cumulatively, if any shareholder has properly elected cumulative voting.

E. ANTI-TAKEOVER EFFECTS

Approval of the proposal to eliminate cumulative voting may make more difficult any attempt by a holder or group of holders of a significant minority of the shares of Common Stock to monitor, change or influence the management or policies of the Company. In addition, under certain circumstances, the proposal to eliminate cumulative voting, along with other measures that may be viewed as having anti-takeover effects, may discourage a takeover or business combination involving the Company that a shareholder might consider to be in such shareholder's best interests, including a takeover or business combination that might result in a premium over the market price of the Common Stock. For example, the proposal to eliminate cumulative voting may discourage the accumulation of large minority shareholdings (as a prelude to a takeover or business combination proposal or otherwise) by persons who would not make that acquisition without being assured of representation on the Board of Directors.

AN EFFECT OF THE ELIMINATION OF CUMULATIVE VOTING WOULD BE BOTH (A) TO PERMIT A MAJORITY OF A QUORUM OF THE VOTING POWER IN THE ELECTION OR REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS TO ELECT OR REMOVE EVERY DIRECTOR AND (B) TO PRECLUDE A MINORITY OF A QUORUM OF THE VOTING POWER IN THE ELECTION OR REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS FROM ELECTING OR PREVENTING THE REMOVAL OF ANY DIRECTOR.

F. RECOMMENDATION

After considering the advantages and disadvantages of the proposal to eliminate cumulative voting described above, the Board of Directors believes that the proposal to eliminate cumulative voting is in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders as it preserves the fundamental principle of "one share-one vote." The Board of Directors of the Company recommends that each of its shareholders vote to approve the proposal to eliminate cumulative voting.

G. TEXT OF THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT

The proposed amendment will be effected by adoption of a shareholders' resolution, which, if approved, will add a new second sentence to Article V of the Company's Amended Articles of Incorporation to read as follows:

No holder of shares of the Corporation of any class may vote cumulatively in the election of Directors.

H. VOTE REQUIRED FOR APPROVAL OF THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT

The proposal to amend the Company's Amended Articles of Incorporation will require the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the Company's issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock entitled to vote at the Special Meeting. Proxies solicited by management for which no specific direction is included will be voted "FOR" the amendment to eliminate cumulative voting. The inspectors will treat abstentions and broker non-votes as shares that are present for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum, but such abstentions and broker non-votes will have the effect of a vote against the amendment to eliminate cumulative voting.

THE BOARD RECOMMENDS THAT SHAREHOLDERS VOTE "FOR" THE PROPOSAL

II. APPROVAL OF THE PROPOSAL TO REQUIRE TIMELY NOTICE OF DIRECTOR NOMINATIONS.

A. GENERAL

The Board of Directors has been engaged in a comprehensive review of the Company's corporate governance structure, and has recently amended the Charter of its Nominating /Corporate Governance Committee to ensure that the Committee has adequate time and information to evaluate all candidates for election as directors of the Company, including those candidates nominated by shareholders. The Company's Code of Regulations, however, does not have parallel provisions, so that it would be possible for a shareholder to nominate at a meeting of shareholders an individual whose qualifications to serve had not been reviewed and considered by the Committee. Accordingly, the Board is submitting for shareholder approval an amendment to the Company's Code of Regulations to conform the notice requirements for the nomination of directors at a meeting of shareholders to those included in the Charter of the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee, and thereby to require timely written notice of director nominations by shareholders.

Edgar Filing: SPARTON CORP - Form PRE 14A

B. REASONS FOR THE REQUIREMENT OF TIMELY NOTICE

The Board of Directors believes that approval of the proposal to require timely written notice for the shareholder nomination of directors is in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders. The Board believes that every director of a publicly-held corporation should be considered on the basis of his or her qualifications, including such information as would be required to be included in a proxy statement filed pursuant to the proxy rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The procedures of the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee permit an appropriate evaluation of those and other matters relevant to the qualifications of nominees for directors presented to that Committee, and the Board believes that the Company's Code of Regulations should be amended to require the same information to be available with respect to individuals nominated directly by a shareholder. The purpose of this amendment is to afford the Board of Directors the time and opportunity necessary to properly consider and evaluate the qualifications of any proposed nominee and, to the extent deemed appropriate by the Board, to inform shareholders about these qualifications and its evaluation. The Board believes that these provisions will further the Board's objective of identifying candidates for director who have the character, integrity, training, dedication, experience and proven accomplishments to offer the promise of significant contribution to the responsible and profitable conduct of the Company's business.

The amendment has not been proposed as a result of any specific efforts of which the Company is aware to nominate or elect any director, to accumulate shares or to obtain control of the Company by means of a merger, tender offer, solicitation in opposition to management or otherwise. The amendment is being proposed because the Board considers it advantageous to be able to consider in advance the qualifications of any proposed nominee, as opposed to being confronted with a surprise nomination at or shortly prior to a meeting of shareholders. While the amendment would not give the Board of Directors any power to approve or disapprove any shareholder nomination, it would preclude a shareholder nomination from the floor of a meeting of shareholders if the proper procedures were not followed. Although the Board does not believe that the proposed amendment would have a significant impact on any attempt by a third party to obtain control of the Company, it is possible that the amendment might deter a third party from conducting a solicitation of proxies to elect its own slate of directors or otherwise attempting to obtain control of the Company or effect a change in the Company's Board or management. The law of Ohio, the jurisdiction in which the Company is incorporated, contains no notice provisions similar to that set forth in the proposed amendment.

If adopted, the proposed amendment would not apply to the 2004 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, but would apply to subsequent meetings of shareholders.

C. RECOMMENDATION

After considering the proposal to require timely notice described above, the Board of Directors believes that the proposal is in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders. The Board of Directors of the Company recommends that each of its shareholders vote to approve the proposal to require timely written notice for the shareholder nomination of directors.

D. TEXT OF THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT

Edgar Filing: SPARTON CORP - Form PRE 14A

The proposed amendment will be effected by adoption of a shareholders' resolution, which, if approved, will add a new second paragraph to Article VIII of the Company's Code of Regulations to read as follows:

Nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors of the Company may be made at a meeting of shareholders by or at the direction of the Board of Directors or by any shareholder of the Company entitled to vote for the election of directors at the meeting who complies with the notice procedures set forth herein. Such nominations, other than those made by or at the direction of the Board of Directors, shall be made pursuant to timely notice in writing to the Secretary of the Company. To be timely, a shareholder shall provide the Company with written notice of the shareholder's intent to nominate the person (a "Notice of Intent"), either by personal delivery or by United States mail, postage prepaid, and received by the Company (i) with respect to an election to be held at an annual meeting of shareholders, not later than sixty (60) days in advance of the date of such meeting, and (ii) with respect to an election to be held at a special meeting of shareholders called for that purpose, not later than the close of business on the tenth (10th) day following the date on which notice of the special meeting was first mailed to the shareholders by the Company. The shareholder's Notice of Intent shall set forth (i) the name and address of the shareholder and of the person or persons to be nominated, (ii) a representation that the shareholder (A) is a holder of record of stock of the Company entitled to vote at the meeting at which the nomination will be made, (B) will continue to hold such stock through the date on which the meeting is held, and (C) intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to nominate the person or persons specified in the Notice of Intent, (iii) a description of all arrangements or understandings between the shareholder and each nominee and any other person or persons (naming such person or persons) pursuant to which the nomination is to be made by the shareholder, (iv) appropriate biographic information and a statement as to the individual's qualifications, (v) such other information regarding each nominee proposed by such shareholder as would be required to be in a proxy statement filed pursuant to the proxy rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission had the nominee been nominated by the Board of Directors, and (vi) the consent of each nominee to serve as a director of the Company if so elected. No person shall be eligible for election as a director of the Company unless nominated in accordance with the procedures set forth herein. The Chairman of the meeting shall, if the facts warrant, determine and declare to the meeting that a nomination was not made in accordance with the procedures prescribed herein, and if he or she should so determine, he or she shall so declare to the meeting and the defective nomination shall be disregarded.

E. VOTE REQUIRED FOR APPROVAL OF THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT

The proposal to amend the Company's Code of Regulations will require the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the Company's issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock entitled to vote at the Special Meeting. Proxies solicited by management for which no specific direction is included will be voted "FOR" the amendment to require timely written notice of director nominations by shareholders. The inspectors will treat abstentions and broker non-votes as shares that are present for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum, but such abstentions and broker non-votes will have the effect of a vote against the amendment to require timely written notice of director nominations by shareholders.

Edgar Filing: SPARTON CORP - Form PRE 14A

THE BOARD RECOMMENDS THAT SHAREHOLDERS VOTE "FOR" THE PROPOSAL

III. OTHER MATTERS

The Board of Directors knows of no other matters which may be presented for consideration at the Special Meeting. However, if any other matters properly come before the Special Meeting, the persons named in the enclosed proxy will vote in their discretion on such matters.

IV. SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS -- 2004 ANNUAL MEETING

Shareholder proposals intended to be included in the Proxy Statement and the Proxy for the 2004 Annual Meeting of Shareholders of the Company must have been received by the Company not later than May 30, 2004, at its principal executive offices, 2400 East Ganson Street, Jackson, Michigan 49202, Attention: Secretary. Shareholder proposals to be presented at the 2004 Annual Meeting which are not to be included in the Company's Proxy Statement must have been received by the Company at this address no later than August 12, 2004. No proposals were received by either of those dates from shareholders for presentation at the 2004 Annual Meeting.

By Order of the Board of Directors

JOSEPH S. LERCZAK,
Secretary

Dated: August 16, 2004.

August 16, 2004

Dear Shareholder:

A Special Meeting of your Company will be held at 2:00 p.m., Eastern Daylight Savings Time, on September 24, 2004 at the offices of the Company, 2400 East Ganson Street, Jackson, Michigan 49202. At this meeting, we will be considering proposals to eliminate cumulative voting in the election of directors, and to require timely notice of director nominations, all as more fully described in the Proxy Statement.

These proposals arise out of the Company's continuing review of its corporate governance structure in response to the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and new rules adopted by the Securities and Exchange Commission and the New York Stock Exchange. We have previously adopted formal charters for our various Board committees, and provided that the Audit, Compensation and Nominating/Corporate Governance Committees will be comprised solely of Independent Directors. We have updated and strengthened our Corporate Governance Guidelines and our Code of Business Conduct and Ethics. We have also separated the positions of Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer, and established a formal communications process for all shareholders to use in communicating with the Board or management of the Company. The proposals described in the Proxy Statement are designed to further improve our corporate governance structure, and we hope that you will take the time to consider them.

We ask your support by signing, dating and returning the attached proxy card in the postage paid envelope, or taking advantage of our telephone or Internet voting system, as soon as possible. Your vote is important, regardless

VOTE BY TELEPHONE OR INTERNET
QUICK * EASY * IMMEDIATE

The Company encourages you to take advantage of two cost-effective ways to vote your shares. You may vote your proxy 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, using either a touch-tone telephone or through the Internet. Your telephone or Internet vote must be received by 1:00 p.m. Eastern Daylight Savings Time on Friday, September 24, 2004. Your telephone or Internet vote authorizes the proxies named on the proxy card to vote your shares in the same manner as if you marked, signed, and returned your proxy card.

If you hold shares in the Company's 401(k) Plan, voting instructions for such shares (whether by telephone, Internet or mail) must be received by 11:59 p.m. Central Daylight Savings Time on Thursday, September 23, 2004.
