Item 4.02 Non-Reliance on Previously Issued Financial Statements or a Related Audit Report or Completed Interim Review.

During the process of preparing the financial statements of China Sky One Medical, Inc. ( Registrant or the Company ) for the quarter ended March 31, 2007, management determined that certain significant accounting errors had been made in prior quarters. Errors noted included the capitalization of research and development costs which should have been charged to operations when incurred; the failure to amortize patent rights and covenants not to compete; the incorrect valuation of shares issued for consulting services; and the misclassification of stock compensation as a liability rather than as contributed capital. At that time, the March 31, 2007 financial statements were adjusted assuming the prior years financial statements had been properly prepared, and it was determined that the net effect of these corrections would be a reduction of $2,864,525 in the Company's December 31, 2006 retained earnings. These problems were noted in the beginning of May, 2007, and reflected in the Company s Quarterly Report for the quarter ended March 31, 2007.

On August 1, 2007, Registrant received a comment letter from the Office of the Chief Accountant of the Division of Corporation Finance of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the Commission ) with regard to certain accounting disclosures in the Company s Annual Report on Form 10-KSB for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006 and the Company s Quarterly Report on Form 10-QSB for the fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2007 (the Comment Letter ). One of the comments in the Comment Letter concerns the requirement to file this Form 8-K concerning the accounting issues noted above.

In the course of discussing certain of the specific comments set forth in the Comment Letter with the Company s auditors, the Company s accounting staff determined that the Company s financial statements as of December 31, 2006 and for the year then ended and for the quarters ended March 31, 2006, June 30, 2006 and September 30, 2006 (the Financial Statements ) did not properly account for certain stock transaction and obligations in accordance with United States generally accepted accounting principles. Prior to receiving the Comment Letter and during the course of management s review of the first quarter ended March 31, 2007, management concluded that the Financial Statements referenced above would need to be restated to correct certain reporting errors noted above. The Registrant had originally disclosed these errors in its Form 10-QSB for the quarter ended March 31, 2007 shortly after it became aware of the errors, but has since concluded that this Form 8-K filing is also necessary in the circumstances. After becoming aware of these errors, the Company s Board of Directors discussed with employees of the Company s auditors whether the Financial Statements could any longer be relied upon and if not, what action should be taken to correct the errors contained therein. The Board of Directors has determined that the Financial Statements should no longer be relied upon and that the Company should as promptly as practicable restate the audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2006 and the unaudited quarterly reports for the quarters ended March 31, June 30, and September 30, 2006 to correct the errors noted in March 31, 2007 Form 10-QSB. The Comment Letter has also requested the Company to file amendments to the Company s periodic reports for these periods with the Commission which contained such corrected Financial Statements. The Company expects that the financial statements will be revised, and an amendment to the Form 10-KSB including the revised financial statements, will be completed for filing in the next ten (10) business days. The Company intends to file necessary amendments to the quarterly reports on Form 10-QSB for the three quarters ended September 30, 2006 immediately thereafter.
