SPECIAL NOTICE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

We are including the following cautionary statement in this Form 10-Q to make applicable and take advantage of the “safe harbor” provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 for any forward-looking statement made by, or on behalf of, us. This 10-Q, press releases issued by us, and certain information provided periodically in writing and orally by our designated officers and agents contain statements which constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The words “expect”, “believe”, “goal”, “plan”, “intend”, “estimate”, and similar expressions and variations thereof used are intended to specifically identify forward-looking statements. Where any such forward-looking statement includes a statement of the assumptions or basis underlying such forward-looking statement, we caution that assumed facts or basis almost always vary from actual results, and the differences between assumed facts or basis and actual results can be material, depending on the circumstances. Where, in any forward-looking statement, we, or our management, expresses an expectation or belief as to future results, such expectation or belief is expressed in good faith and believed to have a reasonable basis, but there can be no assurance that the statement of expectation or belief will result or be achieved or accomplished.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
June 30, 2011 (UNAUDITED)

NOTE A - NATURE OF BUSINESS, GOING CONCERN, AND PRESENTATION

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying consolidated condensed financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles for interim financial information. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by generally accepted accounting principles for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) considered necessary in order to make the financial statements not misleading have been included. Results for the three months ended June 30, 2011 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the year ending March 31, 2012. For further information, refer to the financial statements and footnotes thereto included in the Novo Energies Corporation annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended March 31, 2011.

Nature of Business

Novo Energies Corporation (“Novo”) is involved in the business of exploiting new Technologies for the clean production of energy. The core of Novo’s technology was to recycle tires and plastics into energy as a Multi Stage Hybrid Gasification System (“MSHG”), which undertakes the conversion of carbonaceous feedstock to a gaseous end-product with an upgraded heating value in an environmentally friendly manner, and which does not involve combustion or any other reagents or other pollutants. The Company on May 17, 2011 entered into an exclusive memorandum of understanding with Clinical Research and its wholly owned subsidiary “Immunovative” whereby the Company would acquire the subsidiary in a separate transaction. Upon completion of the merger the Company will abandon the business of renewable energy and commence the business of clinical research.

Going Concern

As indicated in the accompanying financial statements, the Company has incurred cumulative net operating losses of $6,479,958 since inception of the development stage and has negative working capital of $1,629,280. Management’s plans include the raising of capital through equity markets to fund future operations, the seeking of a merger candidate, and the generating of revenue through its business. Failure to raise adequate capital, seek a merger candidate and generate adequate sales revenues could result in the Company having to curtail or cease operations. Additionally, even if the Company does raise sufficient capital to support its operating expenses and generate adequate revenues, there can be no assurances that the revenues will be sufficient to enable it to develop business to a level where it will generate profits and cash flows from operations. These matters raise substantial doubt about the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern. However, the accompanying financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which contemplates the realization of assets and satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business. These financial statements do not include any adjustments relating to the recovery of the recorded assets or the classification of the liabilities that might be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Net Loss Per Common Share

The Company computes per share amounts in accordance with ASC Topic 260 Earnings per Share (EPS) which requires presentation of basic and diluted EPS. Basic EPS is computed by dividing the income (loss) available to Common Stockholders by the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding for the period. Diluted EPS is based on the weighted-average number of shares of Common Stock and Common Stock equivalents outstanding during the periods. A fully diluted calculation was not presented since the results would be anti-dilutive

NOTE B - NOTE PAYABLE TO CAETE INVEST TRADE, S.A.

On November 1, 2009, the Company issued a $242,000 promissory note to Caete Invest Trade, S.A. maturing on October 31, 2010. The note bears interest at the rate of 10% per annum and is payable at maturity. The face amount of the note plus accrued interest is convertible into unregistered common stock of the company at the lesser of 100% of the volume weighted average price ("VWAP") of common stock as reported by Bloomberg L.P. on the day prior to the conversion date and a 15% discount to the lowest daily closing "VWAP" of common stock during the five days prior to the conversion date. The Company, in accordance with EITF 98-5 and 00-27, utilized the Market approach to value the debt instrument and concluded that a beneficial conversion feature exists since the effective conversion price of shares was less than the stock price at commitment date. The 15% discount created a beneficial conversion feature at the commitment date aggregating $36,300 which was accreted monthly from the issuance date of the promissory note through maturity and was being recorded as additional interest expense. On February 4, 2010, $62,428 of the loan was repaid. The note is currently in default. At June 30, 2011 and March 31, 2011, the loan balance is $179,572.

NOTE C - RELATED PARTY PAYABLES

At June 30, 2011, the related party payables of $301,164 consists of: (a) expenses paid by the Chief Executive Officer on behalf of the Company aggregating $147,038; (b) compensation due other consultants deemed to be shareholders aggregating $76,126; and (c) unpaid rent payable to companies owned and controlled by the Chief Executive Officer and his wife aggregating $78,000.

NOTE D - NOTE PAYABLE TO CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

On January 21, 2010, the Company owed its Chief Executive Officer approximately $376,560 for salary and expenditures paid by him on behalf of the company. The company and its Chief Executive Officer agreed to formalize a portion of the debt and issued a $172,364 promissory note maturing on January 21, 2012. The note bears interest at the rate of 10% per annum and is payable at maturity. The face amount of the loan plus accrued interest was convertible into unregistered common stock of the company at the lesser of 100% of the volume weighted average price ("VWAP") of common stock as reported by Bloomberg L.P. on the day prior to the conversion date and a 15% discount to the lowest daily closing "VWAP" of common stock during the five days prior to the conversion date. The Company in accordance with EITF 98-5 and 00-27 utilized the Market approach to value the debt instrument and concluded that a beneficial conversion feature exists since the effective conversion price of shares was less than the stock price at commitment date. The 15% discount created a beneficial conversion feature at the commitment date aggregating $25,855 will be accreted monthly from the issuance date of the promissory note through maturity and will be recorded as additional interest expense. During the three months ended March 31, 2011, the Company repaid $45,000 of the loan. Accordingly, at June 30, 2011 and March 31, 2011 and December 31, 2010, the balance of the loan is $119,415 and $161,371 net of the unamortized discount of $7,949 and $10,993, respectively.

NOTE E - CONVERTIBLE DEBENTURE

Edgar Filing: Novo Energies Corp - Form 10-Q

On January 26, 2010, the Company issued at par, a $500,000 Secured Convertible Debenture maturing on January 26, 2011. The debenture bears interest at the rate of 10% per annum and is payable monthly.

(A DEVELOPMENT STAGE COMPANY)

The Company has granted a security interest in substantially all of the assets of the Company as collateral for the debenture. The face amount of the loan plus accrued interest is convertible into unregistered common stock of the company at the lesser of 100% of the volume weighted average price ("VWAP") of common stock as reported by Bloomberg L.P. on the day prior to the conversion date and a 15% discount to the lowest daily closing "VWAP" of common stock during the five days prior to the conversion date. Additionally, the Company issued commitment shares totaling 6,085,193, equivalent to $1,500,000 at the closing date to obtain the loan. The Company in accordance with APB 14 utilized the Market Approach to value the debt instrument and allocated the net proceeds from the issuance of the debenture based upon the pro rata portion of the face value of the debentures and the undiscounted value of the commitment shares. Additionally, 15% of the Debenture was allocated to a beneficial conversion feature in accordance with EITF 98-5 and EITF 00-27. The Company concluded that the 15% discount created a beneficial conversion feature at the commitment date since the effective conversion price of the shares was less than the stock price at the commitment date. The beneficial conversion feature and the pro rata value of the commitment shares aggregated $395,521 which was accreted monthly from the issuance date of the Debenture through maturity and will be recorded as additional interest expense.

The loan at June 30, 2011 is currently in default for non-payment. On July 11, 2011, the loan was converted into shares of the company's common stock. At March 31, 2011, the Company recorded the 15% redemption premium which is required upon repayment and an additional 5% interest penalty resulting from the loan being in default for non-payment of interest.

On June 1, 2011, the Company's secured convertible debenture through a debt assignment instrument was transferred to Green Eagle Capital Corp., a corporation controlled by a shareholder of the company.

On July 11, 2011, Green Eagle Capital Corp., as principal agent for a group of investors, converted the secured convertible debenture into 10,00,000 shares of the Company's common stock. While the Company has an obligation to issue these shares, as of August 22, 2011, it has not done so.

NOTE F - STOCKHOLDERS' EQUITY

In connection with the agreement, the Company would pay a monthly retainer of $3,000 per month, and issue 15,000 shares of its common stock per month. In addition, Mr. Germaine received a cash signing bonus of $9,000. Mr. Germaine's contract was terminated on June 15, 2010.

Between October 22, 2009 and November 4, 2009, the Company sold, under private placement agreements to four different individuals, 159,929 units consisting of one share of common stock and one warrant for every two shares sold. The units were sold at $0.35 per unit resulting in $55,975 proceeds to the Company. The warrants were valued at approximately $0.12 per unit using Black-Scholes Option pricing model and classified as additional paid in capital.

On January 21, 2010, the Company agreed to convert $124,960 of professional and consulting fees to common stock valued at $0.21 per share. Additionally, the Chief Executive Officer converted unpaid salaries and expenses paid on behalf of the Company totaling $170,000, to common stock valued at $0.21 per share.

On January 26, 2010, the Company entered into a secured convertible debenture maturing on January 26, 2011. In connection with the debenture issuance, the Company issued 6,085,193 shares of its common stock valued at $368,750. See Note G-Convertible Debenture.

On March 30, 2010, the Company cancelled its agreement with Colorado Tire Recycling, LLC. In connection with the contract cancellation, the Company issued 500,000 shares of its common stock valued at $0.23 per share utilizing March 30, 2010 as the measurement date, aggregating $115,000.

On June 7, 2010, the Company entered into a six month consulting agreement with Olga Finkelstein to assist the Company in developing a public relations strategy, new investor awareness strategies and communications. The consulting contract called for a monthly cash payment of $2,000 and 5,000 shares per month. The shares were to be valued at $0.05 per share, the value at commitment date. On December 1, 2010 the Company terminated the agreement. As a result, Novo Energies Corporation agreed to issue 30,000 common shares to Olga Finkelstein.

On August 1, 2010, the Company entered into a consulting agreement with Seth Shaw to assist the Company in developing a business strategy, an acquisition strategy and other services. The term of agreement is one year commencing July 15, 2010. Mr. Shaw received 1,500,000 shares at $0.11 per share aggregating $165,000. The compensation is being recorded on a monthly basis. On March 28, 2011, the contract was modified increasing the compensation to 4,500,000 shares. The additional 3,000,000 shares were valued at $0.09, the fair value on date of commitment.

On August 18, 2010, the Board approved the issuance of 1,200,000 shares of its common stock to its Chief Executive in accordance with his amended employment contract. The shares vest at the rate of 50,000 shares per month over a 24 month period commencing June 18, 2010 and have been valued at $0.18 per share, the fair market value at the date of commitment.

During the twelve months ended March 31, 2011, the Company, under various private placement agreements, sold 1,550,000 shares of its common stock at $0.10 per share aggregating $155,000 and 10,278,500 shares of its common stock at $0.05 aggregating $543,796.

On February 1, 2011, the Company entered into a consulting agreement with Larry Caito to assist the Company in developing business and acquisition strategies and any other services mutually agreed to between the Company and consultant. The term of the agreement is for one year. Mr. Caito, as compensation, received 1,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock which vest immediately. The shares were valued at $0.08 per share, the fair market value of the stock as at the date of commitment.

During the three months ended June 30, 2011, the Company, under a private placement agreement, sold 7,250,000 shares of its common stock aggregating $362,500.

NOTE G - FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

On January 1, 2008, the Company adopted ASC 820 which defines fair value, provides a consistent framework for measuring fair value under generally accepted accounting principles and expands fair value financial statement disclosure requirements. ASC 820's valuation techniques are based on observable and unobservable inputs. Observable inputs reflect readily obtainable data from independent sources, while unobservable inputs reflect our market assumptions.

ASC 820 classifies these inputs into the following hierarchy:

Level 1 inputs: Quoted prices for identical instruments in active markets.

Level 2 inputs: Quoted prices for similar instruments in active markets; quoted prices for identical or similar instruments in markets that are not active; and model-derived valuations whose inputs are observable or whose significant value drivers are observable.

Level 3 inputs: Instruments with primarily unobservable value drivers.

The fair value of the company's cash, miscellaneous receivable, accounts payable, notes payable and accrued expenses approximate the carrying amounts of such investments due to their short maturity.

NOTE H - WARRANTS

The following table summarizes the activity of the warrants issued by the Company:

	Number of Warrants	Exercise Price	Expiration Date
Balance March 31, 2011
Issued			7/2012 to
Private placements	194,465	$ 0.75	11/2012

(A DEVELOPMENT STAGE COMPANY)

June 30, 2011 (UNAUDITED)

On May 28, 2010, the Company entered into a Technology Co-operation Agreement with Novo Energies International, Ltd. (NEI) that permits NEI to utilize the Company's technology and know-how for the sole purpose of building and operating facilities at NEI's expense that incorporate all or any portion of the Company's technology throughout the entire world except for all of the countries within North America, Central America and South America for a term of 10 years which may be renewed for an additional 10 year term. As consideration for the know-how and other technical information, the Company will receive 12.5% of NEI's issued and outstanding shares with anti-dilution rights. Such anti-dilution rights shall expire when NEI raises a minimum of 3,000,000 British pounds. In connection with the agreement, the Company's Chief Executive Officer and the Company's then Interim President, Faisal Farooq Butt were appointed as Directors to NEI's Board of Directors and each received 4% and 2%, respectively, of NEI's common stock. At March 31, 2010, NEI has not raised any investment capital and has had no operating activity.

On June 18, 2010, the Company amended the Chief Executive's employment contract whereby he will receive 1,200,000 shares of Company common stock and vest at the rate of 50,000 shares per month over a 24 month period commencing June 18, 2010.

On May 17, 2011, the Company entered into an exclusive memorandum of understanding with Immunovative Clinical Research, Inc. ("ICRI"), a Nevada corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Immunovative Therapies, Ltd., an Israeli Corporation ("Immunovative") pursuant to which the Company and ICRI will pursue a merger resulting in the Company owning ICRI. The parties have agreed to complete a definitive agreement and plan of merger contemporaneous with closing the transaction as contemplated by its memorandum of understanding. The memorandum of understanding shall remain in full force and effect until the earlier of (1) a consummation of the merger; or (2) the expiration of 150 days, unless otherwise extended by the parties.

NOTE J – SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Subsequent to the year ended June 30, 2011 the Company through various private placements sold approximately 2,000,000 shares of its common stock at $0.05 per share aggregating $100,000.

On July 11, 2011, Green Eagle Corp., a principal agent for certain investors, converted the secured convertible debenture into 10,000,000 shares of the Company common stock.

On July 13, 2011, Sanders Ortolí Vaughn-Flan Rosenstadt, LLP, the Company's counsel, converted $100,000 of debt, owed to it for services rendered and expenses incurred prior to December 31, 2010, into 1,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

Novo Energies Corporation ("Novo") is involved in the business of exploiting new Technologies for the clean production of energy. The core of Novo's technology was to recycle tires and plastics into energy as a Multi Stage Hybrid Gasification System ("MSHG"), which undertakes the conversion of carbonaceous feedstock to a gaseous end-product with an upgraded heating value in an environmentally friendly manner, and which does not involve combustion or any other reagents or other pollutants. The Company on May 17, 2011 entered into an exclusive memorandum of understanding with Clinical Research and its wholly owned subsidiary "Immunovative" whereby the Company would acquire the subsidiary in a separate transaction. Upon completion of the merger the Company will abandon the business of renewable energy and commence the business of clinical research.

On July 30, 2009, the Company formed its first wholly owned subsidiary - WTL Renewable Energy, Inc. ("WTL"). WTL was established as a Canadian Federal Corporation whose business is to initially research available technologies capable of transforming plastic and tires into useful energy commodities. Simultaneously, WTL also intends to plan, build, own, and operate renewable energy plants throughout Canada now utilizing an MSHG technology and using plastic and tire waste as feedstock.

On January 26, 2010, the Company issued at par, a $500,000 Secured Convertible Debenture maturing on January 26, 2011. The debenture bears interest at the rate of 10% per annum and is payable monthly.

The Company has granted a security interest in substantially all of the assets of the Company as collateral for the debenture. The face amount of the loan plus accrued interest is convertible into unregistered common stock of the company at the lesser of 100% of the volume weighted average price ("VWAP") of common stock as reported by Bloomberg L.P. on the day prior to the conversion date and a 15% discount to the lowest daily closing "VWAP" of common stock during the five days prior to the conversion date. Additionally, the Company issued commitment shares totaling 6,085,193, equivalent to $1,500,000 at the closing date to obtain the loan. The Company in accordance with APB 14 utilized the Market Approach to value the debt instrument and allocated the net proceeds from the issuance of the debenture based upon the pro rata portion of the face value of the debentures and the undiscounted value of the commitment shares. Additionally, 15% of the Debenture was allocated to a beneficial conversion feature in accordance with EITF 98-5 and EITF 00-27. The Company concluded that the 15% discount created a beneficial conversion feature at the commitment date since the effective conversion price of the shares was less than the stock price at the commitment date. The beneficial conversion feature and the pro rata value of the commitment shares aggregated $395,521 which was accreted monthly from the issuance date of the Debenture through maturity and will be recorded as additional interest expense.

As of June 30, 2011, the loan was in default for non-payment. On July 11, 2011, the loan was converted into shares of the company's common stock. At March 31, 2011, the Company recorded the 15% redemption premium which is required upon repayment and an additional 5% interest penalty resulting from the loan being in default for non-payment of interest.

On June 1, 2011, the Company's secured convertible debenture through a debt assignment instrument was transferred to Green Eagle Capital Corp., a corporation controlled by a shareholder of the company.

On July 11, 2011, Green Eagle Capital Corp., as principal agent for a group of investors, converted the secured convertible debenture into 10,00,000 shares of the Company's common stock. While the Company has an obligation to issue these shares, as of August 22, 2011, it has not done so.

On April 1, 2010, the Company entered into a lease with Mari Laura Gomez, wife of the Chief Executive Officer, for its office facility, which is now owned by her. The lease is for a period of one year commencing April 1, 2010 to 2011 with a monthly rent of $6,500. The lease was extended for 1 year to April 2011 for the same monthly rent.

On May 28, 2010, the Company entered into a Technology Co-operation Agreement with Novo Energies International, Ltd. (NEI) that permits NEI to utilize the Company's technology and know-how for the sole purpose of building and operating facilities at NEI's expense that incorporate all or any portion of the Company's technology throughout the entire world except for all of the countries within North America, Central America and South America for a term of 10 years which may be renewed for an additional 10 year term. As consideration for the know-how and other technical information, the Company will receive 12.5% of NEI's issued and outstanding shares with anti-dilution rights. Such anti-dilution rights shall expire when NEI raises a minimum of 3,000,000 British pounds. In connection with the agreement, the Company's Chief Executive Officer and the Company's then Interim President, Faisal Farooq Butt were appointed as Directors to NEI's Board of Directors and each received 4% and 2%, respectively, of NEI's common stock. At March 31, 2010, NEI has not raised any investment capital and has had no operating activity.

On June 18, 2010, the Company amended the Chief Executive's employment contract whereby he will receive 1,200,000 shares of Company common stock and vest at the rate of 50,000 shares per month over a 24 month period commencing June 18, 2010.

On May 17, 2011, the Company entered into an exclusive memorandum of understanding with Immunovative Clinical Research, Inc. ("ICRI"), a Nevada corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Immunovative Therapies, Ltd., an Israeli Corporation ("Immunovative") pursuant to which the Company and ICRI will pursue a merger resulting in the Company owning ICRI. The parties have agreed to complete a definitive agreement and plan of merger contemporaneous with closing the transaction as contemplated by its memorandum of understanding. The memorandum of understanding shall remain in full force and effect until the earlier of (1) a consummation of the merger; or (2) the expiration of 150 days, unless otherwise extended by the parties.

The information provided in Note F of the financial statements is incorporated by reference into this Part I, Item 2.

Subsequent Events

Subsequent to the quarter ended June 30, 2011 the Company through various private placements sold approximately 2,000,000 shares of its common stock at $0.05 per share aggregating $100,000.

On July 11, 2011, Green Eagle Corp., a principal agent for certain investors, converted the secured convertible debenture into 10,000,000 shares of the Company common stock. While the Company has an obligation to issue these shares, as of August 22, 2011, it has not done so.

On July 13, 2011, Sanders Ortolí Vaughn-Flan Rosenstadt, LLP, the Company's counsel, converted $100,000 of debt, owed to it for services rendered and expenses incurred prior to December 31, 2010, into 1,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock. While the Company has an obligation to issue these shares, as of August 22, 2011, it has not done so.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

As indicated in the accompanying financial statements, the Company has incurred cumulative net operating losses of $6,479,958 since inception of the development stage and has negative working capital of $1,629,280. Management's plans include the raising of capital through equity markets to fund future operations, the seeking of a merger candidate, and the generating of revenue through its business. Failure to raise adequate capital, seek a merger candidate and generate adequate sales revenues could result in the Company having to curtail or cease operations. Additionally, even if the Company does raise sufficient capital to support its operating expenses and generate adequate revenues, there can be no assurances that the revenues will be sufficient to enable it to develop business to a level where it will generate profits and cash flows from operations. These matters raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. However, the accompanying financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which contemplates the realization of assets and satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business. These financial statements do not include any adjustments relating to the recovery of the recorded assets or the classification of the liabilities that might be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern.

Results of Operation - Three Months Ended June 30, 2011

The Company is currently developing its business, and as a result has no products or services to offer and no revenues. In developing its business, the Company has undertaken expenses that have resulted in a loss from operations of $408,336 in the three months ended June 30, 2011, as compared to a loss from operations of $580,177 in the corresponding period in 2010. Loss from operations resulted from general and administrative expenses, which increased from $291,939 to $381,050 in the three month periods ended June 30, 2010 and 2011, research and development, which decreased from $195,398 to $1,000 in the three month periods ended June 30, 2010 and 2011, and interest expense, which decreased from $92,202 to $25,286 in the three month periods ended June 30, 2010 and 2011.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

In connection with our current liabilities of $1,631,341 as at June 30, 2011, we had the note payable to Caete Invest Trade, S.A. of $179,572, a convertible debenture of $575,000 and accounts payable of $198,530, accrued professional fees of $231,525 and related party payables of $301,164.

On November 1, 2009, the Company issued a $242,000 promissory note to Caete Invest Trade, S.A. maturing on October 31, 2010. The note bears interest at the rate of 10% per annum and is payable at maturity. The face amount of the note plus accrued interest is convertible into unregistered common stock of the company at the lesser of 100% of the volume weighted average price ("VWAP") of common stock as reported by Bloomberg L.P. on the day prior to the conversion date and a 15% discount to the lowest daily closing "VWAP" of common stock during the five days prior to the conversion date. The Company, in accordance with EITF 98-5 and 00-27, utilized the Market approach to value the debt instrument and concluded that a beneficial conversion feature exists since the effective conversion price of shares was less than the stock price at commitment date. The 15% discount created a beneficial conversion feature at the commitment date aggregating $36,300 which was accreted monthly from the issuance date of the promissory note through maturity and was being recorded as additional interest expense. On February 4, 2010, $62,428 of the loan was repaid. The note is currently in default. At June 30, 2011 and March 31, 2011 and December 31, 2010, the loan balance is $179,572.

At June 30, 2011, the related party payables of $301,164 consists of: (a) expenses paid by the Chief Executive Officer on behalf of the Company aggregating $147,038; (b) compensation due other consultants deemed to be shareholders aggregating $76,126; and (c) unpaid rent payable to companies owned and controlled by the Chief Executive Officer and his wife aggregating $78,000.

On January 21, 2010, the Company owed its Chief Executive Officer approximately $376,560 for salary and expenditures paid by him on behalf of the company. The company and its Chief Executive Officer agreed to formalize a portion of the debt and issued a $172,364 promissory note maturing on January 21, 2012. The note bears interest at the rate of 10% per annum and is payable at maturity. The face amount of the loan plus accrued interest was convertible into unregistered common stock of the company at the lesser of 100% of the volume weighted average price ("VWAP") of common stock as reported by Bloomberg L.P. on the day prior to the conversion date and a 15% discount to the lowest daily closing "VWAP" of common stock during the five days prior to the conversion date. The Company in accordance with EITF 98-5 and 00-27 utilized the Market approach to value the debt instrument and concluded that a beneficial conversion feature exists since the effective conversion price of shares was less than the stock price at commitment date. The 15% discount created a beneficial conversion feature at the commitment date aggregating $25,855 will be accreted monthly from the issuance date of the promissory note through maturity and will be recorded as additional interest expense. During the three months ended March 31, 2011, the Company repaid $45,000 of the loan. Accordingly, at June 30, 2011 and March 31, 2011 and December 31, 2010, the balance of the loan is $119,415 and $161,371 net of the unamortized discount of $7,949 and $10,993, respectively.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND ESTIMATES

Our discussion and analysis of our financial condition and results of operations are based upon our financial statements, which have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. The preparation of these financial statements requires us to make estimates and judgments that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses, and related disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. On an on-going basis, we evaluate our estimates, including those related to bad debts, income taxes and contingencies and litigation. We base our estimates on historical experience and on various other assumptions that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results may differ from these estimates under different assumptions or conditions.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosure About Market Risk.

Not applicable.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

Responsibility For Financial Information — Management is responsible for the preparation, accuracy, integrity and objectivity of the Consolidated Financial Statements and the other financial information included in this report. Such information has been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and accordingly, includes certain amounts that represent management's best estimates and judgments. Actual amounts could differ from those estimates.

Responsibility for Internal Controls — Management is also responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal controls over financial reporting. These internal controls consist of policies and procedures that are designed to assess and monitor the effectiveness of the control environment including: risk identification, governance structure, delegations of authority, information flow, communications and control activities. While no system of internal controls can ensure elimination of all errors and irregularities, Novo Energies Corporation's internal controls, which are reviewed and modified in response to changing conditions, have been designed to provide reasonable assurance that assets are safeguarded, policies and procedures are followed, transactions are properly executed and reported, and appropriate disclosures are made. The concept of reasonable assurance is based on the recognition that there are limitations in all systems of internal control and that the costs of such systems should be balanced with their benefits.

Report On Internal Control Over Financial Reporting — The Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer have evaluated the Company' internal control over financial reporting as of March 31, 2011. This evaluation was based on criteria for effective internal control over financial reporting set forth in Internal Control — Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission. Based on this evaluation, management has concluded that the Company's internal control over financial reporting is not effective as of March 31, 2011 due to the following material weaknesses: (a) we have a single director, (b) we do not have an audit committee, and (c) there is no segregation of duties in connection with our accounting. The Company is striving to improve on timely reporting and financial controls. The Company has determined that the material weaknesses identified by the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer were in effect for the entire year ended March 31, 2011. The Company recognizes the material weaknesses and is taking the following action to mitigate them: (1) we are adding two additional members to our Board of Directors, one being an outside director, (2) we have retained a local accounting firm to assist us in expediting our financial reporting process and (3) we continue to pursue new methods for making our financial reporting process more effective and efficient. The annual report did not include an attestation report of the company's registered public accounting firm regarding internal control over financial reporting. Management's report was not subject to attestation by the Company's registered public accounting firm pursuant to rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission that permit the company to provide only management's report in the annual report.

During the most recently completed fiscal quarter, there has been no change in our internal control over financial reporting that has materially affected or is reasonably likely to materially affect our internal controls over financial reporting.

Report On Disclosure Controls And Procedures — As of June 30, 2011, management carried out an evaluation of the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures pursuant to Rule 13a-15 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"). Based upon that evaluation, it concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures are not effective in ensuring that information required to be disclosed in its periodic filings under the Exchange Act is accumulated and communicated to us to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosures, and such information is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the Securities and Exchange Commission's rules and forms.

PART II - OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1. Legal Proceedings.

None.

Item 1A. Risk Factors.

Not applicable.

Item 2. Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities and Use of Proceeds.

During the three months ended June 30, 2011, the Company, under a private placement agreement, sold 7,250,000 shares of its common stock aggregating $362,500.

Item 3. Defaults Upon Senior Securities.

On November 1, 2009, the Company issued a $242,000 promissory note to Caete Invest Trade, S.A. maturing on October 31, 2010. The note bears interest at the rate of 10% per annum and is payable at maturity. The face amount of the note plus accrued interest is convertible into unregistered common stock of the company at the lesser of 100% of the volume weighted average price ("VWAP") of common stock as reported by Bloomberg L.P. on the day prior to the conversion date and a 15% discount to the lowest daily closing "VWAP" of common stock during the five days prior to the conversion date. The Company, in accordance with EITF 98-5 and 00-27, utilized the Market approach to value the debt instrument and concluded that a beneficial conversion feature exists since the effective conversion price of shares was less than the stock price at commitment date. The 15% discount created a beneficial conversion feature at the commitment date aggregating $36,300 which was accreted monthly from the issuance date of the promissory note through maturity and was being recorded as additional interest expense. On February 4, 2010, $62,428 of the loan was repaid. The note is currently in default. At June 30, 2011 and March 31, 2011 and December 31, 2010, the loan balance is $179,572.

Item 4. (Removed and Reserved)

Item 5. Other Information.

Subsequent to the quarter ended June 30, 2011 the Company through various private placements sold approximately 2,000,000 shares of its common stock at $0.05 per share aggregating $100,000.

On July 11, 2011, Green Eagle Corp., a principal agent for certain investors, converted the secured convertible debenture into 10,000,000 shares of the Company common stock. While the Company has an obligation to issue these shares, as of August 22, 2011, it has not done so.

On July 13, 2011, Sanders Ortolí Vaughn-Flan Rosenstadt, LLP, the Company's counsel, converted $100,000 of debt, owed to it for services rendered and expenses incurred prior to December 31, 2010, into 1,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock. While the Company has an obligation to issue these shares, as of August 22, 2011, it has not done so.

The shares mentioned above were issued in reliance on exemptions from registration under Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Act"). These transactions qualified for exemption from registration because among other things, the transactions did not involve a public offering, each investor was an accredited investor, each investor had access to information about our Company and their investment, each investor took the securities for investment and not resale, and we took appropriate measures to restrict the transfer of the securities.
