Forward Looking Statements

This document includes statements that do not directly or exclusively relate to historical facts. Such statements are forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These forward-looking statements include statements regarding benefits of the proposed mergers and Restructuring Transactions, integration plans and expected synergies, anticipated future financial operating performance and results, including estimates of growth. These statements are based on the current expectations of management of Duke and Cinergy. There are a number of risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements included in this document. For example, (1) the companies may be unable to obtain shareholder approvals required for the transaction; (2) the companies may be unable to obtain regulatory approvals required for the transaction, or required regulatory approvals may delay the transaction or result in the imposition of conditions that could have a material adverse effect on the combined company or cause the companies to abandon the transaction; (3) conditions to the closing of the mergers and the restructuring transactions may not be satisfied; (4) problems may arise in successfully integrating the businesses of the companies, which may result in the combined company not operating as effectively and efficiently as expected; (5) the combined company may be unable to achieve cost-cutting synergies or it may take longer than expected to achieve those synergies; (6) the transaction may involve unexpected costs or unexpected liabilities, or the effects of purchase accounting may be different from the companies' expectations; (7) the credit ratings of the combined company or its subsidiaries may be different from what the companies expect; (8) the businesses of the companies may suffer as a result of uncertainty surrounding the transaction; (9) the industry may be subject to future regulatory or legislative actions that could adversely affect the companies; and (10) the companies may be adversely affected by other economic, business, and/or competitive factors. Additional factors that may affect the future results of Duke and Cinergy are set forth in their respective filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), which are available at www.duke-energy.com/investors and www.cinergy.com/investors, respectively. Duke and Cinergy undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

Additional Information and Where to Find It

In connection with the proposed transaction, a registration statement of Deer Holding Corp., which will include a joint proxy statement of Duke and Cinergy, and other materials will be filed with the SEC. WE URGE INVESTORS TO READ THE REGISTRATION STATEMENT AND PROXY STATEMENT AND THESE OTHER MATERIALS CAREFULLY WHEN THEY BECOME AVAILABLE BECAUSE THEY WILL CONTAIN IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT DUKE, CENERGY, DEER HOLDING CORP., AND THE PROPOSED TRANSACTION. Investors will be able to obtain free copies of the registration statement and proxy statement (when available) as well as other filed documents containing information about Duke and Cinergy at <http://www.sec.gov>, the SEC's website. Duke Energy Strategic Rationale

Merger will strengthen business platforms and will increase value immediately and in the longer term

Creates immediate value

DUK board intends to increase the annual dividend 12.7% to $1.24 per share effective September 2005

Accretive to earnings

Approximately $400 million in gross annual synergies at a steady state

Regulated savings to be shared between customers and shareholders

Increased scale and scope of North American generation

Regulated operations with more than 25,000 MW of generating capacity

Merchant power business with combined 16,000 MW of generating capacity

Merchant power business gains fuel and market diversity

Stand-alone strength for both electric and gas operations provides portfolio flexibility

Electric operations would be in top 5 of largest in US by implied market cap

Gas operations would be the largest in US by implied market cap

As utility and merchant businesses continue to consolidate, Duke Energy will be very well positioned to participate

Edgar Filing: CENERGY CORP - Form 425

Transaction Specifics

Delaware holding company Duke Energy Corporation

Consideration 100% stock

Cinergy shareholders will receive 1.56 shares of DUK for each CIN share

Premium of 13.4% based on May 6 closing prices

Post merger, Cinergy shareholders will hold approximately 24% of Duke shares outstanding (approximately 310 million shares)

Duke Energy's board intends to increase its annual dividend 12.7% to $1.24 per share effective with September 2005 dividend

Effect of transaction and dividend increase keeps Cinergy's shareholders whole with respect to their dividend
