ADDITIONAL INFORMATION CONCERNING DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Meetings of the Board of Directors

During the year ended December 31, 2004, the Board of Directors of the Company held five meetings. All of the directors of the Company attended at least 75% of the aggregate of such Board meetings and the meetings of each committee on which they served, except: Gerald Patch, Peeler Lacey, David Bomboy, and Dennis Pierce.

Committees of the Board of Directors

The Audit Committee of the Company is composed of the following independent members: J. Douglas Seidenburg, E. Ricky Gibson, and Ted Parker. The Audit Committee met two times during the year ended December 31, 2004. On February 21, 2002, the Board adopted a written Audit Committee Charter, a copy of which was attached as Exhibit A to the Proxy Statement for the 2003 Annual Meeting. The Audit Committee has the responsibility of reviewing the Company s financial statements, evaluating internal accounting controls, reviewing reports of regulatory authorities, and determining that all audits and examinations required by law are performed. The Committee also recommends to the Board of the Company the appointment of the independent auditors for the next fiscal year, reviews and approves the auditor s audit plans, and reviews with the independent auditors the results of the audit and management s responses. The Audit Committee is responsible for overseeing the entire audit function and appraising the effectiveness of internal and external audit efforts for the Company. The Audit Committee reports its findings to the Board of Directors of the Company. The Board of Directors has also determined that there is at least one independent audit committee financial expert, J. Douglas Seidenburg, serving on the Audit Committee, as the terms independent and audit committee financial experts are used in pertinent Securities and Exchange Commission laws and regulations.

The Company s Board of Directors has appointed one committee which is the Nominating Committee. The Company does not have a Compensation Committee, however, the bank has a Personnel Committee, which performs the functions of a compensation committee.

The Personnel Committee of the bank is responsible for establishing the compensation plans for the bank. Its duties include the development with management of all benefit plans for employees of the bank, the formulation of bonus plans, incentive compensation packages, and medical and other benefit plans. The Personnel Committee of the bank met two times during the year ended December 31, 2004. The Personnel Committee of the bank is composed of the following four members: David E. Johnson, A. L. Smith, E. Ricky Gibson and David Bomboy.

The Nominating Committee is responsible for nominating individuals for election to the Company s Board of Directors. The Nominating Committee met three times during the year ended December 31, 2004, and consists of Andrew Stetelman, David W. Bomboy, Ralph Simmons, Trent Mulloy, and Gerald Patch, all of whom are independent directors. The Company adopted a Nominating Committee Charter, a copy of which was attached as Exhibit B to the Proxy Statement for the 2004 Annual Meeting. A copy of the Nominating Committee Charter can be found at the Company s internet website at www.thefirstbank.com. The Nominating Committee welcomes recommendations made by shareholders of the Company. Any recommendations for the 2006 Annual Shareholders Meeting should be made in writing addressed to the Nominating Committee at 6480 U.S. Highway 98 West (39402), Post Office Box 15549, Hattiesburg, Mississippi, 39404-5549 by December 28, 2005. It is the Nominating Committee s policy to consider director candidates recommended by stockholders who appear to be qualified to serve on the Company s Board of Directors. The Nominating Committee may choose not to consider an unsolicited recommendation if no vacancy exists on the Board of Directors and the Nominating Committee does not perceive a need to increase the size of the Board of Directors. The Nominating Committee will consider only those director candidates recommended in accordance with the Nominating Committee Shareholder Policies and Procedures, a copy of which was attached as Exhibit C to the Proxy Statement for the 2004 Annual Meeting. A copy of the Nominating Committee Shareholder Policies and Procedures can be found at the Company s internet website at www.thefirstbank.com.

Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

Officers, directors and 10% beneficial owners of the Company and its associates, including members of their families or corporations, partnerships, or other organizations in which such officers or directors have a controlling interest, are customers of the bank and have transactions with the banks in the ordinary course of business, and may continue to do so in the future. All outstanding loans and commitments included in such transactions were made in the ordinary course of business on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with other persons, and did not involve more than normal risk of collectibility or present other unfavorable features.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires the Company s directors, executive officers, and beneficial owners of more than 10% to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership of common stock. Executive officers and directors are required by Securities and Exchange Commission Regulations to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file. To the Company s knowledge, based solely on a review of the copies of such reports furnished to the Company and written representations that no other reports were required, during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004, all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to the Company s executive officers and directors were complied with.
