Dear Captaris Shareholders:

We invite you to attend a special meeting of shareholders of Captaris, Inc. to be held at the Sheraton Bellevue Hotel located at 100 112th Avenue NE, Bellevue, Washington 98004, at [] a.m. Pacific time on [], 2008.

At the special meeting, you will be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the agreement and plan of merger, dated as of September 3, 2008, by and among Captaris, Inc., Open Text Corporation, Open Text, Inc., an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Open Text Corporation, and Oasis Merger Corp., a wholly owned subsidiary of Open Text, Inc. The merger agreement provides for the merger of Oasis Merger Corp. with and into Captaris, as a result of which Captaris would become 100% owned by Open Text, Inc.

If the merger is completed, holders of shares of Captaris common stock (other than holders properly exercising dissenters' rights under Washington law) will receive $4.80 in cash, without interest and subject to any required withholding of taxes, for each share of Captaris common stock owned by them immediately prior to the effective time of the merger. The $4.80 per share cash consideration to be paid in the merger represents a premium of approximately 28% over the $3.74 closing price of Captaris common stock on September 3, 2008, the last trading day before the merger agreement was publicly announced.

Upon the unanimous recommendation of the special committee of the board of directors of Captaris, the board of directors of Captaris has unanimously determined that each of the merger and the merger agreement is advisable and in the best interests of Captaris and Captaris's shareholders and approved the execution, delivery and performance of the merger agreement. Accordingly, the board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the approval of the merger agreement.

The board of directors is also asking you to expressly grant the authority to vote your shares to adjourn the special meeting, if determined necessary by Captaris, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the merger agreement or if otherwise deemed necessary or appropriate.

Your vote is important. We cannot complete the merger unless holders of at least a majority of our outstanding common stock vote to approve the merger agreement. Failure to submit a properly executed proxy will have the same effect as a vote against the merger agreement. Whether or not you plan to be present at the special meeting, we urge you to vote by completing, signing, dating and returning the enclosed proxy card as promptly as possible. You may also vote either by telephone or the Internet. By submitting your proxy now, you will not be precluded from attending the special meeting and voting in person.

The enclosed proxy statement provides detailed information about the proposed merger, the merger agreement and the special meeting. We urge you to read the entire document carefully, including the attached annexes.

Thank you for your cooperation and continued support.

Sincerely,

David P. Anastasi

Chief Executive Officer

This proxy statement is dated [], 2008, and is first being mailed to shareholders of Captaris on or about [], 2008.

Neither the United States Securities and Exchange Commission nor any state securities regulator has approved or disapproved the merger described in the proxy statement or determined if the proxy statement is adequate or accurate. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

Founded in 1992, Open Text is an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of the Guarantor. Open Text is the Guarantor's principal operating subsidiary in the United States. Open Text is incorporated in the State of Illinois.

Oasis Merger Corp.

100 Tri-State International Parkway, Third Floor

Lincolnshire, Illinois 60609

(847) 267-9330

Merger Sub, a wholly owned subsidiary of Open Text, was organized solely for the purpose of entering into the merger agreement with Captaris and completing the proposed merger. Merger Sub has not engaged in any business operations. Merger Sub is incorporated in the State of Washington.

Under the merger agreement, Merger Sub will merge with and into Captaris with Captaris continuing as the surviving corporation. After the completion of the merger, Open Text will own all of Captaris's outstanding stock. Our shareholders will receive cash in the merger in exchange for their shares of Captaris common stock.

Merger Consideration (page 55)

If the merger is completed, each share of our common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger (other than shares held by us as treasury stock and any shares owned by Open Text or Merger Sub or any of their respective wholly owned subsidiaries, or by holders properly exercising dissenters' rights under Washington law), will be converted at the effective time of the merger into the right to receive cash, without interest and subject to any required withholding of taxes, in the amount of $4.80 per share.

Effect on Captaris Stock Options and Restricted Stock Units (page 56)

Each option to purchase shares of our common stock (whether vested or unvested) outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be cancelled and the holder of such option (if the per share merger consideration is greater than the per share exercise price of such option) will, in full satisfaction of such option, be entitled to receive an amount in cash, subject to any required withholding of taxes, equal to the product of (a) the per share merger consideration less the per share exercise price of such option, multiplied by (b) the number of shares subject to such option.

Each restricted stock unit and restricted deferred stock unit (whether vested or unvested), referred to as an RSU, outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be cancelled and the holder of such RSU will, in full settlement of such RSU, be entitled to receive an amount in cash, subject to any required withholding of taxes, equal to the product of (a) the per share merger consideration, multiplied by (b) the maximum number of shares of our common stock subject to such RSU.

Reasons for the Merger (page 32)

In the course of reaching its decision to approve the merger and the merger agreement, our board of directors considered a number of factors in its deliberations. See The Merger Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the Board of Directors. In this proxy statement, the terms the board of directors, the board or our board refers to our board of directors.

Table of Contents

Opinion of the Financial Advisor to Our Board of Directors (page 35)

In connection with the evaluation of the proposed merger by our board of directors and the special committee of our board of directors, our board of directors' financial advisor, RBC Capital Markets Corporation, referred to as RBC, rendered a written opinion to our board of directors and the special committee on September 3, 2008 that, as of that date and subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth in its opinion, the merger consideration of $4.80 in cash, without interest, per share of our common stock specified in the merger agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to the Captaris shareholders. The full text of RBC's written opinion dated September 3, 2008 is attached to this proxy statement as Annex B. We urge you to read this opinion carefully in its entirety for a description of the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken by RBC. RBC's opinion was addressed to our board of directors and the special committee of our board of directors and does not constitute a recommendation to our shareholders as to how you should vote with respect to the merger.

Recommendation to Our Shareholders (pages 35 and 67)

Our board of directors, by the unanimous vote of all of its members, has:

determined that each of the merger and the merger agreement is advisable and in the best interests of Captaris and its shareholders;

approved and adopted the merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

recommended the merger, the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement to Captaris's shareholders;

directed that the merger agreement be submitted to Captaris's shareholders for the purpose of approving the merger agreement; and recommended that Captaris's shareholders approve the merger agreement.

Our board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the approval of the merger agreement, and FOR the adjournment of the special meeting, if determined necessary by Captaris, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting, to approve the merger agreement or if otherwise deemed necessary or appropriate.

Interests of Our Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger (page 42)

In considering the recommendation of our board of directors in favor of the approval of the merger agreement, you should be aware that the consummation of the merger will result in certain benefits to our directors and executive officers that are not available to our shareholders generally. Our board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the merger agreement and recommending that the shareholders approve the merger agreement. Shareholders should take these benefits into account in deciding whether to vote for approval of the merger agreement.

These interests relate to or arise from:

the acceleration of vesting of all outstanding unvested stock options and restricted stock units held by executive officers and the cash-out of such awards;

the cash-out of stock options and restricted stock units held by non-employee directors;

the cash compensation to non-employee directors if the merger agreement is approved at the special meeting;

Table of Contents

certain benefits pursuant to change in control agreements with the executive officers;

payments under the Management Incentive Retention Plan for executive officers; and continuation of certain indemnification and insurance arrangements.

Dissenters' Rights (page 48)

Shareholders who do not vote in favor of approval of the merger agreement and who otherwise comply with the procedures for asserting dissenters' rights under the applicable statutory provisions of the Washington Business Corporation Act, referred to as the WBCA, summarized elsewhere in this proxy statement, may demand payment of the fair value of their shares in connection with the merger. See The Merger Dissenters' Rights.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger (page 52)

Each U.S. Holder (as defined in The Merger Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger, beginning on page 52 of this proxy statement) who holds his or her shares of Captaris common stock as a capital asset (generally, assets held for investment) generally will recognize capital gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes in an amount equal to the difference between (1) the amount of cash received by such U.S. Holder in the merger, and (2) the U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in his or her shares of Captaris common stock surrendered in the transaction. Each non-U.S. Holder (as defined in The Merger Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger, beginning on page 52 of this proxy statement) who holds his or her shares of Captaris common stock as a capital asset generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax on any gain realized on the receipt of cash in the merger. Tax matters are complicated and the tax consequences of the merger to you will depend on your individual circumstances. You should consult your tax advisor to determine the specific tax consequences of the merger to you.

Antitrust Matters (page 54)

The Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, referred to as the HSR Act, prohibits us from completing the merger until we have furnished certain information and materials to the Antitrust Division of the United States Department of Justice and the Federal Trade Commission and the required waiting period has expired or been terminated. Both the Guarantor and Captaris filed the required notification and report forms under the HSR Act on September 17, 2008. A foreign competition filing was submitted in Germany on September 16, 2008.

Time, Date and Place. The special meeting will be held at the Sheraton Bellevue Hotel located at 100 112th Avenue NE, Bellevue, Washington 98004, at [] a.m. Pacific time on [], 2008.

Purpose of the Special Meeting. You will be asked to consider and vote upon approval of the merger agreement. The merger agreement provides that Merger Sub will be merged with and into Captaris, and each outstanding share of our common stock (other than shares in respect of which dissenters' rights are exercised) will be converted into the right to receive $4.80 in cash, without interest and subject to any required withholding of taxes.

In the event that there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the merger agreement, you may be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if determined necessary by Captaris, to solicit additional proxies or if otherwise deemed necessary or appropriate by Captaris.

Table of Contents

The persons named in the accompanying proxy card will also have discretionary authority to vote upon other business, if any, that properly comes before the special meeting and any adjournments of the special meeting.

Record Date; Stock Entitled to Vote. Captaris's board of directors has fixed [], 2008 as the record date for the special meeting. Only holders of record of Captaris common stock as of the close of business on the record date are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting and any adjournment thereof. On that date, [] shares of common stock were issued and outstanding.

Vote Required. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Captaris common stock as of the close of business on the record date is required to approve the merger agreement. If a quorum exists, in order for shareholders to approve a proposal to adjourn the special meeting, the votes cast in favor of the proposal by the shares entitled to vote must exceed the votes cast against the proposal by the shares entitled to vote. If a quorum does not exist, approval of adjournment of the special meeting would require a majority of the votes of the shareholders present, in person or by proxy, and entitled to vote on the matter.

Voting of Proxies. If you are a record holder of our common stock, you may vote in the following ways:

(1) Voting by Mail. If you choose to vote your shares by mail, simply mark your proxy, date and sign it, and return it in the postage prepaid addressed envelope provided.

(2) Voting in Person. You can vote your shares by appearing and voting in person at the special meeting.

(3) Voting by Telephone. You can vote your shares by telephone by calling the toll-free telephone number on your proxy card. Telephone voting is available 24 hours a day.

(4) Voting by Internet. You can vote your shares via the Internet. The web site for Internet voting is on your proxy card, and voting is also available 24 hours a day.

If your shares are held in street name through a broker, bank, trustee or other holder of record, including the trustee or other fiduciary of an employee benefit plan, you may only vote by completing and returning the voting instruction form provided by the record holder, or via the Internet or by telephone if such a service is provided by the record holder, and you must obtain a proxy, executed in your favor, from the holder of record to be able to vote at the special meeting.

Properly executed proxies that do not contain voting instructions will be voted FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement, and FOR the proposal to adjourn the meeting, if determined necessary by Captaris, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the merger agreement or if otherwise deemed necessary or appropriate.

Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted for purposes of determining the existence of a quorum at the special meeting, but will not be counted as votes cast for purposes of determining the approval of any matter submitted to the shareholders for a vote at the special meeting. Accordingly, if a quorum exists, abstentions and broker non-votes will have the effect of a vote AGAINST the proposal to approve the merger agreement and will have no effect on the voting results as to any proposal to adjourn the special meeting.

Revocation of Proxies. You may revoke your proxy at any time before the vote is taken at the special meeting. To revoke your proxy, you must either (a) notify the Corporate Secretary of Captaris in writing before the special meeting, (b) deliver to the Corporate Secretary of Captaris before the special meeting a signed proxy dated after the date of the proxy you wish to revoke, or (c) attend the special meeting and vote your shares in person. Attendance at the special meeting without voting will not constitute revocation of a proxy.

Table of Contents

Please note that if you have instructed your broker to vote your shares, the methods for revoking your proxy described in the paragraph above do not apply and instead you must follow the directions provided by your broker to change these instructions.

The Merger Agreement (page 55)

A copy of the merger agreement is attached to this proxy statement as Annex A and a summary of the merger agreement is provided beginning on page 55 of this proxy statement. You are encouraged to read the merger agreement carefully as it is the legal document that contains the terms and conditions of the merger.

Limitation on Considering Acquisition Proposals. We have agreed that we and our subsidiaries will not, and will cause our respective officers and employees, and our counsel, investment bankers, accountants and other representatives, not to, directly or indirectly:

solicit, initiate or knowingly encourage (including by way of furnishing information), or take any other action designed to facilitate, directly or indirectly, or that could reasonably be expected to lead to any inquiries or the making of any acquisition proposal;

participate in any discussions or negotiations relating to any acquisition proposal;

furnish any materials to another person regarding or in connection with an acquisition proposal;

approve, endorse or recommend any acquisition proposal or cause a change of recommendation; or enter into any agreement or understanding regarding an acquisition proposal.

In addition, we have agreed to cease as of the date of the merger agreement and cause to be terminated any solicitation, encouragement, discussion or negotiation conducted up to such time regarding any acquisition proposal.

Change of Recommendation. If prior to the adoption of the merger agreement by our shareholders at the shareholders' meeting, our board of directors, in response to an acquisition proposal, determines such acquisition proposal is a superior proposal (as more fully described in "The Merger Agreement - No Solicitation of Transactions"), our board of directors may approve such superior proposal and make a change of recommendation (as more fully described in "The Merger Agreement - No Solicitation of Transactions"). We must then notify Open Text in writing that we intend to effect a change of recommendation with respect to such superior proposal (specifying any material terms and conditions of such acquisition agreement and identifying the party making the superior proposal), after which time Open Text will have five business days to negotiate with us for an amendment of the merger agreement prior to making such change of recommendation. Following such negotiation, if our board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with our financial advisor and outside legal counsel, that the acquisition proposal remains a superior proposal despite any improvements offered by Open Text, it may make a change of recommendation or take the other actions as described more fully in the merger agreement.

Conditions to the Merger. Before we can complete the merger, a number of conditions must be satisfied (or waived by the party or parties entitled to waive the condition under and in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement). These conditions include:

our shareholders must have approved the merger agreement with the requisite shareholder vote;

no temporary restraining order, preliminary or permanent injunction or other order, decree or ruling enjoining or otherwise preventing the consummation of the merger substantially on the terms contemplated by the merger agreement has been issued by any court of competent jurisdiction or other governmental entity and remains in effect, and there is no legal requirement that has the effect of making the consummation of the merger illegal, and no governmental entity having jurisdiction over us, Open Text or Merger Sub has initiated or overtly threatened any legal proceeding challenging or seeking to restrain or prohibit the consummation of the merger;

any applicable waiting period under the HSR Act or any material antitrust requirements reasonably determined to apply to the merger have expired or been terminated;

the accuracy of our representations and warranties set forth in the merger agreement except as would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect;

the accuracy of the representations and warranties of Open Text and Merger Sub regarding the solvency of the surviving corporation in the merger and sufficient funds with regard to the merger and the accuracy of the other representations and warranties of Open Text and Merger Sub set forth in the merger agreement, except as would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a material adverse effect on the Guarantor and its subsidiaries or the ability of Open Text to consummate the merger;

the delivery by Open Text and by us of certain certificates, including a certificate delivered to Open Text signed by one of our officers that our rights agreement does not apply to the merger (or alternatively the rights agreement has been terminated);

the performance, in all material respects, by each party of the covenants and obligations under the merger agreement;

the absence of a material adverse effect following September 3, 2008; provided, however, a material adverse effect will not be deemed to have occurred if the fact, change, event, factor, condition, circumstance, development or effect giving rise to such material adverse effect has been fully remedied, such that no remaining impact is present, all as determined by Open Text in good faith; and not more than 15% of our shareholders shall have exercised dissenters' rights.

Termination of the Merger Agreement. The merger agreement may be terminated and the merger may be abandoned at any time prior to the effective time of the merger:

by the mutual consent of us and Open Text;

by either us or Open Text:

if the merger has not occurred on or prior to January 1, 2009, referred to as the Termination Date, provided, however, that the right to terminate the merger agreement is not available to any party whose failure to fulfill any obligation under the merger agreement has been the primary cause of the failure of the merger to occur on or prior to such date; and provided further that either we or Open Text may extend the Termination Date to January 31, 2009 if, as of January 1, 2009, all conditions to closing have been met or waived other than the holding of our shareholders' meeting to approve the merger agreement or the expiration or termination of the waiting period under the HSR Act or any material antitrust requirements reasonably determined to apply to the merger;

if any governmental entity has issued an order, decree or ruling or taken any other action, in each case permanently enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the merger substantially as contemplated by the merger agreement, and such order, decree, ruling or other action has become final and non-appealable;

if the meeting of our shareholders concludes without obtaining approval of the merger agreement in accordance with the WBCA; provided, the right to terminate will not be available to us where the failure to obtain the approvals was caused by our action or failure to act and such action or failure to act constitutes a breach by us of the merger agreement; or if our board of directors shall have effected a change of recommendation or approved or recommended, or proposed publicly to approve or recommend, any superior proposal, or permitted us to enter into an acquisition agreement related to a superior proposal;

by us:

if Open Text or Merger Sub breaches any covenant or agreement, or if any representation or warranty of Open Text or Merger Sub is untrue resulting in the failure of a condition to the obligations of Captaris to effect the merger being satisfied; provided that, if such breach is curable through the exercise of Open Text's or Merger Sub's reasonable best efforts and they continue to exercise such reasonable best efforts, we may not terminate the merger agreement; provided further that our right to terminate the merger agreement under these circumstances will not be available to us if we failed to perform any of our representations and warranties or obligations under or in connection with the merger agreement that would result in Open Text's or Merger Sub's closing conditions not being satisfied;

by Open Text:

if we breach any covenant or agreement, or if any of our representations or warranties is untrue, resulting in the failure of a condition to the obligations of Open Text or Merger Sub to effect the merger being satisfied, provided that, if we can cure such breach using our reasonable best efforts and we continue to exercise such reasonable best efforts, Open Text may not terminate the merger agreement, provided further that Open Text's and Merger Sub's right to terminate the merger agreement in this manner will not be available to them if they failed to perform any of their representations and warranties or obligations under or in connection with the merger agreement that would result in certain of our closing conditions not being satisfied; or if we or any of our subsidiaries or our respective representatives failed to comply in any material respect with the provisions regarding acquisition proposals as provided in the merger agreement.

Fees and Expenses.

In the event that:

we or Open Text terminate the merger agreement because the merger has not occurred on or prior to the Termination Date or if our shareholders' meeting has concluded without the requisite shareholder vote, or if Open Text terminates the merger agreement because certain breaches by us of a covenant, representation or warranty, then we are required to make a nonrefundable cash payment to Open Text in an amount equal to the lesser of (i) $2.0 million or (ii) the aggregate amount of all out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred by Open Text and Merger Sub in connection with the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement (including all attorneys' fees, accountants' fees, financial advisory fees and filing fees), referred to as the Expense Amount. The Expense Amount will be paid by us to Open Text within two business days following request from Open Text for payment containing reasonable evidence of such costs and expenses.

In the event that:

we or Open Text terminate the merger agreement if our board of directors has effected a change of recommendation or approved or recommended, or proposed publicly to approve or recommend, any superior proposal, or permitted us to enter into an acquisition agreement related to a superior proposal;

Open Text terminates this merger agreement if we or any of our subsidiaries or their respective representatives fail to comply in any material respect with the provisions regarding acquisition proposals as provided in the merger agreement; or

(A) after September 3, 2008, we (directly or through our representatives) exercise our right to negotiate or discuss an acquisition proposal pursuant to provisions regarding acquisition proposals as provided in the merger agreement, or an acquisition proposal has been publicly announced and, in either case, such acquisition proposal is not withdrawn or terminated, on or before the fifth business day prior to our shareholders' meeting (with respect to a termination if our shareholders' meeting shall have concluded without the approval of the merger agreement) or on or before the date of termination with respect to a termination as a result of the merger not occurring on or prior to the Termination Date, (B) we or Open Text terminate the merger agreement as a result of the merger not having occurred on or prior to the Termination Date or if our shareholders' meeting has concluded without the requisite shareholder vote, (C) at the time of such termination neither Open Text nor Merger Sub has breached or failed to perform any of its representations and warranties or obligations under or in connection with the merger agreement in any material respect, and (D) prior to or within twelve months following the date the merger agreement is terminated, we enter into a definitive agreement with respect to any acquisition proposal or any acquisition proposal is consummated; provided, however, that for purposes of clause (D), the references to twenty percent (20%) in the definition of acquisition proposal shall be deemed to be references to fifty percent (50%) , then we will promptly pay to Open Text a termination fee of $4.9 million; provided that any Expense Amount paid will be deducted from the termination fee.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER

Q: Why am I receiving this proxy statement?

A: Our board of directors is furnishing this proxy statement in connection with the solicitation of proxies to be voted at a special meeting of shareholders, or at any adjournments or continuations of the special meeting if determined necessary by Captaris.

Q: What is the proposed transaction for which I am being asked to vote?

A: You are being asked to vote to approve the merger agreement that provides for the acquisition of Captaris by Open Text.

Q: Where and when is the special meeting?

A: The special meeting will be held at the Sheraton Bellevue Hotel located at 100 112th Avenue NE, Bellevue, Washington 98004, at [] a.m. Pacific time on [], 2008.

Q: What will happen to my shares of Captaris common stock after the merger?

A: Upon completion of the merger, each outstanding share of Captaris common stock that you hold immediately prior to the merger will be converted into the right to receive $4.80 in cash, without interest and subject to any required withholding of taxes (assuming you have not properly exercised dissenters' rights under applicable Washington law), and as a result of the merger each such share of Captaris common stock will be cancelled and cease to exist.

Q: Will I own any shares of Captaris common stock or Open Text common stock after the merger?

A: No. You will be paid cash for your shares of Captaris common stock. You will not receive (or have the option to receive) any Open Text common stock in exchange for your shares.

Q: Will the merger be taxable to me?

A: Generally, yes. For U.S. federal income tax purposes, the merger will be a taxable transaction. You should read "The Merger - Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger" beginning on page 52 for a more detailed discussion of the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger. Tax matters are complicated and the tax consequences of the merger to you will depend on your individual circumstances. You should consult your tax advisor to determine the specific tax consequences of the merger to you.

Q: Does our board of directors recommend approval of the merger agreement?

Edgar Filing: CAPTARIS INC - Form PREM14A

A: Yes. Our board of directors unanimously approved and adopted the merger, merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and unanimously recommends that our shareholders vote FOR the approval of the merger agreement.

Q: What factors did our board of directors consider in making its recommendation?

A: Our board of directors considered many factors in deciding to recommend the approval of the merger agreement. These factors are described below (see The Merger Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of Our Board of Directors beginning on page 32).

Table of Contents

Q: What constitutes a quorum at a special meeting?

A: A majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the shareholders of record of Captaris common stock as of the close of business on the record date, represented in person or by proxy, constitutes a quorum of shares at the special meeting of shareholders.

Q: What vote of the shareholders is required to approve the merger agreement?

A: The merger agreement must be approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Captaris common stock as of the close of business on the record date.

Q: How many votes do I have?

A: You have one vote for each share of Captaris common stock you own as of [], the record date for the special meeting.

Q: Am I entitled to dissenters' rights?

A: Yes. You may dissent from the merger and obtain payment of the fair value (as defined in Washington law) of your common stock instead of receiving $4.80 in cash per share of Captaris common stock pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement. To do this, you must strictly follow the procedures prescribed by Washington law, which are summarized under The Merger Dissenters' Rights beginning on page 48. The fair value of your shares (as defined in Washington law) may be more or less than the merger consideration.

Q: Will any proxy solicitors be used in connection with the special meeting?

A: Yes. To assist in the solicitation of proxies, the Company has engaged MacKenzie Partners, Inc.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: We urge you to read this proxy statement, including its annexes, carefully, and to consider how the merger affects you. If you are a shareholder of record, then you can ensure that your shares are voted at the special meeting by taking one of the following actions:

indicate your vote on your proxy card and sign, date and mail your proxy card in the enclosed postage prepaid addressed envelope as soon as possible as instructed in these materials so that your shares may be represented at the special meeting. The special meeting will be held at the Sheraton Bellevue Hotel located at 100 112th Avenue NE, Bellevue, Washington 98004, at [] a.m. Pacific time on [], 2008;

using a touch-tone telephone, call the toll free number set forth on the enclosed proxy card and follow the instructions. When asked for your voter control number, enter the number printed just above your name on the front of the proxy card accompanying this proxy statement. Your telephone vote is quick, confidential, and immediate. Please note that all votes cast by telephone must be completed and submitted prior to [], 2008 at 11:59 p.m., Eastern time. Your telephone vote authorizes the named proxies to vote your shares to the same extent as if you marked, signed, dated, and returned the proxy card. If you vote by telephone, please do not return

visit the Internet voting site set forth on the enclosed proxy card and follow the instructions on the screen. When prompted for your voter control number, enter the number printed just above your name on the front of the proxy card accompanying this proxy statement. Your Internet vote is quick, confidential, and immediate. Please note that all votes cast by Internet must be completed and submitted prior to [], 2008 at 11:59 p.m. Eastern time. Your Internet vote authorizes the named proxies to vote your shares to the same extent as if you marked, signed, dated, and returned the proxy card. This is a secured web page site. Your software and/or Internet provider must be enabled to access this site. Please call your software or Internet provider for further information if needed. If you vote by Internet, please do not return your proxy card by mail.

Q: If my shares are held in street name by my broker, will my broker vote my shares for me?

A: Your broker will vote your shares only if you provide instructions on how to vote. You should follow the procedures provided by your broker regarding how to provide proper instructions to your broker so that your shares will be represented at the special meeting.

Q: Will my shares held in street name or another form of record ownership be combined for voting purposes with shares I hold of record?

A: No. Because any shares you may hold in street name will be deemed to be held by a different shareholder than any shares you hold of record, any shares so held will not be combined for voting purposes with shares you hold of record. Similarly, if you own shares in various registered forms, such as jointly with your spouse, as trustee of a trust or as custodian for a minor, you will receive, and will need to sign and return, a separate proxy card (or, in the case of telephonic or Internet voting, provide appropriate instructions concerning the separate proxy) for those shares because they are held in a different form of record ownership. Shares held by a corporation or business entity must be voted by an authorized officer of the entity. Shares held in an Individual Retirement Account must be voted under the rules governing the account.

Q: What happens if I do not send in my proxy card or if I abstain from voting?

A: If you do not send in your proxy card or do not instruct your broker to vote your shares, or if you abstain from voting, it will have the same effect as a vote against approval of the merger agreement.

Q: May I vote in person?

A: You may vote in person at the special meeting, rather than signing, dating and returning your proxy card, if you own shares directly in your own name as the shareholder of record. However, even if you plan to attend the special meeting in person, we encourage you to return your signed proxy card, to ensure that your shares are represented and voted at the special meeting. If your shares are held of record in street name by a broker, nominee, fiduciary or other custodian and you wish to vote in person at the special meeting, you must obtain from the record holder a legal proxy issued in your name.

Q: May I revoke my proxy or change my vote after I have mailed my signed proxy card?

A: Yes. You may revoke your proxy at any time before the vote is taken at the special meeting. To revoke your proxy, you must either (a) file an instrument of revocation with our Corporate Secretary at our principal executive office before the special meeting, (b) submit to our Corporate Secretary before the special meeting a later dated properly executed proxy by telephone, Internet or in writing, or (c) attend the special meeting and vote your shares in person. Attendance at the special meeting, without voting, will not constitute revocation of your proxy.

Please note that if you have instructed your broker to vote your shares, then in order to change or revoke those instructions you must follow the directions received from your broker.

Q: Should I send in my stock certificates now?

A: No. If the merger is completed, the paying agent for the merger will send you written instructions for exchanging your stock certificates for the merger consideration.

Q: When do you expect the merger to be completed?

A: We have been working toward completing the merger as quickly as possible. In addition to obtaining shareholder approval, all other closing conditions must be satisfied or waived, including the expiration of the waiting period under the HSR Act, before the merger can be completed. However, we cannot assure you that all conditions to the merger will be satisfied or waived or, if satisfied or waived, as to the date by which they will be satisfied or waived.

Q: What will happen to Captaris as a result of the merger?

A: If the merger is completed, Captaris will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Open Text, and Captaris common stock will cease to be listed on the Nasdaq Global Select Market, will not be publicly traded and will be deregistered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, referred to as the Exchange Act.

Q: When will I receive the cash consideration for my shares of Captaris common stock?

A: If the merger is completed, you will thereafter receive written instructions, including a letter of transmittal, that explain how to exchange your shares for the cash consideration payable in the merger. When you properly return and complete the required documentation described in the written instructions, you will thereafter receive from the paying agent a payment of the cash consideration for your shares. If you hold your shares in street name through your broker, bank or other nominee, your account will be updated to reflect payment of the cash consideration for your shares.

Q: What happens if I sell my shares of common stock before the special meeting?

A: The record date for shareholders entitled to vote at the special meeting is earlier than the date of the special meeting. If you transfer your shares of Captaris common stock after the record date but before the special meeting, you will, unless special arrangements are made, retain your right to vote at the special meeting but will transfer the right to receive the merger consideration to the person to whom you transfer your shares.

Q: Who can help answer my additional questions?

A: If you have additional questions about the merger, if you need assistance in submitting your proxy or voting your shares or if you need additional copies of this proxy statement or the enclosed proxy card, you should contact our Investor Relations Department at (425) 638-4048. You may also call our proxy solicitor, MacKenzie Partners, Inc., at (800) 322-2885, toll free, to request a separate copy of these materials.

These statements can be identified by the fact that they do not relate strictly to historical or current facts. There are forward-looking statements throughout this proxy statement, including, among others, under the headings Summary of Terms, The Merger, The Merger Opinion of the Financial Advisor to Our Board of Directors and in statements containing words such as anticipate, estimate, expect, will be, may, will continue, likely to become, intend, plan, believe and other similar expressions. You should be aware that forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties. Although we believe that the expectations reflected in these forward-looking statements are reasonable, we cannot assure you that the results or developments we anticipate will be realized, or even if realized, that they will have the expected effects on our business or operations or on the merger and related transactions. In addition to other factors and matters contained in this proxy statement, we believe the following factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those discussed in the forward-looking statements:

the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstance that could give rise to the termination of the merger agreement, including a termination under certain circumstances that could require us to pay a $4.9 million termination fee to Open Text or reimburse up to $2.0 million of Open Text's out-of-pocket expenses, which would reduce any termination fee that may be payable;

the inability to complete the merger due to the failure to obtain shareholder approval or the failure to satisfy other conditions to consummate the merger;

the failure of the merger to close in a timely manner or at all for any other reason, which may adversely affect our business and the price per share of our common stock;

the potential adverse effect on our business and operations because of certain covenants we agreed to in the merger agreement;

the effect of the announcement of the merger on our clients, customers and partner relationships, operating results and business generally;

the risk that the proposed merger disrupts current plans and operations and our inability to respond effectively to competitive pressures, industry developments and future opportunities;

our inability to retain and, if necessary, attract key employees, particularly in light of the proposed merger;

risks relating to diverting management's attention from ongoing business and operations;

the amount of the costs, fees, expenses and charges related to the merger;

potential litigation regarding the merger; and

THE SPECIAL MEETING

We are furnishing this proxy statement to you as part of the solicitation of proxies by our board of directors for use at the special meeting or any postponements or adjournments thereof. The approximate date on which this proxy statement and form of proxy card are being sent or given to shareholders is [], 2008.

Date, Time and Place

The special meeting will be held at the Sheraton Bellevue Hotel located at 100 112th Avenue NE, Bellevue, Washington 98004, at [] a.m. Pacific time on [], 2008.

Purpose of the Special Meeting

The purpose of the special meeting is for our shareholders to consider and vote on the approval of the merger agreement. Our shareholders must approve the merger agreement for the merger to occur. The special meeting may be adjourned if determined necessary by Captaris, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the merger agreement or if otherwise deemed necessary or appropriate.

Record Date; Stock Entitled to Vote

Only holders of record of Captaris common stock at the close of business on [], 2008, the record date, are entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting. At the close of business on the record date, [] shares of Captaris common stock were issued and outstanding and such shares were held by [] holders of record. A list of record shareholders entitled to receive notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, showing the address of, and number of shares of Captaris common stock held by, each such shareholder, will be open for inspection by Captaris's shareholders, during regular business hours, beginning ten days prior to the special meeting and continuing through the special meeting (including any adjournment thereof) at Captaris's principal executive offices, located at 301 116th Avenue SE, Suite 400, Bellevue, Washington 98004.

Quorum and Voting

A majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the shareholders of record of shares of Captaris common stock as of the close of business on the record date, represented in person or by proxy, constitutes a quorum of shares at the special meeting of shareholders. Once a share is represented for any purpose at the special meeting other than solely to object to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting, it is deemed present for quorum purposes for the remainder of the meeting and any adjournment of the meeting (unless a new record date is or must be set for the adjourned meeting) notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough shareholders to leave less than a quorum.

You are entitled to one vote for each share of common stock you hold. If your shares are represented by proxy, they will be voted in accordance with your directions. If your proxy is signed and returned without any directions given, your shares will be voted in accordance with our recommendations.

Vote Required

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Captaris common stock as of the close of business on the record date is required to approve the merger agreement. If a quorum exists, in order for shareholders to approve a proposal to adjourn the special meeting, the votes cast in favor of the proposal by the shares entitled to vote must exceed the votes cast against the proposal by the shares entitled to vote. If a quorum does not exist, approval of adjournment of the special meeting would require a majority of the votes of the shareholders present, in person or by proxy, and entitled to vote on the matter.

Voting of Proxies

If you are a shareholder of record, you may vote by completing the enclosed proxy card and then signing, dating and returning it in the postage-prepaid addressed envelope provided, by voting through the Internet or telephone in accordance with the instructions set forth on the enclosed proxy card, or by attending the special meeting and voting in person by ballot.

Voting by Mail. You may vote by proxy by completing the enclosed proxy card and then signing, dating and returning it in the postage prepaid addressed envelope. Submitting a proxy will not limit your right to vote at the special meeting if you decide to attend in person.

Voting by Telephone. You can vote your shares by telephone by using a touch-tone telephone, calling the toll-free telephone number on your proxy card and following the instructions. When asked for your voter control number, enter the number printed just above your name on the front of the proxy card accompanying this proxy statement. Your telephone vote is quick, confidential and immediate. Please note that all votes cast by telephone must be completed and submitted prior to [], 2008 at 11:59 p.m., Eastern time. Your telephone vote authorizes the named proxies to vote your shares to the same extent as if you completed, signed, dated and returned the proxy card. If you vote by telephone, please do not return your proxy card by mail. Telephone voting is available 24 hours a day.

Voting by Internet. You can vote your shares via the Internet. Visit the Internet voting site set forth on the enclosed proxy card and follow the instructions on the screen. When prompted for your voter control number, enter the number printed just above your name on the front of the proxy card accompanying this proxy statement. Your Internet vote is quick, confidential, and immediate. Please note that all votes cast by Internet must be completed and submitted prior to [], 2008 at 11:59 p.m. Eastern time. Your Internet vote authorizes the named proxies to vote your shares to the same extent as if you completed, signed, dated, and returned the proxy card. This is a secured web page site. Your software and/or Internet provider must be enabled to access this site. Please call your software or Internet provider for further information if needed. If you vote by Internet, please do not return your proxy card by mail. Internet voting is also available 24 hours a day.

Voting in Person. You can vote your shares by appearing and voting in person at the special meeting. However, even if you plan to attend the special meeting in person, our board of directors recommends that you vote by mail. Voting your proxy card by mail will not limit your right to vote at the special meeting, if you decide to attend in person. If you hold shares through a bank, broker, trustee, or other agent, you must obtain a proxy, executed in your favor, from the bank, broker, trustee, or other agent to be able to vote at the special meeting.

Shares represented by a properly executed proxy will be voted at the special meeting and, when instructions have been given by the shareholder, will be voted in accordance with those instructions. Properly executed proxies that do not contain voting instructions with regard to a proposal will be voted FOR any such proposal.

If your shares are held in street name, meaning that they are registered in the name of a broker, nominee, fiduciary or other custodian, then, except as noted below, only that broker, nominee, fiduciary or other custodian can execute a proxy and vote your shares, and that broker, nominee, fiduciary or other custodian can do so only after receiving your specific instructions. Your broker, nominee, fiduciary or other custodian should provide you with a voting instruction form for your use to provide them with instructions as to how to vote your shares at the special meeting. If your shares are held of record in street name by a broker, nominee, fiduciary or other custodian and you wish to vote in person at the special meeting, you must obtain from the record holder a legal proxy issued in your name.

Captaris shareholders who receive more than one proxy card or voting instruction form have shares registered in different forms or in more than one account. Please sign, date and return all proxy cards and provide instructions for all voting instruction forms received to ensure that all of your shares are voted.

Table of Contents

As of the date of this proxy statement, Captaris does not expect a vote to be taken on any matters at the special meeting other than the approval of the merger agreement (or approval of the adjournment of the special meeting, if determined necessary by Captaris, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the merger agreement or if otherwise deemed necessary or appropriate). If, however, any such other matter is properly presented at the special meeting or any adjournment of the special meeting, unless you otherwise indicate on the proxy card, or otherwise if voting by telephone or via the Internet, you also authorize the persons appointed as proxies to vote the shares represented by duly executed proxies on any such other matters in accordance with their discretion and judgment.

Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes

Broker non-votes are shares of Captaris common stock for which Captaris has received a proxy from a broker, nominee, fiduciary or other custodian that has neither received instructions from the beneficial owner or other persons entitled to vote such shares nor has discretionary power to vote such shares on a particular matter.

Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted for purposes of determining the existence of a quorum at the special meeting, but will not be counted as votes cast for purposes of determining the approval of any matter submitted to the shareholders for a vote at the special meeting. Accordingly, if a quorum exists, abstentions and broker non-votes will have the effect of a vote AGAINST the proposal to approve the merger agreement and will have no effect on the voting results as to any proposal to adjourn the special meeting. In the event that a quorum does not exist, approval of adjournment of the special meeting would require a majority of the votes of the shareholders present, in person or by proxy, and entitled to vote on the matter, and, as a result, abstentions would have the same effect as a vote AGAINST approval of adjournment, whereas broker non-votes, which are not entitled to vote, would have the effect of reducing the aggregate number of affirmative votes required to adjourn the special meeting.

Shareholders whose shares are held of record in street name by a broker, nominee, fiduciary or other custodian are advised to forward their voting instructions promptly so as to afford brokers, nominees, fiduciaries and other custodians sufficient time to process such instructions.

Revocation of Proxies

If you give your proxy card to Captaris, you have the power to revoke it at any time before it is exercised. Your proxy card may be revoked by:

notifying the Corporate Secretary of Captaris in writing before the special meeting;

delivering to the Corporate Secretary of Captaris before the special meeting a signed proxy dated after the date of the proxy you wish to revoke; or attending the special meeting and voting your shares in person.

Your attendance at the special meeting, without voting, will not revoke your proxy. If you have given voting instructions to a broker, nominee, fiduciary or other custodian that holds your shares in street name, then in order to change or revoke those instructions you must follow the directions given by the broker, nominee, fiduciary or other custodian.

agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement to Captaris's shareholders, directed that the merger agreement be submitted to Captaris's shareholders for approval and recommended that Captaris shareholders approve the merger agreement. Our board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the approval of the merger agreement, and FOR the adjournment of the special meeting if determined necessary by Captaris, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the merger agreement or if otherwise deemed necessary or appropriate.

In addition, we have retained MacKenzie Partners, Inc. to aid in the solicitation of proxies and to verify records relating to the solicitation. PROPOSAL 1 APPROVAL OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT

THE MERGER

The discussion under the sections of this proxy statement entitled The Merger and The Merger Agreement summarizes the material terms of the merger. Although we believe that the description covers the material terms of the merger, this summary may not contain all of the information that is important to you. We urge you to read this proxy statement, the merger agreement and the other documents referred to herein carefully for a more detailed description of the merger.

Background of the Merger

The board of directors and management of Captaris have continually engaged in a review of Captaris' s business plans and other strategic opportunities, including the evaluation of the market in which Captaris competes, the possibility of pursuing strategic alternatives, such as acquisitions, and the possible sale of Captaris, each with the view towards enhancing shareholder value.

At various investor conferences in 2006 and 2007, representatives of Vector Capital Corporation, together with its affiliates referred to as Vector, which became a significant shareholder of Captaris in 2007, engaged in conversations with management of Captaris. At a meeting held on April 6, 2007, the chief executive officer and the chief financial officer of Captaris met with representatives of Vector, at which meeting Vector provided a presentation suggesting a transaction might be possible in the range of $7.00 to $7.50 per share and that Captaris management would be able to participate in the buyout. Vector' s April 6, 2007 preliminary indication of interest contemplated further due diligence and Captaris making available confidential information. Immediately following this meeting, the chief executive officer of Captaris and the chief financial officer of Captaris shared Vector' s April 6, 2007 indication with Captaris' s board of directors, financial advisor, Credit Suisse (USA) LLC, referred to as Credit Suisse (which had a standing engagement with us pursuant to an engagement letter dated February 24, 2003), and legal counsel, Perkins Coie LLP, referred to as Perkins Coie.

On April 12, 2007, Vector' s April 6, 2007 indication was discussed at a special meeting of our board of directors, with only our independent directors and representatives of Credit Suisse and Perkins Coie, participating. A representative of Perkins Coie reviewed with the directors the duties of the directors and certain other legal matters with respect to Vector' s April 6, 2007 indication. At this meeting, our board of directors determined to hold a subsequent board meeting to continue its review of Vector' s April 6, 2007 indication and requested representatives of Credit Suisse to review certain financial aspects of Vector' s April 6, 2007 indication.

On May 14, 2007, our board of directors held a meeting at which a representative of Perkins Coie again reviewed with the directors the duties of the directors and certain other legal matters, and representatives of Credit Suisse reviewed certain financial aspects of Vector' s April 6, 2007 indication. In addition, management provided updated forecasts and reviewed its business strategy to offer mid-market customers an integrated solution encompassing document management, document capture, workflow, document distribution and fax. At this meeting, our board of directors engaged in discussions and concluded that in light of Captaris' s business strategy, Vector' s April 6, 2007 indication did not reflect adequately the long-term prospects of Captaris and that Captaris was not for sale. Following this meeting, at the direction of our board of directors, representatives of Credit Suisse informed Vector of our board of directors' conclusion. Vector indicated that it might be interested in revising its indicative price range for Captaris if it were permitted to engage in due diligence. At the direction of our board of directors, representatives of Credit Suisse indicated to Vector that our board of directors would be prepared to allow Vector to perform due diligence as long as Vector entered into a customary non-disclosure and standstill agreement. A representative of Perkins Coie subsequently furnished a draft of such an agreement to Vector and its counsel, O' Melveny & Myers LLP. Several drafts were exchanged by the law firms during the ensuing period.

On August 8, 2007, our board of directors met to receive an update on communications between Vector and representatives of Credit Suisse. Representatives of Credit Suisse reported that Vector had indicated potential interest in significantly increasing its equity ownership in Captaris prior to receiving confidential information.

Table of Contents

They also reported that representatives of Vector communicated that Vector would be interested in resuming discussions with Captaris, but because of market conditions in the debt markets, which would make leveraged acquisitions more costly, and Captaris's recently announced results for the second quarter, Vector would lower its indicative range to between $6.00 and $6.50. Following discussion, it was the board of directors' consensus that the value range indicated by Vector was not one at which Captaris should entertain discussions and the directors affirmed that long-term value to Captaris shareholders would be better achieved by Captaris pursuing its current strategy as an independent entity and that Captaris was not for sale.

On August 20, 2007, Vector filed a Schedule 13D with the SEC disclosing that Vector had shared voting power over 2,689,960 shares of Captaris common stock, or 9.9% of the shares of common stock then outstanding. Vector also disclosed that it had encouraged, and expected to continue to encourage, Captaris to consider enhancing shareholder value, including through a possible merger, sale of assets, consolidation, business combination or a recapitalization or refinancing, including a possible transaction with Vector. Following the filing, representatives of Vector contacted representatives of Credit Suisse to indicate that Vector would be interested in commencing due diligence with a view to resuming discussions with Captaris at the previously indicated range.

On August 23, 2007, we entered into a mutual confidentiality agreement with Océ Holding Deutschland GmbH & Co. KG in connection with exploring a potential acquisition of Océ Document Technologies, referred to as ODT, by Captaris. On September 4, 2007, our board of directors engaged RBC to provide certain investment banking and financial advisory services to our board of directors with regard to such potential transaction with ODT.

On August 29, 2007, representatives of Credit Suisse briefed our board of directors on recent communications with Vector, including Vector's desire to commence due diligence and engage in discussions regarding a possible acquisition of Captaris at the previously indicated range of $6.00 to $6.50. A representative of Perkins Coie reviewed with our board of directors the duties of the directors and certain other legal matters. Our board of directors determined that its position regarding Vector's indicated range had not changed but that if a satisfactory nondisclosure and standstill agreement could be agreed to, Captaris would permit Vector to conduct limited due diligence to enable Vector to retire its views on valuation. Accordingly, our board of directors authorized Captaris management to enter into a non-disclosure and standstill agreement with Vector on terms reviewed with the board. Following the board meeting, our chairman of the board, our chief executive officer, and representatives of Credit Suisse and Perkins Coie met, and as a result of the meeting and as previously instructed by our board of directors, representatives of Credit Suisse were instructed to communicate to Vector that Captaris's position regarding the indicated range had not changed, but if a satisfactory nondisclosure and standstill agreement could be agreed to, Captaris would permit Vector to conduct limited due diligence to enable Vector to refine its views on valuation.

On September 12, 2007, Captaris and Vector entered into a Confidentiality/Non-Disclosure Agreement pursuant to which Captaris agreed to provide to Vector and its potential financing sources certain confidential and proprietary information concerning the business and properties of Captaris. The Confidentiality/Non-Disclosure Agreement included, among other things, a standstill provision whereby Vector agreed that, until March 12, 2008, Vector would not directly or indirectly acquire additional shares of Captaris common stock. On September 13, 2007, Vector filed an amendment to its Schedule 13D with the SEC attaching the Confidentiality/Non-Disclosure Agreement, and Captaris filed a Form 8-K with the SEC disclosing entry into the Confidentiality/Non-Disclosure Agreement.

On September 13, 2007, Captaris senior management discussed due diligence matters with representatives of Vector. On September 20, 2007, Captaris senior management met with Vector to present an overview of Captaris and respond to questions regarding due diligence matters.

Table of Contents

Between September 13, 2007 and mid-December 2007, Captaris furnished documents and data to Vector in response to Vector's requests, and representatives of Credit Suisse and Captaris management participated in discussions with representatives of Vector in order to answer Vector's questions.

On October 25, 2007, representatives of Credit Suisse reviewed with our board of directors certain financial aspects of Vector's proposal.

On November 2, 2007, Ramius Capital Group, L.L.C and certain affiliates, collectively referred to as Ramius, jointly filed a Schedule 13D with the SEC disclosing that Ramius, in the aggregate, beneficially owned 2,600,569 shares of Captaris common stock, or 9.6% of the shares of common stock then outstanding. In its Schedule 13D, Ramius indicated that it believed Captaris common stock was undervalued and that Ramius had engaged and intended to continue to engage in discussions with the management and board of directors of Captaris concerning strategic alternatives, including a possible merger or sale of Captaris's assets, which may include a transaction with Ramius, and that Ramius intended to contact other Captaris shareholders to discuss Captaris, its prospects and other matters.

On November 12, 2007, Vector contacted representatives of Credit Suisse. On the call, Vector proposed an unsolicited indication of interest to acquire Captaris at an indicated range of $5.50 to $6.00 per share, subject to further due diligence, and requested permission to contact our customers and partners.

On November 21, 2007, our board of directors held a meeting to discuss Vector's unsolicited indication of interest to acquire Captaris in the range of $5.50 to $6.00 per share and its request for permission to contact our customers and partners. Present at this meeting were representatives of Credit Suisse and Perkins Coie. A representative of Perkins Coie advised the directors as to their legal duties with respect to Vector's unsolicited indication of interest and certain other legal matters. Representatives of Credit Suisse discussed Vector's indication of interest. After discussion, our board of directors concluded that the proposed price range was not acceptable and that Captaris was not for sale and it directed representatives of Credit Suisse to convey this to Vector. Our board of directors also instructed representatives of Credit Suisse to deny Vector's request to permit calls to our customers and partners, but authorized management to continue to allow Vector to perform due diligence to potentially enhance its view regarding valuation of Captaris.

On November 28, 2007, Vector submitted a list of additional business and legal diligence requests.

On December 4, 2007, our board of directors determined to engage Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP, referred to as Simpson Thacher, to represent it while Perkins Coie would continue to represent Captaris.

On December 7, 2007, our board of directors met to discuss Vector's most recent proposal and certain other matters. Representatives of Perkins Coie and Simpson Thacher also reviewed with the directors the duties of the directors and certain other legal matters. Representatives of Credit Suisse also participated in the meeting.

On December 14, 2007, Captaris senior management and representatives of Credit Suisse and Perkins Coie met with representatives of Vector to address additional due diligence matters and questions.

On December 19, 2007, our board of directors considered and approved the ODT transaction after concluding that proceeding with a transaction with ODT was in the best interests of all our shareholders. On December 20, 2007, Captaris issued a press release announcing that it had entered into a definitive agreement to acquire ODT. On December 23, 2007, Captaris received a written communication from Vector expressing negative sentiments about not being previously informed about the transaction with ODT.

On December 28, 2007, our board of directors met together with its advisors to discuss the communications received from Vector and concluded that Captaris's chief executive officer should send a letter to Vector on behalf of the board of directors addressing Vector's statements regarding the ODT transaction and expressing the board of directors' concerns with Vector's approach toward a transaction with Captaris and reiterating that the board of directors had made no determination to sell Captaris. On the same day, a representative of Perkins Coie responded to Vector's written communication noting Captaris's cooperation with Vector's diligence requests and requesting Vector's compliance with its obligations under the Confidentiality/Non-Disclosure Agreement with Captaris.

On December 30, 2007, Captaris received an unsolicited letter from Vector proposing to acquire Captaris for a price between $5.25 and $5.50 per share depending on the determination by Vector of the effect of the ODT acquisition on the value of Captaris. The proposal was conditioned on additional due diligence, and including a stated expiration of January 3, 2008, at 5:00 p.m. Pacific time.

On December 31, 2007, the chairman of our board of directors, certain members of Captaris management, certain members of our board of directors and representatives of Perkins Coie, Simpson Thacher and Credit Suisse met to discuss the December 30, 2007 Vector letter and communications between representatives of Credit Suisse and Vector.

On January 3, 2008, our board of directors met together with its advisors. At this meeting, Captaris's chief executive officer, the chairman of our board of directors and representatives of Credit Suisse briefed our board of directors regarding recent communications with Vector and Vector's most recent indication of interest. After discussing the proposal, the board concluded that Vector's proposed expiration date did not present sufficient time for a complete evaluation of the proposal. Accordingly, Captaris responded to Vector's December 30, 2007 letter with a letter from our chief executive officer stating that consistent with our board of director's fiduciary duties, it was committed to a thorough evaluation of Vector's most recent indication of interest, had scheduled a board meeting for that purpose on January 18, 2008, and expected to respond to Vector's proposal shortly thereafter. On January 5, 2008, Captaris received a letter from Vector requesting due diligence regarding our acquisition of ODT in order to present a firmer and more detailed proposal. The letter from Vector insisted on a response by January 7, 2008, and a mutually agreed schedule for access to data and management by January 8, 2008 at 5:00 p.m., Pacific time. Our board of directors responded to this letter on January 8, 2008, in a letter to Vector, in which our board of directors reiterated that it had made no decision to sell Captaris, would use the time required to ensure that our board acted deliberately and in an informed manner and noted that Captaris would continue to operate its business in a manner it believed to be in the best interests of all its shareholders consistent with its fiduciary duties.

On January 14, 2008, Captaris management and representatives of Perkins Coie and Vector met to discuss and review due diligence items.

On January 14, 2008, Captaris retained RBC as a financial advisor, to perform certain financial analyses regarding Captaris.

On January 16, 2008, Captaris received a letter from Vector restating its proposal to acquire Captaris at a price of $5.25 per share and stated that a response from Captaris was requested by January 21, 2008, at 5:00 p.m. Pacific time.

On January 18, 2008, our board of directors and representatives of Perkins Coie and Simpson Thacher met to discuss Vector's most recent proposal. Representatives of Perkins Coie and Simpson Thacher reviewed with the directors the duties of the directors and certain other legal matters. Our board of directors discussed with representatives of Credit Suisse financial aspects of Vector's proposal and potential strategic alternatives relating to that proposal and representatives of RBC presented certain financial analyses relating to Captaris. Based on further discussions and consultation with its financial and legal advisors, our board of directors concluded that the best interests of all Captaris's shareholders would be served by Captaris continuing to execute on its strategic plan. In reaching this conclusion, our board of directors took into consideration, among other things, the successively lower indications of value that Vector had expressed during the period it had engaged in discussions with Captaris. Accordingly, on January 23, 2008, Captaris informed Vector that continuing to engage in discussions with Vector was not productive and that the best interests of shareholders would be served by Captaris continuing to execute on its strategic plan. Captaris also informed Vector that it was terminating Vector's access to due diligence information.

On January 25, 2008, Vector filed an amendment to its Schedule 13D with the SEC disclosing that in light of Captaris's position conveyed on January 23, 2008, it intended to abandon its encouragement of Captaris to maximize shareholder value through a possible merger, sale of assets, consolidation, business combination or a recapitalization or refinancing. Vector also expressed its objections to Captaris's acquisition strategy, including its acquisition of ODT.

On January 28, 2008, Captaris sent a letter to Vector reiterating termination of discussions with Vector, citing the continuing decrease in indications of value from Vector despite diligence access provided over the course of more than four months, reaffirming its belief in Captaris's business strategy.

On January 31, 2008, Emancipation Capital, L.P., and certain of its affiliates, collectively referred to as Emancipation Capital, filed a Schedule 13D with the SEC disclosing that it was the holder of 1,371,756 shares of Captaris common stock, or 5.1% of the shares of common stock then outstanding. In its Schedule 13D, Emancipation Capital indicated that it believed Captaris common stock was undervalued and that the board of directors of Captaris should form a special committee to explore strategic alternatives that maximize value.

In early March of 2008, Bruce Crockett, the chairman of our board of directors, met with representatives of Vector to discuss Vector's intentions following the expiration of the standstill period on March 12, 2007. At the meeting, Vector continued to express its interest in acquiring Captaris.

On March 8, 2008, Vector communicated with representatives of Credit Suisse that, subject to due diligence, the price that Vector could offer per share of Captaris common stock could be $5.00.

On March 13, 2008, Vector communicated to representatives of Credit Suisse a proposal to acquire Captaris in an all cash transaction at $4.75 per share. This proposal was subject to certain conditions including that Captaris enter into exclusive negotiations with Vector.

On March 14, 2008, our board of directors, together with members of senior management and representatives of Perkins Coie and Simpson Thacher, met to consider Vector's proposal and its view of strategies available to Captaris. Representatives of Perkins Coie and Simpson Thacher reviewed with the directors the duties of the directors and certain other legal matters. Representatives of Credit Suisse discussed with our board of directors financial matters and perspectives regarding the evaluation of strategic alternatives. Representatives of RBC then joined the meeting and provided RBC's perspective regarding the evaluation of strategic alternatives.

Following these discussions, our board of directors determined that in light of prevailing conditions in the financial services sector, the large concentration of our customers in that sector, the risks these and other factors posed for the execution of Captaris's strategic plan and the indications received from holders of a significant number of our shares in support of exploring alternative strategies for enhancing shareholder value, it was in the best interests of our shareholders for Captaris to commence a formal process to identify and evaluate strategic alternatives available to Captaris, including an exploration of potential interest in an acquisition of Captaris on acceptable terms. In order to run an efficient process and enable Captaris to respond quickly to developments, our board formed a special committee consisting of Bruce L. Crockett, Daniel R. Lyle, Thomas M. Murnane, and Patrick J. Swanick, all independent directors, to oversee the process, referred to as the special committee. Bruce L. Crockett was elected to serve as chairman of the special committee of our board of directors.

On March 14, 2008, at the request of our board of directors, Captaris engaged RBC to provide certain investment banking and financial advisory services to our board of directors in connection with its evaluation of strategic alternatives. Our board of directors engaged RBC, among other reasons, because of RBC's familiarity with Captaris and the market in which Captaris competed and RBC's focus on small cap companies. In addition to having advised Captaris on its acquisition of ODT, our board noted that RBC had advised on numerous acquisitions of unaffiliated third parties in the enterprise content management software market. Following its engagement on March 14, 2008, RBC worked with the chairman of the special committee and Captaris management to identify a list of parties to be approached during the process.

Table of Contents

On March 15, 2008, the special committee held a meeting with representatives of RBC, Simpson Thacher and Perkins Coie to discuss the process of evaluating strategic alternatives. At this meeting, the special committee also concluded that Vector should be invited to participate in the process on the same basis as the other parties.

Following this meeting and at the direction of our board of directors, RBC contacted Vector to inform it of RBC's role as financial advisor to Captaris. During this conversation, Vector indicated it intended to submit an unsolicited public proposal to acquire Captaris. RBC informed Vector of the board's decision to form a special committee to evaluate strategic alternatives, including a potential sale of Captaris, to enhance value for all shareholders. RBC encouraged Vector to participate in such process on an equal basis with other parties. Despite this invitation to participate in a formal process, Vector indicated that it intended to put forth a public proposal to acquire Captaris.

On March 16, 2008, the special committee met to discuss Vector's intentions to submit an unsolicited public proposal to acquire Captaris and directed Captaris to issue a press release regarding our board of directors' decision to evaluate strategic alternatives to further enhance shareholder value.

On March 17, 2008, Captaris publicly announced that its board of directors had decided to evaluate strategic alternatives to further enhance shareholder value and had established a special committee to oversee and expedite this process.

On March 17, 2008, Vector sent a letter to our board of directors and issued a press release announcing its proposal to acquire all of our outstanding common stock for $4.75 per share conditioned on additional due diligence and entering into a definitive agreement by April 4, 2008, and included a stated expiration date of March 21, 2008, at 5:00 p.m. Pacific time. (On March 18, 2008, Vector filed an amendment to its Schedule 13D attaching its March 17, 2008 letter and press release as exhibits). Also on March 17, 2008, the special committee met with representatives of RBC, Perkins Coie and Simpson Thacher to discuss Vector's announcement and the reaction to Captaris's announcement. Representatives of Perkins Coie and Simpson Thacher reviewed with the special committee the duties of the special committee and certain other legal matters.

On March 17, 2008, Emancipation Capital filed an amendment to its Schedule 13D filed with the SEC relating to its ownership of Captaris's common stock reporting an increase in the number of our shares beneficially owned by the reporting persons to 1,694,541, or 6.4% of the shares of common stock then outstanding. Emancipation Capital's amendment to its Schedule 13D indicated that it believed Captaris common stock was undervalued and that the maximum value of Captaris may best be realized through strategic alternatives. Emancipation Capital also indicated that it was supportive of Captaris's announcement to evaluate strategic alternatives as well as Vector's proposal to acquire all of the outstanding shares of Captaris and that Emancipation Capital intended to engage in discussions, as deemed appropriate by Emancipation Capital, with the management and board of directors of Captaris requesting them to give serious consideration to Vector's proposal and any other acquisition proposals, and that Emancipation Capital had engaged in and planned to continue to engage in discussions with other Captaris shareholders and third parties concerning management of Captaris and maximizing shareholder value.

On March 20, 2008, the special committee held a meeting with representatives of RBC, Perkins Coie and Simpson Thacher in attendance. Representatives of Perkins Coie and Simpson Thacher reviewed with the special committee the duties of the special committee and certain other legal matters and the special committee affirmed its conclusion that notwithstanding Vector's announcement, the shareholders would be best served by following through with a fair and expeditious process of evaluating strategic alternatives.

On March 20, 2008, Vector contacted RBC to indicate its disappointment that Captaris had not accepted their public offer to pursue exclusive negotiations to acquire Captaris. RBC reiterated that the special committee was committed to running a thorough and expeditious process and encouraged Vector to join the formal process along with other potential suitors. Vector indicated it did not intend to participate in the formal process at that time.

Table of Contents

On March 21, 2008, the special committee held a meeting to discuss Vector's intention not to participate in the formal process. The special committee then directed its chairman to send a letter to Vector reaffirming the special committee's position and commitment to running a thorough and expeditious process to evaluate Captaris's strategic alternatives. The letter indicated that the special committee did not intend to preempt a thorough and expeditious process by entering into exclusive negotiations with Vector and stated that Vector's proposal to acquire Captaris would be carefully considered with other proposals developed during the process.

On March 24, 2008, the special committee held a meeting to report on communications received from shareholders and to discuss the strategy and process for its evaluation of strategic alternatives.

On March 25, 2008, Vector sent a letter to our board of directors and issued a press release expressing disappointment that Captaris refused to engage with Vector regarding its proposal to purchase Captaris and reiterated its offer to acquire all of our common stock for $4.75 per share, subject to limited additional due diligence, and including a stated expiration of March 27, 2008, at 12:00 p.m., Pacific time. (On March 26, 2008, Vector filed an amendment to its Schedule 13D attaching its March 25, 2008 letter and press release as exhibits). Also on March 25, 2008, the special committee met to discuss communications received from Captaris shareholders.

On March 26, 2008, our board of directors received a letter from Emancipation Capital encouraging Captaris to fully negotiate with Vector regarding its proposal to acquire Captaris for $4.75 per share, seek terms that reduced deal risk to shareholders and served to maximize shareholder value, and expeditiously move forward toward signing up a definitive acquisition agreement with Vector. (On March 27, 2008, Emancipation Capital filed an amendment to its Schedule 13D filed with the SEC reporting an increase in the number of our shares beneficially owned by Emancipation Capital to 1,752,541, or 6.65% of the shares of common stock then outstanding, and attaching its March 26, 2008 letter as an exhibit).

On March 27, 2008, the chairman of the special committee, at the direction of the special committee, sent a letter to Vector welcoming Vector's continued interest in Captaris, noting that Vector's proposal would be carefully considered and evaluated on an equal footing with proposals from other interested parties and reaffirming its belief that the process to evaluate Captaris's strategic alternatives was the best way to maximize shareholder value. On March 28, 2008, Vector sent a letter to our board of directors and issued a press release stating that its offer to acquire Captaris for $4.75 per share had expired and noting that the price and terms of any future offer by Vector would be reflective of future market conditions, Captaris's future performance and prospects as well as the additional time, expense and risk faced by Vector. (On March 31, 2008, Vector filed an amendment to its Schedule 13D attaching its March 28, 2008 letter and press release as exhibits).

On March 29, 2008, the special committee convened a meeting with representatives of Perkins Coie, Simpson Thacher and RBC. Representatives of Perkins Coie and Simpson Thacher reviewed with the special committee the duties of the special committee and certain other legal matters. During this meeting, RBC provided an update on the strategic alternatives process as well as a summary of recent events involving Vector's public announcements regarding Captaris. After discussing these matters, the special committee determined to continue the process of evaluating strategic alternatives and reviewed the list of entities proposed to be contacted regarding their interest in exploring a transaction with Captaris. The special committee also discussed and recommended to our board of directors for approval amendments to Captaris's amended and restated bylaws to allow shareholders more time to decide whether to nominate an alternate slate of directors. The special committee believed that conducting a thorough evaluation of strategic alternatives to enhance shareholder value without the interruption and distraction of a potential proxy contest was in the best interest of Captaris shareholders. Our board of directors subsequently approved the amendments to our bylaws recommended by the special committee. The amendments extended the deadline for nominating directors to our board of directors and for proposing other business with respect to Captaris's 2008 annual meeting of shareholders to the close of business on the 10th day following the earlier of (i) the day on which notice of the 2008 annual meeting of shareholders is mailed or (ii) the day on which public announcement of the 2008 annual meeting of shareholders is made.

Between March 31, 2008 and May 18, 2008, the special committee held several meetings with representatives of RBC, Perkins Coie and Simpson Thacher to discuss the status of the bidding process.

On April 3, 2008, Captaris filed a Form 8-K with the SEC with respect to the amendments to Captaris's amended and restated bylaws previously approved by our board of directors.

On April 8, 2008, at the direction of our special committee, RBC contacted Vector to assess whether Vector was interested in participating in the process and meeting with Captaris management. RBC also informed Vector that regardless of whether it intended to participate in the process, RBC intended to provide Vector with the letter it was planning to send to other suitors that outlined the bid instructions for the first round of bidding. Vector accepted the offer to participate in the process, and on April 9, 2008, a due diligence meeting between Vector and Captaris management was confirmed.

On April 23, 2008, our board of directors, upon the recommendation of the special committee, approved the establishment of a management incentive retention plan, designed to provide an incentive to key management employees and other employees to maximize the valuation of Captaris obtained in the bidding process and to provide continuity of management in connection with the period prior to a potential change of control of Captaris. Under the plan, participants are eligible to receive a cash bonus from Captaris or its successor upon consummation of a change in control (as defined in the plan) subject to certain conditions.

From March 14, 2008 through May 18, 2008, RBC contacted 55 parties, including Vector and Open Text, to assess their interest in exploring a potential transaction with Captaris. These suitors included both strategic and financial parties. Captaris entered into confidentiality agreements with 26 potential suitors to enable Captaris to provide these parties with certain non-public information about Captaris. Captaris management held meetings with ten potential suitors that expressed interest in having a meeting, including Open Text and Vector. Following their respective meetings with Captaris, two of the suitors informed RBC that they were no longer interested in pursuing a potential transaction with Captaris. Throughout this time period, RBC provided updates to the special committee and the chairman of the special committee to keep them abreast of any significant development regarding the evaluation process being undertaken by the various potential suitors.

On May 6, 2008, at the direction of the special committee, RBC sent letters to each of the nine suitors that continued to express interest in a potential transaction, including Vector and Open Text. The letter included bid instructions and requested that interested parties submit preliminary indications of interest to RBC on or before May 15, 2008.

On May 7, 2008, an additional party that RBC had previously contacted, which at the time had declined to proceed, contacted RBC to express interest in pursuing a potential transaction with Captaris. However, because the parties were unable to reach a mutually acceptable confidentiality agreement, this party was not sent confidential information nor was it provided bid instructions.

On May 19, 2008, the special committee, along with our chief executive officer, representatives of Perkins Coie, Simpson Thacher and RBC, held a meeting. RBC presented the indications of interest that had been received thus far by RBC through the bidding process. As of May 18, 2008, preliminary indications of interest had been submitted by five potential suitors. The preliminary indications from the various potential suitors proposed purchasing all of the outstanding stock of Captaris for cash at prices ranging from $4.25 to $5.25 per share, including indications of interest from Open Text and Vector. The specific proposed per share prices were as follows:

Open Text:	$5.25
Suitor 2:	$4.95
Suitor 3:	$4.90 to $5.00
Suitor 4:	$4.90
Suitor 5:	$4.25 to $4.50

Table of Contents

Each of the bidders indicated that additional due diligence investigations would be required prior to the submission of definitive bids. The special committee discussed, among other things, its proposed response to each of the suitors, and representatives of Perkins Coie and Simpson Thacher discussed the legal terms of each proposal and RBC discussed potential strategies for the next steps in the bidding process. The special committee advised RBC to: (i) inform Suitor 5 that its bid of $4.25 to $4.50 was significantly below the range of other suitors and therefore it would not be included in the next round of the bidding process; and (ii) invite the other four suitors, with bids ranging from $4.90 to $5.25, into a second round of the bidding process. Representatives of RBC then discussed the likely timing for the next stage of the process. A target date was set for mid-June as the next bid deadline. Following the conclusion of the meeting, RBC informed each suitor of its status regarding its inclusion or exclusion in the second round per the special committee's instructions. RBC also began to coordinate additional management meetings with each of the four suitors that were invited to participate in the second round of the bidding process.

On May 23, 2008, Suitor 5 contacted RBC to re-confirm that its price range of $4.25 to $4.50 would exclude it from the second round of the process. RBC confirmed that Suitor 5's per share price was not sufficient to include it in the second round of the bidding process. Suitor 5 requested to be contacted in the event the next round of bids was closer to its current bid range.

On May 23, 2008, Captaris provided access to an electronic data room of due diligence material for the four suitors that had been invited to participate in the second round of the bidding process.

On May 29, 2008, Suitor 5 sent a letter to Captaris and RBC, restating its bid range of $4.25 to $4.50 and the assumptions and rationale behind its proposal.

During the weeks of June 2, 2008, and June 16, 2008, Captaris met with three of the four suitors that were participating in the second round of the bidding process.

On June 10, 2008, Suitor 4 notified RBC that it was no longer interested in pursuing a potential transaction with Captaris.

On June 12, 2008, the special committee, along with representatives of Perkins Coie, Simpson Thacher and RBC, held a meeting. RBC provided an update on the process, including a review of a proposed timeline for submitting second-round indications of interest. Representatives of Perkins Coie and Simpson Thacher also reviewed a draft form of a merger agreement that would be sent to suitors. The special committee authorized RBC to set a bid deadline for June 24, 2008, and to distribute a draft merger agreement.

On June 13, 2008, RBC sent bid instruction letters to each of the three bidders which continued to express interest in a potential transaction and which were participating in the second round of the bidding process, including Open Text. These instructions set a bid deadline for June 24, 2008, and included a form of merger agreement to be marked up as part of each bidder's proposal.

On June 23, 2008, Open Text contacted RBC to indicate it was not intending to submit a bid by the following day's deadline and that it was withdrawing from the process.

On June 26, 2008, the special committee held a meeting to discuss the two indications of interest that were received. Representatives of Perkins Coie, Simpson Thacher and RBC also attended. These indications of interest included the following material terms, among others:

(i) Suitor 2 submitted an all cash proposal of $5.15 per outstanding common share, with a mechanism to allow for future price adjustments based on changes in working capital and net debt and certain other adjustments. The proposal included a mark-up of the draft merger agreement and a request for exclusivity for 30 business days to complete due diligence and negotiate an acquisition agreement. Suitor 2's proposal contemplated third-party debt financing and included a term sheet for debt financing from Suitor 2's lenders; however, no formal commitment letter from these lenders was provided.

(ii) Suitor 3 submitted an all cash proposal in the range of $4.65 to $4.70 per share and included a request for exclusivity for 60 days. This proposal also contemplated debt financing, but no term sheets or commitment letters from lenders were submitted. Suitor 3 did not include a mark-up of the draft merger agreement.

Also at this meeting, representatives of RBC, Perkins Coie and Simpson Thacher reviewed certain issues associated with the mark-up of the draft merger agreement submitted by Suitor 2 as well as legal issues associated with the proposal submitted by Suitor 3. Following deliberations regarding the two bids, the special committee concluded that if Suitor 2 were to offer a fixed price per share, eliminate certain risks regarding its financing contingency and improve certain terms in its mark-up of the draft merger agreement, then Suitor 2's proposal would be sufficient to warrant a period of exclusive negotiations with Suitor 2. The special committee instructed its legal counsel and RBC to engage in discussions with Suitor 2 to clarify the terms of its proposal and to begin negotiations regarding the material issues identified by the special committee. The special committee also instructed RBC to notify Suitor 3 that unless it could improve its proposal and propose definitive terms for a transaction, Captaris intended to engage in negotiations with another party.

On June 28, 2008, RBC contacted Suitor 2 to discuss its proposal and to highlight the material issues identified by the special committee. Suitor 2 agreed to consider the issues raised and committed to a prompt response.

On June 30, 2008, Suitor 2 contacted RBC to remove the adjustment based on changes in working capital and net debt and other adjustments from its all cash proposal of $5.15, but declined to negotiate certain legal issues or increase its proposed price pending further due diligence.

On June 30, 2008, as previously instructed by the special committee, RBC contacted Suitor 3 to inform Suitor 3 that Captaris intended to pursue negotiations with another party in the event that Suitor 3 did not improve its proposal. Suitor 3 did not improve its proposed price and asked RBC to contact them if the other bidders' proposed prices fell to a level where its bid was competitive.

On July 1, 2008, Suitor 5 contacted RBC to inquire about the status of the process and whether its prior bid in the range of $4.25 to $4.50 per share was now competitive. RBC informed Suitor 5 that its bid remained uncompetitive at that range.

On July 2, 2008, the special committee, along with representatives of Perkins Coie, Simpson Thacher and RBC and certain members of Captaris management, held a meeting to discuss the status of the bidding process. Representatives of Perkins Coie and Simpson Thacher reviewed with the special committee the duties of the special committee and certain other legal matters. At that meeting, having regard to the facts that Captaris had not entered into exclusive negotiations with any party and that Suitor 2 and Suitor 5 were conducting additional due diligence, the special committee directed RBC to contact Open Text and one other suitor that had previously withdrawn from the process to inquire whether they would re-enter the process.

On July 3, 2008, Suitor 5 contacted RBC to indicate its intent to submit a new proposal at $5.00 per share, and inquired whether Captaris would grant exclusivity at that price. RBC encouraged Suitor 5 to submit a new written proposal, but instructed Suitor 5 that RBC would have to defer to the special committee regarding whether exclusivity would be granted at that price. As previously instructed by the special committee, RBC contacted Open Text and one other suitor that had previously withdrawn from the process.

On July 6, 2008, the special committee and its advisors met to discuss the status of the bidding process.

On July 7, 2008, Suitor 5 submitted a written all cash proposal to acquire Captaris for $5.00 per share. This bid was not contingent on financing but required 20 business days to complete due diligence. The special committee evaluated this proposal with input from representatives of Perkins Coie, Simpson Thacher and RBC.

Table of Contents

Under instructions from the special committee, RBC sent Suitor 5 a draft merger agreement and asked for a mark-up of the agreement so its proposal could be evaluated in its entirety. Suitor 5 was thereafter provided access to due diligence materials and management.

On July 9, 2008, in response to RBC's inquiry of July 3, 2008, the suitor that had previously withdrawn indicated that, after internal deliberation, it had no interest in re-entering the process.

On July 10, 2008, Open Text contacted RBC and indicated its intent to rejoin the process under the stipulation that specified due diligence would need to be completed.

On July 10, 2008, the special committee and its advisors met to discuss the status of the bidding process.

On July 31, 2008, the special committee, along with representatives of Perkins Coie, Simpson Thacher and RBC, held a meeting to discuss the timing of the third bid deadline. Representatives of Perkins Coie and Simpson Thacher reviewed with the special committee the legal duties of the special committee and certain other legal matters. The special committee authorized RBC to set the final deadline for August 13, 2008.

On August 5, 2008, RBC sent Open Text, Suitor 2 and Suitor 5 bid instruction letters indicating a third round bid deadline of August 13, 2008. Prior to the bid deadline, Suitor 2 and Open Text contacted RBC to request a two-day extension to submit their indications of interest. In light of the fact that the special committee was not scheduled to convene to review the bids until August 18, 2008, the special committee granted these requests for more time.

On August 13, 2008, RBC received an all cash bid from Suitor 5 for $4.50 per share. Suitor 5 also included a mark-up of the draft merger agreement with their proposal, which contemplated third party debt financing but did not include formal debt commitment letters.

On August 15, 2008, RBC received an all cash bid from Suitor 2 for $4.75 per share which contemplated third-party debt financing, but did not include formal debt commitment letters.

On August 15, 2008, RBC received an all cash bid from Open Text for $4.25 per share, together with a mark-up of the merger agreement draft. Open Text's proposal contemplated funding the transaction with existing internal cash resources. Open Text's proposal provided greater certainty of closing and less restrictive remedies for Captaris than the proposals received from each of Suitor 2 and Suitor 5.

After receiving these indications of interest, RBC contacted Open Text to clarify certain aspects of its proposal. During this conversation, RBC informed Open Text that its bid of $4.25 a share was unlikely to be the winning bid.

On August 16, 2008, Open Text contacted RBC and verbally raised its proposed price to $4.80 a share, without changing other terms of its written proposal.

On August 18, 2008, the special committee held a meeting to review the three bids. Also in attendance were representatives of Perkins Coie, Simpson Thacher and RBC. Representatives of Perkins Coie and Simpson Thacher reviewed with the special committee the duties of the special committee and certain other legal matters and the terms of the proposals. The special committee discussed, among other things, its proposed response to each of the suitors, and RBC discussed potential strategies to enhance the bids. After deliberation, the special committee instructed RBC to inform Open Text that Captaris was not currently prepared to grant it exclusivity unless it increased its proposed price. RBC was instructed to contact each of Suitor 2 and Suitor 5 to communicate that it was currently not the highest suitor, and that it would need to increase its proposed price to be the highest bidder.

Table of Contents

On August 18, 2008, at the direction of the special committee, RBC contacted Open Text and requested that it increase its proposed price in order to be granted exclusivity. Open Text indicated it was unwilling to increase its proposed price.

Also on August 18, 2008, at the direction of the special committee, RBC contacted Suitor 2 to indicate it was not the highest suitor, and to determine if Suitor 2 was willing to submit a revised, higher proposal. Suitor 2 asked for a day to consider revising its proposal price. On August 19, 2008, Suitor 2 contacted RBC to indicate it was not willing to raise its proposal price, but requested that RBC contact them if acceptable terms were not reached with the highest suitor.

On August 19, 2008, at the direction of the special committee, RBC contacted Suitor 5 to indicate that it was not the highest suitor, and to determine if Suitor 5 was willing to submit a revised, higher proposal. Suitor 5 declined to increase its proposed price.

On August 19, 2008, Open Text submitted a revised written all cash proposal for $4.80 per share with the stated intention to complete its limited additional due diligence and to work toward signing a definitive agreement within three weeks.

On August 19, 2008, upon receipt of this proposal from Open Text, the special committee held a meeting to discuss how to proceed. Also in attendance were representatives of Perkins Coie, Simpson Thacher and RBC. Representatives of Perkins Coie and Simpson Thacher reviewed with the special committee the duties of the special committee and certain other legal matters. After discussion, the special committee confirmed that the non-binding written proposal submitted by Open Text was the most favorable of the three bids because the bid, among other reasons, offered the highest purchase price per share and represented the greatest certainty to closure of a transaction, as long as certain points in Open Text's markup of the merger agreement were resolved. The special committee authorized representatives of Perkins Coie, Simpson Thacher and RBC to negotiate an acceptable exclusivity agreement with Open Text and to begin negotiations regarding the merger agreement.

On August 21, 2008, Captaris entered into an exclusivity arrangement with Open Text to negotiate on an exclusive basis with Open Text through September 12, 2008, regarding any proposal or offer with respect to any acquisition of, or merger or any other similar transaction with, Captaris. From the period of August 21, 2008, to September 3, 2008, Open Text conducted additional due diligence. Negotiation of the merger agreement also took place during this time between outside legal counsel for Open Text and representatives of Perkins Coie and Simpson Thacher. Negotiation of the merger agreement continued until the execution of the merger agreement on the evening of September 3, 2008. On August 29, 2008, the special committee met with representatives of Perkins Coie, Simpson Thacher and RBC and certain members of Captaris management to discuss certain matters related to Open Text's bid. Representatives of Perkins Coie and Simpson Thacher reviewed with the special committee the duties of the special committee and certain other legal matters. On August 31, 2008, the special committee met and concluded that certain legal terms of Open Text's bid were not acceptable to the special committee. Over the next several days these terms were improved through negotiations with Open Text.

On September 3, 2008, our board of directors and special committee convened a meeting, with representatives of Perkins Coie, Simpson Thacher and RBC in attendance, to consider whether the terms of the negotiated merger agreement and transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, were advisable, fair to, and in the best interests of, Captaris shareholders and whether to approve and adopt the merger and the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Representatives of Perkins Coie and Simpson Thacher reviewed with the board of directors, including the members of the special committee, the duties of the board of directors and certain other legal matters. Representatives of RBC reviewed RBC's analysis of the fairness of Open Text's proposal, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders of Captaris and RBC rendered its oral opinion to the board. RBC's oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing, stated that as of September 3, 2008, based upon and subject to the various assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth in such written opinion, the consideration of $4.80 in cash for each outstanding share of Captaris common stock to be received by shareholders of Captaris pursuant to the merger was fair from a financial point of view to such holders (the full text of that opinion, which sets forth the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken by RBC in connection with its opinion, is attached as Annex B to this proxy statement and should be read in its entirety in conjunction with the information contained in The Merger Opinion of the Financial Advisors to our Board of Directors). Prior to this meeting, Simpson Thacher had presented to the members of the board a written summary of the merger agreement as the terms stood as of the evening of September 2, 2008. At this meeting, representatives of Perkins Coie and Simpson Thacher presented to our board of directors and special committee a form of the merger agreement as negotiated and reviewed with the board the terms of the merger agreement.

Following these discussions and on the unanimous recommendation of the special committee, our board of directors unanimously concluded that the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement were advisable and in the best interests of Captaris and Captaris's shareholders and that the executive officers were authorized in the name and on behalf of Captaris to execute and deliver the merger agreement, and the board unanimously recommended the merger agreement be submitted to Captaris shareholders for their approval.

Later the same day, the merger agreement was executed by Captaris, Merger Sub, Open Text and the Guarantor. On September 4, 2008, at 6:00 a.m. Eastern time, a joint press release announcing the merger was issued by Open Text and Captaris.

Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of Our Board of Directors

Reasons for the Merger

At the meeting of our special committee consisting of four independent directors on September 3, 2008, the special committee unanimously resolved to recommend that our board of directors approve the merger with Open Text. At the meeting of our board of directors on the same date, our board received the special committee's recommendation and determined to accept that recommendation, and to approve the merger with Open Text and recommend it to our shareholders. See The Merger Background of the Merger.

In making its determination and recommendation set forth above, our special committee considered, among other things:

its knowledge of the current state of our business, including our financial condition, operations, business plans, management, competitive position and prospects;

its familiarity with the challenges that we face as a small-cap public company;

the trading history of our shares and the special committee's belief, based on its knowledge of the matters enumerated above, that our shares were unlikely to trade at prices substantially above their current level for some substantial period; and its belief that the merger is more favorable to our shareholders than other alternatives available to us, including the alternative of continuing as an independent public company.

Our special committee also considered, among other things, its knowledge of the process that it had closely supervised through formal meetings, informal consultation, regular advice from legal and financial advisers and the continuous interaction between the special committee and those advisers to consider available strategic alternatives, investigate potential transactions, identify potential buyers and ultimately negotiate the merger agreement with Open Text, as described under The Merger Background of the Merger, including:

that 55 sophisticated and knowledgeable potential buyers (including both potential private equity and strategic buyers) had been contacted by RBC at the direction of our special committee to ascertain potential interest in acquiring us and the criteria for the selection of those third parties by the special committee;

that 26 of those potential buyers had signed confidentiality agreements and received information about Captaris, and ten of those parties had held meetings with our management and engaged in a due diligence investigation of us;

that five of the 55 third parties on the potential buyer list had submitted preliminary indications and Open Text and two additional third parties had submitted a final proposal;

the desires of our large shareholders to realize liquidity for their investments in our stock, as indicated in numerous communications received by us and our advisers from these shareholders;

the terms of the final proposals received, including the fact that Open Text's bid represented the highest value, the greatest certainty of closing and less restrictive remedies for Captaris compared to the other bids received; and that, despite being pressed aggressively Open Text would not increase the price of its final bid, but that the terms and conditions of the merger were improved through negotiations.

In the course of its deliberations, our special committee also considered, among other things, the following material positive factors regarding the merger:

the fact that the $4.80 per share merger consideration to be received by our shareholders represented a premium of approximately 31% over the closing sales price of our shares as reported on Nasdaq Global Select Market on September 2, 2008 (which was the trading date prior to the date our special committee recommended to our board of directors, and our board of directors approved, the merger agreement with Open Text);

the opinion of RBC to our special committee and our board of directors to the effect that, as of September 3, 2008, and based upon and subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth in its written opinion of that date, the merger consideration of $4.80 per share in cash to be received by our shareholders pursuant to the merger agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to them (the full text of RBC's written opinion, which sets forth the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken by RBC in connection with its opinion, is attached as Annex B to this proxy statement and should be read in its entirety in conjunction with the information contained in "The Merger" Opinion of the Financial Advisor to Our Board of Directors), as well as the analyses performed by RBC in connection with its fairness opinion and reviewed with our special committee and our board of directors;

the fact that the merger consideration is all cash, which provides certainty of value to our shareholders compared to a transaction in which they would receive stock or other non-cash consideration and the fact that there is no adjustment to the merger consideration for our contingencies;

the experience, reputation and financial capabilities of Open Text;

the terms of the merger agreement, including the parties' representations, warranties and covenants, and the conditions to their respective obligations, which were the product of extensive arms-length negotiations and with the advice of legal and financial advisers;

the then-current financial market conditions, and historical market prices, volatility and trading information with respect to our common stock, including the possibility that if we remained as an independent publicly-owned corporation, in the event of a decline in the market price of our common stock or the stock market in general, the consideration that might be received by holders of our common stock in the open market or in a future transaction might be less than the merger consideration;

historical and current information concerning our business, financial performance and condition, operations, technology, management and competitive position, and current industry, economic and market conditions, including our prospects, if we were to remain an independent company;

Table of Contents

the likelihood that the merger will be consummated in light of the nature of the conditions to Open Text's obligation to complete the merger, the guarantee of the Guarantor to perform Open Text's obligations under the merger agreement, and the likelihood of obtaining required regulatory approvals;

the absence of any financing condition to Open Text's obligation to consummate the merger;

the fact that dissenters' rights would be available to Captaris shareholders. For more information, see the section entitled "The Merger Dissenters' Rights" beginning on page 48 of this proxy statement; and the fact that the merger agreement permits our board of directors, where failing to do so would be reasonably likely to violate its fiduciary duties, to authorize us to participate in discussions and negotiations with, and furnish information to, third parties in connection with unsolicited bona fide written acquisition proposals and to change its recommendation in favor of the merger following receipt of a superior unsolicited bona fide written proposal for at least a majority of our issued and outstanding equity securities or 50% of our consolidated assets and to potentially enter into a transaction with another acquirer, subject to the limitations described under "The Merger Agreement - No Solicitation of Transactions" and subject to the payment of a termination fee of $4.9 million (such termination fee constituting approximately 3.7% of the aggregate merger consideration on a fully diluted basis).

In the course of its deliberations, our special committee also considered, among other things, the following potentially negative factors regarding the merger:

the fact that our shareholders would not benefit from any near-term increase in our value beyond $4.80 per share;

the fact that gains from the sale of shares in the merger would be taxable to our shareholders for U.S. federal income tax purposes;

the potential disruptions to customer, supplier or other commercial relationships important to us as a result of the announcement of the merger;

the possibility that the merger will not be consummated and the potential negative effect of the public announcement of the merger on our sales, operating results and stock price and our ability to retain key management, sales and marketing and technical personnel;

the requirement that we pay a termination fee in order to accept a superior proposal, which may discourage a competing proposal to acquire us that may be more beneficial to our shareholders;

the restrictions on the conduct of our business prior to the completion of the merger, requiring us to conduct our business in the ordinary course, subject to specific limitations, which may delay or prevent us from undertaking business opportunities that may arise in the interim;

the risk of diverting management's focus and resources from other strategic opportunities and from operational matters while working to consummate the merger, and the possibility of other management and employee disruption associated with the merger, including the possible loss of key management, technical or other personnel;

that if the merger is not completed, we may be adversely affected due to potential disruptions in our operations and reductions in our perceived acquisition value; and the interests that our directors and our executive officers may have with respect to the merger in addition to their interests as shareholders generally, as described in The Merger Interests of Our Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger. Our special committee concluded that these potentially negative factors were substantially outweighed by the opportunity presented by the merger for our shareholders to monetize their Captaris investment for $4.80 per share in cash within a relatively short period of time if the merger conditions were satisfied or waived, which the special committee believed would maximize the value of their shares and eliminate the risk that the inherent uncertainty affecting our future prospects could result in a diminution in the market value of their shares. Accordingly, the special committee concluded that the merger was in the best interests of our shareholders.

In making its determination and recommendation set forth above, our board of directors considered the periodic updates from, and the final determination and recommendation of, our special committee, having regard to the independence of its members, their business experience and their active role in overseeing, with the advice of experienced legal and financial advisors, the process of investigating potential transactions that led to the negotiation of the merger agreement with Open Text. In addition, our board of directors took account of the same considerations, including the same material positive and potentially negative factors, that our special committee had considered and reached the same conclusion as our special committee with respect to the benefits of the merger for our shareholders.

The preceding discussion of the factors considered by our special committee and our board of directors is not, and is not intended to be, exhaustive, but does set forth the material factors considered. In light of the variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the merger and the complexity of these matters, neither our special committee nor our board of directors found it practicable to, and did not, quantify or otherwise attempt to assign relative weights to the various factors considered in reaching its determination, nor did it undertake to make any specific determination as to whether any particular factors (or any aspect of any particular factors) were favorable or unfavorable to its ultimate determination. Rather, each of our special committee and our board of directors reached its conclusion and recommendation based on its evaluation of the totality of the information presented, considered and analyzed. In considering the factors discussed above, individual directors may have ascribed differing significance to different factors.

Recommendation of Our Board of Directors

Upon the unanimous recommendation of the special committee of our board of directors, our board of directors, by the unanimous vote of all of its members at a meeting held on September 3, 2008, has determined that each of the merger and the merger agreement is advisable and in the best interests of Captaris and its shareholders, approved and adopted the merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, recommended the merger, the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement to Captaris's shareholders, directed that the merger agreement be submitted to Captaris's shareholders for approval and recommended that Captaris shareholders approve the merger agreement. Our board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the approval of the merger agreement, and FOR the adjournment of the special meeting if determined necessary by Captaris, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the merger agreement or if otherwise deemed necessary or appropriate.

In considering the recommendation of our board of directors with respect to the merger agreement, you should be aware that certain directors and executive officers of Captaris have interests with respect to the merger that are in addition to or different than their interests as shareholders of Captaris generally. See The Merger Interests of Our Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger beginning on page 42 of this proxy statement.

Opinion of the Financial Advisor to Our Board of Directors

On September 3, 2008, as financial advisor to our board of directors (including the special committee of the board of directors), RBC rendered its written opinion to Captaris's board of directors and special committee of the board of directors that, as of that date and subject to the assumptions and limitations set forth in its opinion, the merger consideration of $4.80 in cash, without interest, per share of Captaris's common stock specified in the merger agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to our shareholders. The full text of RBC's written opinion dated September 3, 2008 is attached to this proxy statement as Annex B. RBC's opinion was approved by the RBC M&A Fairness Opinion Committee. This summary of RBC's opinion is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion. We urge you to read this opinion carefully in its entirety for a description of the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken by RBC.

RBC's opinion was provided for the information and assistance of our board of directors and the special committee of our board of directors in connection with their consideration of the merger. RBC's opinion did not address Captaris's underlying business decision to engage in the merger or the relative merits of the merger compared to any alternative business strategy or transaction in which Captaris might engage. RBC's opinion and the analyses performed by RBC in connection with its opinion and reviewed by our Captaris board of directors and its special committee were only two of many factors taken into consideration by our Captaris board of directors and its special committee in connection with their evaluation of the merger. RBC's opinion does not constitute a recommendation to our shareholders as to how you should vote with respect to the merger.

RBC's opinion addressed solely the fairness of the merger consideration, from a financial point of view, to Captaris's shareholders and did not in any way address other terms or arrangements of the merger or the merger agreement, including, without limitation, the financial or other terms of any other agreement contemplated by, or to be entered into in connection with, the merger agreement. Further, in rendering its opinion, RBC expressed no opinion about the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to any of Captaris's officers, directors, or employees, or class of such persons, relative to the compensation to Captaris's public shareholders.

In rendering its opinion, RBC assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all information that was publicly available to RBC and all of the financial, legal, tax, operating, and other information provided to or discussed with it by Captaris, including, without limitation, the financial statements and related notes thereto of Captaris. RBC did not assume responsibility for independently verifying, and did not independently verify, this information. RBC assumed that the financial projections and forecasts of Captaris prepared by the management of Captaris and reviewed by RBC were reasonably prepared reflecting the best currently available estimates and good faith judgments of the future financial performance of Captaris as a standalone entity. RBC expressed no opinion as to those financial projections and forecasts or the assumptions on which they were based. RBC did not assume any responsibility to perform, and did not perform, an independent evaluation or appraisal of any of the assets or liabilities of Captaris, and RBC was not furnished with any such valuations or appraisals. In addition, RBC did not assume any obligation to conduct, and did not conduct, any physical inspection of the property or facilities of Captaris. Additionally, RBC was not asked to, and did not consider, the possible effects of any litigation or other claims affecting Captaris.

In rendering its opinion, RBC assumed, in all respects material to its analysis, that all conditions to the consummation of the merger would be satisfied without waiver. RBC further assumed that the executed version of the merger agreement would not differ, in any respect material to its opinion, from the latest draft RBC received on September 2, 2008.

RBC's opinion spoke only as of the date it was rendered, was based on the conditions as they existed and information with which RBC was supplied as of such date, and was without regard to any market, economic, financial, legal or other circumstances or events of any kind or nature which may exist or occur after such date. RBC has not undertaken to reaffirm or revise its opinion or otherwise comment on events occurring after the date of its opinion and does not have an obligation to update, revise or reaffirm its opinion. Unless otherwise noted, all analyses were performed based on market information available as of September 2, 2008, the last trading day preceding the finalization of RBC's analysis.

In connection with its review of the merger and the preparation and rendering of its opinion, RBC undertook the review and inquiries it deemed necessary and appropriate under the circumstances, including:

reviewing the financial terms of the draft merger agreement dated September 2, 2008;

Table of Contents

reviewing and analyzing certain publicly available financial and other data with respect to Captaris and certain other relevant historical operating data relating to Captaris made available to RBC from published sources and from the internal records of Captaris;

reviewing financial projections and forecasts of Captaris prepared by the management of Captaris;

conducting discussions with members of the senior management of Captaris with respect to the business prospects and financial outlook of Captaris as a standalone entity; reviewing the reported prices and trading activity for the common stock of Captaris; and performing other studies and analyses as RBC deemed appropriate.

In arriving at its opinion, in addition to reviewing the matters listed above, RBC performed the following analyses:

RBC compared the financial metrics of selected precedent transactions with the financial metrics implied by the merger consideration;

RBC compared selected market valuation metrics of Captaris and other comparable publicly-traded companies with the financial metrics implied by the merger consideration; and RBC compared the premiums paid in selected precedent transactions with the premiums implied by the merger consideration. In connection with the rendering of its opinion to the Captaris board of directors and the special committee of the board of directors, RBC reviewed with Captaris's board of directors and special committee of the board of directors the analyses listed above and other information material to the opinion. In presenting its opinion to the Captaris board of directors and special committee of the board of directors, RBC noted that it did not perform a discounted cash flow analysis because Captaris does not prepare financial projections sufficiently long-term to facilitate such an analysis and that in its professional judgment RBC did not believe that a discounted cash flow analysis was a reliable method for determining the value of a company of Captaris's size due to the particular difficulty of forecasting the long-term future results of smaller companies. Set forth below is a summary of the analyses used by RBC, including information presented in tabular format. To fully understand the summary of the analyses used by RBC, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the analysis.

For the purpose of RBC's analyses, valuation multiples less than zero were deemed not meaningful (NM) and unavailable metrics were deemed not available (NA). In performing analyses on Captaris's 2007 and last-twelve-months (LTM) results, RBC analyzed both actual results and pro forma results. The pro forma results adjust the actual results to illustrate the 2007 and LTM results as if the acquisitions of Castelle and Océ Document Technologies GmbH (subsequently renamed Captaris Document Technologies, or CDT) made by Captaris in 2007 and 2008 had closed on January 1, 2007.

Comparable Precedent Transaction Analysis. RBC prepared a comparable precedent transaction analysis of Captaris's implied transaction multiples relative to a group of publicly-announced merger and acquisition transactions that RBC deemed for purposes of its analysis to be comparable to the merger. In selecting comparable precedent transactions, RBC considered mergers and acquisitions publicly announced since January 1, 2005 in the enterprise content management (ECM) sector of the software industry in which the target company had a transaction enterprise value (EV) of less than $400 million. For all purposes of its analyses summarized in this section, RBC defined EV as equity value plus total debt, preferred stock and minority interest less cash, cash equivalents and marketable securities.

Table of Contents

Based on the criteria noted above, the following eleven transactions were analyzed:

Acquiror	Target
Hewlett-Packard Company	Tower Software
Bottomline Technologies (de), Inc.	Optio Software, Inc.
EMC Corporation	Document Sciences Corporation
Captaris, Inc.	Océ Document Technologies GmbH
Internet Commerce Corporation	EasyLink Services Corporation
Allen Systems Group, Inc.	Mobius Management Systems, Inc.
Skywire Software, LLC	Docucorp International, Inc.
Oracle Systems Corporation	Stellent, Inc.
Autonomy Corporation plc	Verity, Inc.
EMC Corporation	Captiva Software Corporation
BEA Systems, Inc.	Plumtree Software, Inc.

RBC compared EV-to-LTM revenue and EV-to-LTM earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA) multiples relating to the merger, on an actual and pro forma basis as noted above, with corresponding multiples in the comparable precedent transactions.

For the purpose of calculating the multiples for the comparable precedent transactions, multiples of LTM revenue and LTM EBITDA were derived from the actual revenue and EBITDA (adjusted to exclude non-cash and one-time charges) of the target companies in the last twelve months prior to the announcement of the transaction. Financial data regarding the precedent transactions was taken from filings with the SEC, press releases, Wall Street research, Bloomberg, Institutional Brokers Estimate System, Factset, ThomsonOne Analytics, First Call, Dealogic and other publicly available sources.

The following table compares the implied transaction multiples for the merger with the corresponding multiples for the selected precedent transactions:

	Precedent Transactions				Captaris
	Min.	Mean	Median	Max.	Actual	Pro Forma
	(As Implied by the Merger Consideration)
EV as a multiple of:
LTM Revenue	0.9x	1.9x	1.9x	4.0x	1.2x	1.0x
LTM EBITDA	7.9x	15.8x	15.4x	25.1x	NM	NM

RBC noted that Captaris' s actual and pro forma multiples for EV-to-LTM revenue implied by the merger consideration were within the range of observed transactions but were below both the mean and median multiples found in the selected precedent transactions analyzed. RBC noted that Captaris' s multiples for EV-to-LTM EBITDA were NM on both an actual and pro forma basis.

Comparable Public Company Analysis. RBC prepared a comparable company analysis of Captaris' s implied transaction multiples relative to a group of publicly-traded companies that RBC deemed for purposes of its analysis to be comparable to Captaris. In selecting publicly-traded companies, RBC considered comparable companies focused primarily on enterprise fax-server solutions and ECM vendors.

Table of Contents

Based on the criteria noted above, RBC reviewed the relevant metrics of the following publicly-traded companies (with their metrics adjusted as applicable, in two cases, to reflect recently-completed or pending acquisitions):

EasyLink Services International Corporation;

Interwoven, Inc.;

Open Text Corporation;

Readsoft AB;

Top Image Systems Ltd.; and Vignette Corporation.

In this analysis, RBC compared the EV of Captaris implied by the merger consideration, expressed as a multiple of Captaris' s actual and pro forma calendar year 2007, LTM and projected calendar year 2008 revenue and EBITDA, to the respective multiples of calendar year 2007, LTM and projected calendar year 2008 EV-to-revenue and to EV-to-EBITDA of the comparable companies implied by the public trading prices of their common stock. RBC also compared the multiples implied by the merger consideration, expressed as multiples of actual calendar year 2008 fully-diluted earnings per share (EPS), to the comparable-period EPS multiples of the comparable companies implied by the public trading prices of their common stock. Projected revenue, EBITDA and EPS were based on internal management projections in the case of Captaris and, in the case of the comparable companies, SEC and other public filings, Bloomberg, Factset and ThomsonOne Analytics consensus estimates.

The following table presents Captaris' s implied EV-to-revenue, EV-to-EBITDA and price-to-EPS multiples, and the corresponding multiples for the comparable companies, for the periods reviewed by RBC in connection with its analysis:

	Comparable Companies				Captaris
	Min.	Mean	Median	Max.	Actual (As Implied by the Merger Consideration)	Pro Forma
EV as a multiple of:
2007A Revenue	0.6x	1.6x	1.6x	2.8x	1.4x	1.0x
LTM Revenue	0.6x	1.5x	1.3x	2.6x	1.2x	1.0x
2008E Revenue	0.5x	1.5x	1.3x	2.5x	0.9x	0.9x
EV as a multiple of:
2007A EBITDA	7.2x	10.9x	10.7x	17.4x	37.9x	18.7x
LTM EBITDA	6.2x	9.9x	10.3x	13.0x	NA	NA
2008E EBITDA	4.1x	12.1x	11.4x	21.3x	14.1x	14.1x
Share price as a multiple of:
2008E EPS	7.1x	19.5x	18.5x	35.5x	NM	NM

RBC noted that: (1) Captaris' s actual and pro forma EV-to-revenue multiples implied by the merger consideration for the calendar year 2007, LTM and the projected calendar year 2008 were within the observed range of multiples and were below the mean and median multiples of the comparable companies analyzed; (2) Captaris' s actual and pro forma EV-to-EBITDA multiples implied by the merger consideration for the calendar year 2007 were above the observed range of multiples of the comparable companies analyzed; its actual and pro forma EV-to-LTM EBITDA multiples implied by the merger consideration were NA due to unavailability of the CDT financials prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America in sufficient detail to facilitate a calculation of EBITDA; and its actual

Edgar Filing: CAPTARIS INC - Form PREM14A

and pro forma EV-to-EBITDA multiples for the projected calendar year 2008 implied by the merger consideration were within the observed range of multiples and above the mean and median multiples of the comparable companies analyzed; and (3) Captaris' s multiples implied by the merger consideration for the projected calendar year 2008 earnings per share were NM due to Captaris' s negative projected earnings for that period.

Premiums Paid Analysis (Premiums to Price). RBC compared the premiums implied by the merger consideration to the premiums paid in selected precedent publicly-announced merger and acquisition transactions in the U.S. technology industry. The transactions selected for the Premiums Paid Analysis were a different and broader group of transactions than those selected for the Comparable Precedent Transaction Analysis. In selecting precedent transactions for the Premiums Paid Analysis, RBC considered comparable transactions announced since January 1, 2006 with public targets in which the transaction values were between $40 million and $300 million, which totaled 61 transactions. RBC performed this analysis taking into account the trading prices of Captaris' s common stock during periods it considered relevant ending on September 2, 2008, the last trading day prior to RBC finalizing its analysis with respect to the fairness of the merger consideration, from a financial point of view, to the Captaris shareholders.

RBC compared (x) the premiums implied by dividing the merger consideration by Captaris' s spot stock price one day, one week and one month prior to September 3, 2008 and the unaffected premium implied by dividing the per share merger consideration by the stock price one day prior to March 17, 2008, the date on which Captaris received an unsolicited offer of $4.75 per share that was announced publicly, to (y) the spot price premiums for the same periods for the targets in the selected precedent transactions. The precedent transaction premiums were sourced from Dealogic. The following table summarizes this analysis:

	Spot Premiums Paid Analysis			Captaris (As Implied by the Merger Consideration)
	Min.	Precedent Transactions Mean	Median		Max.
Spot Premium
1 Day	(0.6)%	39.0%	26.8%	324.2%	30.8%
1 Week	(11.7)%	40.9%	31.1%	288.9%	41.6%
1 Month	(21.0)%	43.0%	32.7%	329.4%	42.9%
Unaffected Premium
1 Day prior to March 17, 2008	(0.6)%	39.0%	26.8%	324.2%	37.5%

RBC noted that during the measuring period ending September 2, 2008 for the spot one day, one week and one month premiums and the one day unaffected premium measured by the period ending March 17, 2008, the implied merger consideration was within the observed range and above the median of the selected transactions premiums analyzed.

Overview of Analyses; Other Considerations. In reaching its opinion, RBC did not assign any particular weight to any one analysis or the results yielded by that analysis. Rather, having reviewed these results in the aggregate, RBC exercised its professional judgment in determining that, based on the aggregate of the analyses used and the results they yielded, the per share merger consideration was fair, from a financial point of view, to the Captaris shareholders. RBC believed that it was inappropriate to, and therefore did not, rely solely on the quantitative results of the analyses and, accordingly, also made qualitative judgments concerning differences between the characteristics of Captaris and the merger and the data selected for use in its analyses, as further discussed below.

No single company or transaction used in the above analyses as a comparison is identical to Captaris or the merger, and an evaluation of the results of those analyses is not entirely mathematical. Rather, the analyses involve complex considerations and judgments concerning financial and operating characteristics and other factors that could affect the acquisition, public trading or other values of the companies, businesses, or transactions analyzed. The analyses were prepared solely for purposes of RBC providing an opinion as to the fairness of the merger consideration, from a financial point of view, to the Captaris shareholders and do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which businesses or securities actually may be sold, which are inherently subject to uncertainty.

The opinion of RBC as to the fairness of the merger consideration, from a financial point of view, to the Captaris shareholders was necessarily based upon market, economic, and other conditions that existed as of the date of its opinion and on information available to RBC as of that date.

The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process that involves the application of subjective business judgment in determining the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. Several analytical methodologies were used by RBC and no one method of analysis should be regarded as critical to the overall conclusion reached. Each analytical technique has inherent strengths and weaknesses, and the nature of the available information may further affect the value of particular techniques. The overall conclusions of RBC were based on all the analyses and factors presented herein taken as a whole and also on application of RBC's own experience and judgment. Such conclusions may involve significant elements of subjective judgment and qualitative analysis. RBC therefore believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of the analyses and of the factors considered, without considering all factors and analyses, could create an incomplete or misleading view of the processes underlying its opinion.

In connection with its analyses, RBC made, and was provided by Captaris's management with, numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond Captaris's control. Analyses based upon forecasts of future results are not necessarily indicative of actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by these analyses. Because these analyses are inherently subject to uncertainty, being based upon numerous factors or events beyond the control of Captaris or its advisors, none of Captaris, RBC or any other person assumes responsibility if future results or actual values are materially different from these forecasts or assumptions.

Captaris's board of directors selected RBC to render its opinion based on RBC's familiarity with the market in which Captaris competed and RBC's focus on small cap companies. In addition to having advised Captaris on its acquisition of ODT, RBC had advised on numerous acquisitions of unaffiliated third parties in the enterprise content management software market. In receiving and taking into consideration RBC's opinion dated September 3, 2008, Captaris's board of directors and special committee were aware of other investment banking and financial advisory services that RBC had provided to Captaris, referred to below in this section. The board of directors and the special committee were also aware of the fact that RBC had in the past rendered investment banking, financial advisory and financing services to the Guarantor, referred to below in this section. RBC is an internationally recognized investment banking firm and is regularly engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, corporate restructurings, underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements, and valuations for corporate and other purposes. In the ordinary course of business, RBC may act as a market maker and broker in the publicly-traded securities of Captaris and Open Text and receive customary compensation, and may also actively trade securities of Captaris and Open Text for its own account and the accounts of its customers, and, accordingly, RBC and its affiliates, may hold a long or short position in such securities.

Under its March 14, 2008 engagement agreement with Captaris, RBC became entitled to receive a fee of $250,000 upon the delivery of its September 3, 2008 opinion to the Captaris board of directors and special committee regarding the fairness to the Captaris shareholders, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration, without regard to whether RBC's opinion was accepted or the merger is consummated. In addition, for its services as financial advisor to Captaris in connection with the merger, if the merger is successfully completed RBC will receive an additional, larger transaction fee of approximately $2 million. Further, in the event that the merger is not completed and Captaris consummates at any time thereafter, pursuant to a definitive agreement, letter of intent or other evidence of commitment entered into during the term of RBC's engagement or during the 12 months following such term, another Transaction RBC will be entitled to a specified Transaction fee based on the Aggregate Transaction Value of such other Transaction (all as specified in RBC's engagement agreement with Captaris dated March 14, 2008). In addition, whether or not the merger closes, or another Transaction occurs, Captaris has agreed to indemnify RBC for certain liabilities that may arise out of RBC's engagement, including, without limitation, liabilities arising under the federal securities laws, and to reimburse the reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by RBC in performing its services (subject to a limit which may not be exceeded without Captaris's written approval). The terms of RBC's engagement letter were negotiated at arm's-length between Captaris and RBC, and both the Captaris board of directors and the special committee of the board of directors were aware of this fee arrangement at the time they reviewed and approved the merger agreement.

In the past two years, RBC has provided the following investment banking and financial advisory services to Captaris, in addition to its services as financial advisor to the board of directors in connection with the merger: (i) in 2007, RBC acted as financial advisor to Captaris in connection with its acquisition of the shares of CDT from Océ Deutschland GmbH and Co. K.G, for which RBC received customary fees; and (ii) in 2008, RBC provided certain financial analysis and advice to Captaris regarding its strategic alternatives, for which RBC received a retainer fee that will be credited against the transaction fee RBC will receive if the merger (or another Transaction) is completed. In the past two years, RBC has provided the following investment banking, financial advisory and financing services to the Guarantor: (i) in 2006, RBC acted as financial advisor to the Guarantor in connection with its acquisition of Hummingbird Ltd., for which RBC received customary fees; and (ii) in connection with that acquisition, RBC acted as Lead Arranger, Sole Bookrunner and Administrative Agent for the debt financing to the Guarantor in the aggregate principal amount of $465 million, for which RBC received customary fees, and as part of that financing RBC's parent company, Royal Bank of Canada, as lender, provided to the Guarantor a credit facility of $50 million, of which a portion has been drawn but a substantial portion remains available for use. RBC will not receive any fees from the Guarantor or Open Text in connection with the merger and, except as described above, does not have any agreement or understanding with Captaris, the Guarantor or Open Text regarding any other services to be performed now or in the future.

Interests of Our Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of our board of directors in favor of the approval of the merger agreement, you should be aware that the consummation of the merger will result in certain benefits to our directors and executive officers that are not available to our shareholders generally. Our board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the merger agreement and recommending that the shareholders approve the merger agreement. Shareholders should take these benefits into account in deciding whether to vote for approval of the merger agreement.

These interests relate to or arise from:

the acceleration of vesting of all outstanding unvested stock options and restricted stock units held by executive officers and the cash-out of such awards;

the cash-out of stock options and restricted stock units held by non-employee directors;

the cash compensation to non-employee directors if the merger agreement is approved at the special meeting;

certain benefits pursuant to change in control agreements with the executive officers;

payments under the Management Incentive Retention Plan for executive officers; and continuation of certain indemnification and insurance arrangements.

Table of ContentsOutstanding Equity Awards Held By Executive Officers and Directors

All outstanding unvested stock options and restricted stock units held by the executive officers were granted under either the 1989 Restated Stock Option Plan or the 2006 Equity Incentive Plan (formerly known as the 1989 Restated Stock Option Plan). Pursuant to the terms of the plans, in the event of a change of control, such as the merger, all outstanding stock options and restricted stock units will become fully and immediately exercisable, and all applicable deferral and restriction limitations or forfeiture provisions will lapse, immediately vested and before the merger.

All stock options and restricted stock units held by non-employee directors are fully vested under their original terms; thus the merger does not have an effect on the vesting of such awards. Pursuant to the merger agreement, all directors of the Company will resign effective as of the effective time of the merger. As a result, under the terms of the Deferred Compensation Plan for Non-Employee Directors, all vested amounts deferred under such plan will be distributed to participants in a lump sum as soon as administratively practicable after the merger. The Deferred Compensation Plan for Non-Employee Directors is expected to be amended prior to the effective time of the merger to provide for distribution in cash in connection with the merger instead of in shares of common stock.

The following table shows the total number of vested and unvested stock options with an exercise price below $4.80 per share and all vested (but not yet settled) and unvested restricted stock units (including those deferred under the Deferred Compensation Plan for Non-Employee Directors) held by our executive officers and directors, as of September 12, 2008, that are expected to be cashed out in connection with and as a result of the merger and the amounts expected to be received by such individuals in connection with the cash-out of such awards. Our board of directors intends to approve the disposition in the merger of all securities held by our executive officers and directors to exempt such dispositions from Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act. All dollar amounts in the table are gross amounts and do not reflect deductions for income taxes and other withholdings. The options in the table have exercise prices ranging between $0.25 and $4.54 per share.

Cash Compensation to Non-Employee Directors

In June 2008, the Board of Directors suspended all equity compensation for non-employee directors. In lieu of equity compensation, non-employee directors receive additional cash compensation of $3,750 per month for services from June 1, 2008, until the date of the next annual or special shareholders meeting, referred to as the Interim Cash Compensation. If a corporate transaction is approved at such shareholders meeting, then immediately after such shareholders meeting, non-employee directors will receive a cash payment equal to $45,000 minus any Interim Cash Compensation received. As a result of the suspension of equity compensation in June 2008, non-employee directors have not received any equity awards since the annual grants in June 2007. The cash compensation to be paid to non-employee directors after a shareholders meeting at which a corporate transaction is approved is intended to provide non-employee directors with approximately the same value they would have received if they had received equity awards in 2008 (under the equity compensation program for non-employee directors, they would have received a stock option grant with a value of $20,000 and a restricted deferred stock unit award with a value of $25,000, for a total value of $45,000).

Change in Control Agreements for Executive Officers

Pursuant to the terms of their respective agreements, for a defined period following the merger, referred to as the Post-Change in Control Period, each executive officer will continue to be employed and have authority, duties and responsibilities reasonably commensurate with the most significant of those held by the executive officer during the 90-day period immediately preceding the date of the merger. The Post-Change in Control Period is 18 months for Mr. Anastasi and 12 months for Mr. Papano, Mr. Yantus and Mr. Anderson. During the Post-Change in Control Period, the executive officers will be entitled to continued compensation and benefits at levels comparable to pre-merger levels and reimbursement for all reasonable employment expenses.

Change in Control Benefits

If at any time during the Post-Change in Control Period the executive's employment is terminated without cause, or the executive officer terminates his employment with good reason, the executive officer will be entitled to the following benefits:

any accrued but unpaid salary;

a pro rata portion of the executive's annual bonus for the year;

with respect to Mr. Anderson, a pro rata portion of his monthly commission payable for the calendar month in which termination occurs;

any compensation previously deferred by the executive officer (together with any accrued interest or earnings);

any accrued but unpaid vacation pay;

payment of COBRA premiums for the executive officer and his family for a period of 18 months for Mr. Anastasi and a period of 12 months for Mr. Papano, Mr. Yantus and Mr. Anderson, or until such time as the executive officer obtains new health insurance coverage or such executive officer is no longer entitled to COBRA continuation coverage under our group health plans, whichever occurs first; base salary continuation for a period of 18 months for Mr. Anastasi and a period of 12 months for Mr. Papano, Mr. Yantus and Mr. Anderson; one and one-half times the target annual bonus payable for the fiscal year in which the termination occurs for Mr. Anastasi and one times the target annual bonus payable for the fiscal year in which the termination occurs for Mr. Papano, Mr. Yantus and Mr. Anderson; and with respect to Mr. Anderson, commission payments continue for a period equal to 12 months payable in monthly installments at the end of each month, in an amount equal to 1/12th of the executive's commission target for the year in which termination occurs.

Table of Contents

If any payments paid or payable under an executive's change in control agreement or otherwise are characterized, by our tax counsel or our accounting firm, referred to as the Tax Advisor, as excess parachute payments within the meaning of Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, referred to as the Code, then the payments will be reduced to the highest amount that, as determined by the Tax Advisor, may be paid to the executive officer without having any portion of any payment treated as an excess parachute payment. We may elect, in our sole and absolute discretion, not to apply this reduction if, as determined by the Tax Advisor, the after-tax value to the executive officer of the total payments prior to the reduction is greater than the after-tax value to the executive officer of the total payments after taking into account the reduction.

Definition of Cause

Under the change in control agreements, cause means the occurrence of one or more of the following events:

the executive's willful material misconduct or dishonesty in the performance of, or the willful failure to perform, any material duty under the change in control agreement;

the executive's willful injury of the Company or breach of fiduciary duty to the Company involving personal profit;

conviction of the executive officer for violation of a state or federal criminal law involving the commission of a crime against the Company or any felony;

habitual or repeated misuse by the executive officer of alcohol or controlled substances that materially impairs the executive's ability to perform his duties under the change in control agreement;

any material and willful violation by the executive officer of any provisions of the change in control agreement; or any past or present act of the executive officer involving moral turpitude adversely affecting the business, goodwill or reputation of the Company, or materially and adversely affecting the executive's ability to effectively represent the Company with the public.

Definition of Good Reason

Under the change in control agreements, good reason means the occurrence of any of the following events, without the consent of the executive:

a material reduction in the executive's annual base salary or annual bonus (a reduction of 5% or more will be deemed material, otherwise materiality will be determined based on the facts and circumstances);

a material reduction in the executive's authority, duties or responsibilities as contemplated in the change in control agreement; provided that a change in the person or office to which the executive officer reports, without a corresponding reduction in authority, duties or responsibilities, resulting primarily from organizational changes incident to a merger or acquisition, will not constitute good reason ;

a relocation of the principal location at which the executive officer is required to provide services to any office or location that is more than 50 miles from the office or location where the executive officer was based on the date of the merger; or any other action or inaction that constitutes a material breach by the Company of certain provisions of the change in control agreement.

The executive's termination will not be for good reason unless (a) the executive officer notifies the Company in writing of the existence of the condition which the executive officer believes constitutes good reason within 90 days of the initial existence of such condition, (b) the Company fails to remedy such condition within 30 days after the date on which it receives such notice, referred to as the Remedial Period, and (c) the executive officer actually terminates employment within 180 days after the expiration of the Remedial Period. If the executive officer terminates employment before the expiration of the Remedial Period, then the executive's termination will not be considered to be for good reason. The fact that the Company remedies the condition after expiration of the Remedial Period, but prior to the executive's termination, will not prevent the executive's termination from being for good reason.

Management Incentive Retention Plan

Participants in the Management Incentive Retention Plan, which our board of directors adopted on April 23, 2008, are eligible to receive a cash bonus upon consummation of the merger, provided that the participant must be continuously employed by the Company until the closing date of the merger. Participants in the plan include all of the Company's current executive officers as well as certain other members of management.

The bonus pool established under the plan is equal to 1.5% of the amount of cash paid by Open Text in the merger for all of Captaris's equity (including stock options, warrants and similar rights to acquire stock). As of September 15, 2008, the bonus pool is estimated to be $1,966,142.84. The aggregate amount of all bonuses cannot exceed the bonus pool. The plan administrator is not required to award the entire bonus pool to the participants. The amount of the bonus payable to each participant may range from 0% to 200% of base salary, determined by the plan administrator in its sole and absolute discretion based upon, among other things, the participant's contribution to the closing of the merger. The allocation of the bonus pool has not been determined and will likely not be determined until closer to the closing of the merger so that the plan administrator can take each participant's contributions into account.

The bonuses, if any, will be paid in two installments. Two thirds of each bonus will be paid on closing, as long as the participant remains employed through the closing of the merger. The remaining third of each bonus will be paid six months after the closing of the merger. If the participant's employment is terminated by the Company or the successor for cause or the participant terminates his or her employment other than for good reason or as a result of death or disability after the closing of the merger, but prior to the second payment date of the bonus, the participant will forfeit any portion of the remaining bonus. If the participant's employment is terminated by the Company or a successor without cause or if the participant terminates his or her employment for good reason or as a result of death or disability after the closing of the merger but prior to the second payment date of the bonus, the participant will receive the full amount of the remaining bonus within 30 days after the date of termination.

If the payment of a bonus under the Management Incentive Retention Plan by itself or when combined with any other payment or benefit the participant receives from us or any of our subsidiaries or affiliates, would be characterized, by the our accounting firm, as an excess parachute payment within the meaning of Section 280G of the Code, then the payments will either be (a) paid in full in accordance with the terms governing such payments, or (b) reduced so that the payments, in the aggregate, are not treated as excess parachute payments, whichever of the foregoing actions, results, as determined by the our accounting firm, in the participant's receipt, on an after-tax basis, of the greater amount of the payments notwithstanding that all or some portion of the payments may remain subject to the excise tax applicable to excess parachute payments.

Definition of Cause

Under the Management Incentive Retention Plan cause means the occurrence of one or more of the following events:

a participant's willful material misconduct or dishonesty in the performance of, or the willful failure to perform any of the participant's material duties as an employee of, or consultant to the Company or a successor;

Table of Contents

the participant's willful and material injury of the Company or a successor, or the participant's breach of fiduciary duty to the Company or a successor involving personal profit;

the conviction of the participant of the violation of a state or federal criminal law involving the commission of a crime against the Company or a successor or any felony;

the habitual or repeated misuse by the participant of alcohol or controlled substances that materially impairs the participant's ability to perform his or her duties as an employee of, or consultant to the Company or a successor; or any material and willful violation by the participant of any provisions of the Confidential Information, Inventions and Non-Competition Agreement between the participant and the Company or a successor.

Definition of Good Reason

Under the Management Incentive Retention Plan, "good reason" means the occurrence, prior to the second bonus payment date, of any of the following events, without the consent of the executive:

a material reduction in the participant's base salary or target bonus due to the participant;

a material reduction in the participant's authority, duties or responsibilities, other than any reduction which occurs solely as a result of the Company becoming a wholly owned private subsidiary of the acquiror;

a relocation of the principal place at which the participant is required to provide services of more than 50 miles from the principal place at which the participant was providing services as of the closing date of the merger; or the Company or a successor materially breaches any provision of the Management Incentive Retention Plan or the Company or a successor materially breaches any provision of any employment agreement entered into between the Company or a successor and the participant.

The participant's termination will not be for good reason unless (a) the participant notifies the Company or a successor in writing of the existence of the condition which the participant believes constitutes good reason within 90 days of the initial existence of such condition, (b) the Company or a successor fails to remedy such condition within the Remedial Period, and (c) the participant actually terminates employment within 30 days after the expiration of the Remedial Period and before the Company or a successor has remedied such condition. If the participant terminates employment before the expiration of the Remedial Period or after the Company or a successor remedies the condition (even if after the end of the Remedial Period), then the participant's termination will not be considered to be for good reason.

Indemnification of Directors and Executive Officers and Insurance

The merger agreement provides that, from and after the effective time through the seventh anniversary of the effective time of the merger, Open Text and the surviving corporation will indemnify and hold harmless those persons who were directors or officers of Captaris or any of our subsidiaries immediately prior to the effective time of the merger against any costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages or liabilities in connection with claims or actions arising out of the fact that such persons were officers or directors of the Company and occurring at or before the effective time of the merger at least to the extent provided for by us immediately prior to the effective time of the merger. In this regard, Open Text and the surviving corporation will also be required to advance expenses as incurred to an indemnified officer or director to the fullest extent permitted by law.

The merger agreement also provides that the indemnification or advancement of expenses provisions in the surviving corporation's charter and bylaws will be no less favorable after the effective time through the seventh anniversary of the effective time of the merger than those set forth in our articles of incorporations and bylaws in effect as of September 3, 2008.

Table of Contents

In addition, the merger agreement provides that Open Text will cause to be maintained customary policies of directors and officers liability insurance that contain coverage no less favorable than the coverage maintained by us immediately prior to the merger for a period of six years from the effective time of the merger or, at our option, we may obtain, before the effective time of the merger, a six-year run-off program for our directors and officers liability insurance subject to obtaining prior written approval from Open Text.

Dissenters Rights

General

Under Chapter 23B.13 of the WBCA, holders of our common stock are entitled to dissent from, and obtain payment of the fair value of their shares in the event of, the consummation of the merger instead of receiving the $4.80 per share merger consideration, without interest and subject to any required withholding of taxes. The following summarizes the material rights of holders of Captaris common stock under Chapter 23B.13. You should read the applicable sections of Chapter 23B.13, a copy of which is attached to this proxy statement as Annex C, and which governs dissenters rights. The summary below is qualified in its entirety by reference to Chapter 23B.13.

Pursuant to Chapter 23B.13, when a proposed merger is to be submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, as in the case of this special meeting, the meeting notice must state that shareholders are or may be entitled to assert dissenters rights and must be accompanied by a copy of Chapter 23B.13. The notice of special meeting included with this proxy statement constitutes notice to the holders of Captaris common stock, and a copy of Chapter 23B.13 is attached to this proxy statement as Annex C.

If you are contemplating the possibility of exercising your dissenters rights in connection with the merger, you should carefully review the text of Chapter 23B.13. You are also encouraged to consult your legal counsel, at your expense, before attempting to exercise your dissenters rights. If you do not fully and precisely satisfy the procedural requirements of the WBCA, you will lose your dissenters rights. If any holder of shares of Captaris common stock who asserts dissenters rights under the WBCA withdraws or loses (through failure to perfect or otherwise) the right to obtain payment for such holder's shares under Chapter 23B.13, then such shareholder's shares will be converted, or will be treated as if they had been converted, into the right to receive the merger consideration of $4.80 per share of Captaris common stock, without interest and subject to any required withholding of taxes. We will not provide you with any notice regarding your dissenters rights other than as described in this proxy statement and the notice of special meeting included with this proxy statement.

Requirements for Exercising Dissenters Rights

To preserve your right if you wish to exercise your statutory dissenters rights, you must:

deliver to Captaris, before the vote is taken at the special meeting regarding the merger agreement, written notice of your intent to demand payment for your shares of Captaris common stock if the merger is effected, which notice must be separate from your proxy. Your vote against the merger agreement alone will not constitute written notice of your intent to exercise your dissenters rights;

not vote your shares in favor of the merger agreement; and follow the statutory procedures for perfecting dissenters rights under Chapter 23B.13, which are described below under the heading Appraisal Procedures.

Unless you satisfy all of the requirements of Chapter 23B.13 you may not exercise dissenters rights under Chapter 23B.13 and, if the merger agreement is approved by our shareholders and the merger occurs, your shares of Captaris common stock will be converted into the right to receive the merger consideration of $4.80 per share, without interest and subject to any required withholding of taxes.

Table of Contents

Notice

Written notice of your intent to exercise dissenters' rights must be delivered to us at:

Captaris, Inc.

Attn: Investor Relations

301 116th Avenue SE, Suite 400

Bellevue, Washington 98004

(425) 455-6000

Such written notice must be delivered before the vote on the merger agreement is taken at the special meeting. Your written notice to demand payment should specify your name and mailing address, the number of shares of Captaris common stock you own, and that you intend to demand payment of the fair value of your shares of Captaris common stock if the merger agreement is approved.

Vote

Your shares must either not be voted at the special meeting or must be voted against, or must abstain from voting on, the approval of the merger agreement. Submitting a properly signed proxy card that is received prior to the vote at the special meeting that does not direct how the shares of Captaris common stock represented by that proxy are to be voted will constitute a vote in favor of approval of the merger agreement and a waiver of your statutory dissenters' rights.

Termination of Dissenters' Rights

Your right to obtain payment of the fair value of your shares of Captaris common stock under Chapter 23B.13 will terminate if:

the merger is abandoned or rescinded;

a court having jurisdiction permanently enjoins or sets aside the merger; or your demand for payment is withdrawn with Captaris' written consent.

Appraisal Procedures

If the merger agreement is approved by our shareholders, within ten days after the effective date of the merger we will send written notice regarding the proper procedures for dissenting to all shareholders who have given written notice under Chapter 23B.13 and have not voted in favor of approval of the merger agreement. The notice will contain:

where the demand for payment and certificates representing certificated shares of Captaris common stock must be sent and when certificates for certificated shares must be deposited;

information for holders of uncertificated shares as to what extent transfer of the shares will be restricted after the payment demand is received; a form for demanding payment that includes the date of the first announcement to the news media or to shareholders of the terms of the merger and requires that the person asserting dissenters' rights certify whether or not the person acquired beneficial ownership of Captaris common stock before that date;

Edgar Filing: CAPTARIS INC - Form PREM14A

the date by which we must receive your payment demand, which date will not be fewer than 30 or more than 60 days after the date the written notice is delivered to you; and a copy of Chapter 23B.13.

If you wish to assert dissenters' rights, you must demand payment, certify whether you acquired beneficial ownership of your shares before [], 2008 and deposit your Captaris share certificates in accordance with the terms of the notice. If you do not demand payment and deposit your share certificates where required, by the date set forth in the notice, you will lose the right to obtain payment for your shares under Chapter 23B.13.

Table of Contents

If we do not consummate the merger within 60 days after the date set for demanding payment and depositing share certificates, then we will return all deposited certificates and release any transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares. If after returning the deposited certificates and releasing transfer restrictions, we wish to consummate the merger, we must send a new dissenters' notice and repeat the payment demand procedure. If we do not effect the merger and do not return the deposited certificates or release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares within 60 days after the date which we had set for demanding payment, you may deliver notice to us in writing of your estimate of the fair value of your Captaris common stock plus the amount of interest due and demand payment of your estimated amount, less any amount already paid by us for the shares under Chapter 23B.13.

Except as provided below, within 30 days after the later of the effective date of the merger or the date the payment demand is received, we shall pay each dissenting shareholder who complied with the payment demand and related requirements of Section 23B.13.230 of the WBCA the amount that we estimate to be the fair value of the shareholder's shares, plus accrued interest. The payment will be accompanied by:

financial data relating to Captaris, including a balance sheet as of the fiscal year ending not more than 16 months before the date of payment, an income statement for that year, a statement of changes in shareholders' equity for that year, and the latest available interim financial statements, if any;

an explanation of how we estimated the fair value of the shares;

an explanation of how we calculated the interest;

a statement of the dissenter's right to demand supplemental payment if such shareholder believes that the amount paid is less than the fair value of the shares or under certain other circumstances enumerated in the statute and described below; and

a copy of Chapter 23B.13.

For dissenting shareholders who were not the beneficial owners of their shares of Captaris common stock before [], 2008, we may elect to withhold payment under Chapter 23B.13. To the extent that we so elect, after consummating the merger, we shall estimate the fair value of the shares, plus accrued interest, and shall pay this amount to each dissenter who agrees to accept it in full satisfaction of the dissenter's demand. We will send with our offer an explanation of how we estimated the fair value of the shares, an explanation of how the interest was calculated, and a statement of the dissenter's right to demand payment of the dissenter's own estimate of the dissenter's shares and the amount of interest due if such dissenter believes that the amount offered is less than the fair value of the shares or under certain other circumstances enumerated in the statute and described below.

If you believe that the amount paid or offered by us is less than the fair value of your shares or believe that the interest due is incorrectly calculated, or if we fail to make payment for your shares within 60 days after the date set for demanding payment or we do not effect the merger and do not return the deposited share certificates or release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares within 60 days after the date set for demanding payment, you may, within 30 days of the payment or offer for payment, deliver notice to us in writing informing us of your own estimate of the fair value of your shares and the amount of interest due, and demand payment of this estimate, less any amount we have already paid under Chapter 23B.13. If any dissenting shareholder's demand for payment of the dissenter's own estimate of the fair value of the shares is not settled within 60 days after receipt by us of such shareholder's demand for payment of his or her own estimate, Chapter 23B.13 requires that we commence a proceeding in King County Superior Court and petition the court to determine the fair value of the shares and accrued interest, naming all the dissenting shareholders whose demands remain unsettled as parties to the proceeding. If we do not commence the proceeding within the 60-day period, we will pay each dissenter whose demand remains unsettled the amount demanded.

The jurisdiction of the court in which the proceeding is commenced will be plenary and exclusive. The court may appoint one or more appraisers to receive evidence and recommend a decision on the question of fair value.

Table of Contents

The appraisers will have the powers described in the order appointing them, or in any amendment to it. The fair value of the shares as determined by the court may be less than, equal to or greater than the value of the merger consideration to be issued to non-dissenting shareholders for Captaris common stock under the terms of the merger agreement if the merger is consummated. Shareholders should be aware that investment banking opinions as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration payable in a merger are not opinions as to fair value under Chapter 23B.13. Each dissenter made a party to the proceeding is entitled to a judgment (a) for the amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of the dissenter's shares, plus interest, exceeds the amount paid by us, or (b) for the fair value, plus accrued interest, of the dissenter's after-acquired shares for which we elected to withhold payment pursuant to Chapter 23B.13.

The court will also determine the costs and expenses of the court proceeding and assess them against Captaris, except that the court may assess the costs against all or some of the dissenters, in amounts the court finds equitable, to the extent the court finds the dissenters acted arbitrarily, vexatiously or not in good faith in demanding payment under Chapter 23B.13. If the court finds that we did not substantially comply with the relevant provisions of sections 23B.13.200 through 23B.13.280 of the WBCA, the court may also assess against Captaris any fees and expenses of counsel and experts for the respective parties, in amounts the court finds equitable. The court may also assess those fees and expenses against any party if the court finds that the party has acted arbitrarily, vexatiously or not in good faith with respect to dissenters' rights. If the court finds that the services of counsel for any dissenter were of substantial benefit to other dissenters similarly situated, and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against Captaris, the court may award to counsel reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded the dissenters who were benefited.

A record shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to fewer than all of the shares registered in the shareholder's name only if the shareholder dissents with respect to all shares beneficially owned by any one person and delivers to us a notice of the name and address of each person on whose behalf the shareholder asserts dissenters' rights. The rights of a partially dissenting record shareholder are determined as if the shares as to which the dissenter dissents and the dissenter's other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders. Beneficial owners of Captaris common stock who desire to assert dissenters' rights as to shares held on the beneficial owners' behalf (a) must submit to us the record shareholder's consent to the dissent not later than the time the beneficial shareholder asserts dissenters' rights, which consent shall be set forth either in a record or, if we have designated an address, location, or system to which the consent may be electronically transmitted and the consent is electronically transmitted to the designated address, location, or system, in an electronically transmitted record; and (b) must so assert dissenters' rights with respect to all shares of which such shareholder is the beneficial shareholder or over which such shareholder has power to direct the vote.

For purposes of Chapter 23B.13, fair value with respect to dissenters' shares means the value of the shares of Captaris common stock immediately before the effective date of the merger, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the merger, unless that exclusion would be inequitable.

Delisting and Deregistration of Our Common Stock

If the merger is completed, Captaris common stock will be delisted from the Nasdaq Global Select Market and will be deregistered under the Exchange Act. Following the completion of the merger, Captaris will no longer be a publicly-traded company.

Litigation Relating to the Merger

On September 16, 2008, a purported class action complaint entitled Harvey v. Anastasi et al., Case No. 08-2-31902-4, was filed in Superior Court in King County, Washington, naming Captaris, Inc., its directors, Open Text Corp., Open Text, Inc., and Oasis Merger Corp. as defendants. The complaint generally alleges that Captaris's directors breached their fiduciary duties by failing to engage in a legally sufficient process with respect to the sale of the Company. The complaint also alleges that Open Text aided and abetted the directors breach of fiduciary duties. Plaintiff seeks, among other relief, an order enjoining Captaris from consummating the merger with Open Text and an award of attorneys' fees. Captaris and its directors believe the allegations in the complaint lack merit and intend to vigorously defend the lawsuit.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger

The following discussion summarizes the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger that may be relevant to our shareholders that hold shares of our common stock as a capital asset (generally, assets held for investment) for U.S. federal income tax purposes, referred to as Holders. This discussion is based on the Code, applicable Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder, and administrative and judicial interpretations thereof, each as in effect as of the date hereof, all of which may change, possibly with retroactive effect.

The discussion does not address all of the U.S. federal income tax considerations that may be relevant to particular Holders in light of their particular circumstances, or to Holders that are subject to special treatment under U.S. federal income tax laws, including banks, insurance companies, mutual funds or other financial institutions, broker-dealers, traders, expatriates, certain former citizens or long-term residents of the United States, tax-exempt organizations, persons who are subject to the U.S. alternative minimum tax, persons who hold their shares of common stock as part of an integrated investment (including as part of a straddle or as part of a hedging, conversion or other risk reduction transaction), controlled foreign corporations, passive foreign investment companies, corporations subject to anti-inversion rules, persons that are partnerships, S corporations or other pass-through entities, persons that have a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar or persons who acquired their shares of Captaris common stock through stock option or stock purchase plan programs or in other compensatory arrangements.

In addition, this discussion does not address the U.S. federal income tax considerations applicable to holders of options or warrants, if any, to purchase Captaris common stock or to Holders who exercise dissenters' rights. Furthermore, except as provided below, this discussion does not address any U.S. federal estate and gift tax consequences or any state, local or foreign tax consequences applicable to Holders.

For purposes of this discussion, a U.S. Holder refers to a Holder that is:

an individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States;

a corporation, or other entity taxable as a corporation for U.S. federal tax purposes, created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or any state thereof or the District of Columbia;

an estate the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source; or a trust (a) the administration over which a U.S. court can exercise primary supervision and all of the substantial decisions of which one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control and (b) certain other trusts considered U.S. persons for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

A Non-U.S. Holder refers to a Holder (other than an entity treated as a partnership or other pass-through entity for U.S. federal income tax purposes) that is not a U.S. Holder.

If a partnership (or other entity classified as a partnership for U.S. federal tax purposes) is a beneficial owner of shares of Captaris common stock, the tax treatment of a partner in that partnership generally will depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Holders that are partnerships and partners in these partnerships are urged to consult their tax advisors regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to them.

Table of Contents

Exchange of Captaris Common Stock for Cash

U.S. Holders

U.S. Holders generally will recognize capital gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes in an amount equal to the difference between (1) the amount of cash received in the merger, and (2) such U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in his or her shares of Captaris common stock surrendered in the transaction. Any capital gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. Holder held the Captaris common stock for more than one year prior to the effective time of the merger. The deduction of any recognized loss may be delayed or otherwise adversely affected by certain loss limitation rules.

Non-U.S. Holders

A Non-U.S. Holder generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax on any gain realized on the receipt of cash in the merger, unless:

the Non-U.S. Holder is an individual who was present in the United States for 183 days or more during the taxable year of the disposition and certain other conditions are satisfied;

the gain is effectively connected with the Non-U.S. Holder's conduct of a trade or business in the United States, or, if required by an applicable tax treaty, attributable to a permanent establishment maintained by the Non-U.S. Holder in the United States; or Captaris is or has been a United States real property holding corporation, referred to as aUSRPHC, for U.S. federal income tax purposes at any time within the shorter of the five year period preceding the closing date of the transactions or such Non-U.S. Holder's holding period of Captaris common stock. We do not believe that Captaris is or has been, and do not anticipate it becoming, aUSRPHC for U.S. federal income tax purposes. If Captaris were or were to become aUSRPHC at any time during the applicable period, however, any gain recognized on a sale or other disposition of its common stock by a Non-U.S. Holder that did not own (actually or constructively) more than 5% of Captaris's common stock during the five years preceding the closing date of the transactions would not be subject to U.S. federal income tax.

Gain described in the first bullet point above generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax at a flat 30% (or lower applicable treaty) rate, but may be offset by U.S. source capital losses. Unless a tax treaty provides otherwise, gain described in the second bullet point above will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net income basis in the same manner as if the Non-U.S. Holder were a resident of the United States. Non-U.S. Holders that are foreign corporations also may be subject to a 30% branch profits tax (or lower applicable treaty rate). Non-U.S. Holders are urged to consult any applicable tax treaties that may provide for different rules.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

Under U.S. federal income tax laws, information reporting requirements generally apply in connection with proceeds from the disposition of the Captaris common stock by non-corporate U.S. Holders. Additionally, a U.S. Holder may be subject to a backup withholding tax, unless the U.S. Holder provides the paying agent with the U.S. Holder's correct taxpayer identification number, which in the case of an individual is his or her social security number, or, in the alternative, establishes a basis for exemption from backup withholding. If the correct taxpayer identification number or an adequate basis for exemption is not provided, a U.S. Holder will be subject to backup withholding (currently at a rate of 28%) on any reportable payment. To prevent backup withholding, each U.S. Holder must provide the paying agent with a complete Internal Revenue Service, referred to as the IRS, Form W-9 or a substitute Form W-9, which will be provided to U.S. Holders with the letter of transmittal.

Payments made to Non-U.S. Holders in the merger may be subject to information reporting and backup withholding. Non-U.S. Holders generally may avoid backup withholding by providing the paying agent with a properly executed IRS Form W-8BEN (or other applicable IRS Form W-8) certifying the Holder's non-U.S. status or by otherwise establishing an exemption.

Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Rather, Holders may use amounts withheld as a credit against their U.S. federal income tax liability or may claim a refund of any excess amounts withheld by timely and duly filing a claim for refund with the IRS.

THE FOREGOING DISCUSSION IS FOR GENERAL INFORMATION ONLY AND IS NOT INTENDED TO BE LEGAL OR TAX ADVICE TO ANY PARTICULAR HOLDER. THE TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER TO ANY PARTICULAR HOLDER WILL DEPEND ON THAT SHAREHOLDER'S INDIVIDUAL SITUATION. HOLDERS ARE URGED TO CONSULT WITH THEIR OWN TAX ADVISOR TO DETERMINE THE SPECIFIC TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER, INCLUDING TAX RETURN REPORTING REQUIREMENTS, THE APPLICABILITY OF U.S. FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL AND FOREIGN TAX LAWS, AND THE EFFECT OF ANY PROPOSED CHANGE IN THE TAX LAWS TO THEM.

Antitrust Matters

Under the HSR Act, and the rules that have been promulgated under the HSR Act, acquisitions of a sufficient size may not be completed unless information has been furnished to the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice and to the Federal Trade Commission and applicable waiting period requirements have been satisfied or early termination of the waiting period has been granted. The merger of Captaris with Merger Sub and the conversion of shares of Captaris common stock into the right to receive the merger consideration is subject to the provisions of the HSR Act. Under the HSR Act, the merger cannot be completed until the expiration or early termination of the waiting period following the filing of Hart-Scott-Rodino Notification and Report Forms by the Guarantor and Captaris. Both the Guarantor and Captaris filed the required notification and report forms on September 17, 2008. A foreign competition filing was submitted in Germany on September 16, 2008. The merger agreement generally provides that Open Text and Captaris will use best efforts to obtain regulatory clearance, subject to the more specific provisions in the merger agreement addressing these matters.

At any time before or after the completion of the merger, notwithstanding that the applicable waiting period has ended or approval has been granted, any state, foreign country, or private individual could take action to enjoin the merger under the antitrust laws as it deems necessary or desirable in the public interest or any private party could seek to enjoin the merger on anti-competitive grounds. We cannot be sure that a challenge to the merger will not be made or that, if a challenge is made, that we will prevail.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following description summarizes the material provisions of the merger agreement, but does not purport to describe all the terms of the merger agreement. The following summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the merger agreement which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement and incorporated in this proxy statement by reference. Shareholders should read the merger agreement carefully.

The merger agreement has been included to provide you with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about us. Such information can be found elsewhere in this proxy statement and in the other public filings we make with the SEC, which are available without charge at <http://www.sec.gov>.

The merger agreement contains representations and warranties that we, on the one hand, and Open Text and Merger Sub, on the other hand, have made to one another as of specific dates. These representations and warranties have been made for the benefit of the other parties to the merger agreement and may be intended not as statements of fact but rather as a way of allocating the risk to one of the parties if those statements prove to be incorrect. In addition, the assertions embodied in our representations and warranties are qualified by information in confidential disclosure schedules provided by us to Open Text and Merger Sub in connection with signing the merger agreement. While we do not believe that these disclosure schedules contain information required to be publicly disclosed under the applicable securities laws other than information that has already been so disclosed, the disclosure schedules do contain information that modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to our representations and warranties set forth in the attached merger agreement. Accordingly, you should not rely on the representations and warranties as current characterizations of factual information about us or Open Text.

Structure

The merger agreement provides that Merger Sub will merge with and into us. We will survive the merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of Open Text.

The closing date for the merger will be, unless the parties otherwise agree, no later than two business days after the satisfaction or waiver of all conditions to closing in the merger agreement. We cannot assure you when, or if, all of the conditions to completion of the merger will be satisfied or waived. See The Merger Agreement – Conditions to the Merger beginning on page 63.

Effective Time

The merger will be effective when we file articles of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Washington, or at such later time as is specified in the articles of merger.

Merger Consideration

Each share of our common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger (other than shares held by us as treasury stock and any shares owned by Open Text, Merger Sub or any other of our or their respective wholly owned subsidiaries, or by holders properly exercising dissenters' rights under Washington law, and other than restricted stock units, which will be cancelled and paid in cash in an amount equaling the product of the maximum number of restricted stock units times the merger consideration set forth below, whether such units are vested or unvested) will be converted at the effective time of the merger into the right to receive cash, without interest and subject to any required withholding of taxes, in the amount of $4.80 per share.

If any of our shareholders perfect dissenters' rights with respect to any of our shares, then we will treat those shares as described under The Merger – Dissenters' Rights beginning on page 48.

Table of Contents

Exchange and Payment Procedures

At or prior to the closing of the merger, Merger Sub will deposit in trust to a paying agent reasonably acceptable to Captaris, an amount of cash sufficient to pay the merger consideration to each holder of shares of our common stock, options and restricted stock units. Promptly after the effective time of the merger, the paying agent will mail a letter of transmittal and instructions to each holder of record of shares of our outstanding common stock. The letter of transmittal and instructions will tell such shareholders how to surrender their common stock certificates or shares they may hold represented by book entry in exchange for the merger consideration. Also promptly after the effective time of the merger, the paying agent will mail a letter of notification to holders of options or restricted stock units notifying such holders that each option or restricted stock unit is being cancelled in exchange for payment of cash to an amount set forth below under the heading Effect on Captaris' s Stock Options and Restricted Stock Units.

You should not return your share certificates with the enclosed proxy card, and you should not forward your share certificates to the paying agent without a letter of transmittal.

Registered shareholders will not receive the merger consideration until they surrender their share certificates (or book-entry shares) to the paying agent, together with a completed and signed letter of transmittal and any other documents as may be required by the letter of transmittal or accompanying instructions. If any merger consideration is to be paid to a person other than the person in whose name the corresponding book-entry share, share certificate, option or restricted stock unit that is to be exchanged or cancelled is registered, the person registered must either pay any transfer or other required taxes or establish to the satisfaction of the paying agent that such taxes have been paid or are not applicable.

Any earnings made through the paying agent' s investment of the merger consideration prior to payment of such consideration to our shareholders will be the property of Open Text, Captaris and Merger Sub. Upon making payments to our shareholders, the paying agent will be entitled to withhold any required taxes from the merger consideration.

At the effective time of the merger, our stock transfer books will be closed, and there will be no further registration of transfers of outstanding shares of our common stock. If, after the effective time of the merger, share certificates or book-entry shares are presented to the surviving corporation for transfer, they will be cancelled and exchanged for the merger consideration.

None of the paying agent, or any party to the merger agreement will be liable to any person for any cash delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar law. Any portion of the merger consideration that remains unclaimed as of a date that is immediately prior to such time as such amounts would otherwise escheat to or become property of any governmental authority will, to the extent permitted by applicable law, become the property of Open Text. Shareholders who have not received the merger consideration prior to the delivery of such funds to Open Text may look only to Open Text for the payment of the merger consideration.

If you have lost a share certificate, or if it has been stolen or destroyed, then before you will be entitled to receive the merger consideration, you will have to make an affidavit of the fact, in a form reasonably satisfactory to Open Text and the paying agent.

Effect on Captaris' s Stock Options and Restricted Stock Units

Each option to purchase shares of our common stock (whether vested or unvested) outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be cancelled and the holder of such option (if the per share merger consideration is greater than the per share exercise price of such option) will, in full satisfaction of such option, be entitled to receive an amount in cash, subject to any required withholding of taxes, equal to the product of (a) the merger consideration less the per share exercise price per share of such option, multiplied by (b) the number of shares subject to such option.

Table of Contents

Each RSU outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be cancelled and the holder of such RSU will, in full settlement of such RSU, be entitled to receive an amount in cash, subject to any required withholding taxes, equal to the product of (a) the merger consideration, multiplied by (b) the maximum number of shares of our common stock subject to such RSU.

Directors and Officers

The merger agreement provides that the directors of Merger Sub immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be the initial directors of the surviving corporation until their successors have been elected or appointed or qualified or until the earlier of their death, resignation or removal. The officers of Captaris at the effective time of the merger will be the initial officers of the surviving corporation until their successors have been elected or appointed or qualified or until the earlier of their death, resignation or removal.

Conduct of Our Business Pending the Merger

We have agreed in the merger agreement, that until the consummation of the merger or the termination of the merger agreement in accordance with its terms, except as expressly contemplated by the merger agreement or required by law or consented to in writing by Open Text (which consent will not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned and which consent will be deemed to have been given if Open Text does not object within 72 hours after a written request for such consent is delivered to Open Text by us), we will conduct business in all material respects in the ordinary course of business in all material respects consistent with past practice.

Without the limitation of the foregoing, under the merger agreement we have agreed that we will not, except as otherwise contemplated by the merger agreement or disclosure schedules or as required by law or unless Open Text gives its prior written consent (which consent will not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned and which consent will be deemed to have been given if Open Text does not object within 72 hours after a written request for such consent is delivered to Open Text by us):

make or commit to make any capital expenditures that are, in the aggregate, in excess of $300,000;

enter into any contract, agreement, commitment or arrangement to do any of the foregoing.

No Solicitation of Transactions

We have agreed that we and our subsidiaries will not, and will cause our respective officers and employees, and our counsel, investment bankers, accountants and other representatives, not to, directly or indirectly:

solicit, initiate or knowingly encourage (including by way of furnishing information), or take any other action designed to facilitate, directly or indirectly, or that could reasonably be expected to lead to any inquiries or the making of any acquisition proposal;

participate in any discussions or negotiations relating to any acquisition proposal;

Edgar Filing: CAPTARIS INC - Form PREM14A

furnish any materials to another person regarding or in connection with an acquisition proposal;

approve, endorse or recommend any acquisition proposal or cause a change of recommendation; or enter into any agreement or understanding regarding an acquisition proposal.

In addition, we have agreed to cease as of the date of the merger agreement and cause to be terminated any solicitation, encouragement, discussion or negotiation conducted up to such time regarding any acquisition proposal.

For purposes of the merger agreement, an acquisition proposal is any offer or proposal made by any person, persons, entity or entities other than Open Text, Merger Sub or any of their respective affiliates to acquire, in one or more transactions, (i) beneficial ownership (as defined under Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act) of 20% or more of the shares of our common stock pursuant to a merger, consolidation or other business combination, sale of shares of capital stock, tender offer or exchange offer or similar transaction involving us or (ii) 20% or more of the assets of us and our subsidiaries, taken as a whole, including through a lease, license, sale, transfer or exchange.

For purposes of the merger agreement, a change of recommendation means any of the following: (i) withholding, withdrawal, qualification or modification of (or any proposal or resolution to withhold, withdraw, qualify or modify) the recommendation of the merger agreement and merger in any manner that would reasonably be expected to prevent, delay or materially impair the consummation of the merger or any of the other transactions contemplated thereby, or failure of us to include such recommendation in this proxy statement relating to the merger; (ii) our board of directors taking of a neutral position with respect to an acquisition proposal that has been publicly disclosed after a reasonable amount of time has elapsed for our board of directors to review and make a recommendation with respect thereto (and in no event more than ten business days after being publicly disclosed), provided, however, that a statement by us to the effect that we have received such acquisition proposal and are evaluating it in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement and that we continue to recommend that shareholders vote in favor of the merger shall not be considered a change of recommendation; (iii) failure of our board of directors to (a) if a tender offer, take-over bid or exchange offer that constitutes or would constitute an acquisition proposal (other than by Open Text) is commenced, recommend that our shareholders not accept such tender offer, take-over bid or exchange offer after a reasonable amount of time has elapsed for our board of directors to review and make a recommendation with respect thereto (and in no event more than ten business days following commencement of such tender offer, take-over bid or exchange offer), or (b) reaffirm in writing the recommendation of our board of directors of the merger agreement and the merger within two business days of a request by Open Text to do so; or (iv) approval, adoption or recommendation, or publicly disclosed proposal to approve, adopt or recommend, an acquisition proposal.

Despite the foregoing restrictions, we are permitted, before our shareholders meeting, to furnish information to, and engage in discussions and negotiations with any person in response to an acquisition proposal, which did not result from a breach of our obligations regarding solicitations of other acquisition proposals and certain related matters and which:

our board of directors or special committee determines that such acquisition proposal constitutes a superior proposal; or our board of directors or the special committee determines in good faith in consultation with our outside legal advisors and nationally recognized financial advisor could reasonably be likely to result in a superior proposal and that the evaluation of such acquisition proposal is reasonably required by the board of directors fiduciary duties to our shareholders under applicable law.

Before we may furnish any information as described above, the person or entity to whom we are furnishing such information must enter into a confidentiality agreement with us that meets conditions specified in the merger agreement.

For purposes of the merger agreement, a superior proposal means an unsolicited bona fide acquisition proposal by a third party that (a) was not obtained or made as a direct or indirect result of a failure to comply with or breach of (or in violation of) the merger agreement and (b) is on terms and conditions that our board of directors determines, in its reasonable, good faith judgment, after taking into account such matters that it deems relevant (taking into account all financial, regulatory, legal and other aspects thereof) following consultation with our outside legal counsel and a nationally recognized financial advisor: (y) is more favorable, from a financial point of view, to our shareholders than the terms of the merger (taking into account any offer by Open Text to amend the terms of the merger agreement); and (z) is reasonably capable of being consummated on the terms proposed and on a timely basis (taking into account all financial, regulatory, legal and other aspects thereof).

Additionally, under the merger agreement, our board of directors will recommend that our shareholders vote to approve the merger agreement, unless, prior to the adoption of the merger agreement by our shareholders at the shareholders meeting, in response to an acquisition proposal in connection with which we have not breached our non-solicitations obligations, if our board of directors determines such acquisition proposal is a superior proposal, our board of directors may approve such superior proposal and make a change of recommendation. We must then notify Open Text in writing that we intend to effect a change of recommendation with respect to such superior proposal, with such notice specifying any material terms and conditions of such acquisition agreement and identifying the party making the superior proposal, after which time Open Text will have five business days to negotiate with us for an amendment of the merger agreement prior to making such change of recommendation. Following such negotiation, if our board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with our financial advisor and outside legal counsel, that the acquisition proposal remains a superior proposal despite any improvements offered by Open Text, it may make a change of recommendation or take the other actions described above.

We agree to promptly notify Open Text orally and in writing of the receipt of any acquisition proposal or inquiry that would reasonably be expected to lead to an acquisition proposal, the identity of the person who made such acquisition proposal, any request for information, and the material terms and conditions of such request or acquisition proposal, and will keep Open Text promptly and reasonably informed of the status and details of any such acquisition proposal. If we determine pursuant to the exception above to negotiate with a person making an acquisition proposal, we will promptly (and in any event within twenty four hours) provide Open Text with a copy of the applicable confidentiality agreement and all other information provided to such person unless already provided to Open Text.

Access to Information

We have agreed to, and shall cause each of our subsidiaries to, provide to Open Text's representatives reasonable access, in a manner not disruptive to the operations of our business and our subsidiaries' businesses, during normal business hours and upon reasonable notice throughout the period prior to the effective time of the merger, to our and our subsidiaries' officers, employees, agents, properties, books and records, including draft financial statements, provided, however, that neither we nor any of our subsidiaries are required to disclose any information to Open Text or Merger Sub if such disclosure would, in our reasonable judgment, (i) violate applicable law or (ii) jeopardize any attorney-client or other legal privilege. Open Text agrees that it will not, and will cause its representatives not to, use any information obtained for any competitive or other purpose unrelated to the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Each party to the merger agreement has agreed that the confidentiality agreement between us and Open Text will apply with respect to information furnished by us, our subsidiaries, and our officers, employees and other representatives.

Special Meeting and Proxy Statement

Under the merger agreement, we have agreed, so long as our board of directors has not effected a change of recommendation:

to call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of our shareholders as soon as is reasonably practicable for the purpose of approving the merger agreement; and to prepare and file with the SEC a proxy statement relating to the merger and the merger agreement as soon as practicable after the date of the merger agreement.

Employee Matters

Open Text has agreed that it will honor or cause to be honored, the employment, termination, severance and other retention agreements as specified in the merger agreement, in each case existing immediately prior to the execution of the merger agreement, that are between us or any of our subsidiaries and any current or former officer, director or employee thereof or for the benefit of any such current or former officer, director or employee.

With respect to each benefit plan, program, practice, policy or arrangement maintained by Open Text or its subsidiaries (including the surviving company) or affiliates following the effective time and in which any of our or our subsidiaries' employees participate or are eligible to participate to treat, for purposes of determining eligibility to participate, vesting, accrual of and entitlement to benefits and all other purposes, all service with us and our subsidiaries (or predecessor employers to the extent we or any benefit plan provide past service credit) as service with Open Text and its subsidiaries. Open Text will cause each Open Text plan that is a welfare benefit plan, (i) to waive any and all eligibility waiting periods, evidence of insurability requirements and pre-existing condition limitations to the extent waived, satisfied or not included under the corresponding benefit plan, and (ii) to recognize for each employee for purposes of applying annual deductible, co-payment and out-of-pocket maximums under such Open Text plan any deductible, co-payment and out-of-pocket expenses paid by the employee and his or her spouse and dependents under a corresponding benefit plan during the calendar year in which occurs the later of the effective time of the merger and the date on which the employee begins participation in such Open Text plan.

Conditions to the Merger

Conditions to Each Party's Obligations to Effect the Merger

The obligations of the parties to complete the merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following mutual conditions:

our shareholders must have approved the merger agreement;

no temporary restraining order, preliminary or permanent injunction or other order, decree or ruling enjoining or otherwise preventing the consummation of the merger substantially on the terms contemplated by the merger agreement has been issued by any court of competent jurisdiction or other governmental entity and remain in effect, and there is no legal requirement which has the effect of making the consummation of the merger illegal and no governmental entity having jurisdiction over us, Open Text or Merger Sub has initiated or overtly threatened any legal proceeding challenging or seeking to restrain or prohibit the consummation of the merger; and any applicable waiting period under the HSR Act or any material antitrust requirements reasonably determined to apply to the merger has expired or been terminated.

Conditions to Obligations of Open Text and Merger Sub

The obligations of Open Text and Merger Sub to effect the merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following additional conditions:

the accuracy of our representations and warranties set forth in the merger agreement except as would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect;

the performance, in all material respects, by us of our covenants and obligations under the merger agreement;

the delivery by us of a certificate signed by our chief financial officer as to the satisfaction of the conditions described in the preceding two bullets;

the absence of a material adverse effect following September 3, 2008; provided, however, a material adverse effect will not be deemed to have occurred if the fact, change, event, factor, condition, circumstance, development or effect giving rise to such material adverse effect has been fully remedied, such that no remaining impact is present, all as determined by Open Text in good faith;

Edgar Filing: CAPTARIS INC - Form PREM14A

the receipt by Open Text of a certificate signed by one of our officers that our rights agreement does not apply to the merger; and not more than 15% of our shareholders having exercised dissenters rights.

Table of Contents

Conditions to Obligations of Captaris

Our obligation to effect the merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following additional conditions:

the accuracy of the representations and warranties of Open Text and Merger Sub regarding solvency of the surviving corporation in the merger and sufficiency of funds with regards to this merger and the accuracy of the other representations and warranties of Open Text and Merger Sub set forth in the merger agreement, except, in the case of such other representations and warranties, as would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a material adverse effect on the Guarantor and its subsidiaries or the ability of Open Text to consummate the merger;

the performance, in all material respects, by each of Open Text and Merger Sub of their obligations under the merger agreement; and the delivery by Open Text of a certificate signed by one of its executive officers as to the satisfaction of the conditions in the preceding two bullets.

Rights Agreement

Pursuant to the merger agreement, our board of directors has taken all actions necessary to render our rights agreement inapplicable to the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Termination

The merger agreement may be terminated and the merger may be abandoned at any time prior to the effective time of the merger:

by the mutual consent of us and Open Text;

by either us or Open Text:

if the merger has not occurred on or prior to January 1, 2009, provided, however, that the right to terminate the merger agreement is not available to any party whose failure to fulfill any obligation under the merger agreement has been the primary cause of the failure of the merger to occur on or prior to such date; and provided further that either we or Open Text may extend the Termination Date to January 31, 2009 if, as of January 1, 2009, all conditions to closing have been met or waived other than the holding of our shareholders' meeting to approve the merger agreement or the expiration or termination of the waiting period under the HSR Act or any material antitrust requirements reasonably determined to apply to the merger;

if any governmental entity has issued an order, decree or ruling or taken any other action, in each case permanently enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the merger substantially as contemplated by the merger agreement, and such order, decree, ruling or other action has become final and non-appealable unless the party seeking to terminate has not complied in all material respects with its covenant to use its best efforts to consummate the merger;

if the meeting of our shareholders concludes without obtaining approval of the merger agreement in accordance with the WBCA; provided, the right to terminate will not be available to us where the failure to obtain the approvals was caused by our action or failure to act and such action or failure to act constitutes a breach by us of the merger agreement; or if our board of directors shall have effected a change of recommendation or approved or recommended, or proposed publicly to approve or recommend, any superior proposal, or permitted us to enter into an acquisition agreement related to a superior proposal; provided we may not terminate pursuant to this provision if we are in material breach of our non-solicitation and certain related obligations;

by us:

if Open Text or Merger Sub breaches any covenant or agreement, or if any representation or warranty of Open Text or Merger Sub is untrue resulting in the failure of a condition to the obligations of Open Text to effect the merger being satisfied; provided that, if such breach is curable through the exercise of Open Text's or Merger Sub's reasonable best efforts and they continue to exercise such reasonable best efforts, we may not terminate the merger agreement; provided further that our right to terminate the merger agreement under these circumstances will not be available to us if we failed to perform any of our representations and warranties or obligations under or in connection with the merger agreement that would result in Open Text's or Merger Sub's closing conditions not being satisfied;

by Open Text:

if we breach any covenant or agreement or if any of our representations or warranties is untrue, resulting in the failure of a condition to the obligations of Open Text or Merger Sub to effect the merger being satisfied, provided that, if we can cure such breach using our reasonable best efforts and we continue to exercise such reasonable best efforts, Open Text may not terminate the merger agreement, provided further that Open Text's and Merger Sub's right to terminate the merger agreement in this manner will not be available to them if they failed to perform any of their representations and warranties or obligations under or in connection with the merger agreement that would result in certain of our closing conditions not being satisfied; or

if we or any of our subsidiaries or our respective representatives failed to comply in any material respect with the provisions regarding acquisition proposals as provided in the merger agreement.

Termination Fee and Reimbursement of Expenses

In the event that:

we or Open Text terminate the merger agreement because the merger has not occurred on or prior to the Termination Date or if our shareholders' meeting has concluded without the requisite shareholder vote to approve the merger agreement, or if Open Text terminates the merger agreement because of certain breaches by us of a covenant, representation or warranty then we are required to make a nonrefundable cash payment to Open Text in an amount equal to the lesser of (i) $2.0 million or (ii) the aggregate amount of all out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred by Open Text and Merger Sub in connection with the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement (including all attorneys' fees, accountants' fees, financial advisory fees and filing fees), referred to as the Expense Amount. The Expense Amount will be paid by us to Open Text within two business days following request from Open Text for payment containing reasonable evidence of such costs and expenses.

In the event that:

we or Open Text terminate the merger agreement if our board of directors has effected a change of recommendation or approved or recommended, or proposed publicly to approve or recommend, any superior proposal, or permitted us to enter into an acquisition agreement related to a superior proposal;

Open Text terminates this merger agreement if we or any of our subsidiaries or their respective representatives fail to comply in any material respect with the provisions regarding acquisition proposals as provided in the merger agreement; or

(A) after September 3, 2008, we (directly or through our representatives) exercise our right to negotiate or discuss an acquisition proposal pursuant to provisions regarding acquisition proposal as described in the merger agreement, or an acquisition proposal has been publicly announced and, in either case, such acquisition proposal is not withdrawn or terminated, on or before the fifth business day prior to our

shareholders meeting (with respect to a termination if our shareholders meeting shall have concluded without the approval of the merger agreement) or on or before the date of termination with respect to a termination as a result of the merger not occurring on or prior to the Termination Date, (B) we or Open Text terminate the merger agreement as a result of the merger not having occurred on or prior to the Termination Date or if our Shareholders meeting has concluded without the requisite shareholder vote, (C) at the time of such termination neither Open Text nor Merger Sub has breached or failed to perform any of its representations and warranties or obligations under or in connection with the merger agreement in any material respect, and (D) prior to or within twelve months following the date the merger agreement is terminated, we enter into a definitive agreement with respect to any acquisition proposal or any acquisition proposal is consummated; provided, however, that for purposes of clause (D), the references to twenty percent (20%) in the definition of acquisition proposal shall be deemed to be references to fifty percent (50%) , then we will pay to Open Text (in immediately available funds) a termination fee of $4.9 million, referred to as the Termination Fee; provided that any Expense Amount paid will be deducted from the Termination Fee. The payment of the Termination Fee is the sole and exclusive remedy of Open Text and Merger Sub in the case of such termination and, upon payment of such Termination Fee, we and our affiliates will have no further liability to Open Text or Merger Sub with respect to the merger agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, provided that the parties are not released from liability for willful breach or fraud. The Termination Fee will be paid within five business days of the termination of the merger agreement in the circumstances described in the first two bullets above and, in the case of a Termination Fee paid pursuant to the last bullet above, within five business days of the consummation of an acquisition proposal as described therein.

Amendment and Waiver

The merger agreement may be amended, modified and supplemented in any and all respects, whether before or after any vote of our shareholders as contemplated by the merger agreement, by written agreement by us, Open Text and Merger Sub, by action taken by our and their respective boards of directors (or individuals holding similar positions, in the case of a party that is not a corporation), at any time prior to the closing date with respect to any of the terms contained in the merger agreement; provided, however, that after the approval of the merger agreement by our shareholders, no such amendment, modification or supplement shall reduce or change the merger consideration or adversely affect the rights of our shareholders without the approval of such shareholders.

Except as otherwise provided in the merger agreement, any failure of any of the parties to comply with any obligation, covenant, agreement or condition in the merger agreement may be waived by the party or parties entitled to the benefits thereof only by a written instrument signed by the party granting such waiver, but such waiver or failure to insist upon strict compliance with such obligation, covenant, agreement or condition shall not operate as a waiver of, or estoppel with respect to, any subsequent or other failure.

PROPOSAL 2 ADJOURNMENT OF THE SPECIAL MEETING

The Adjournment Proposal

In this proposal, we are asking you to authorize the holder of any proxy solicited on behalf of our board of directors to vote to adjourn the special meeting, if determined necessary by Captaris, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the merger agreement or if otherwise deemed necessary or appropriate. Failure of this proposal to pass will not affect the ability of the holder of any proxy solicited on behalf of our board of directors to adjourn the special meeting in the event insufficient shares of our common stock are represented to establish a quorum. If we move to adjourn the meeting, we will ask our shareholders to vote only on the adjournment proposal, and not on the proposal regarding the approval of the merger agreement.

Votes Required and Our Board of Directors Recommendation

If a quorum exists, in order for shareholders to approve the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, the votes cast in favor of the proposal by the shares entitled to vote must exceed the votes cast against the proposal by the shares entitled to vote. If a quorum exists, abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect on the voting results with respect to the proposal to adjourn the special meeting. If a quorum does not exist, approval of adjournment of the special meeting would require a majority of the votes of the shareholders present, in person or by proxy, and entitled to vote on the matter. If a quorum does not exist, abstentions would have the same effect as a vote AGAINST approval of adjournment, whereas broker non-votes, which are not entitled to vote, would have the effect of reducing the aggregate number of affirmative votes required to adjourn the special meeting.

Our board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the adjournment proposal.

Table of ContentsSECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT

The common stock is our only outstanding class of voting securities. The following table sets forth the amount and percent of shares of common stock which, as of September 5, 2008, are deemed under the rules of the SEC to be beneficially owned by each member of our board of directors, by each of our executive officers, by all directors and executive officers as a group, and by any person or group (as that term is used in the Exchange Act) known to us as of that date to be a beneficial owner of more than 5% of the outstanding shares of our common stock.

The percentage ownership is based on 26,473,654 shares of our common stock outstanding as of September 5, 2008. Shares of our common stock that are subject to options or other convertible securities currently exercisable or exercisable within 60 days of September 5, 2008 are deemed outstanding for the purposes of computing the percentage ownership of the person holding these options or convertible securities, but are not deemed outstanding for computing the percentage ownership of any other person. Unless otherwise indicated below, the persons and entities named in the table have sole voting and sole investment power with respect to all shares beneficially owned, subject to community property laws where applicable.

The Company shall promptly provide any notices of dissent to Parent.

(b) If any shareholder who holds Dissenting Shares effectively withdraws or loses (through failure to perfect or otherwise) such shareholder's right to obtain payment of the fair value of such shareholder's Dissenting Shares under Chapter 23B.13 of the WBCA, then, as of the later of the Effective Time and the occurrence of such effective withdrawal or loss, such shareholder's shares of Common Stock shall no longer be Dissenting Shares and, if the occurrence of such effective withdrawal or loss is later than the Effective Time, shall be treated as if they had as of the Effective Time been converted into the right to receive Merger Consideration as set forth in subsection (a) of Section 3.1.

(c) Each Benefit Plan is and has heretofore been maintained and operated in material compliance with the terms of such Benefit Plan and with all requirements of applicable Law, except for such noncompliance as would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect. (f) The Company and its Subsidiaries have not undertaken to maintain any Benefit Plan for any period of time and each such Benefit Plan is terminable at the sole discretion of the Company (or its successor), subject only to such constraints as may be imposed by applicable Law or the specific terms of such Benefit Plan. (g) Except as set forth on Section 4.9(g) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, the execution and delivery of this Agreement do not, and the consummation of the contemplated transactions (whether alone or in conjunction with any other event) will not (i) require the Company, any ERISA Affiliate, the Surviving Corporation, the Parent, or any Benefit Plan to pay greater compensation or make a larger contribution to, or pay greater benefits or accelerate payment or vesting of a benefit under, any Benefit Plan, (ii) create or give rise to any additional vested rights or service credits, or require any benefit to be funded or annuitized, under any Benefit Plan, (iii) result in any forfeiture, reduction or diminution of all or a portion of the accrued benefits or account balance of any participant in a Benefit Plan, (iv) result in any payment (including severance, unemployment compensation, golden parachute, change of control, retention, bonus or otherwise) becoming due to any current or former director, officer or employee of, or consultant to, the Company or any Company Subsidiary, or (v) result in any increase or acceleration of contributions, liabilities or benefits, or acceleration of vesting, under any Benefit Plan or restriction imposed on any asset held in connection with a Benefit Plan or otherwise.

(h) No employer securities, employer real property or other employer property is included in the assets of any Benefit Plan.

(i) Full payment has been made of all amounts which the Company or any ERISA Affiliate was required under the terms of the Benefit Plans to have paid as contributions (including all employer contributions and employee salary reduction contributions), premium payments or other payments to such Benefit Plans within the time period prescribed by ERISA and all such contributions for any period ending on or before the Effective Time which are not yet due have been made to each such Benefit Plan or included in the consolidated balance sheets of the Company and its consolidated Subsidiaries included in the Company SEC Reports (or, if the Subsidiary maintaining, contributing to or bound by the Benefit Plan is not a consolidated Subsidiary, on the books of the relevant Subsidiary.)

(j) Except as provided in Section 4.9(j) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, the Company and each of its Subsidiaries is not a party to any arrangement, oral or written, (i) the amounts payable from which would fail to be deductible for federal income tax purposes by virtue of Section 280G or Section 162(m) of the Code, or (ii) that would provide a gross-up to any employee or independent contractor for the cost of taxes or penalties imposed on such person. With respect to any nonqualified deferred compensation plan listed on Section 4.9(j) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, (a) no such plan has assets set aside directly or indirectly in the manner described in Section 409A(b)(1) of the Code or contains a provision that would be subject to Section 409A(b)(2) of the Code, and (b) the Company has complied in good faith with all requirements of Section 409A of the Code, to the extent applicable thereto.

(k) Except as would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, each Benefit Plan mandated by a foreign (i.e., non-United States) Governmental Entity

(l) No equity awards, other than the Options and RSUs listed on Section 4.9(l) of the Company Disclosure Schedule are currently outstanding, whether under the Company Equity Plans, under other equity plans sponsored by the Company, or pursuant to individual grants.

(m) Except as set forth on Section 4.9(m) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, since June 30, 2008, neither the Company nor any Company Subsidiary has granted any increase in the compensation (in any form) of its directors, officers or employees, entered into any new employment or severance protection agreement with any such director, officer or employee, or increased any benefits payable under its current severance, change of control or termination pay policies, except in the ordinary course of business, consistent with past practice.

(b) There is no order, writ, injunction, judgment or decree to which the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, or any of the material assets owned or used by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, is subject.

Except as would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect, neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries is in violation of, or in default under, any Law, in each case, applicable to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or any of their respective assets and properties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Section 4.11 shall not apply to Benefit Plans, Taxes, Environmental Laws or labor matters, which are the subject exclusively of the representations and warranties in Section 4.9, Section 4.13, Section 4.15 and Section 4.16, respectively.

Section 4.12 Intellectual Property.

(a) Section 4.12(a) of the Company Disclosure Schedule sets forth all (i) issued patents and pending patent applications and Company Patents existing as of the Effective Time, (ii) trademarks and service marks, trade dress rights and trade names (whether or not the foregoing are the subject of a pending trademark application or issued registration) including logos, slogans, tag lines and uniform resource locators, Internet domain names, and Internet domain name applications, and (iii) copyright registrations and applications for registration thereof, and material unregistered copyrights in each case that are owned by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries. Other than Intellectual Property that is licensed from third parties and identified as such in Section 4.12(a) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, the Company or a Company Subsidiary owns all right, title and interest in and to the Intellectual Property used or currently under development for future use in the business of the Company free and clear of all Encumbrances and there is no other Intellectual Property used or currently under development for future use in the business of the Company that is not owned by the Company or a Company Subsidiary and set forth in Section 4.12(a) of the Company Disclosure Schedule. the world, that take priority, directly or indirectly, from any of the Company Patents or part thereof. With respect to each item of Intellectual Property used or currently under development for future use in the business of the Company, including those items required to be identified in Section 4.12(a) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, (i) except for items which are licensed from third parties or in the public domain, as specifically identified in Section 4.12(a)(i) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, the Company or one of its Subsidiaries own all right, title, and interest in and to such item, free and clear of any lien other than Permitted Liens; (ii) except for office actions identified and described in Section 4.12(a)(ii) of the Company Disclosure Schedule and disclosed to Parent, such item is not subject to any outstanding injunction, judgment, order, finding of full or partial invalidity or unenforceability or any other adverse ruling or determination of any Governmental Entity which the Company has received written notice and to the knowledge of Company, there exists no basis for any of the foregoing in the future; (iii) no lawsuit of which the Company has received written notice is pending or, to the knowledge of the Company, is threatened that challenges the validity or enforceability of such item in whole or in part and (iv) any registration or application regarding the Intellectual Property owned by the Company or a Company Subsidiary in existence as of the Effective Time, has been maintained with the applicable government authorities and is still listed with such authorities as subsisting in good standing and as being in full force and effect and in the name of the Company or a Company Subsidiary and excluding applications and registrations that have been abandoned or withdrawn in the reasonable business judgment of the Company or a Company Subsidiary as set forth in Section 4.12(a)(iv) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, no such existing application or registration for a patent has been rejected, suspended or subject to an office action or similar act by the applicable government authority.

Neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries is in material default of any such License-In Agreement, and no event has occurred that constitutes a material default thereunder, except for any of the foregoing that have not had, and are not reasonably expected to have, a Company Material Adverse Effect. To the knowledge of the Company each License-In Agreement is valid, binding, and in full force and effect.

(c) Except as would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse effect, the Company and its Subsidiaries own or have the right to use, without payments to any other Person other than payments described in any agreement disclosed to the Parent, all Intellectual Property used in the operation of the business of the Company and its Subsidiaries as and where the business is presently conducted. The Company and its Subsidiaries have taken commercially reasonable actions required to maintain the validity and enforceability of each item of Intellectual Property that they own or use, except where the failure to take such actions would not reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

(d) To the knowledge of the Company, the operation of the business of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries as and where presently conducted does not infringe or misappropriate any Intellectual Property rights of third parties, including, without limitation those patents listed on Section 4.12(d) of the Company Disclosure Schedule and neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries has received any notice alleging any such infringement or misappropriation (including any written claim that the Company or any of its Subsidiaries must license or refrain from using any Intellectual Property rights of any third party), except as identified in Section 4.12(d) of the Company Disclosure Schedule. To the knowledge of the Company, no third party has infringed upon or misappropriated any Intellectual Property rights of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries except as identified and described in Section 4.12(d) of the Company Disclosure Schedule.

(i) Except as specified in Section 4.12(i) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, the Technology, to the knowledge of the Company, does not contain any encryption, enciphering or other similar technology or perform any encryption function without the use of other third party software which is not part of, bundled with or included in the Technology.

pursuant to this section shall change, limit or otherwise affect any of the representations, warranties, covenants or obligations of the notifying party contained in this Agreement or, in the case of the Company, the Company Disclosure Schedule.

Section 6.3 Access to Information. The Company shall (and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries to) afford Representatives of Parent reasonable access, in a manner not disruptive to the operations of the business of the Company and its Subsidiaries, during normal business hours and upon reasonable notice throughout the period prior to the Effective Time, to the officers, employees, agents, properties, books and records of the Company and its Subsidiaries, including draft financial statements, provided, however, that nothing herein shall require the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to disclose any information to Parent or Merger Sub if such disclosure would, in the reasonable judgment of the Company, (i) violate applicable Law or (ii) jeopardize any attorney-client or other legal privilege. Parent agrees that it will not, and will cause its Representatives not to, use any information obtained pursuant to this Section 6.3 for any competitive or other purpose unrelated to the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. The Confidentiality/Non-Disclosure Agreement, dated March 27, 2008 (the Confidentiality Agreement), between the Company and Parent shall apply with respect to information furnished by the Company, its Subsidiaries and the Company's officers, employees, and other Representatives hereunder.

Section 6.4 Acquisition Proposals.

(a) Subject to Section 6.4(b), from the date hereof until the Effective Time or, if earlier, the termination of this Agreement in accordance with Article 8, the Company shall not, nor shall it permit any of its Subsidiaries to, nor shall it authorize or permit any of its Representatives or its Subsidiaries' Representatives to, directly or indirectly through another Person, (i) solicit, initiate or knowingly encourage (including by way of furnishing information), or take any other action designed to facilitate, directly or indirectly, or that could reasonably be expected to lead to any inquiries or the making of any Acquisition Proposal, (ii) participate in any discussions or negotiations relating to any Acquisition Proposal, (iii) furnish any materials to another Person regarding or in connection with an Acquisition Proposal, (iv) approve, endorse or recommend any Acquisition Proposal or cause a Change of Recommendation, or (v) enter into any agreement or understanding regarding an Acquisition Proposal. Subject to Section 6.4(b), from the date hereof the Company shall cease and cause to be terminated any solicitation, encouragement, discussion or negotiation with any Persons conducted theretofore by the Company, its Subsidiaries or any of their respective Representatives with respect to any Acquisition Proposal. The Company shall apprise its Representatives, Subsidiaries and Subsidiaries' Representatives of this restriction, and the Company shall ensure that the terms hereof are complied with by such Subsidiaries and Representatives.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Section 6.4(a) if at any time prior to the Company Shareholders Meeting the Company receives an Acquisition Proposal which (i) the board of directors of the Company or Special Committee determines constitutes a Superior Proposal, or (ii) the board of directors of the Company or the Special Committee determines in good faith in consultation with its outside legal advisers and nationally recognized financial adviser could reasonably be likely to result in a Superior Proposal and that the evaluation of such Acquisition Proposal is reasonably required by the board's fiduciary duties to the Company's shareholders under applicable Law, the Company may, in response to such Acquisition Proposal (provided such Acquisition Proposal did not result from a breach by it of Section 6.4(a), Section 6.4(b) or Section 6.4(c)), (A) furnish information with respect to it and the Company Subsidiaries to the Person making such Acquisition Proposal pursuant to a customary confidentiality agreement (as determined after consultation with its outside counsel), the benefits of the terms of which cannot be more favorable to the other party to such confidentiality agreement than those in place with Parent (Acceptable Confidentiality Agreement), and (B) participate in discussions and negotiations regarding such Acquisition Proposal; provided that the Company shall promptly (and in any event within twenty four hours) provide to the Parent a copy of the Acceptable Confidentiality Agreement and all other information provided to the Person making such Acquisition Proposal (unless such information has already been provided to Parent). From and after the date hereof, if the Company has received an Acquisition Proposal or inquiry that would reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal, it shall promptly advise Parent orally and in writing of such Acquisition Proposal or inquiry, the identity of the Person who made such Acquisition Proposal or inquiry, any request for information, and the material terms and conditions of such request, inquiry, or Acquisition Proposal, and shall keep Parent promptly and reasonably informed of the status and details of any Acquisition Proposal or inquiry.

(c) The Company agrees that, except as provided below with respect to a Superior Proposal, the Company's board of directors shall recommend that the holders of Common Stock vote to approve the Agreement and the Merger (Company Recommendation). Except as expressly permitted by this Section 6.4(c), neither the board of directors of the Company, nor any committee thereof (including the Special Committee) shall cause, permit or take, or permit any Company Representative, Subsidiary or Subsidiary Representative to permit or take, any action which would be a Change of Recommendation. For purposes of this Agreement, Change of Recommendation shall mean any of the following: (i) withholding, withdrawal, qualification or modification of (or any proposal or resolution to withhold, withdraw, qualify or modify) the Company Recommendation in any manner that would reasonably be expected to prevent, delay or materially impair the consummation of the Merger or any of the other transactions contemplated hereby, or failure of Company to include the Company Recommendation in the Proxy Statement; (ii) the Company's board of directors taking of a neutral position with respect to an Acquisition Proposal that has been publicly disclosed or otherwise become broadly known to Persons other than the Company, Parent, the party making the Acquisition Proposal, and their respective Representatives after a reasonable amount of time has elapsed for the Company's board of directors to review and make a recommendation with respect thereto (and in no event more than ten Business Days after being publicly disclosed or otherwise become broadly known to Persons other than the Company, Parent, the party making the Acquisition Proposal, and their respective Representatives), provided that for purposes of this Section 6.4(c)(ii) the Company's acknowledgement of receipt of an Acquisition Proposal and that the Company is reviewing such Acquisition Proposal shall not constitute a Change of Recommendation only if the board of directors of the Company therein expressly publicly reaffirms its approval and recommendation of this Agreement and the Merger; (iii) failure of the Company's board of directors to (A) if a tender offer, take-over bid or exchange offer that constitutes or would constitute an Acquisition Proposal (other than by Parent) is commenced, recommend that the Company shareholders not accept such tender offer, take-over bid or exchange offer after a reasonable amount of time has elapsed for the Company's board of directors to review and make a recommendation with respect thereto (and in no event more than ten Business Days following commencement of such tender offer, take-over bid or exchange offer), or (B) reaffirm in writing the Company Recommendation in connection with a disclosure pursuant to Section 6.4(d) or otherwise within two Business Days of a request by Parent to do so; or (iv) approval, adoption or recommendation, or publicly disclosed proposal to approve, adopt or recommend, an Acquisition Proposal. Notwithstanding the foregoing, prior to the adoption of this Agreement by the Company's shareholders at the Company Shareholders Meeting, in response to the receipt of a written Acquisition Proposal in connection with which the Company has not breached Section 6.4(a) (subject to Section 6.4(b)), if the board of directors of the Company determines that such Acquisition Proposal is a Superior Proposal, then the board of directors of the Company may approve or recommend such Superior Proposal and, in connection with the approval or recommendation of such Superior Proposal, make a Change of Recommendation (and subject to Article 8, cause the Company to enter into any letter of intent, agreement in principle, acquisition agreement or other similar agreement or understanding (an Acquisition Agreement) with respect to such Superior Proposal); provided that (x) the Company notifies Parent in writing that it intends to effect a Change of Recommendation with respect to such Superior Proposal, with such notice specifying any material terms and conditions of such Acquisition Agreement and identifying the party making the Superior Proposal, (y) thereafter Parent is provided five (5) Business Days to negotiate, but is under no obligation with respect thereto, with the Company for amendment of this Agreement prior to making the Change of Recommendation, and (z) following such negotiation, the Company's board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisor and outside legal counsel, that the Acquisition Proposal remains a Superior Proposal.

(d) Nothing in this Section 6.4 shall prohibit the board of directors of the Company from taking and disclosing to the Company's shareholders a position contemplated by Rule 14e-2(a) or Rule 14d-9 promulgated under the Exchange Act, or other applicable law, if the board of directors of the Company determines in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel, that failure to so disclose such position could constitute a violation of applicable law and any such disclosure which would otherwise constitute a withdrawal, change or modification of the approval or recommendation of the board of directors of the Company, shall not be deemed to constitute such a withdrawal, change or modification with respect to the Merger for the purposes of Section 6.4(c) only if the board of directors of the Company expressly publicly reaffirms its approval and recommendation of this Agreement and the Merger within two (2) Business Days after a request by Parent to do so. In addition, it is understood and agreed that, for purposes of this Section 6.4, a factually accurate public statement by the Company that describes the Company's receipt of an Acquisition Proposal and the operation of this Agreement with respect thereto and contains a "stop look and listen" communication shall not constitute a withdrawal, change or modification of the approval or recommendation of the board of directors of the Company with respect to the Merger for the purposes of Section 6.4(c) only if the board of directors of the Company expressly publicly reaffirms in such communication its approval and recommendation of this Agreement and the Merger.

Section 6.5 Employee Benefits.

(a) As of the Effective Time, Parent shall honor or cause to be honored, in accordance with their terms, the employment termination, severance and other retention agreements listed in Section 4.9(a) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, in each case existing immediately prior to the execution of this Agreement, that are between the Company or any of its Subsidiaries and any current or former officer, director or employee thereof or for the benefit of any such current or former officer, director or employee.

(b) Parent shall treat, and shall cause each benefit plan, program, practice, policy and arrangement maintained by Parent or its Subsidiaries (including the Surviving Corporation) or Affiliates following the Effective Time and in which any of the employees of the Company or its Subsidiaries (the Employees) participate or are eligible to participate (the Parent Plans) to treat, for purposes of determining eligibility to participate, vesting, accrual of and entitlement to benefits (but not for accrual of benefits under any defined benefit plan, as defined in Section 3(35) of ERISA) and all other purposes, all service with the Company and its Subsidiaries (or predecessor employers to the extent the Company or any Benefit Plan provides past service credit) as service with Parent and its Subsidiaries. Parent shall cause each Parent Plan that is a welfare benefit plan, within the meaning of Section 3(1) of ERISA, (i) to waive any and all eligibility waiting periods, evidence of insurability requirements and pre-existing condition limitations to the extent waived, satisfied or not included under the corresponding Benefit Plan, and (ii) to recognize for each Employee for purposes of applying annual deductible, co-payment and out-of-pocket maximums under such Parent Plan any deductible, co-payment and out-of-pocket expenses paid by the Employee and his or her spouse and dependents under a corresponding Benefit Plan during the calendar year in which occurs the later of the Effective Time and the date on which the Employee begins participation in such Parent Plan.

Section 6.6 Publicity. The initial press release by each of Parent and the Company with respect to the execution of this Agreement shall be acceptable to Parent and the Company. Neither the Company nor Parent (nor any of their respective Affiliates) shall issue any other press release or make any other public announcement with respect to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby without the prior agreement of the other party, except as may be required by Law or by any listing agreement with a national securities exchange, in which case the party proposing to issue such press release or make such public announcement shall use its reasonable efforts to consult in good faith with the other party before making any such public announcements; provided that the Company will no longer be required to obtain the prior agreement of or consult with Parent in connection with any such press release or public announcement if the Company's board of directors has effected a Change of Recommendation or in connection with any such press release or public announcement pursuant to Section 6.4(d).

Section 6.7 Directors and Officers Insurance and Indemnification.

(a) From and after the Effective Time through the seventh (7th) anniversary thereof, Parent shall, and shall cause the Surviving Corporation to, indemnify and hold harmless the individuals who immediately prior to the Effective Time were directors or officers of the Company or any of its present or former Subsidiaries (the Indemnified Parties) against any costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages or liabilities in connection with claims or actions arising out of the fact that the Indemnified Parties were officers or directors of the Company, at least to the extent provided for by the Company immediately prior to the Effective Time, and Parent shall, and shall cause the Surviving Corporation to, promptly advance expenses as incurred to the fullest extent permitted by Law; provided that any person to whom expenses are advanced provides an undertaking to repay such advances if it is determined that such person is not entitled to indemnification. The articles of incorporation and bylaws of the Surviving Corporation shall contain the provisions with respect to indemnification and advancement of expenses no less favorable than those set forth in the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the Company as amended, restated and in effect on the date of this Agreement, which provisions shall not be amended, repealed or otherwise modified for a period of seven (7) years from the Effective Time in any manner that would adversely affect the rights thereunder of the Indemnified Parties, unless such modification is required by Law.

(b) Parent shall cause to be maintained in effect for not less than six (6) years from the Effective Time customary policies of directors' and officers' liability insurance that contain coverage no less favorable than the coverage maintained by the Company for the Indemnified Parties prior to the Effective Time with respect to matters occurring at or prior to the Effective Time (including the transactions contemplated by this Agreement). In lieu of the purchase of such insurance by Parent or the Surviving Corporation, the Company may prior to the Effective Time, subject to obtaining prior written approval from Parent, purchase a six year run-off program for directors' and officers' liability insurance providing at least the same coverage with respect to matters occurring at or prior to the Effective Time.

(c) This Section 6.7 is intended to benefit the Indemnified Parties, and shall be binding on all successors and assigns of Parent, Merger Sub, the Company and the Surviving Corporation.

(d) In the event that Parent, the Surviving Corporation or any of their successors or assigns (i) consolidates with or merges into any other Person and shall not be the continuing or surviving Person of such consolidation or merger or (ii) transfers or conveys a majority of its properties and assets to any Person, then, and in each such case, proper provision shall be made so that the successors, assigns and transferees of Parent or the Surviving Corporation or their respective successors or assigns, as the case may be, assume the obligations set forth in this Section 6.7.

Section 6.8 Proxy Statement. Except upon a Change of Recommendation, (a) the Company shall take all action necessary in accordance with applicable Law and its articles of incorporation and bylaws and Nasdaq rules to call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of the Company's shareholders (including any adjournment or postponement thereof, the Company Shareholders Meeting) as soon as is reasonably practicable for the purpose of approving this Agreement and the Merger, and (b) in connection with the Company Shareholders Meeting, as soon as is reasonably practicable the Company, in cooperation with Parent, shall prepare and file with the SEC a proxy statement (together with all amendments and supplements thereto, the Proxy Statement) relating to the Merger and this Agreement, solicit the shareholders' approval of the Agreement and Merger, and furnish the information required to be provided to the shareholders of the Company pursuant to the WBCA and the Exchange Act; provided, that, if upon the date initially fixed for the Company Shareholders Meeting, the conditions set forth in Section 7.1(b) have not been met, the Company may reschedule or adjourn the Company Shareholders Meeting to such later date as the Company, in its reasonable discretion, considers to be more proximate to the probable satisfaction of such conditions; and provided further, that upon Parent's reasonable request, the Company shall postpone the Company Shareholders Meeting for the purpose of soliciting additional shareholder proxies to be voted at the Company Shareholder Meeting. Promptly after its preparation and prior to its filing with the SEC, the Company shall provide a copy of the Proxy Statement, and any amendment to the Proxy Statement and related SEC or Nasdaq filings, to Parent, and Parent and its counsel shall be given a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on the Proxy Statement and related materials, and any proposed amendment or supplement thereto, prior to filing, and the Company shall in good faith consider such comments for inclusion in the Proxy Statement and/or related materials. The Company shall give Parent prompt notice of any comments on the Proxy Statement received by the SEC, and the Company, in consultation with Parent, shall promptly respond to SEC comments, if any. So long as the Company's board of directors shall not have effected a Change of Recommendation, the Proxy Statement shall include the recommendation of the Company's board of directors that the Company's shareholders approve this Agreement.

Section 6.9 Resignation of Directors. The Company shall use, and shall cause the Company Subsidiaries to use, commercially reasonable efforts to assist in effecting the resignations of the directors of the Company and Company Subsidiaries effective on the Effective Time.

Section 6.10 Best Efforts.

(a) Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, the Company and Parent shall each use their best efforts to promptly (i) take, or to cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or to cause to be done, and to assist and cooperate with the other parties in doing all things necessary, proper or advisable under applicable Law or otherwise to consummate and make effective the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; (ii) obtain from any Governmental Entities any actions, non-actions, clearances, waivers, consents, approvals, permits or orders required to be obtained by the Company, Parent or any of their respective Subsidiaries in connection with the authorization, execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby; (iii) promptly make all necessary registrations and filings, and thereafter make any other required submissions, with respect to this Agreement and the Merger required under (A) any applicable federal or state securities Laws, (B) the HSR Act and any applicable competition, antitrust or investment Laws of jurisdictions other than the United States, and (C) any other applicable Law; provided, however, that the Company and Parent will cooperate with each other in connection with the making of all such filings, including providing copies of all such filings and attachments to outside counsel for the non-filing party; (iv) furnish all information required for any application or other filing to be made pursuant to any applicable Law in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; (v) keep the other party informed in all material respects of any material communication received by such party from, or given by such party to, any Governmental Entity and of any material communication received or given in connection with any proceeding by a private party, in each case relating to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; (vi) permit the other parties to review any material communication delivered to, and consult with the other party in advance of any meeting or conference with, any Governmental Entity relating to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or in connection with any proceeding by a private party relating thereto, and giving the other party the opportunity to attend and participate in such meetings and conferences; (vii) avoid the entry of, or have vacated or terminated, any decree, order, or judgment that would restrain, prevent or delay the Closing, including defending any lawsuits or other legal proceedings, whether judicial or administrative, challenging this Agreement or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby; and (viii) execute and deliver any additional instruments necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; in each instance set forth in (i) (viii) above to the extent permitted by Law. No parties to this Agreement shall consent to any voluntary delay of the Closing at the behest of any Governmental Entity without the consent of the other parties to this Agreement, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. In addition, the Company shall use its best efforts to promptly obtain all consents or approvals required by virtue of the execution hereof by the Company or the consummation of any of the transactions contemplated herein by the Company to avoid the violation or breach of, or the default under, any third-party agreement, contract or any other instrument to which the Company is a party or to which it or any of its properties or assets are subject; provided, however, that the Company shall not be required to agree to any term or provision in any such consent or approval required hereby not conditioned on the Closing occurring; provided, further, with respect to the foregoing, Parent and Merger Sub shall be permitted to work with the Company and facilitate the Company's efforts to obtain such consents, and the Company shall provide to Parent timely updates as to the status of consents and Parent shall be entitled to review and approve any proposed consent, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld.

(b) Each of the Company, on the one hand, and Parent and Merger Sub, on the other, shall give prompt notice to the other of any written notice or other communication from any Governmental Entity in connection with the Merger.

CONDITIONS

Section 7.1 Conditions to Each Party's Obligation to Effect the Merger. The obligations of the Company, on the one hand, and Parent and Merger Sub, on the other hand, to consummate the Merger are subject to the satisfaction (or waiver by the Company, Parent and Merger Sub, if permissible under applicable Law) of the following conditions:

- (a) this Agreement and the Merger shall have been approved by the shareholders of the Company in accordance with the WBCA;
- (b) no temporary restraining order, preliminary or permanent injunction or other order, decree or ruling enjoining or otherwise preventing the consummation of the Merger substantially on the terms contemplated by this Agreement shall have been issued by any court of competent jurisdiction or other Governmental Entity and remain in effect, and there shall not be any legal requirement which has the effect of making the consummation of the Merger illegal and no Governmental Entity having jurisdiction over the Company, Parent or Merger Sub shall have initiated or overtly threatened any legal proceeding challenging or seeking to restrain or prohibit the consummation of the Merger; and
- (c) any applicable waiting period under the HSR Act or any material antitrust requirements reasonably determined to apply to the Merger shall have expired or been terminated.

Section 7.2 Conditions to the Obligations of Parent and Merger Sub. The obligations of Parent and Merger Sub to consummate the Merger are subject to the satisfaction (or waiver by Parent and Merger Sub) of the following further conditions:

- (a) each of the representations and warranties of the Company shall be true and accurate as of the Closing Date as if made on and as of the Closing Date (other than those representations and warranties that address matters only as of a particular date or only with respect to a specific period of time, which representations and warranties need only be true and accurate as of such date or with respect to such period), except where the failure of such representations and warranties to be so true and accurate (without giving effect to any limitation relating to materiality or Company Material Adverse Effect set forth therein) would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect;
- (b) the Company shall have complied with and performed in all material respects its covenants and obligations hereunder required to be complied with or performed by it at or prior to the Closing;
- (c) Parent shall have received a certificate signed by the chief financial officer of the Company, dated as of the Closing Date, to the effect that, to the knowledge of such officer, the conditions set forth in Section 7.2(a) and Section 7.2(b) have been satisfied;
- (d) from the date of this Agreement through the Effective Time there shall not have occurred a Company Material Adverse Effect; provided, however, a Company Material Adverse Effect shall not be deemed to have occurred solely for purposes of this Section 7.2(d) if the fact, change, event, factor, condition, circumstance, development or effect giving rise to such Company Material Adverse Effect has been fully remedied, such that no remaining impact therefrom is present, all as determined by Parent in good faith.

(e) The Rights Agreement shall have been terminated or, if not terminated, Parent shall have received a certificate signed by an officer of the Company that such Rights Agreement does not apply to the Merger; and

(f) not more than 15% of the Company's shareholders shall have exercised dissenter's rights.

Section 7.3 Conditions to the Obligations of the Company. The obligations of the Company to consummate the Merger are subject to the satisfaction (or waiver by the Company) of the following further conditions:

(a) (i) each of the representations and warranties of Parent and Merger Sub set forth in Sections 5.11 and Section 5.12 shall be true and accurate as of the Closing Date as if made on and as of the Closing Date, and (ii) each of the representations and warranties of Parent and Merger Sub set forth in Article 5 (other than in Sections 5.11 and Section 5.12) shall be true and accurate as of the Closing Date as if made on and as of the Closing Date (other than those representations and warranties that address matters only as of a particular date or only with respect to a specific period of time, which representations and warranties need only be true and accurate as of such date or with respect to such period), except in the case of this clause (ii) where the failure of such representations and warranties to be so true and accurate (without giving effect to any limitation relating to materiality or Parent Material Adverse Effect set forth therein) would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a Parent Material Adverse Effect;

(b) each of Parent and Merger Sub shall have complied with and performed in all material respects all of the respective covenants and obligations hereunder required to be performed by Parent or Merger Sub, as the case may be, at or prior to the Closing; and

(c) the Company shall have received a certificate signed by an executive officer of Parent, dated as of the Closing Date, to the effect that, to the knowledge of such officer, the conditions set forth in Section 7.3(a) and Section 7.3(b) have been satisfied.

Section 7.4 Frustration of Closing Conditions. None of the Company, Parent or Merger Sub may rely on the failure of any condition set forth in Section 7.1, Section 7.2 or Section 7.3, as the case may be, to be satisfied if such failure was caused by such party's failure to act in good faith or use its reasonable best efforts to consummate the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement, as required by and subject to Section 6.10(a).

TERMINATION

Section 8.1 Termination. Anything herein or elsewhere to the contrary notwithstanding, this Agreement may be terminated and the Merger contemplated herein may be abandoned at any time prior to the Effective Time, whether before or after shareholder approval of this Agreement:

(a) by the mutual consent of the Company and Parent;

(b) by either the Company or Parent:

(i) if the Merger shall not have occurred on or prior to January 1, 2009 (the Termination Date); provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 8.1(b)(i) shall not be available to any party whose failure to fulfill any obligation under this Agreement has been the primary cause of the failure of the Merger to occur on or prior to such date; provided further, however, that if, as of such date, all conditions to this Agreement shall have been satisfied or waived (other than those conditions that by their terms are to be satisfied at the Closing, but subject to the satisfaction or waiver of such conditions at the Closing), other than the conditions set forth in Section 7.1(a) (solely in the case where the Company Shareholders Meeting has not been held by such date) or Section 7.1(c), then the Company or Parent may extend the Termination Date to January 31, 2009;

(ii) if any Governmental Entity having jurisdiction over the Company, Parent or Merger Sub shall have issued an order, decree or ruling or taken any other action, in each case permanently enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the Merger substantially as contemplated by this Agreement, and such order, decree, ruling or other action shall have become final and non-appealable, unless the party seeking to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8.1(b)(ii) shall not have complied in all material respects with its obligations under Section 6.10(a);

(iii) if the Company Shareholders Meeting shall have concluded without the approval of this Agreement and the Merger by the Company's shareholders having been obtained in accordance with the WBCA; provided, the right to terminate shall not be available to the Company where the failure to obtain the approvals shall have been caused by the action or failure to act of the Company and such action or failure to act constitutes a breach by the Company of this Agreement; or

(iv) if the Company's board of directors shall have effected a Change of Recommendation or approved or recommended, or proposed publicly to approve or recommend, any Superior Proposal, or permitted the Company to enter into an Acquisition Agreement related to a Superior Proposal; provided, nothing herein shall permit the Company to exercise its right to terminate if it is in material breach of its obligations pursuant to Section 6.4;

(c) by the Company upon a breach of any covenant or agreement on the part of Parent or Merger Sub, or if any representation or warranty of Parent or Merger Sub shall be untrue, in any case such that the conditions set forth in Section 7.3(a) or Section 7.3(b) would not be satisfied (assuming that the date of such determination is the Closing Date); provided that if such breach is curable by Parent and Merger Sub through the exercise of their reasonable best efforts and Parent and Merger Sub continue to exercise such reasonable best efforts, the Company may not terminate this Agreement under this Section 8.1(c); provided further that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 8.1(c) shall not be available to the Company if it has breached or failed to perform any of its representations and warranties or obligations under or in connection with this Agreement that would result in any closing conditions set forth in Section 7.2(a) and Section 7.2(b) not being satisfied

(d) by Parent:

(i) upon a breach of any covenant or agreement on the part of the Company, or if any representation or warranty of the Company shall be untrue, in any case such that the conditions set forth in Section 7.2(a) or Section 7.2(b) would not be satisfied (assuming that the date of such determination is the Closing Date); provided that if such breach is curable by the Company through the exercise of its reasonable best efforts and the Company continues to exercise such reasonable best efforts, Parent may not terminate this Agreement under this Section 8.1(d)(i); provided further that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 8.1(d)(i) shall not be available to Parent if it or Merger Sub has breached or failed to perform any of its representations and warranties or obligations under or in connection with this Agreement that would result in any closing condition set forth in Section 7.3(a) and Section 7.3(b) not being satisfied; or

(ii) if the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or their respective Representatives shall have failed to comply with the provisions set forth in Section 6.4 of the Agreement in any material respect.

Table of ContentsSection 8.2 Effect of Termination.

(a) In the event of the termination of this Agreement in accordance with Section 8.1, written notice thereof shall forthwith be given to the other party or parties specifying the provision hereof pursuant to which such termination is made, and this Agreement shall forthwith become null and void (other than Section 8.2, Article 9 and the last sentence of Section 6.3), and there shall be no liability on the part of the Guarantor, Parent, Merger Sub or the Company or their respective directors, officers, employees, shareholders, Representatives, agents or advisors other than, with respect to the Guarantor, Parent, Merger Sub and the Company, the obligations pursuant to this Section 8.2, Article 9 and the last sentence of Section 6.3. Nothing contained in this Section 8.2 shall relieve the Guarantor, Parent, Merger Sub or the Company from liability for any fraud or willful breach of any representation, warranty, covenant, obligation or other provision of this Agreement or the Confidentiality Agreement.

(b) In the event this Agreement is terminated by Parent or the Company pursuant to Section 8.1(b)(i) or Section 8.1(b)(iii), or by Parent pursuant to Section 8.1(d)(i), then the Company shall make a nonrefundable cash payment to Parent in an amount equal to the lesser of (i) $2,000,000 or (ii) the aggregate amount of all out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred by Parent and Merger Sub in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby (including all attorneys' fees, accountants' fees, financial advisory fees and filing fees) (such lesser amount, herein, the Expense Amount). The Expense Amount shall be made by the Company to the Parent within two Business Days following request from Parent for payment containing reasonable evidence of such costs and expenses.

(c) In the event that:

(i) this Agreement is terminated by Parent or Company pursuant to Section 8.1(b)(iv);

(ii) this Agreement is terminated by Parent pursuant to Section 8.1(d)(ii); or

(iii) (A) after the date of this Agreement, the Company (directly or through its Representatives) shall have exercised its right to negotiate or discuss an Acquisition Proposal pursuant to Section 6.4 or an Acquisition Proposal shall have been publicly announced and, in either case, such Acquisition Proposal is not withdrawn or terminated (publicly withdrawn or terminated with respect to a publicly announced Acquisition Proposal), on or before the fifth (5th) Business Day prior to the Company Shareholders Meeting with respect to a termination pursuant to Section 8.1(b)(iii) or on or before the date of termination with respect to a termination pursuant to Section 8.1(b)(i), (B) this Agreement is terminated by Parent or the Company pursuant to Section 8.1(b)(i) or Section 8.1(b)(iii), (C) at the time of such termination neither Parent nor Merger Sub has breached or failed to perform any of its representations and warranties or obligations under or in connection with this Agreement in any material respect, and (D) prior to or within twelve (12) months following the date this Agreement is terminated, the Company enters into a definitive agreement with respect to any Acquisition Proposal or any Acquisition Proposal is consummated; provided, however, that for purposes of clause (D) of this Section 8.2(c)(iii), the references to twenty percent (20%) in the definition of Acquisition Proposal shall be deemed to be references to fifty percent (50%) , then the Company shall promptly pay to Parent (in immediately available funds) the Termination Fee. The Termination Fees shall be paid by Company to Parent within five (5) business days following a termination pursuant to Section 8.1(b)(iv) or Section 8.1(d)(ii), and within five (5) business days following the consummation of an Acquisition Proposal upon a termination pursuant to Section 8.1(b)(i) or Section 8.1(b)(iii); provided that any Expense Amount paid shall be deducted from the Termination Fee. Such payment of the Termination Fee shall be the sole and exclusive remedy of Parent and Merger Sub in the case of such termination and, upon payment of such Termination Fee, the Company and its Affiliates shall have no further liability to Parent or Merger Sub with respect to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, provided that nothing herein shall release any party from liability for willful breach or fraud. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to constitute consent to the manner or address for service of process in connection with any legal proceeding, including litigation arising out of or in connection with this Agreement.

Section 9.4 Interpretation. The parties have participated jointly in the negotiation and drafting of this Agreement. In the event an ambiguity or question of intent or interpretation arises, this Agreement shall be construed as if drafted jointly by the parties, and no presumption or burden of proof shall arise favoring or disfavoring any party by virtue of the authorship of any provisions of this Agreement. Information provided in any section of the Company Disclosure Schedule shall be deemed to be adequate response and disclosure of such facts or circumstances with respect to any section of Article 4 calling for disclosure of such information, whether or not such disclosure is specifically associated with or purports to respond to one or more or all of such representations or warranties, only so long as it is reasonably clear from a reading of the disclosure that such disclosure is applicable to such other representation and warranty. The inclusion of any item in the Company Disclosure Schedule shall not be deemed to be an admission or evidence of materiality of such item, nor shall it establish any standard of materiality for any purpose whatsoever.

Section 9.5 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which when executed and delivered shall be deemed to be an original but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement.

Section 9.6 Entire Agreement: Third-Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement (including the Company Disclosure Schedule and the exhibits and instruments referred to herein) and the Confidentiality Agreement (a) constitute the entire agreement and supersede all prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof (including, for the avoidance of doubt, (i) communications in connection with the preparation of this Agreement and the other agreements contemplated herein, and (ii) prior written drafts of this Agreement) and (b) except for (i) the provisions set forth in Section 6.7 of this Agreement, (ii) the right of the Company's shareholders to receive the Merger Consideration at the Effective Time, and (iii) the right of the holders of Options or RSUs to receive the Option Consideration or RSU Consideration, as applicable, at the Effective Time are not intended to confer upon any Person other than the parties hereto any rights or remedies hereunder; provided that the Company shall be entitled to pursue and recover damages suffered by its shareholders, to the full extent as if such shareholders were parties hereto, in the event of Parent or Merger Sub's breach of this Agreement or fraud. For the avoidance of doubt, it is the parties' intent that no term contained in or omitted from any prior written draft of this Agreement or any other agreement contemplated herein be used as extrinsic evidence under any state law or judicial interpretation to determine the intent of the parties.

Section 9.7 Severability. If any term, provision, covenant or restriction of this Agreement is held by a court of competent jurisdiction or other authority to be invalid, void, unenforceable or against its regulatory policy, the remainder of the terms, provisions, covenants and restrictions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and shall in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated.

Section 9.8 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Washington applicable to contracts to be made and performed entirely therein without giving effect to the principles of conflicts of law thereof or of any other jurisdiction.

Section 9.9 Jurisdiction. Each of the parties hereto hereby (a) expressly and irrevocably submits to the exclusive personal jurisdiction of any United States federal court located in the State of Illinois or any Illinois state court in the event any dispute arises out of this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, (b) agrees that it will not attempt to deny or defeat such personal jurisdiction by motion or other request for leave from any such court and (c) agrees that it will not bring any action relating to this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement in any court other than a United States federal or state court sitting in the State of Illinois; provided that each of the parties shall have the right to bring any action or proceeding for enforcement of a judgment entered by any United States federal court located in the State of Illinois or any Illinois state court in any other court or jurisdiction.

Section 9.10 Service of Process. Each party irrevocably consents to the service of process outside the territorial jurisdiction of the courts referred to in Section 9.9 in any such action or proceeding by mailing copies thereof by registered United States mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, to its address as specified in or pursuant to Section 9.3. However, the foregoing shall not limit the right of a party to effect service of process on the other party by any other legally available method.

Section 9.11 Specific Performance. Each of the parties hereto acknowledges and agrees that, in the event of any breach of this Agreement, each nonbreaching party would be irreparably and immediately harmed and could not be made whole by monetary damages. It is accordingly agreed that the parties hereto (a) will waive, in any action for specific performance, the defense of adequacy of a remedy at law and (b) shall be entitled, in addition to any other remedy to which they may be entitled at law or in equity, to compel specific performance of this Agreement in any action instituted in accordance with Section 9.9 without bond or other security being required.

Section 9.12 Assignment. Neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations hereunder shall be assigned by any of the parties hereto (whether by operation of law or otherwise) without the prior written consent of the other parties; provided that Merger Sub may assign this Agreement to another wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement will be binding upon, inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the parties and their respective permitted successors and assigns. Any purported assignment hereof not in compliance with this Section 9.12 shall be null and void.

Section 9.13 Expenses. Except as provided in Section 8.2(b) above, all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the Merger, this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby shall be paid by the party incurring such costs and expenses, whether or not the Merger or any of the other transactions contemplated hereby is consummated.

Section 9.14 Currency. All payments hereunder or contemplated by this Agreement shall be paid in United States currency.

Section 9.16 Waivers. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, any failure of any of the parties to comply with any obligation, covenant, agreement or condition herein may be waived by the party or parties entitled to the benefits thereof only by a written instrument signed by the party granting such waiver, but such waiver or failure to insist upon strict compliance with such obligation, covenant, agreement or condition shall not operate as a waiver of, or estoppel with respect to, any subsequent or other failure.

The Guarantee shall remain in full force and effect and shall be binding on the Guarantor and its successor and assigns until all Buyer Obligations have been satisfied in full.

(b) No Impairment. The Guarantor's obligations under the Guarantee shall not be subject to any reduction, limitation, impairment or termination for any reason (other than by indefeasible payment and performance in full of the Buyer Obligations) and shall not be subject to any defense, counterclaim, set-off or deduction and, shall remain in full force and effect without regard to, and shall not be released, impaired or discharged by any circumstance or condition (whether or not the Guarantor shall have any knowledge or notice thereof) whatsoever that might constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense in, any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, arrangement, readjustment, composition, liquidation or similar proceeding with respect to Guarantor, Parent, Merger Sub or the Surviving Corporation or their respective properties or their creditors or any action taken by any trustee or receiver or by any court in any such proceeding.

The Special Committee of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors

Captaris, Inc.

301 116th Ave. SE Suite 400

Bellevue, WA 98004

Members of the Special Committee and the Board:

You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders (the Stockholders) of the common stock, par value $0.01 per share (the Common Stock), of Captaris, Inc., a Washington corporation (the Company), of the Merger Consideration (as defined below) provided for under the terms of the proposed Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Agreement) by and among Open Text Corporation, a Canadian corporation (the Guarantor), Open Text, Inc., an Illinois corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Guarantor (Parent), a Washington corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent (Merger Sub), and the Company. Capitalized terms used herein shall have the meanings used in the Agreement unless otherwise defined herein.

The Agreement provides, among other things, that Merger Sub will merge with and into the Company (the Merger) and, at the Effective Time, each share of Common Stock (a Share) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than (i) any Shares owned by Parent, Merger Sub or any other direct or indirect wholly-owned Subsidiary of Parent, all of which will be cancelled for no consideration, and (ii) any Dissenting Shares) will be converted into the right to receive $4.80 in cash without interest (the Merger Consideration) and, at the Effective Time, Merger Sub shall merge with and into the Company and the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub shall thereupon cease.

RBC Capital Markets Corporation (RBC), as part of its investment banking services, is regularly engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, corporate restructurings, underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements, and valuations for corporate and other purposes.

We are acting as financial advisor to the Board of Directors of the Company (the Company Board, which term includes the Company Board's Special Committee that is an addressee of this opinion) in connection with the Merger, and we will receive a fee for our services upon delivery of this opinion, which is not contingent upon the successful completion of the Merger. In addition, for our services as financial advisor to the Company in connection with the Merger, if the Merger is successfully completed we will receive an additional larger fee. Further, in the event that the Merger is not completed and the Company consummates at any time thereafter, pursuant to a definitive agreement, letter of intent or other evidence of commitment entered into during the term of RBC's engagement or during the 12 months following such term, another Transaction we will be entitled to a specified Transaction fee based on the Aggregate Transaction Value of such other Transaction (all as specified in our engagement agreement with the Company dated March 14, 2008). In addition, the Company has agreed to indemnify us for certain liabilities that may arise out of our engagement and to reimburse the reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by us in performing our services (subject to a limit which may not be exceeded without the Company's written approval). In the past two years we have provided the following investment banking and financial advisory services to the Company, in addition to our services as financial advisor to the Company Board in connection with the Merger: (i) in 2007, we acted as financial advisor to the Company in connection with the Company's acquisition of the shares of Océ Document Technologies GmbH from Océ Deutschland GmbH and Co. K.G, for which we received customary fees; and (ii) in 2008, we provided certain financial analysis and advice to the Company regarding its strategic alternatives, for which we received customary fees that will be credited against the contingent fee we will receive if the Merger is completed. In the past two years we have provided the following investment banking, financial advisory and financing services to the Guarantor: (i) in 2006, we acted as financial advisor to the Guarantor in connection with its acquisition of Hummingbird Ltd., for which we received customary fees; and (ii) in connection with that acquisition, we acted as Lead Arranger, Sole Bookrunner and Administrative Agent for the debt financing to the Guarantor in the aggregate principal amount of $465 million, for which we received customary fees, and as part of that financing our parent company, Royal Bank of Canada, as lender, provided to the Guarantor a credit facility of $50 million, of which a portion has been drawn but a substantial portion remains available for use. In the ordinary course of business, RBC may act as a market maker and broker in the publicly traded securities of the Company and/or Guarantor and receive customary compensation, and may also actively trade securities of the Company and/or Guarantor for our own account and the accounts of our customers, and, accordingly, RBC and its affiliates, may hold a long or short position in such securities.

For the purposes of rendering our opinion, we have undertaken such review and inquiries as we deemed necessary or appropriate under the circumstances, including the following: (i) we reviewed the financial terms of the draft Agreement received by us on September 2, 2008 (the Latest Draft Agreement); (ii) we reviewed and analyzed certain publicly available financial and other data with respect to the Company and certain other relevant historical operating data relating to the Company made available to us from published sources and from the internal records of the Company; (iii) we reviewed financial projections and forecasts of the Company (Forecasts), prepared by the management of the Company; (iv) we conducted discussions with members of the senior management of the Company with respect to the business prospects and financial outlook of the Company as a standalone entity; (v) we reviewed the reported prices and trading activity for Company Common Stock; and (vi) we performed other studies and analyses as we deemed appropriate.

In arriving at our opinion, we performed the following analyses in addition to the review, inquiries, and analyses referred to in the preceding paragraph: (i) we compared the financial metrics of selected precedent transactions with the financial metrics implied by the Merger Consideration; (ii) we compared selected market valuation metrics of the Company and other comparable publicly traded companies with the financial metrics implied by the Merger Consideration; and (iii) we compared the premiums paid in selected precedent transactions with the premiums implied by the Merger Consideration.

Several analytical methodologies have been employed and no one method of analysis should be regarded as critical to the overall conclusion we have reached. Each analytical technique has inherent strengths and weaknesses, and the nature of the available information may further affect the value of particular techniques. The overall conclusions we have reached are based on all the analysis and factors presented, taken as a whole, and also on application of our own experience and judgment. Such conclusions may involve significant elements of subjective judgment and qualitative analysis. We therefore give no opinion as to the value or merit standing alone of any one or more parts of the analyses.

In rendering our opinion, we have assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all the information that was publicly available to us and all of the financial, legal, tax, operating and other information provided to or discussed with us by the Company (including, without limitation, the financial statements and related notes thereto of the Company), and have not assumed responsibility for independently verifying and have not independently verified such information. We have assumed that all Forecasts provided to us by the Company were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and good faith judgments of the future financial performance of the Company, as a standalone entity. We express no opinion as to such Forecasts or the assumptions upon which they were based.

In rendering our opinion, we have not assumed any responsibility to perform, and have not performed, an independent evaluation or appraisal of any of the assets or liabilities of the Company, and we have not been furnished with any such valuations or appraisals. We have not assumed any obligation to conduct, and have not conducted, any physical inspection of the property or facilities of the Company. We have not investigated, and make no assumption regarding, any litigation or other claims affecting the Company.

We have assumed, in all respects material to our analysis, that all conditions to the consummation of the Merger will be satisfied without waiver thereof. We have further assumed that the executed version of the Agreement will not differ, in any respect material to our opinion, from the Latest Draft Agreement.

Our opinion speaks only as of the date hereof, is based on the conditions as they exist and information which we have been supplied as of the date hereof, and is without regard to any market, economic, financial, legal, or other circumstances or event of any kind or nature which may exist or occur after such date. We have not undertaken to reaffirm or revise this opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date hereof and do not have an obligation to update, revise or reaffirm this opinion.

The opinion expressed herein is provided for the information and assistance of the Special Committee and the Company Board in connection with the Merger. We express no opinion and make no recommendation to any Stockholder as to how such Stockholder should vote with respect to the Merger. All advice and opinions (written and oral) rendered by RBC are intended for the use and benefit of the Company Board. Such advice or opinions may not be reproduced, summarized, excerpted from or referred to in any public document or given to any other person without the prior written consent of RBC. If required by applicable law, such opinion may be included in any disclosure document filed by the Company with the SEC with respect to the Merger; provided, however, that such opinion must be reproduced in full and that any description of or reference to RBC be in a form reasonably acceptable to RBC and its counsel. RBC shall have no responsibility for the form or content of any such disclosure document, other than the opinion itself. RBC consents to a description of and the inclusion of the text of this opinion in any filing required to be made by the Company with the SEC in connection with the Merger and in materials delivered to the Stockholders that are a part of such filings; provided, however, that such description must be in a form reasonably acceptable to RBC.

Our opinion does not address the merits of the underlying decision by the Company to engage in the Merger or the relative merits of the Merger compared to any alternative business strategy or transaction in which the Company might engage.

Our opinion addresses solely the fairness of the Merger Consideration, from a financial point of view, to the Stockholders. Our opinion does not in any way address other terms or arrangements of the Merger or the Agreement, including, without limitation, the financial or other terms of any other agreement contemplated by, or to be entered into in connection with, the Agreement. Further, in rendering our opinion we express no opinion about the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to any of the Company's officers, directors or employees, or class of such persons, relative to the compensation to be public Stockholders.

Our opinion has been approved by RBC's M&A Fairness Opinion Committee.

Based on our experience as investment bankers and subject to the foregoing, including the various assumptions and limitations set forth herein, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Merger Consideration is fair, from a financial point of view, to the Stockholders.

Very truly yours,

- (3) Fair value, with respect to a dissenter's shares, means the value of the shares immediately before the effective date of the corporate action to which the dissenter objects, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the corporate action unless exclusion would be inequitable.
- (4) Interest means interest from the effective date of the corporate action until the date of payment, at the average rate currently paid by the corporation on its principal bank loans or, if none, at a rate that is fair and equitable under all the circumstances.
- (5) Record shareholder means the person in whose name shares are registered in the records of a corporation or the beneficial owner of shares to the extent of the rights granted by a nominee certificate on file with a corporation.
- (6) Beneficial shareholder means the person who is a beneficial owner of shares held in a voting trust or by a nominee as the record shareholder.
- (7) Shareholder means the record shareholder or the beneficial shareholder.

[1989 c 165 § 140.]

RCW 23B.13.020. Right to dissent.

- (1) A shareholder is entitled to dissent from, and obtain payment of the fair value of the shareholder's shares in the event of, any of the following corporate actions:
 - (a) Consummation of a plan of merger to which the corporation is a party (i) if shareholder approval is required for the merger by RCW 23B.11.030, 23B.11.080, or the articles of incorporation, and the shareholder is entitled to vote on the merger, or (ii) if the corporation is a subsidiary that is merged with its parent under RCW 23B.11.040;

(d) An amendment of the articles of incorporation, whether or not the shareholder was entitled to vote on the amendment, if the amendment effects a redemption or cancellation of all of the shareholder's shares in exchange for cash or other consideration other than shares of the corporation; or

(e) Any corporate action taken pursuant to a shareholder vote to the extent the articles of incorporation, bylaws, or a resolution of the board of directors provides that voting or nonvoting shareholders are entitled to dissent and obtain payment for their shares.

(2) A shareholder entitled to dissent and obtain payment for the shareholder's shares under this chapter may not challenge the corporate action creating the shareholder's entitlement unless the action fails to comply with the procedural requirements imposed by this title, RCW 25.10.900 through 25.10.955, the articles of incorporation, or the bylaws, or is fraudulent with respect to the shareholder or the corporation.

(1) A record shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to fewer than all the shares registered in the shareholder's name only if the shareholder dissents with respect to all shares beneficially owned by any one person and delivers to the corporation a notice of the name and address of each person on whose behalf the shareholder asserts dissenters' rights. The rights of a partial dissenter under this subsection are determined as if the shares as to which the dissenter dissents and the dissenter's other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders.

(2) A beneficial shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to shares held on the beneficial shareholder's behalf only if:

(a) The beneficial shareholder submits to the corporation the record shareholder's consent to the dissent not later than the time the beneficial shareholder asserts dissenters' rights, which consent shall be set forth either (i) in a record or (ii) if the corporation has designated an address, location, or system to which the consent may be electronically transmitted and the consent is electronically transmitted to the designated address, location, or system, in an electronically transmitted record; and

(b) The beneficial shareholder does so with respect to all shares of which such shareholder is the beneficial shareholder or over which such shareholder has power to direct the vote.

(1) If proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under RCW 23B.13.020 is submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, the meeting notice must state that shareholders are or may be entitled to assert dissenters' rights under this chapter and be accompanied by a copy of this chapter.

Table of Contents

(2) If corporate action creating dissenters' rights under RCW 23B.13.020 is taken without a vote of shareholders, the corporation, within ten days after the effective date of such corporate action, shall deliver a notice to all shareholders entitled to assert dissenters' rights that the action was taken and send them the notice described in RCW 23B.13.220.

RCW 23B.13.270. After-acquired shares.

(1) A corporation may elect to withhold payment required by RCW 23B.13.250 from a dissenter unless the dissenter was the beneficial owner of the shares before the date set forth in the dissenter's notice as the date of the first announcement to news media or to shareholders of the terms of the proposed corporate action.

(2) To the extent the corporation elects to withhold payment under subsection (1) of this section, after taking the proposed corporate action, it shall estimate the fair value of the shares, plus accrued interest, and shall pay this amount to each dissenter who agrees to accept it in full satisfaction of the dissenter's demand. The corporation shall send with its offer an explanation of how it estimated the fair value of the shares, an explanation of how the interest was calculated, and a statement of the dissenter's right to demand payment under RCW 23B.13.280.

(1) A dissenter may deliver a notice to the corporation informing the corporation of the dissenter's own estimate of the fair value of the dissenter's shares and amount of interest due, and demand payment of the dissenter's estimate, less any payment under RCW 23B.13.250, or reject the corporation's offer under RCW 23B.13.270 and demand payment of the dissenter's estimate of the fair value of the dissenter's shares and interest due, if:

(a) The dissenter believes that the amount paid under RCW 23B.13.250 or offered under RCW 23B.13.270 is less than the fair value of the dissenter's shares or that the interest due is incorrectly calculated;

(b) The corporation fails to make payment under RCW 23B.13.250 within sixty days after the date set for demanding payment; or

(c) The corporation does not effect the proposed action and does not return the deposited certificates or release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares within sixty days after the date set for demanding payment.

(2) A dissenter waives the right to demand payment under this section unless the dissenter notifies the corporation of the dissenter's demand under subsection (1) of this section within thirty days after the corporation made or offered payment for the dissenter's shares.

RCW 23B.13.300. Court action.

(1) If a demand for payment under RCW 23B.13.280 remains unsettled, the corporation shall commence a proceeding within sixty days after receiving the payment demand and petition the court to determine the fair value of the shares and accrued interest. If the corporation does not commence the proceeding within the sixty-day period, it shall pay each dissenter whose demand remains unsettled the amount demanded.

(2) The corporation shall commence the proceeding in the superior court of the county where a corporation's principal office, or, if none in this state, its registered office, is located. (4) The corporation may join as a party to the proceeding any shareholder who claims to be a dissenter but who has not, in the opinion of the corporation, complied with the provisions of this chapter. If the court determines that such shareholder has not complied with the provisions of this chapter, the shareholder shall be dismissed as a party.

(5) The jurisdiction of the court in which the proceeding is commenced under subsection (2) of this section is plenary and exclusive. The court may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend decision on the question of fair value. The appraisers have the powers described in the order appointing them, or in any amendment to it. The dissenters are entitled to the same discovery rights as parties in other civil proceedings.

(6) Each dissenter made a party to the proceeding is entitled to judgment (a) for the amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of the dissenter's shares, plus interest, exceeds the amount paid by the corporation, or (b) for the fair value, plus accrued interest, of the dissenter's after-acquired shares for which the corporation elected to withhold payment under RCW 23B.13.270.

The court shall assess the costs against the corporation, except that the court may assess the costs against all or some of the dissenters, in amounts the court finds equitable, to the extent the court finds the dissenters acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith in demanding payment under RCW 23B.13.280.

(2) The court may also assess the fees and expenses of counsel and experts for the respective parties, in amounts the court finds equitable:

(a) Against the corporation and in favor of any or all dissenters if the court finds the corporation did not substantially comply with the requirements of RCW 23B.13.200 through 23B.13.280; or

(b) Against either the corporation or a dissenter, in favor of any other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by chapter 23B.13 RCW.

(3) If the court finds that the services of counsel for any dissenter were of substantial benefit to other dissenters similarly situated, and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against the corporation, the court may award to these counsel reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded the dissenters who were benefited.
