Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements (unaudited)

Note 1 Organization

Diamond Hill Investment Group, Inc. (the Company) was incorporated as a Florida corporation in April 1990 and in May 2002 merged into an Ohio corporation formed for the purpose of reincorporating in Ohio, where the Company's principal place of business is located. The Company has two operating subsidiaries.

Diamond Hill Capital Management, Inc. (DHCM), an Ohio corporation, is a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company and a registered investment adviser. DHCM is the investment adviser to the Diamond Hill Funds (the Funds), a series of open-end mutual funds, private investment funds (the Private Funds), and also offers advisory services to institutional and individual investors.

Diamond Hill GP (Cayman) Ltd. (DHGP) was incorporated in the Cayman Islands as an exempted company on May 18, 2006 for the purpose of acting as the general partner of a Cayman Islands exempted limited partnership, which partnership will act as a master fund for Diamond Hill Offshore Ltd., a Cayman Islands exempted company, and Diamond Hill Investment Partners II, L.P., an Ohio limited partnership. Diamond Hill GP (Cayman) Ltd. has no operating activity.

Note 2 Significant Accounting Policies

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses for the periods. Actual results could differ from those estimates. The following is a summary of the Company's significant accounting policies:

Reclassifications

Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified to conform to the current year financial presentation.

Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the operations of the Company, DHCM, and DHGP. All material inter-company transactions and balances have been eliminated in consolidation.

Segment Information

SFAS No. 131, Disclosures about Segments of an Enterprise and Related Information, establishes disclosure requirements relating to operating segments in annual and interim financial statements. Management has determined that the Company operates in one business segment, namely as an investment adviser managing mutual funds, separate accounts, and private investment funds.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include demand deposits and money market funds.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable are recorded when they are due and are presented in the balance sheet, net of any allowance for doubtful accounts. Accounts receivable are written off when they are determined to be uncollectible. Any allowance for doubtful accounts is estimated based on the Company's historical losses, existing conditions in the industry, and the financial stability of those individuals or entities that owe the receivable. No allowance for doubtful accounts was deemed necessary at September 30, 2007 or December 31, 2006.

Note 2 Significant Accounting Policies (Continued)

Valuation of Investment Portfolio

Investments in mutual funds are valued at their current net asset value. Investments in Private Funds are valued based on readily available market quotations. The market value adjustments on the investments are recorded in the Consolidated Statement of Income as investment returns.

Limited Partnership Interests

DHCM is the managing member of Diamond Hill General Partner, LLC, the General Partner of Diamond Hill Investment Partners, LP (DHIP) and Diamond Hill Investment Partners II, LP (DHIP II), each a limited partnership whose underlying assets consist of marketable securities. DHCM's investment in DHIP and DHIP II is accounted for using the equity method, under which DHCM's share of the net earnings or losses from the partnership is reflected in income as earned, and distributions received are reflected as reductions from the investment. Several directors, officers and employees of the Company invest in DHIP and DHIP II through Diamond Hill General Partner, LLC. These individuals receive no remuneration as a result of their personal investment in DHIP or DHIP II. The capital of Diamond Hill General Partner, LLC is not subject to a management fee or an incentive fee.

Furniture and Equipment

Furniture and equipment, consisting of computer equipment, furniture, and fixtures, is carried at cost less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method over estimated lives of three to seven years.

Treasury Stock

Treasury stock purchases are accounted for under the cost method. The subsequent issuances of these shares are accounted for based on their weighted-average cost basis. During the quarter ended September 30, 2007, the Company exhausted all Treasury Stock.

Revenue Recognition

The Company earns substantially all of its revenue from investment advisory and fund administration services. Mutual fund investment advisory and administration fees, calculated as a percentage of assets under management, are recorded as revenue as services are performed. Managed account and private investment fund clients provide for monthly or quarterly management fees, in addition to quarterly or annual performance fees.

The Company's private investment funds and certain managed accounts provide for performance incentive fees. EITF Abstract Topic No. D-96, "Accounting for Management Fees Based on a Formula", identifies two methods by which incentive revenue may be recorded. Under Method 1, incentive fees are recorded at the end of the contract period; under Method 2, the incentive fees are recorded periodically and calculated as the amount that would be due under the formula at any point in time as if the contract was terminated at that date. Management has chosen the more conservative method (Method 1), in which incentive fees are recorded at the end of the contract period for the specific client in which the incentive fee applies. As of September 30, 2007 assets under management which are subject to an incentive fee totaled $622 million. 37% of these assets are in accounts that are subject to a contractual period that ends on each calendar quarter. Incentive fees related to those accounts are recorded as revenue each calendar quarter. The remaining 63% of the incentive fee assets are in accounts that are subject to a contractual period that ends annually on December 31. Incentive fees on those accounts that would be due if the annual contract period ended on September 30, 2007 and 2006 would be as follows:

Three months ended September 30, 2007:	$ 68,642
Nine months ended September 30, 2007:	$ 68,642
Three months ended September 30, 2006:	$ 0
Nine months ended September 30, 2006:	$ 0

Revenue Recognition - Mutual Fund Administration

DHCM has an administrative, fund accounting and transfer agency services agreement with the Funds, under which DHCM performs certain services for each series of the trust. These services include mutual fund administration, accounting, transfer agency and other related functions. For performing these services, each series of the trust compensates DHCM a fee at an annual rate of 0.32% for Class A and Class C shares and 0.18% for Class I shares times each series' average daily net assets. Effective April 30, 2007, DHCM reduced the fee it charges for administrative services from 0.36% to 0.32% for Class A and Class C shares. In fulfilling its role under this agreement, DHCM has engaged several third-party providers, and the cost for their services is paid by DHCM. A portion of these expenses could, and are typically, paid for directly by the Funds and are classified below as fund related. These expenses include, among others, required fund shareholder mailings, registration fees, legal and audit fees. DHCM's agreement, however, requires that DHCM pay for essentially all fund administration expenses, including those that could be paid directly by the Funds. In addition, DHCM finances the up-front commissions paid to brokers who sell C shares of the Funds. As financier, DHCM advances the commission to the selling broker at the time of sale. This commission advance is capitalized and amortized over 12 months to correspond with the payments DHCM receives from the principal underwriter to recoup this commission payment. Mutual fund administration (admin) gross and net revenue are summarized below:

Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 109 Accounting for Income Taxes (SFAS 109). A net deferred tax asset or liability is determined based on the tax effects of the various temporary differences between the book and tax bases of the various balance sheet assets and liabilities and gives current recognition to changes in tax rates and laws.

Effective January 1, 2007, the Company adopted the provisions of FASB Interpretation No. 48 - Accounting for the Uncertainty in Income Taxes (FIN 48), an interpretation of SFAS 109. As a result of the implementation of FIN 48, the Company recognized no adjustment in the net liability.

Earnings Per Share

Basic earnings per share (EPS) excludes dilution and is computed by dividing net income by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for the period. Diluted EPS reflects the potential dilution of EPS that could occur if options, warrants, and restricted stock units to issue common stock were exercised.

In addition to the above rent, the Company will also be responsible for normal operating expenses of the property. Such operating expenses were approximately $8.75 per square foot in 2006, are expected to be $9.04 in 2007 and may increase by no more than 5% annually thereafter.

Note 7 Income Taxes

The provision for income taxes for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2007 and 2006 consists of federal and city income taxes.

In accordance with GAAP, this tax benefit is not reflected in the consolidated statements of income or in earnings per share. $3.8 million of this $8.2 million tax benefit has been recorded as a reduction of taxes payable and a corresponding increase in shareholders' equity. While the consolidated statements of income reflect a $1.4 and $3.7 million tax expense for the three and nine months ending September 30, 2007, respectively, the Company will not pay any income tax related to the first nine months earnings. The tax benefit will reduce taxes payable in future periods until cumulative taxable income exceeds $22.7 million.

Note 8 Earnings Per Share

The following table sets for the computation for basic and diluted earnings per share (EPS):

	Three Months Ended September		Nine Months Ended September
	30, 2007	2006	30, 2007	2006
Basic and Diluted net income	$ 2,648,293	$ 1,362,245	$ 7,056,302	$ 3,983,025
Weighted average number of outstanding shares
Basic	2,204,641	1,789,147	2,130,867	1,775,633
Diluted	2,322,281	2,239,245	2,251,407	2,204,621
Earnings per share
Basic	$ 1.20	$ 0.76	$ 3.31	$ 2.24
Diluted	$ 1.14	$ 0.61	$ 3.13	$ 1.81

The diluted EPS calculation excludes the effect of stock options and warrants when their exercise prices exceed the average market price for the period. For the three and nine months ended September 30, 2006, stock options and warrants for 30,202 were excluded from diluted EPS. For the three and nine months ended September 30, 2007, no stock options and warrants were excluded from diluted EPS.

General

Diamond Hill Investment Group, Inc. (the "Company"), an Ohio corporation organized in 1990, derives its consolidated revenue and net income from investment advisory services provided by its subsidiary Diamond Hill Capital Management, Inc. ("DHCM"). DHCM is a registered investment adviser under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 providing investment advisory services to individuals and institutional investors through the Diamond Hill sponsored mutual funds, separate accounts, and private investment funds (generally known as "hedge funds"). The Company was first incorporated in April 1990.

In this section, we discuss and analyze the consolidated results of operations for the three and nine month periods ending September 30, 2007 and 2006 and other factors that may affect future financial performance. This discussion should be read in conjunction with the Consolidated Financial Statements, Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements, and Selected Financial Data.

The Company's revenue is derived primarily from investment advisory and administration fees received from Diamond Hill Funds and investment advisory and performance incentive fees received from separate accounts and private investment funds. Investment advisory and administration fees paid to the Company are based primarily on the value of the investment portfolios managed by the Company and fluctuate with changes in the total value of the assets under management. Such fees are recognized in the period that the Company manages these assets. Performance incentive fees are 20% annually on the amount of client investment performance in excess of a 5% annual return hurdle. Because performance incentive fees are based primarily on the performance of client accounts, they will be volatile from period to period. The Company's major expense is employee compensation and benefits.

Edgar Filing: DIAMOND HILL INVESTMENT GROUP INC - Form 10-Q

The Company generated net income of $2,648,293 ($1.14 per diluted share) for the three months ended September 30, 2007, compared with net income of $1,362,245 ($0.61 per diluted share) for the three months ended September 30, 2006. The increase in profitability is primarily attributable to the Company's investment advisory fee and mutual fund administration fee increase due to an increase in AUM of $1.3 billion year over year.

Table of ContentsRevenue

(in Thousands)	Three Months Ended September 30,		% Change
	2007	2006
Investment advisory	$ 9,216	$5,637	63%
Performance incentive	1		n.m.
Mutual fund administration, net	1,484	1,018	46%
Total	$10,701	$6,655	61%

As a percent of total third quarter 2007 revenues, investment advisory fees account for 86%, performance incentive fees accounted for less than 1%, and mutual fund administration fees accounted for the remaining 14% compared to the third quarter of 2006 where investment advisory fees accounted for 85% and mutual fund administration fees accounted for 15% of revenues.

Investment Advisory Fees. Investment advisory fees are calculated as a percent of average net assets under management at various levels depending on the investment product. The Company's average advisory fee rate for the three months ended September 30, 2007 was 0.85% compared to 0.74% for the three months ended September 30, 2006. This increase was mainly due to the increase in AUM in the long-short products, which have a higher advisory fee. The overall increase in investment advisory fees was primarily due to an increase in AUM of $1.3 billion year over year.

Performance Incentive Fees. Performance incentive fees are equal to 20% of the performance increase in client accounts after a 5% annual hurdle is achieved. The fees are dependent on both AUM and absolute investment performance in client accounts and will be volatile from period to period. Incentive fee AUM totaled $622 million at September 30, 2007 compared to $239 million at September 30, 2006. Incentive fees for the third quarter of 2007 and 2006 were insignificant due to investment performance not exceeding the minimum hurdle for the nine months ended September 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively.

Mutual Fund Administration Fees. Mutual fund administration fees are calculated as a percent of average net assets under administration in the Diamond Hill Funds. The Company earns 0.32% on Class A and Class C shares and 0.18% on Class I shares. As assets in the Funds have grown the Company has realized certain economies of scale; and as a result, the Company has lowered its administration fees by approximately 10% in each of the last two years to pass on those economies of scale to fund shareholders. The Company lowered its administration fees again effective April 30, 2007 from 0.36% to 0.32% for Class A and Class C shares. Class I share fees remained unchanged at 0.18%. Despite lowering fees by approximately 10% on April 30, 2007 and 2006, fund administration revenues increased by $466,000 year over year.

Table of ContentsExpenses

(in Thousands)	Three Months Ended September 30,		% Change

Mutual fund administration	608	422	44%
Total	$7,168	$4,633	55%

Compensation and Related Costs. Employee compensation and benefits increased by $1.4 million, or 36%, during the three months ended September 30, 2007 compared to the three months ended September 30, 2006. This increase is due to an increase in staff and incentive compensation, primarily related to the investment team.

General and Administrative. General and administrative expenses increased by $693,000 or 247%. The majority of this increase related to a trade error which resulted in a $452,000 loss. The remaining increase resulted from additional investment research costs and other general expenses associated with the Company's growth.

Sales and Marketing. Sales and marketing expenses increased by $21,000 or 24%. This increase was primarily due to increased travel related expenses incurred as a result of new business opportunities.

Third Party Distribution. Third party distribution expense represents payments made to intermediaries related to sales of the Company's investment products. The quarter over quarter increases directly correspond to the increase in investment advisory fees earned by the Company.

Mutual Fund Administration. Mutual fund administration expense increased by $186,000 or 44%. A large portion of mutual fund administration expense is calculated based on a percent of assets under administration in the Diamond Hill Funds. The quarter over quarter increase is consistent with the continued growth in assets under administration.

Table of ContentsNine Months ended September 30, 2007 compared with Nine Months Ended September 30, 2006

The Company generated net income of $7,056,302 ($3.13 per diluted share) for the nine months ended September 30, 2007, compared with net income of $3,983,025 ($1.81 per diluted share) for the nine months ended September 30, 2006. The increase in profitability is primarily attributable to the Company's investment advisory fee and mutual fund administration fee increase due to an increase in AUM of $1.3 billion year over year. This increase was partially offset by a significant decline in performance incentive fees due to investment performance not exceeding the minimum hurdle during the period.

Investment Advisory Fees. Investment advisory fees are calculated as a percent of average net assets under management at various levels depending on the investment product. The Company's average advisory fee rate for the nine months ended September 30, 2007 was 0.82% compared to 0.72% for the nine months ended September 30, 2006. Performance Incentive Fees. Performance incentive fees are equal to 20% of the performance increase in client accounts after a 5% annual hurdle is achieved. Incentive fee AUM totaled $622 million at September 30, 2007 compared to $239 million at September 30, 2006. Incentive fees for the first nine months of 2007 were $6 thousand which was down from $2.5 million during the first nine months ended September 30, 2006. This decrease is due to investment performance not exceeding minimum hurdle for the nine months ended September 30, 2007.

Mutual Fund Administration Fees. Mutual fund administration fees are calculated as a percent of average net assets under administration in the Diamond Hill Funds. The Company earns 0.32% on Class A and Class C shares and 0.18% on Class I shares. Compensation and Related Costs. Employee compensation and benefits increased by $4.3 million, or 41%, during the nine months ended September 30, 2007 compared to nine months ended September 30, 2006. This increase is due to an increase in staff and incentive compensation, primarily on the investment team.

General and Administrative. General and administrative expenses increased by $1.35 million, or 171%. The increase related to a trade error which resulted in a $452,000 loss, additional investment research costs, additional rent expense associated with the larger office space the Company moved into during 2006, and other general expenses associated with the Company's growth.

Sales and Marketing. Sales and marketing expenses increased by $130,000, or 59%. This increase was primarily due to increased travel related expenses incurred as a result of new business opportunities.

Third Party Distribution. Third party distribution expense represents payments made to intermediaries related to sales of the Company's investment products. The period over period increase directly corresponds to the increase in investment advisory fees earned by the Company.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company's entire investment portfolio is in readily marketable securities, which provide for cash liquidity, if needed, within three business days. Investments in mutual funds are valued at their current net asset value. Investments in private investment funds are valued based on readily available market quotations. Inflation is expected to have no material impact on the Company's performance.

As of September 30, 2007, the Company had working capital of approximately $32.1 million compared to $19.1 million at December 31, 2006. Working capital includes cash, securities owned and accounts receivable, net of all liabilities. The Company has no debt and its available working capital is expected to be sufficient to cover current expenses. The Company does not expect any material capital expenditures during the remainder of 2007.

During the third quarter of 2007 the board of directors authorized management to repurchase up to 350,000 shares of the Company's common stock. Management and the board believe that the most appropriate use for excess cash is to invest in Diamond Hill investment strategies or repurchase the Company's common stock. The deciding factor will be which alternative offers the most favorable risk-adjusted rate of return in the opinion of management and the board.
