This Form 6-K contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 as amended, and information that is based on management's beliefs as well as assumptions made by and information currently available to management. When used in this Form 6-K, the words anticipate, approach, begin, believe, continue, expect, forecast, going forward, improved, likely, look forward, outlook, plans, potential, proposal, should and would and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements necessarily make assumptions, some of which are inherently subject to uncertainties and contingencies that are beyond the Company's control. Should one or more of these uncertainties materialize, or should underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual results may vary materially from those anticipated, expected, estimated or projected. Specifically, the ability of the Company to realize its ongoing commitment to increasing shareholder value through its ongoing restructuring, asset dispositions, strategic review and implementation, and cost cutting initiatives, may be affected by many factors including: uncertainties and contingencies such as economic conditions both in the world and in those areas where the Company has or will have substantial operations; foreign currency exchange rates; pricing pressures on products produced by its subsidiaries; growth prospects; positioning of its business segments; future productions output capacity; and the success of the Company's business strategies, including further structural and operational changes, business dispositions, internal reorganizations, cost cutting, and consolidations.

ANSELL LIMITED APPOINTS NEW DIRECTOR

The Chairman of Ansell Limited, Dr Ed Tweddell, today announced the appointment to the Ansell Board of Mr Ronald J Bell with effect from 17 August 2005. Mr Bell will fill a vacancy that arises from the previously announced retirement of Michael J McConnell at this year's Annual General Meeting, which will be held on 17 November. In accordance with the Company's constitution Mr Bell will stand for election at the AGM.

Mr Bell has had over 30 years experience with the Kraft Foods group, and for the last five years as an executive, was President of Kraft Foods, Europe prior to his retirement. Mr Bell resides in the United Kingdom and is a Non-executive Director of Gallaher Group PLC.

In announcing Mr Bell's appointment, Dr Tweddell said "The Ansell Board is delighted to have secured Ronnie Bell's appointment. Ronnie is a very experienced international consumer industry executive with an extensive background in highly competitive global branded products.

Europe is a significant market for each of Ansell's Professional Healthcare, Occupational Healthcare and Consumer Healthcare businesses. Ronnie is the first European-based director appointed to Ansell, and we look forward to the benefit that will be gained from his experience in Europe and in the broader international arena.

Dr Tweddell also indicated that Ansell was further considering its Board structure having regard to succession planning and the company's operational aspirations.

Ansell Limited will release its full-year results on 17 August 2005.
