Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

Attached as Exhibit 99.1 are slides that L. Patrick Hassey, Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, intends to present at the Bear Stearns Second Annual Commodities and Capital Goods Conference in New York, NY, on November 29, 2006. Mr. Hassey's remarks and presentation slides will be available at 10:30 a.m. on November 29, 2006, on ATI's website www.alleghenytechnologies.com under the Investor tab.

The presentation contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Certain statements in the presentation relate to future events and expectations and, as such, constitute forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements include those containing such words as anticipates, believes, estimates, expects, would, should, will, will likely result, forecast, outlook, projects, and similar expressions. Forward-looking statements are based on management's current expectations and include known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors, many of which we are unable to predict or control, that may cause our actual results, performance or achievements to materially differ from those expressed or implied in the forward-looking statements. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements include: (a) material adverse changes in economic or industry conditions generally, including global supply and demand conditions and prices for our specialty metals; (b) material adverse changes in the markets we serve, including the aerospace and defense, construction and mining, automotive, electrical energy, chemical process industry, oil and gas, and other markets; (c) our inability to achieve the level of cost savings, productivity improvements, synergies, growth or other benefits anticipated by management, including those anticipated from strategic investments and the integration of acquired businesses, whether due to significant increases in energy, raw materials or employee benefits costs, or other factors; (d) volatility of prices and availability of supply of the raw materials that are critical to the manufacture of our products; and (e) other risk factors summarized in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005, and in other reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. We assume no duty to update our forward-looking statements.
