Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

Approval of Change of Control Employment Agreements

On October 24 and October 25, 2007, the Compensation Committee and the Independent Members of the Board of Directors of Capital One (the Company ) approved amended Change of Control Employment Agreements (the Amended Agreements ) between the Company and each of its named executive officers, including the chief executive officer, Richard Fairbank (each an NEO and collectively, the NEOs ).

The material terms of the Amended Agreements provide for continued employment for each NEO for 2 years after a Change of Control (based on the definition in the Amended Agreements). During this employment period, the NEO will receive base salary and an annual bonus at least equal to that received before the change of control. In addition, the NEO will continue to participate in long-term cash, equity incentive, savings, retirement and welfare plans.

The Amended Agreements provide for a severance payment if the NEO is terminated other than for cause or voluntarily separates for good reason within two years of the Change of Control. The Amended Agreements provide for a severance payment in the amount of 2.5 times the sum of salary, bonus and certain additional amounts, for all NEOs. The Amended Agreements also provide for the payment of excise taxes that might be imposed under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code (the Code ) including applicable gross-up amounts, should the value of the executives parachute payments exceed more than 110% of their relative safe harbor amounts under section 280G(b)(2) of the Code.

Finally, the Amended Agreements contain technical amendments to ensure compliance with Section 409A of the Code.

The foregoing description of the Amended Agreements does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the form of the Amended Agreements, attached as Exhibit 10.1 hereto.
